The Representative Session assembled on Tuesday, July 23, and concluded its business on Saturday, July 27. The Pastoral Session assembled on Tuesday, July 30, and completed its business on Wednesday, August 7. At the end of each Session the Minutes of the Session were read. The several Minutes of both Sessions were adopted by the Legal Conference.

In the following pages, the business which belongs to the Representative Session is placed first; that belonging to the Pastoral Session, second; and then follows that which stands in relation to both.

The Conference in its Representative Session consisted of such Members of the Legal Conference as had declared at the May Meeting of the District Synods their intention to attend, and of such Ministers and Laymen as were duly chosen.

For the names of those so chosen, see Appendix I.

The Conference in its Pastoral Session consisted, in addition to such Members of the Legal Conference as were able to be present, of such other Ministers as had been authorised to attend.

SECTION I.

THE REPRESENTATIVE SESSION.

COMMITTEE OF PRIVILEGES.

Q. I. What are the Committees for Guarding our Privileges during the ensuing year?

A. 1. The ORDINARY COMMITTEE: which shall have full power to take action in all cases affecting our Connexional or public interests, unless in its judgment, or in the judgment of the President of the Conference, it is deemed expedient to refer any case to the Extraordinary Committee named below.

The Ordinary Committee shall meet whenever it is convened either by direction of the President of the Conference or by its Secretaries, and shall consist of:

(1) The ex officio Members : the President of the Conference, Rev. W. Theophilus Davison, M.A., D.D. ; the Ex-President, Rev. Thomas Allen, D.D. ; the Secretary of the Conference, Rev. Marshall Hartley ; the Book Steward, Rev. Charles H. Kelly ; the Connexional Editor, Rev. William L. Watkinson ; two of the General Secretaries of the Missionary Society, Rev. Frederic W. Macdonald and William Perkins ; the Secretary of the Chapel Fund, Rev. John Hornabrook ; the Secretary of the Metropolitan Chapel Building Fund, Rev. John Bond ; the General Secretary of the Home Mission Fund, Rev. Henry J. Pope, D.D. ; the Secretary of the Education Fund, Rev. David J. Waller, D.D., LL.D. ; the senior Secretary of the Lord's Day Committee, Rev. James Finch ; the Secretary of the Temperance Committee, Rev. G. Armstrong Bennetts, B.A. ; the Lay General Treasurer of the Wesleyan Missionary Society, Mr. Williamson Lamplough ; one of the Lay Treasurers of the Education Fund, Mr. Thomas Barnsley ; the senior Lay Treasurer of the Chapel Fund, Mr. William Tunstill ; the Lay Treasurer of the Home Mission Fund, Mr. Thomas Walker ; and one of the Lay Treasurers of the Fund for the Extension of Methodism in Great Britain, Mr. Alexander M'Arthur, D.L.

(2) Fifteen Ministers :

Rev. Richard W. Allen,
„ Albert Clayton,
„ Robert Culley,
„ Nehemiah Curnock (B),
„ George Fletcher,
„ Walford Green,
„ Hugh Price Hughes, M.A.,

Rev. J. Scott Lidgett, M.A.,
„ Isaiah Parker,
„ Dr. Rigg,
„ Dr. Stephenson,
„ Peter Thompson,
„ John E. Wakerley,
„ William D. Walters.

(3) Twelve Laymen in or near London :

Mr. Percy W. Bunting, M.A.,
Sir George Hayter Chubb, Bart.,
Mr. George Corderoy,
Rt. Hon. Sir Henry Fowler, G.C.S.I., M.P.,
Mr. Henry Holloway,
„ William A. M'Arthur, M.P.,
Mr. Robert W. Perks, M.P.,
„ Digby F. Shillington,
„ J. Bamford Slack, B.A.,
Sir Clarence Smith,
Mr. H. Arthur Smith, M.A.,
His Hon. Judge Waddy, K.C.

(4) Eight Laymen from the Country:

Mr. John Cooper,
„ Charles Heap,
„ William Hunt,
„ William Mewburn,
Mr. William Middlebrook,
„ Ebenezer Parkes, M.P.,
„ Walter Runciman,
Sir George Smith.

The Rev. J. Scott Lidgett, M.A., and Mr. Percy W. Bunting, M.A., are re-appointed Secretaries to this Committee.

2. The Extraordinary Committee, which shall have full power to take action in all cases affecting our Connexional interests, and shall meet whenever the Ordinary Committee or the President of the Conference shall convene it, shall consist of all the Members of the Ordinary Committee; the Chairmen of Districts; the Lay General Treasurers of Connexional Funds, though not Members of the Ordinary Committee; with the following gentlemen selected from the Lay Representatives to the Conference elected by the several District Synods:

Mr. George W. Kilner,
„ William J. Davey,
„ John J. Boutwood,
„ William T. Pickbourne,
„ Walter W. Berry,
„ Alfred Jermyn,
„ John W. Righton,
„ William C. McLoughlin,
„ Peter Le Page,
„ Richard Edgcumbe,
„ John H. Holman,
„ Ebenezer Culverwell,
„ S. Fox Andrews,
„ Charles W. Slater,
„ William N. Jones,
„ R. Gwaenys Davies,
„ William Bayliss,
Mr. William J. Dutton,
„ William H. Smith,
„ Charles H. Nowell,
„ Robert Simpson,
„ John Henry Beaver,
„ Charles Atkinson,
„ Charles Theobald,
„ William J. Alcock,
„ Edward Harrison,
„ John H. Dixon,
„ George Banks,
„ Joseph H. Walker,
„ Thomas H. Bainbridge,
„ Thomas W. Little,
„ John Clague,
„ Herbert B. Law,
„ James Bain.

The Rev. J. Scott Lidgett, M.A., and Mr. Percy W. Bunting, M.A., are re-appointed Secretaries to this Committee.

3. The Conference adopts the Report of the Committee.

4. The Conference declares its strenuous opposition to any change in the wording of the King's Declaration on his Accession or in the Coronation Oath which would, in the slightest degree, weaken the guarantees of the Protestant Succession.

5. The Conference instructs the Committee to press forward by all means in its power a Bill for the enfranchisement of leasehold chapel and school property, and to secure a special return, in conjunction with the Chapel Committee, through the District Chapel Secretaries, of all leasehold chapels and schools, together with particulars in each case as to the length of the lease and the number of years it has to run.

6. The Conference refers back to the Committee of Privileges the questions dealt with by the following Bills :

(1) Places of Worship (Sites) Bill.

(2) Rating of Places of Worship and Schools Bill.

And also

(3) The question of the formal recognition of Wesleyan Ministers as chaplains in Workhouses and Jails.

7. The Conference again directs the Committee to consider during the year the electoral disadvantages to which Wesleyan Methodist Ministers are subject in consequence of the Itinerancy, and to take such legal action as may be advisable in order to the removal of such disadvantages.

8. The Conference is of opinion that Rule 59, made by the Home Secretary on April 21, 1899, as to the visitation of prisoners in jail is entirely unsatisfactory, and asks for the restoration of Rule 47 of Schedule 1 of the Prisons Act of 1865.

9. Preaching in Open Spaces.—The Conference directs the Superintendents of Circuits to communicate information to the Committee as to any existing or proposed bye-laws in their Circuits which conflict with the decision of Parliament in the Eastbourne and Rhyl cases.

10. Roman Catholic University for Ireland.—The Conference again directs the Committee of Privileges to co-operate with the Committee of Privileges appointed by the Irish Conference in opposing the Establishment and Endowment out of Public Funds of a Denominational University in Ireland.

11. The Use of Garrison Churches in India.—The Conference expresses its condemnation of the injustice done to the Wesleyan Methodist Church in India, by the consecration of the only Protestant Garrison Church to the exclusive use of one Denomination, in cases where such Church has been or may be built wholly or mainly out of Public Funds.

The Conference further protests against the ultimate appeal as to the use of such Churches being to the Metropolitan of the Church of England in India, instead of the Commander-in-Chief or to the Civil Authority.

The Conference refers these aspects of the subject to the Committee for the ensuing year; and directs it to co-operate with the Army and Navy Sub-Committee, so far as the practical questions relating to proper provision for Wesleyan Methodist worship in the Indian Army are concerned, if such co-operation shall be found desirable.

12. Marriage Act, 1898.—The Conference again strongly recommends that the Act be immediately adopted in every Wesleyan Methodist Chapel in England and Wales which is registered for the solemnisation of Marriage.

By the provisions of the Act Nonconformists are not only relieved of the presence of the Registrar, but they can arrange their weddings at such times as may be most convenient to themselves, without consulting, as hitherto, the arrangements of that officer. The fees now payable to the Registrar are slightly reduced, and will in ten years entirely disappear. The only burden imposed upon the officiating ministers is the duty of filling up a register in duplicate, one copy to be kept at the chapel, and the other to be forwarded, when full, to the Superintendent-Registrar. Persons officiating under the Act are entitled to give to the parties marrying the usual certificates, for which they are entitled to make the customary charge; and they are also entitled to give certificated copies from time to time of entries in the chapel registers.

The Conference expresses its hope that such regulations of the Registrar-General as are unnecessarily strong and complex may be amended, and remits this question to the consideration of the Committee.

N.B.—Forms by which the "Authorised Person" may give notice of removal, and by which Trustees may notify the name of his successor to the Registrar-General, may be obtained from the Book-Room.

13. Burial Laws.—Clause 8 of the Burial Act, 1900, is as follows: "The notice to be given of intention to bury in a burial-ground maintained by a burial authority shall be given at such a time and to such a person as the burial authority may direct; and so much of Section 1 of the Burial Laws Amendment Act, 1880, as requires forty-eight hours' notice to be given in any such case shall be repealed."

at the time of holding any Meeting of the General Committee, shall be entitled to attend and to vote with the Committee.

4. Day of Intercession.—The Conference appoints the first Monday in October to be observed throughout the Connexion as an Annual Day of Intercession for Foreign Missions; and recommends that Sermons be preached on the previous Sunday, setting forth the duty of the Church to Christ and the heathen world.

5. Synod Missionary Committees.—The Conference calls attention to its directions of last year with regard to Synod Missionary Committees (Minutes, 1900, p. 240), and urges upon the Districts a more general and complete observance of the same.

6. Probationers in Foreign Synods.—The Conference directs that in Missionary Districts any Probationer who is in charge of a Station, and has responsibility as a Superintendent, shall be allowed to vote, but not on questions affecting Ministerial status.

7. West Indies.—The Conference, recognising the serious difficulties in which the West Indian Conferences are placed, and their urgent need of financial assistance, refers this matter to the favourable consideration of the Missionary Committee, and authorises a public appeal on behalf of these Conferences at such time and in such manner as may seem desirable to the Committee.

8. Women's Auxiliary.—Communications to be addressed to Mrs. Wiseman, 25, Queen's Avenue, Muswell Hill, London, N.

(7) The thanks of the Conference are presented to the various Officers and Committees of the Fund, and to the District Treasurers of the Maintenance Section, for the faithful discharge of the duties of their respective offices; also to Mr. Henry Whinnerah, Honorary Auditor of the Trinity Hall School Accounts.

(8) The General Committee shall meet during the ensuing year on Friday, November 15, in Bath; on Friday, March 21, 1902, in Southport; and on Friday, June 27, in London.

2. Income of the Fund.

The Conference directs:

(1) The amounts to be raised in each District for the general purposes of the Children's Fund (Maintenance and Education), shall be as set forth in Schedule B.

(2) Ministers in Departments, and those without pastoral charge, shall be assessed for the Maintenance Section of the Fund at £20 each, and shall pay the assessments for which they are liable in respect of this Section to the Rev. G. STRINGER ROWE.

(3) No children's allowances can be claimed by Ministers on whose behalf the ordinary assessment has not been paid.

(4) All Ministers in Full Connexion with the Conference shall subscribe half a guinea per annum; and the payment by Ministers in Circuits and Departments, having children at the Schools, of £2 for each child at school, shall be, as heretofore, in addition to the subscription of half a guinea.

(5) The Education Section of the Fund shall be made self-adjusting upon the lines already adopted in respect of the Maintenance Section. The extra charge upon each Circuit calling out an additional Minister is therefore £2 per annum during the period of probation, and £4 per annum afterwards.

3. Kingswood School.

The Conference directs:

(1) The School Year shall begin in September; and not later than May 1 the name and age of every applicant for admission must be sent to the Rev. WILLIAM FOSTER, B.A., Colwyn Bay, Denbighshire. Under special circumstances admission may take place at other times than September. Boys shall not in general be admitted before the age of ten.

N.B.—In the case of boys admitted by vote of the Governing Body under the age of ten, or at any other period of the year than September, the parent may be required by the Governing Body to pay for the portion of that year at the rate of £25. Such parents receive the privileges detailed in § 5 (p. 23).

(2) Entrance Examination. An examination will be set in elementary English subjects suitable to boys of about the age of eleven. A graduated age allowance will be made for younger boys, while older boys will be expected to reach a correspondingly higher standard, and boys above the age of twelve will be expected to show some knowledge of Latin and French. A specimen examination paper will be sent by the Headmaster, Mr. WALTER P. WORKMAN, M.A., B.Sc., upon receipt of a stamped envelope.

(3) Residence. The ordinary time of residence shall be six years, provided that the education allowances have either not been received or have been returned (see § 5 (4), p. 23).

(4) Scholarships. The terms of election shall be fixed by the Governing Body. So far as is consonant with the trusts affecting them, the Scholarships shall be awarded as a general rule to boys in their seventeenth year. Some shall be reserved for those who have already held one Scholarship. The Exhibition upon the Foundation of the late John Fernley shall be tenable at any place of higher education.

(5) Extra Years. The scale of payment shall be as follows:

Sons of Supernumeraries and Widows ...	£22
Boys recommended by the Governor and Headmaster as being "near to winning a Scholarship"	£25
For all others	£30

Such payments shall be due in four equal instalments, one on each quarter day.

Ministers whose sons hold Scholarships or have secured an extra year shall not be liable for the additional Assessment (vide § 2 (4), p. 19).

Such Ministers shall be entitled to the six guineas from the Maintenance Section; and, unless they have already received for six years, to the £12 for Education.

(6) Notice of Removal from School. Parents having children at the School shall be required to give three months' notice before the removal of such child or children. In the event of parents not giving such notice, the officers of the Fund shall be authorised to withhold three months' allowances, which would otherwise be payable for each such child or children. If a boy to whom an extra year has been granted be withdrawn without the required three months' notice, the parent or guardian shall pay one-fourth of the sum charged for the extra year in lieu of such notice.

(7) The School Year shall be divided into three terms.

(8) The application of the rule respecting the clothing of the sons of necessitous Supernumeraries or Widows shall be left to the discretion of the General Committee.

(9) Travelling expenses, for this year, remain at the rate of £2 10*s.* per annum.

4. Trinity Hall School.

The Conference directs:

(1) The School Year shall begin in September, and not later than May 1 the name and age of every applicant for admission shall be sent to the Rev. Ralph M. Spoor, 90, Cheriton Road, Folkestone. Under special circumstances admission may take place at other times than September. Girls shall not, in general, be admitted before the age of twelve.

N.B.—Special applications for admission in January, 1902, must be sent not later than November 1, 1901.

(2) Entrance Examination.

Reading: A few lines of poetry selected by the examiner.
Writing (Small Hand): Eight lines to be slowly dictated from a reading-book. This will also be a test of spelling.

Arithmetic: The Four Simple Rules and the Four Compound Rules (Money and Weights and Measures).
Geography: Outlines of the Geography of Europe in general, and particularly of England.
Grammar: To parse simple sentences correctly and readily.
History: To have a fair knowledge of Bible History and of the History of England.
Plain Needlework.

The Examination shall be graduated according to the age of the girl, or other circumstances, at the discretion of the Governing Body.

(3) Residence. The ordinary term of residence shall be four years for girls on whose behalf not more than two educational payments have been made previous to their entrance at School. Every such payment in excess of two shall diminish the time of residence at the School.

(4) Extra Years. The scale of payment shall be as follows:

Daughters of Supernumeraries and Widows ... £22
For all others £30

Such payments shall be due in four equal instalments, one on each quarter day.

Ministers whose daughters hold Scholarships, or have secured an extra year, shall not be liable for the additional Assessment (see § 2 (4), p. 19).

Such Ministers shall be entitled to the six guineas from the Maintenance Section; and, unless they have already received for six years, to the £12 for Education.

(5) Notice of Removal from School. The Regulation for Kingswood School (§ 3 (6), p. 21) shall, mutatis mutandis, apply to Trinity Hall School.

(6) Vacations. The School Year at Trinity Hall School shall be divided into three terms.

5. Educational Allowances for Children not at the Schools.

The Conference directs:

(1) Payments shall be made at Conference for the calendar year then current.

(2) Parents may begin to claim for their children when they are nine, ten, eleven, or twelve years of age on the preceding Christmas Day; but the first claim for a child who is twelve years of age on or before any Christmas Day must be made at the following Conference at the latest.

(3) Parents who have once begun to claim shall receive their payments annually. This regulation shall not apply in the case of a candidate for admission to the Schools who has passed the Entrance Examination, but for whom there is not room at the next following re-opening.

(4) Return of Educational Allowances. Any Educational Allowance may be returned within the calendar year in which it is received. Educational allowances received in previous years may be returned, provided that Simple Interest is paid thereon at the rate of 5 per cent. per annum for such period as they have been held.

(5) Circuit Schedules. Not later than March 1 each Superintendent shall send to the Rev. JOHN KINNINGS, The Avenue, Blackheath, S.E., a particular account of all claims for Educational Allowances in his Circuit; specifying distinctly the names of the children for whose education the claims are made, together with the date, year, and place of their birth, and the exact number of years during which the allowance has been received. No claim to be entered upon this schedule for children at the Schools.

CHAPEL AFFAIRS.

Q. V. What are the Resolutions of the Conference with regard to Chapel Affairs?

A. 1. The Conference receives and adopts the Report of the Committee.

2. The Conference authorises the President, during the year, to affix his signature to any consent to the sale of Trust Property which may be certified to him as approved by the Chapel Committee.

3. Irregular Chapel Cases.—The Conference receives the Report.

The Conference directs the Chapel Committee to send to the several District Synods the particulars of those cases in which, in the opinion of the Committee, it is desirable that special inquiry should be made from time to time, until it shall appear that the conditions of erection or enlargement have been fulfilled.

The Conference further directs the District Synods to call the attention of the Trustees to those cases in which the proportion of debt is excessively heavy, or the proceedings wholly irregular, and to communicate the judgment of the District Synod to the Trustees through the Superintendents.

4. Mr. William Tunstill, of Nelson, and Mr. John Cooper, of Manchester, are re-appointed Treasurers of the General Chapel Fund.

5. The Rev. John Hornabrook is the General Secretary of the Chapel Committee.

6. The Committee for the ensuing year shall consist of the Rev. W. Theophilus Davison, M.A., D.D., President of the Conference; Thomas Allen, D.D., Ex-President; Marshall Hartley, Secretary; the Treasurers of the Chapel Fund; the Secretary of the Chapel Committee; and the GIFTS OF CHAPELS AND OTHER TRUST PROPERTY.

The respectful thanks of the Conference are presented—

1. To Mr. William J. Pechey, Bury Road, Thetford, for the gift of a School at Thetford, in the Thetford Circuit, at a cost of £350.

2. To Mr. John Highfield, Moore, Cheshire, for the enlargement of the School premises at Moore, in the Warrington Circuit, at a cost of £450.

3. To Mr. Joseph Shepheard, Torpoint, Cornwall, for the gift of a House adjoining the Chapel at Torpoint, in Devonport (Gloucester Street) Circuit, value £300.

4. To Mr. Frederick W. Brampton, Brockencote Hall, Kidderminster, for the gift of "Maney Institute," in the Birmingham (Sutton Park) Circuit, value £400.

5. To the Executors of the late Mr. George Wheen, Gamelands, Horeham Road, Eastbourne, for the erection of a Chapel at Gamelands, in the Eastbourne Circuit, at a cost of £500.

6. To Mr. Sidney Hill, Langford House, Langford, for the erection of a Chapel and Vestry at Sandford, in the Banwell Circuit, at a cost of £1,530.

7. To Messrs. Holloway Bros., Victoria Wharf, Westminster Bridge Road, London, for the erection of a Chapel at Littleton Panell, in the Wiltshire Mission, at a cost of £900.

Death of Mr. Thomas Willshaw.

It is with unfeigned sorrow that the Conference records the death of Mr. Thomas Willshaw, who for many years past has rendered conspicuous service in the administration of our Chapel affairs. His sound judgment and practical knowledge were of the utmost value, especially in the consideration of the plans for new erections. His suggestions were always made with great diffidence, but they were most helpful in guiding the Committee. Many of the Trusts in different parts of the Connexion are indebted to Mr. Willshaw for wholesome advice as to the structure of their buildings. Mr. Willshaw was a loyal and devoted member of the Chapel Committee. He was rarely absent, and entered with loving enthusiasm into all its varied operations. The Conference is deeply sensible of the loss it has sustained by his removal, and will find it very difficult to fill his place. The services which he rendered in connexion with the Central Hall premises are known only to those who had to do with their erection; whilst his sympathy with every form of Christian enterprise led him from the first to devote all his energies to the work of the Manchester Mission. The high Christian character of Mr. Willshaw won for him the esteem of every member of the Committee, and endeared him to all with whom he was associated. The Conference glorifies God in him, and prays that the Church may never lack a succession of men who will emulate his spirit. The Conference desires to convey to the family of the late Mr. Willshaw the assurance of its deep sympathy with them in their sad loss, and prays that they may be graciously sustained.

Returns of Accommodation.

In view of the National Census, and in accordance with the resolution adopted by the Conference of 1873 directing that returns as to the accommodation provided in all Wesleyan Methodist Chapels and Preaching-places be obtained as soon as possible after each National Census, the Conference now directs the Chapel Committee, during the present year, to provide suitable forms for obtaining the above returns. It further directs that the results thus obtained shall be tabulated, and presented by the Chapel Committee to the Conference as soon as possible.

Llandrindrod Wells.

The Conference authorises the Chapel Committee and the Home Mission Committee jointly to advance a loan of £2,000 at such rate of interest as the two Committees may determine for a site at Llandrindrod Wells, the site to be held by a Connexional Trust which shall be an interim Trust for the repayment of the loan, the property thereafter to be settled upon the trusts of the Chapel Model Deed.

RELIEF AND EXTENSION FUND FOR METHODISM IN SCOTLAND.

1. The Conference receives and approves the Report of the Committee.

2. The Conference directs that Annual Collections on behalf of the Fund be made in all our chapels in Scotland on the Lord's day, and recommends that the annual income be further augmented by Donations and Subscriptions; and also resolves that, in the May Synod of the Scotland District, the interests of this Fund shall be considered when the Connexional Funds are under review.

3. The Conference hereby consents to and approves of the appointment by the General Committee of John Marshall, journalist, Glasgow, and William Doig, chemist, Dundee, to be non-official Trustees under the Deed of Trust of the said Relief and Extension Fund, and authorises the President and Secretary of the Conference to execute and deliver for and on behalf of the Conference in concurrence with the General Committee of the said Relief and Extension Fund a Deed of Assumption of the said John Marshall and William Doig as Trustees aforesaid in terms of a draft thereof now submitted.

4. The General Treasurers and Secretaries of the Fund shall be appointed by the Committee at its Meeting to be held in connexion with the September Synod of the Scotland District.

The following persons, who have, in accordance with the Constitution of the Fund, been nominated by the Scotland District Synod, shall be the Committee for the ensuing year; viz. the Superintendent Minister of each Circuit in the Scotland District, the Rev. 2. The Lay Treasurers and the Honorary Lay Secretary of this Fund, for the time being, are ex officio members of the Scotland District Synod during the transaction of the Financial and Statistical Business of the District.

METROPOLITAN CHAPEL BUILDING FUND.

1. The Conference adopts the Report of the Committee, showing an unusually large expenditure within a single year, and directs that an Abstract of it be printed in the Minutes. (See Appendix VI.)

2. The Conference, recognising the great benefits the Fund has conferred on Metropolitan Methodism and the cause of Christ generally, calls on all Metropolitan Methodists, and especially on the Trustees and all others interested in the one hundred and thirteen Chapels already aided by this Fund, to sustain it to the utmost of their power, that sufficient means may be provided for the further development of Methodism in this immense and ever-growing Metropolis. It trusts also that the Methodists of the Provinces will heartily assist their London brethren in this movement.

3. The thanks of the Conference are presented to the General Treasurers, His Hon. Judge WADDY, K.C., and Mr. ALEXANDER M'ARTHUR, D.L., and to the Committee of the Fund, for their services during the past year.

4. The following are re-appointed the Officers for the ensuing year: viz. His Hon. Judge WADDY, K.C., and Mr. ALEXANDER M'ARTHUR, D.L., Treasurers; Rev. JOHN BOND, General Secretary; Sir CLARENCE SMITH, Rev. WILLIAM D. WALTERS, Rev. THOMAS E. WESTERDALE, and Rev. JABEZ INGRAM, Assistant Secretaries.

The Committee for the ensuing year shall consist of:

1. The ex officio Members: viz. the Rev. W. THEOPHILUS DAVISON, M.A., D.D., President of the Conference; Rev. MARSHALL HARTLEY, Secretary of the Conference; the Treasurers, General Secretary, and Assistant Secretaries of this Fund; the Secretary of the Chapel Committee; and the Secretary of the Home Mission Fund.

2. The elected Members:

(1) By the Conference: fifteen Laymen of the London Districts who are Annual Subscribers, and such a number of Ministers as will equalise the number of Laymen and Ministers; including the Chairmen of the three London Districts, namely—the Rev. Josiah Banham, George Charter, William J. Cooke, Robert Culley, George Denton, John H. Goodman, Isaiah Parker, E. Lightwood Smith, and T. Wynne Jones.

The following are the fifteen laymen:

Mr. Abraham J. Brook,

„ George W. Kilner,
„ George W. Munt,
„ Henry T. Northcroft,
Mr. Charles Penny,
„ William R. Rider,
„ James Smith,
„ Henry Somerford,
„ Charles J. Thomas,
„ John W. Thomas,
„ W. Lisle Williams.

(2) By the London District Synods: four Ministers and four Laymen in each District, at its September District Synod.

HOME MISSION FUND.

Q. VI. What are the Resolutions of the Conference in reference to the Home Mission Fund, and other Home Mission Affairs?

A. I. Financial Statement.

1. The Conference receives the Treasurers' Account for 1899–1900, and Report of Income and Expenditure to the Conference of 1901.

2. The Conference rejoices to learn that the direction given last year that a Home Missionary Meeting should be held in every chapel and preaching-place in the Connexion has been generally acted upon, and that, in consequence, such additional income has been secured for the Home Mission Fund as will compensate for the balance of loss sustained by this Fund in relinquishing the Yearly Collection. The Conference repeats its direction that a Home Missionary Meeting shall be held, and a collection at such meeting made, in every chapel and preaching-place in the Connexion.

II. Grants.

The Conference receives and adopts the Report of the Committee as follows:

1. The Committee has voted £8,959 0*s.* 6*d.* to dependent Circuits, £4,151 5*s.* towards the support of Home Missionary Ministers for the ensuing year, and £3,123 5*s.* to District Home Mission Committees.

2. The applications for aid in several other cases have been postponed pending further inquiry.

III. Pledges to provide for Married Ministers.

The Conference receives and adopts the Report of the Committee as follows:

1. Twenty Circuits are under pledge to provide for married Ministers at this Conference. Of these, sixteen will duly fulfil their obligations according to promise; viz. London (Finsbury Park), Clacton-on-Sea, Bromley, Redhill, Higham Ferrers, Gravesend and Dartford, Southampton, Wrexham, Manchester (Pendleton), Manchester (Longsight), Manchester (Droylsden), Chorley, Morley, Chesterfield, Ashby-de-la-Zouch, Newcastle (Brunswick).

2. In four other cases compensation for delay will be paid to the Fund.

3. Additional houses will also be provided in the following cases: London Mission (West) at the end of two years; London (Great Queen Street) and Aldershot (Army work) at the end of three years; Macclesfield District Missionary and Sheffield Mission at the beginning of the first year. Also, previously due: London Garrison (1897), Pontypridd (1894), Aberdare (Welsh) (1898), Conway (1897), Birmingham (Wesley) (1900), Falkirk Mission (1900).

IV. Alteration, Amalgamation, or Division of Circuits.

The Chelmsford and Maldon Circuits to be united.

The Hinde Street and St. John's Wood Circuits to be united.

The Ker Street Chapel and trust property to be transferred from the Devonport (Belmont) Circuit to Devonport (Garrison and Naval Port).

The halls, chapels, and other trust property of the Birmingham Mission to be included in one Mission Circuit, to be termed Birmingham Mission (Central).

Lutterworth to be transferred from the Hinckley Circuit to the Rugby Circuit; and Claybrooke to be placed under the charge of the Superintendent of the Rugby Circuit.

Cauldon Road, Stoke, and Trent Vale to be separated from the Hanley Circuit and constituted a Home Mission Circuit, to be called the Hanley (Cauldon Road) Mission.

George Street Chapel to be transferred from the Manchester (Radnor Street) Circuit to the Manchester and Salford Mission.

Spring Gardens in the Bolton (Wesley) Circuit to be transferred to the Bolton Mission.

Eastbrook Chapel, Bradford, to be separated from the Circuit of which it is now the head, and formed into a Mission Circuit, to be called for the present "Bradford (Eastbrook) Mission." The Synod is requested to consider favourably a proposal that after this year it should be designated "Bradford Mission (Eastbrook Hall)."

The Snaith Circuit to be transferred from the Hull to the Leeds District.

The Dundee (Ward Road) and the Dundee (Victoria Road) Circuits to be united.

The Alexandria and Dumbarton Circuits to be united, under the name of The Vale of Leven.

V. Connexional Evangelists.

The Conference consents, on the request of the Committee, to the re-appointment of four married Ministers and one unmarried Minister as Connexional Evangelists, if the Pastoral Session of the Conference has a sufficient number of Ministers at its disposal for the purpose.

VI. Special Mission Committees.

The Conference authorises the Synods in the cases aftermentioned to appoint Special Committees to advise and assist in the management of these Missions, and directs the Quarterly Meetings concerned to act in harmony with the Committees so appointed :

Second London	Wandsworth Road Mission.
Second London	Surrey and North Hampshire Mission.
Third London...	Sussex Mission (East).
Third London...	Sussex Mission (Central).
East Anglia	East Suffolk Mission.
Portsmouth	South Hampshire Mission.
Cornwall	North Cornwall Mission.
Exeter...	Devon and Dorset Mission.
Bristol and Bath	Bristol Mission.
Bristol and Bath	Wiltshire Mission.
Cardiff and Swansea... ...	Cardiff Mission.
Macclesfield	Buxton (Devonshire Park) Mission.
Macclesfield	Hanley (Cauldon Road) Mission.
Halifax and Bradford ...	Bradford (Eastbrook) Mission.
Nottingham and Derby ...	Nottingham (Halifax Place) Mission.
Hull	Hull Mission.

Whitby and Darlington	...	Wensleydale Mission.
Newcastle-on-Tyne ...	...	Newcastle Mission.
Newcastle-on-Tyne ...	...	Sunderland (Sans Street) Mission.
Scotland	...	Perth Mission.
Scotland	...	Ayr Mission.
Scotland	...	Vale of Leven.

VII. Reports of Commissions.

1. Chatham.—The Conference receives the Report and re-appoints the Commission, as under, to consider and deal with the pressing need that exists for the establishment of a Central Mission: The Chairman of the District, the Financial Secretary, the Ministers and Circuit Stewards of the Rochester and Chatham Garrison Circuits, the Lay Treasurer and the General Secretary of the Home Mission Fund, the Rev. Richard W. Allen, John Bell (B), Walford Green, John Hornabrook, Jabez Ingram, W. Rodwell Jones, Charles H. Kelly, Peter Thompson; with Messrs. Walter W. Berry, William Brownscombe, Alfred G. Curtiss, Henry Holloway, George Lidgett, B.A., James Osborn (Southend), J. Crowle Smith, James E. Vanner, Ezra T. Wilks, and Peter F. Wood. The Rev. James Fletcher, Convener.

2. Portsmouth District.—The Conference receives the Report and re-appoints the Commission to inquire into the condition of Methodism, and advise the Circuits and Synod thereon, with special reference to the Circuits brought under the notice of the Conference by the resolution of the Synod last year. The following is the Commission: The Chairman of the District, the Financial Secretary, the Lay Treasurer and the General Secretary of the Home Mission Fund, the members of the District Home Mission and Chapel Committee, the Rev. Richard W. Allen, Josiah Banham, John Bell (B), Thomas Cross, John Hornabrook, Hugh Price Hughes, M.A., W. Hodson Smith; with Messrs. Alfred E. Booth, George Curtis, Francis Darracott, T. Morgan Harvey, William Hedges, and John E. Stafford. The Rev. W. Langdon Brimmell, Convener.

3. Worcester.—The Conference receives the Report and re-appoints the Commission, as under, to consider and advise upon the position of Methodism in Worcester and the neighbourhood, and to promote the Scheme for Chapel Extension in the city of Worcester : The Chairman of the District, the Financial Secretary, the Treasurers and the General Secretary of the Home Mission Fund, the Rev. Joseph Bush, Wesley Butters, Richard Harding (B), James S. Haworth, John Hornabrook, Josiah Mee, Joseph Posnett, and Enoch Salt ; with Messrs. Charles Akrill, Thomas Barnsley, William Bayliss, Joseph Beckett, Alban G. Buller, James Couse, W. Frank Green, William Hunt, J. Bayley Lees, John I. Parkes, and George H. Stephenson. The Rev. Enoch Salt, Convener.

4. Whitby and Darlington District.—The Conference receives the Report, expresses its great satisfaction at the work done by the Commission, and commends the further dealing with the various important proposals and schemes referred to in the Report to the Home Mission and Chapel Committee of the Whitby and Darlington Synod.

5. Oxford District.—The Conference receives the Report and re-appoints the Commission as under with the same instructions as last year: The District Home Mission and Chapel Committee, the Lay Treasurer and General Secretary of the Home Mission Fund, the Rev. Josiah Banham, John Bell (B), James Chapman, John Hornabrook, Hugh Price Hughes, M.A., T. Ferrier Hulme, M.A., Enoch Salt, Dr. Stephenson, and Frederick L. Wiseman, B.A. ; with Messrs. Joseph Beckett, Arthur W. Black, J. Calvert Coates, William Hedges, Thomas Mace, John H. Mason, and William Mewburn. The Rev. William Bradfield, B.A., Convener.

6. East Anglia.—The Conference appoints a Commission, as under, to visit Norwich at an early date to confer with the representatives of the Norwich, North Walsham and Cromer, and Holt Circuits as to the present condition and future prospects of our work in North-east Norfolk, and to advise the aforesaid Circuits and the Synod as to what steps should be taken to promote the extension of Methodism, whether by amalgamation or otherwise : The Rev. Samuel Chadwick, Robert Culley, Nehemiah Curnock (B), John Hornabrook, T. Ferrier Hulme, M.A., Dr. Henry J. Pope, and W. Lindley Tasker ; with Messrs. Charles S. Denniss, Robert P. Ellis, Henry Holloway, William Tattersall, Thomas Walker, William Walker, and Ezra T. Wilks ; together with six Ministers and six Laymen to be appointed by the Synod in September. The Rev. W. Hemingway Shaw, Convener.

7. Devonport and Plymouth Synod.—At the request of the Synod, the Conference appoints a Commission, as under, to see what can be done to bring about such a readjustment or amalgamation of Circuits as may be thought necessary in the spiritual and financial interests of Methodism : The District Home Mission and Chapel Committee, the Rev. Edward J. Brailsford, John Hornabrook, Richard Jenkin, Dr. Henry J. Pope, Thomas Rippon, William E. Sellers, and W. Hodson Smith ; with Sir George Smith, Messrs. John W. Gardner, Thomas F. C. May, William Henry Reed, Charles W. Slater, Thomas Walker, and Thomas P. Wansbrough. The Rev. John England, Convener.

VIII. Methodism in Sheffield.

The Conference receives the Report and appoints the Committee, as under, for the management of the Sheffield Mission, including the Albert Hall and Ebenezer Chapel, and with the same power as last year to select a site for, and undertake the erection of, Central Mission premises in Sheffield if it be thought desirable to do so, and to negotiate for the transfer of any old chapels in Sheffield that may need to be worked as Missions : The Chairman of the District, the Superintendents of the Sheffield Circuits, the Ministers appointed to the Mission, the Lay Treasurer and General Secretary of the Home Mission Fund ; with Messrs. John Aizlewood, John Chapman, Thomas Cole, Thomas Cole, jun., T. Skelton Cole, John B. Eaton, Henry Emmerson, Joseph Goodall, John Gregory, Richard G. Holland,

S. Meggitt Johnson, James Lamb, Frederick Laycock, LL.B., William Loxley, Samuel Osborn, William F. Osborn, William Parkin, Abel Priestley, Jonas Redman, William Richards, William A. Roberts, John G. Shillito, Frederick Stacey, William Stephenson, Samuel E. Thompson, Benjamin G. Wood, and W. Hall Wood. The Rev. William J. Boote, Convener.

IX. The Edinburgh Mission.

1. The Conference appoints Mr. Herbert Burgin Law, of Glasgow, and Mr. Henry Holloway, of Upper Tooting, London, to be Trustees of the Central Hall and other trust property in Earl Grey Street, Edinburgh, instead of Dr. Charles Brown Davidson and Mr. Thomas Willshaw, deceased.

2. The Conference appoints the Trustees of this property to be a Committee to act with the Quarterly Meeting in the management of the Edinburgh Mission.

X. Gospel Cars.

The Special Committee appointed last Conference "to consider the whole question of the Gospel Cars and of the Agents employed in them, and to report to the Home Mission Committee and to the Conference on any new arrangements that may be found desirable in this branch of our work," reports as follows:

The Committee having carefully considered (1) the history of the Gospel Car Movement, (2) the list of the Cars and Agents, and Districts where they are at present engaged, (3) a copy of the Circular sent to Districts applying for a Car, containing the conditions on which Cars are allocated to Districts, (4) a copy of Directions for Car-workers, (5) a copy of Directions for Circuit Missions, (6) a summary of work done by the Cars for the years 1898–9 and 1899–1900, and (7) the Car accounts for the years 1898–9 and 1899–1900, recommends as follows:

1. That the Circular sent to Districts applying for a Car and the Directions for Car-workers be re-written, for the sake of greater clearness of expression, without altering the sense, except as follows:

2. That the paragraph in the Circular sent to Districts relating to payment for the Car be altered to read as follows:

"In a few Districts £25 per annum, the amount charged by the General Home Mission Committee for the Car and workers, has been raised by assessing the places visited by the Car. This assessment in addition to the collections on the second Sunday has proved to be a strain upon the resources of the poorer places, and in such cases members of the Synod have undertaken to give or collect the £25 required. In some very exceptionally poor Districts this amount may be paid by the District Home Mission Committee from the grant to the District for Lay Agents, but this must only be done after consent to such appropriation has been obtained from the General Home Mission Committee."

XI. District Home Mission and Chapel Committees.

The Conference finally adopts the new legislation as follows:

1. Instead of the appointment of separate District Committees for Home Mission and Chapel affairs, one larger and united Committee shall be appointed for both purposes.

2. This united Committee shall be called the District Home Mission and Chapel Committee, and shall consist of ten Ministers and ten Laymen, to be chosen at the September Synod. The ministerial section of the Committee shall include the Chairman and the Financial Secretary of the District, who shall be members ex officio, and two Secretaries of the Committee to be appointed by the September Synod, one of whom shall have special charge of all schedules and documents relating to Chapel affairs. The Laymen so appointed shall during their tenure of office be members of the Synod.

3. The Synod shall also have power, if it be deemed desirable, to appoint as additional members of the Committee five Ministers and five Laymen, the latter of whom may be selected from members of the Wesleyan Methodist Church in the District, whether members of the Synod or otherwise, but this election shall not constitute such persons members of the Synod.

4. The Committee shall meet at stated intervals, to be determined in each case by the Synod, and at such other times as the Chairman shall see fit to summon it.

5. The Committee shall discharge the duties heretofore assigned to the District Home Mission and District Chapel Committees, respectively. Special consideration shall be given to all applications for grants to dependent Circuits and Home Mission Stations, and to all requests for additional Ministers, or for the reduction in the number of Ministers, and the Committee shall prepare recommendations to the Synod on all such applications and requests.

6. The Committee shall consider and advise the Synod respecting all proposals for the division or amalgamation of Circuits, or alteration of the boundaries of Circuits, and shall minutely inquire into the circumstances of our Churches, and of the population, and as to the number of effective local preachers, class-leaders, and responsible office-bearers, so as to avoid the creation of weak Circuits or of Circuits unable to deal with the needs of large and populous localities.

7. The Committee shall either itself, or by its Sub-Committees, at least once in every year meet the Ministers, Circuit Stewards, and Lay Representatives in the Synod of each dependent Circuit and Home Mission Station in the District, and shall receive such statements of accounts and such other information as will enable them to give suitable advice respecting the finances and conditions of work in such Circuits.

8. In any case in which the Conference shall empower the Synod to appoint a Committee for the management of any special Mission in the District, it shall be competent for the Synod, if it deem such a course desirable, to appoint the Home Mission and Chapel Committee of the Synod to act as such Committee of Management.

9. The Committee may advise respecting the purchase of sites, and the promotion of schemes for the extension of Methodism, in both towns and villages.

10. The Committee shall be empowered to institute inquiries as to the best methods of reviving and extending the work of God in those Circuits which are stationary or declining, or in which the growth of the population or the boundaries of the Circuit have made adequate efforts by the Circuit impossible.

11. The Committee shall have power to appoint a Sub-Committee that can easily and promptly be called together to consider, in conjunction with the Chairman of the District, any ordinary applications intended for the Monthly Meetings of the Chapel Committee. All such applications, with the resolutions adopted thereon, shall be reported at the next meeting of the Committee. Any case which shall be deemed by the Chairman specially important and critical shall be considered in the first instance by the full Committee.

No sale of any chapel for which a substitute is not to be provided, or respecting which there is a difference of opinion in the Circuit, shall be recommended without the sanction of the full Committee.

The examination of, and report on, the Annual Chapel Schedules shall be made at a Meeting of the full Committee to be held prior to the May Synod.

12. Two Ministers and two Laymen shall retire annually by rotation, but shall be eligible for re-election on the vote of four-fifths of the Synod.

13. The Committee may appoint one of its Members as a Lay Treasurer for any Funds at the disposal of the Synod, and one of its Members to be associated with the Ministerial Secretary having special relation to Chapel affairs.

14. Besides attending to the formal business of the Committee, it is hoped that all its members will take a personal interest in the Home Mission and Chapel schemes of the several Circuits, and will seek in every way possible to promote the interests of the General Funds in the District.

XII. Name of the Fund.

The Fund shall in future be designated :

THE WESLEYAN HOME MISSION FUND

(formerly "The Wesleyan Home Mission and Contingent Fund").

XIII. Officers and Committee.

CONNEXIONAL FUND.

Q. VIII. What are the Resolutions of the Conference in reference to the Connexional Fund?

A. 1. The Conference rejoices to hear that the collections in the first year of the existence of this Fund have resulted so satisfactorily; and, in view of the increasing demands made upon the Fund consequent upon the rapid growth of the Connexion, strongly commends the Fund to the hearty support of our people generally, and directs Ministers to call particular attention to its claims when the Annual Collections are made.

2. The Conference directs:

(1) That the Annual Collections be taken in all our chapels not later than the month of April, and that the amount forthwith be remitted to the Deputy Treasurer.

(2) That all applications for Grants for Supplies, Circuit Travelling, Removals, Furniture, and Afflictions, be submitted to the District Home Mission and Chapel Committee, whose recommendations shall be reported to the May Synod.

3. Any balance of income over expenditure shall, until the Conference further directs, be invested annually for the purpose of establishing a Reserve Fund.

4. The resolution of the last Conference requiring the payment annually of £40 by Circuits calling out additional Ministers shall be altered so as to allow of the payment for the first four years being made to the Connexional Fund instead of to the Home Mission Fund; and the sums thus paid shall be deposited in a separate account to be opened with the Common Cash Office.

5. The following is the Committee for this Fund: The Rev. W. Theophilus Davison, M.A., D.D., President of the Conference; Rev. Thomas Allen, D.D., Ex-President; Rev. Marshall Hartley, Secretary; and the

Rev. Josiah Banham,

WORN OUT MINISTERS' AND MINISTERS' WIDOWS' AUXILIARY FUND.

Q. IX. What are the Resolutions of the Conference on the affairs of the Auxiliary Fund?

A. 1. The Conference receives and adopts the Report of the Committee.

2. The Conference learns with satisfaction that the expenditure for the year, though largely increased by the payments to Supernumeraries and Widows — the increase being £1,312 12*s.* 6*d.*—has been met by the income, leaving a balance of £108 15*s.* 10*d.*, which has been carried to the Suspense Account. The Conference is thankful that during a year of abnormal demands on the liberality of our people the Fund has been so well sustained. There has been received, on account of Special Effort, including interest, £1,499 15*s.* 5*d.*

3. The Conference, in view of the large increase in the payments to the claimants on the Funds, an increase which will continue for some years, emphasises the necessity of careful attention to the ordinary sources of income, especially to the Private Subscriptions and Public Collections. A small increase in each of these items would be most welcome, and the Conference is of opinion that this may be obtained without much effort.

4. In view of the fact that by the direction of Conference the Yearly Collection has been taken out of the Classes, and that the time for making the appeal for the Worn Out Ministers' Fund has been changed from September to December, the Conference is most anxious that this opportunity should be taken of bringing the claims of the Fund before the members of our Church, and specifically directs that special care be taken in the distribution of the appeal in the Classes.

5. The scale of allowances made to Widows for the present year shall be ten shillings for each year the husband spent in the full work of the ministry, with a bonus of fourteen pounds.

6. The thanks of the Conference are presented to those friends who have made special donations; to the Executors who have paid sundry legacies; and to the District and Circuit Treasurers for their services during the year.

7. The cordial thanks of the Conference are presented to the Rev. WALFORD GREEN and Mr. JOHN LEES BARKER for their assiduous and valuable services as General Treasurers, and they are re-appointed for the ensuing year.

8. (1) Allowances are paid half-yearly, in advance; the dates of payment being August 10 and February 10.

(2) Funeral allowances are paid for Supernumerary Ministers and for Widows of Supernumerary Ministers, when needed.

9. The Conference directs that Collections in aid of the Fund be made in all our chapels; that the claims of the Fund be specifically brought before the Members during the visitation of the Classes in December; and that efforts be made to obtain new annual subscriptions.

10. The following are appointed the Committee of Management for the ensuing year: The Rev. W. THEOPHILUS DAVISON, M.A., D.D., President of the Conference; THOMAS ALLEN, D.D., Ex-President; MARSHALL HARTLEY, Secretary; Rev. WALFORD GREEN and Mr. JOHN L. BARKER, the General Treasurers; together with the

The Committee shall superintend the general working of the Fund, and also consider and decide upon such peculiar cases of affliction and distress among the Supernumerary Ministers and Ministers' Widows as may be recommended by the District Synods for special and occasional relief.

11. The Conference has heard with satisfaction of the proposed formation of a Trust for the Invalid Ministers' Rest Fund, approves the abstract draft of the Deed, sanctions the declaration of Trust, and appoints as Trustees the persons nominated.

12. In the judgment of the Conference it is desirable to bring the Invalid Members' Rest Fund into connexion with the Worn Out Ministers' and Ministers' Widows' Auxiliary Fund. The Invalid Ministers' Rest Fund shall in future be managed by a Sub-Committee to be appointed by the Committee of the Auxiliary Fund.

N.B.—For the Discipline Committees of the several Branches of the Institution, see Question XXXVIII.

12. The Conference directs that the following Resolutions, previously adopted, shall be reprinted:

(1) Wherever it is practicable, two Collections shall be made annually in each chapel throughout the Connexion on behalf of the Funds of the Institution; and these Collections shall be made, if possible, in December.

(2) The Conference directs the Superintendents of Circuits to remit all Subscriptions and Collections for the Institution to the General Treasurers early in the year; and instructs the Chairmen of Districts to ascertain, by inquiry at the May Synod, whether such payments have been made.

(3) The Conference affirms the principle, which has from the beginning been recognised in the administration of the Institution, in regard to charges on account of Students, that such Students as have the means, or whose friends have the means, shall be expected to contribute, in whole or in part, according to their ability, towards the cost of their own maintenance and education; and it directs the General Committee to consider and adopt such methods as may be deemed best for carrying this rule into effect.

(4) A minimum charge for maintenance shall be made, which every Student shall be expected to defray; it being, however, distinctly understood that the General Committee shall be empowered to remit the charge wherever, and in so far as, it may be found on inquiry that any Student is unable to pay. And further, all Students who are able, either themselves or by their parents and friends, to add, to the payment for maintenance, payment on account of education, should be urged to do so.

(5) The Conference directs that information be given to the General Treasurers of the Institution Fund of the resignation of any Probationer, or of any Minister who has not been ten years in the Full Work of the Ministry, in order that a list may be kept of those who have not discharged their obligations in respect of their Institution training.

EDUCATION.

Q. XI. What are the Resolutions of the Conference on the subject of Wesleyan Education?

A. 1. The Conference receives the Report of the proceedings of the Education Committee during the year, together with a Statistical Statement relating to Training Colleges, Day Schools, Sunday Schools, and the Connexional Sunday-school Union; and directs that an Abstract thereof be printed in the Minutes. (See Appendix III.)

2. The thanks of the Conference are presented to the Rev. WALFORD GREEN and to Mr. THOMAS BARNSLEY, for their services as Treasurers of the Education Fund.

3. The Conference re-appoints the Rev. WALFORD GREEN and Mr. THOMAS BARNSLEY Treasurers of the Fund.

Mr. PETER F. WOOD is appointed a Treasurer, who shall have charge of the Sunday-school Union branch of the finance.

4. The Education Committee shall consist of the following:

5. The Conference empowers the Wesleyan Education Committee to make grants towards expenditure incurred by structural and other alterations demanded by the Board of Education in Day-school premises.

6. Administrative Resolutions.—The Conference directs that the following Resolutions, previously adopted, shall be reprinted:

(1) The Conference empowers the Education Committee to make Grants, on inspection, to new Schools to which the provisions of the Minute of the Education Department, dated June 21, 1878, apply, and for the probationary period during which, under the said Minute, such Schools cannot receive Grants in aid from the Department.

(2) The Conference expresses its opinion that, in view of the working of existing arrangements for Public Elementary Education, it is highly desirable that the number of Wesleyan Day Schools should at least be maintained. The Conference therefore strongly recommends that before steps are taken towards the closing or transfer of any Wesleyan Day School, the proposal to close or transfer it be communicated to the Education Committee, in order that they may have an opportunity of suggesting alternative proposals for the consideration of Local Managers.

(3) The Conference directs that in all cases of difficulty in carrying on our Connexional Day Schools that are likely to result in the closing or transfer of such Schools, before such action be initiated the District Education Committee shall be consulted; it being understood that such consultation shall not interfere with the direction of the Conference requiring consultation with the General Education Committee.

(4) The Conference directs that in all ordinary cases of Day Schools conducted on Wesleyan Trust premises, no such Schools shall be discontinued so long as there is a reasonable prospect of their being carried on without serious embarrassment. The same general principle shall apply to Wesleyan Day Schools conducted in premises rented for the purpose under the management of a recognised Wesleyan School Committee.

When, however, the discontinuance of a Day School is proposed, before such proposal is carried into effect, the Superintendent shall consult the Trustees, the Managing Committee, and the Subscribers; and if in any case there is a considerable division of opinion, the case shall be submitted to the Quarterly Meeting of the Circuit. In all cases, the general principle laid down by the Conference respecting the Transfer of Schools —viz. that the Superintendents of the Circuits, with the Managers and Trustees acting in concert, shall consult the Education Committee—shall be adhered to.

(5) The Conference declares that it shall not be deemed to be within the power and option of a Superintendent to prevent the establishment or continuance of a Wesleyan Day School, so long as responsible parties pledge themselves to bear all the financial cost and risk.

(6) (i) In view of the interpretation which is put upon Section XXIII. of the Elementary Education Act by the Lords of the Committee of Council—to the effect that any transfer of a School, settled upon our School Model Deed No. I., to a School Board, for any term whatever, for the purposes of such School Board, must be sanctioned not only by the signatures of the Trustees, but by the Conference, testified by the President in writing,—the Conference directs that in every case in which the transfer of such a School is proposed, the Superintendent, with the Managers and Trustees acting in concert, shall first consult the Education Committee on the subject, and that if, for reasons given, that Committee recommends such a transfer, the Rules of the Conference in relation to the sale of Trust Property shall be applicable thereto: the Education Committee considering all questions affecting School Management, and the Chapel Committee questions affecting Trust Property.

(ii) In respect to Schools settled on the School Model Deed No. II., or on any other Deed in which the consent of the Conference is rendered necessary for the alienation of the property, the Conference recommends the Trustees to act upon the same principles as those laid down in the foregoing clause in relation to Schools settled on the School Model Deed No. I.

(iii) In all cases of transfer which may hereafter occur, the Conference recommends that provision be made in the instrument of transfer to secure the resumption of the premises by the Trustees, without their being required to reimburse any money laid out upon them by the School Board solely for its own purposes.

7. The Conference further directs as follows:

(1) All who are contemplating the erection or alteration of premises for the establishment of new Schools shall communicate with the Education Committee, for the purpose of receiving counsel as to their projected undertakings and the adaptation of the premises to the system of instruction designed to be adopted.

(2) The Managers of every School shall require from the Teacher, at least once a year, a report as to the nature and extent of the Religious Instruction given in the School, in order that they may be satisfied that the truths of Scripture are regularly taught to the children.

(3) It is deemed desirable that the Managers shall arrange, in conjunction with the Teacher, for regular examinations of the School in Religious Knowledge; such examinations to be conducted, as to time and method, as circumstances may require.

(4) A General Report on the Religious Instruction given in the Day Schools, founded upon the Teachers' Reports from the several Schools, as well as upon the personal visitation of the Ministers, shall be submitted to the March Quarterly Meetings, when the Returns as to the Day and Sunday Schools of the Circuit are presented.

(5) The October Examination of Pupil Teachers in Religious Knowledge shall be held on the last Saturday of that month. The March Examination will continue to be held on the first Saturday of that month.

8. Resolutions of 1891 and 1895.—The Conference directs that its declaration made in 1891, and repeated in 1895, be reprinted as follows:

(1) That the primary object of Methodist policy in the matter of Elementary Education is the establishment of School Boards everywhere, acting in districts of sufficient area, and the placing of a Christian unsectarian school within reasonable distance of every family. This is of special importance in rural districts, where our people have no alternative to the compulsory attendance of their children at Anglican schools.

(2) That there should be no increased grant of public funds, whether from the local rates or from the imperial taxes, to denominational schools, unless that increased grant is accompanied by adequate and representative public management.

(3) That no National System of Education which shall exclude from the Day Schools the Bible, and religious instruction therefrom by the Teachers, suited to the capacities of children, will meet the necessity of the country.

(4) That our Connexional Training Colleges should be maintained in full vigour and efficiency.

(5) And, lastly, with respect to our Connexional Day Schools, the Conference repeats its often declared sense of the great services they have rendered to Methodism, and to the sacred cause of National Christian Education; and it emphasises their special importance in those localities where it is impossible to establish School Boards acting in districts of sufficient area, and having under their control Christian unsectarian schools.

9. Resolution of 1899.—That in any National System of Education, the Bible and religious instruction therefrom by the Teachers suited to the capacities of children will meet the necessity of the country, and that the introduction of any Catechism into the Board Schools is highly objectionable.

10. Sunday Schools.—The third Sunday in October in each year shall be observed as a day for Special Prayer on behalf of Sunday Schools and young people.

11. The Conference attaches the utmost importance to doctrinal teaching in Sunday Schools by means of Catechetical instruction, and directs that Ministers shall give special attention to this subject. Superintendents and Teachers are also urgently and affectionately recommended to do their utmost to promote the use of our own Catechisms in our Sunday Schools.

12. The Conference resolves that, while it may be well to provide a separate service for very young children, it is most undesirable that scholars of eight years of age and upwards should be kept from the services in our chapels.

13. The Conference directs that the District Education Committee be consulted before a Sunday School is closed.

14. Day and Sunday Schools.—The Statistics of the Day and Sunday Schools of each Circuit shall be read in the March Quarterly Meeting; but if sufficient time be not then available for the discussion of the Statistics, and for inquiry into the state of the Schools, such discussion and inquiry shall take place in the June Quarterly Meeting.

15. The Education Schedules, having been duly filled up and presented to the March Quarterly Meeting, shall be sent by the Superintendents to the District Education Secretary, not later than April 10 in each year.

16. District Sunday-school Committees shall have charge also of the interests of the Day Schools in their respective Districts.

17. Admission to the Training Colleges.—The Conference resolves that, after provision is made in the Training Colleges for eligible Wesleyan candidates, the members of other Methodist Churches may properly be welcomed to fill any vacant places, if they are prepared to attend the appointed religious services connected with the Colleges, on the distinct understanding that they are not expected to sever their membership with their own religious communities, or to receive any token of membership with the Wesleyan Methodist Church during their residence in the Colleges.

SECONDARY EDUCATION.

1. The Conference resolves that the Secondary Education Committee, appointed by the Conference to deal with all matters affecting Wesleyan Secondary Schools, shall also have charge of Middle-class Education; and that in the constitution of the Committee not less than one-third of the number shall be members of the General Education Committee.

2. The Conference appoints the following Committee on Secondary Education:

The Rev. Dr. WALLER and Mr. PERCY W. BUNTING, M.A., are the Secretaries and Conveners.

3. The Conference receives the Report of the Committee and of the Middle-class Schools Committee.

4. The Conference refers it to the Secondary Education Committee to consider the question of establishing all or any of the Wesleyan Middle-class or other Proprietary Schools on a more strictly Connexional basis, either as separate institutions, or by bringing all or any of them under a single Connexional control. For this purpose the Committee is authorised to prepare forms of Trust Deed or of documents forming companies.

If the Special Committee of the Twentieth Century Fund appointed for the administration of £200,000 for Educational Work should resolve to apply any of its funds to the establishment of such Schools, or for placing Wesleyan Middle-class or other Schools on a more strictly Connexional basis, it is empowered to examine and settle any such forms of Trust Deed and document, and if approved to act upon the same in establishing such Schools.

5. The Committee is appointed, in conjunction with the Ordinary Committee of Privileges, to take charge of legislative matters in reference to Secondary Education.

6. The Conference again refers to the Committee all matters affecting Wesleyan Secondary and Middle-class Schools, including the constitution and equipment of the Connexional Middle-class Schools.

7. The Committee is authorised to invite, if thought desirable, the co-operation of representatives of the various Boards of Directors, and of the Head Masters and Head Mistresses.

8. The following Directors of the Middle-class Schools are appointed :

Cornwall Wesleyan Methodist School Association, Limited	Rev. Edward J. Brailsford, „ J. Charles Trafford.

Bromyard Wesleyan Methodist High School for Girls, Limited	Rev. Dr. Waller, Mr. John W. Sankey.

9. Special Committee on Education.—The Secondary Education Committee and the Ordinary Committee of Privileges, together with one Minister and one Layman to be chosen by each September District Synod, are appointed a Special Committee, to be summoned by the President, if he think it desirable, to consider any Bill affecting Education which may be brought in by the Government in the next session of Parliament.

The Conference receives with pleasure the Reports of Wesley College, Sheffield, and Queen's College, Taunton, Limited. Although not Connexional Schools, these were established primarily in the interests of Methodism, and are under Methodist management. Each has rendered invaluable service to the cause of Christian education and to the Methodist Church.

The Conference appoints the Rev. J. Agar Beet, D.D., and Mr. Obed Hosegood, jun., to be Directors of Queen's College, Taunton, Limited.

THE CHILDREN'S HOME AND ORPHANAGE.

Q. XII. What are the Resolutions of the Conference on the subject of The Children's Home and Orphanage?

A. 1. The Conference receives the Report of The Children's Home and Orphanage, and directs that an Abstract be printed in the Minutes. (See Appendix IV.)

2. The Conference hereby authorises the President to affix his signature as Representative of the Conference to any sale of property recommended by the General Committee of The Children's Home.

3. The Conference rejoices in the continued increase of the income of The Children's Home, and in its satisfactory financial position, and is specially gratified to find that in so many of our congregations and Sunday schools collections are made annually on behalf of the Home. The Conference again heartily commends the Home to the generous support of the Methodist Churches.

4. The Conference gratefully acknowledges the generous gift of Houses at the London, Lancashire, and Alverstoke Branches of the Home by Mrs. Clifford Davies, of Bury (a member of our own Church), by Mr. Townsend, of Prestwich (a member of the Anglican Church), and by Mr. Samuel Chadwick, of Rochdale (a member of the United Methodist Free Church); and rejoices at this manifestation of Christian fellowship in ministering to destitute and afflicted children.

TEMPERANCE.

Q. XVI. What are the Resolutions of the Conference on the subject of Temperance?

A. 1. The Conference receives and adopts the Report of the Committee, and directs that an abstract thereof be printed in the Minutes. (See Appendix V.)

2. The Conference presents its respectful and hearty thanks to Mr. Thomas Seaber on his retirement from the Treasurership of the Committee, the duties of which he has faithfully discharged since the Conference of 1881. In recording its gratitude for this long term of diligent service the Conference would specially notice the advantage which the Department has derived from the administration of the grant from the Thanksgiving Fund, which has been increased in value through Mr. Seaber's financial knowledge and skill. The Conference earnestly prays that, through the blessing of God, Mr. Seaber may be spared for many years of happiness and usefulness.

3. The Conference recommends that, on the last Sunday of November in each year, special reference shall be made in all Wesleyan Methodist places of worship, and in all our Sunday Schools, to the appalling extent and dire results of intemperance.

4. The Conference, while adhering to its oft-repeated declarations in relation to entire Sunday Closing and Local Option, nevertheless declares its strong conviction that the Minority Report of the Royal Commission on the Liquor Licensing Laws provides a satisfactory basis for a large and efficient measure of Temperance reform; and urges all the friends of the Temperance cause to unite in seeking to obtain legislation upon the general lines of that Report.

5. The Conference again calls attention to its recommendation that in all our Bands of Hope the Quarterly Ticket of membership shall be used, and that this ticket shall be given not only to those who are members of the Band of Hope in the ordinary way, but also to any young people in our Sunday Schools who may for various reasons be unable to attend Band of Hope Meetings, but who are willing to enrol themselves in the Sunday-school Teacher's Pledge-Book.

6. The Conference recommends the appointment of a Circuit Temperance Secretary in every Circuit; and the Superintendents are directed to send the name and address of such Secretary to the Secretary of the Temperance Committee of the Conference not later than the end of September; but where no Circuit Temperance Secretary is appointed, the Superintendents of Circuits are directed to send to the Connexional Temperance Secretary by the same date the names and addresses of all the Secretaries of Bands of Hope and Temperance Societies in their respective Circuits.

7. The Conference deeply deplores the widespread prevalence of Betting and Gambling and kindred practices, and expresses its grief that the newspaper press of this country stimulates these vices by the publication of sporting items. It declares its hope that before long there may be some effective legislation for the suppression of these evils, and especially for prohibiting the publication of betting items by the newspapers. And the Conference urges all our people to exert themselves in all possible ways for the suppression of this vice, and especially to seek to influence Parish, District, and County Councils to use their powers against the practice of gambling in public places.

8. The Conference recommends that, in places where it is impossible to form an adult temperance society holding frequent meetings, a society shall be formed by the appointment of a secretary, and by keeping a roll of abstainers.

9. The Conference earnestly urges our people heartily to co-operate with the Twentieth Century Temperance Crusade of the Free Churches, and expresses its hope that everything possible may be done to secure in every locality an efficient organisation of the Crusade, and an effective observance of Monday, November 18, as a day of special prayer for its success.

10. The Conference reaffirms its oft-repeated declaration that places licensed for the sale of intoxicants should be closed on Sundays, and directs the Committee to continue its exertions in this behalf.

11. A memorial to the Colonial Secretary shall be signed by the President and Secretary on behalf of the Conference, calling attention to the mischief wrought in Africa by the great facilities afforded by the railways on the West Coast for the carriage of intoxicating liquors, and praying that, for the protection of the natives from this scourge, immediate measures shall be taken for the stringent restriction of these facilities.

12. The Conference declares its opinion that it would be a great boon if the railway companies would provide refreshment-rooms in which no intoxicants shall be sold, and that the friends of temperance would do well to exert themselves in this behalf.

13. The Conference, in view of the very great harm that may be done to our soldiers returning from the War in South Africa by indiscriminate treating, expresses its earnest hope that our people will do their utmost to secure general attention to the appeal of the Commander-in-Chief that every effort shall be made to protect them from this evil.

14. The Conference respectfully urges his Majesty's Government to take such steps as will secure the total prohibition of the sale of intoxicating liquor to the natives in the Transvaal and Orange River Colonies.

15. Inasmuch as opium-smoking in China is, by general and unquestionable testimony, doing great injury, both physical and moral, this Conference feels that the cultivation, preparation, and sale of opium for use in China under the authority of the British Government by its Indian administration is dishonouring to Great Britain and to the Christian name. The Conference declares its strong conviction that the British Legislature ought, at whatever cost, to require and enable the Indian Government to put a stop to the further supply of Indian opium to China.

16. The Committee for the ensuing year shall consist of:

(1) The ex officio Members: the Rev. W. THEOPHILUS DAVISON, M.A., D.D., President of the Conference; THOMAS ALLEN, D.D., Ex-President; MARSHALL HARTLEY, Secretary; the Treasurer and the Secretary of the Committee, the Book Steward, the Connexional Editor, the Secretary of the Sunday-school Union, one of the Secretaries of the Lord's Day Observance Committee, and the Secretary of the Social Purity Committee.

together with three Representatives each, to be chosen by the Wesley Societies at Oxford, Cambridge, and Edinburgh.

3. The Rev. WALFORD GREEN is re-appointed Treasurer, and the Rev. JAMES HOPE MOULTON, M.A., Secretary.

4. The Conference gives power to the Committee to meet occasionally for purely educational purposes, and to add to itself for these purposes persons interested in other Educational Institutions, their number not to exceed six.

SOCIAL PURITY.

Q. XVIII. What are the Resolutions of the Conference on the subject of Social Purity?

A. 1. The Conference receives and adopts the Report of the Committee.

2. The Conference reaffirms its unflinching opposition to every form of State Regulation of vice, and will strenuously withstand any policy for counteracting the effects of vice which involves such regulation.

3. The Conference directs the Committee to watch the operation of the rules and regulations laid down for the Army by the Government of India, and now adopted in Gibraltar, and to take such action as may be desirable to oppose anything of the nature of State Regulation, should it be attempted.

4. In presence of growing laxity of thought and practice in many quarters, the Conference urges upon all Methodists, and especially upon those who have to do with young people in Bible-classes, Guilds, and other Societies, the duty of exercising watchful care over all moral interests, and of exercising an influence which may tend to lessen temptation to evil by the strengthening of sound principles, the discreet communication of necessary information, and the repression of all social customs which are hostile to a high-toned morality.

5. The Conference reminds Wesleyan Methodists throughout the country, that the return of the troops from South Africa will be attended with serious temptation of various kinds to the men, and urges upon them the duty of seeking, especially in regard to declared Wesleyans, to surround them with friendly and healthful influences, in order to lessen these dangers, as far as possible.

6. The Conference calls attention to the exhibitions, frequently of an extremely demoralising character, given in mutoscopes, erected in public places and often on public platforms, parades, and piers; and urges upon all Wesleyans to exercise their influence to persuade local authorities and public companies to refuse to give facilities for such vulgar and indecent spectacles.

7. The following are appointed the Committee for the ensuing year:

(1) The ex officio Members: the Rev. W. THEOPHILUS DAVISON, M.A., D.D., President of the Conference; THOMAS ALLEN, D.D., Ex-President; MARSHALL HARTLEY, Secretary; the Treasurer and the Secretary of the Committee.

(2) The following Ministers and Laymen:

Rev. Richard W. Allen,
„ William T. A. Barber, M.A., B.D.,
„ G. Armstrong Bennetts, B.A.,
„ Robert Browell,
„ William H. Findlay, M.A.,
„ James Fletcher,
„ Dr. Arthur E. Gregory,
„ John Howard,
„ Hugh Price Hughes, M.A.,
„ Charles H. Kelly,
„ Allen Rees,
„ David Roe,
„ Arthur E. Sharpley, B.A., B.D.,
Rev. Dr. Stephenson,
Mr. John R. Bedwell,
„ Alfred E. Booth,
„ Benjamin Broomhall,
„ John T. Burden,
„ Charles W. Early,
Colonel A. G. Hipwell,
Mr. John M'Dougall,
„ George Pritchard,
„ J. Bamford Slack, B.A.,
Dr. Richard T. Smith,
Colonel William Thompson,
Mr. Henry Wilson;

together with Mrs. Sheldon Amos, Miss Margaret Anderson, Miss Florence Bennett, Mrs. Percy W. Bunting, Miss Dewhirst, Mrs. Hogg, Mrs. Hugh Price Hughes, Miss Simmons, and Miss Agnes E. Slack.

8. Mr. PERCY W. BUNTING, M.A., is re-appointed Treasurer, and the Rev. J. SCOTT LIDGETT, M.A., Secretary to the Committee.

LOCAL PREACHERS.

Q. XIX. What are the Resolutions of the Conference with regard to Local Preachers?

A. 1. The Conference receives the Report of the Committee.

2. The Conference directs that all Standing Orders and Resolutions relating to Local Preachers' Meetings be collated, and henceforth published annually in the Minutes under a separate heading amongst the Standing Orders.

3. In view of the great benefits which the Correspondence Classes, now conducted under the direction of the Committee, are calculated to confer upon Local Preachers, the Conference recommends Superintendents of Circuits to advise the brethren, especially those who may be preparing to come on full Plan, to take advantage of these Classes.

4. The following is the scheme as finally adopted by the Conference:

A. The District Local Preachers' Committee.

(1) At the September Synod of each District a Local Preachers' Committee shall be appointed, to consist of the Chairman, the Financial Secretary, four other Ministers, and six Local Preachers. If any Local Preachers be chosen who are not already Members of the Synod, they shall by this appointment become Members.

(2) Each Synod shall have power to associate with the Members of the District Local Preachers' Committee other Ministers and Local Preachers interested in the subject, provided always that the Laymen so added shall not thereby become Members of the Synod.

(3) Each Synod shall appoint a Ministerial and a Lay Secretary of the District Local Preachers' Committee.

(4) At the September Local Preachers' Meeting in each Circuit, a Circuit Secretary shall be appointed, and his name and address shall be forthwith sent by the Superintendent to the Lay Secretary of the District Local Preachers' Committee.

(5) The Superintendent shall also send to the Lay Secretary, quarterly, a Circuit Plan containing the full postal address of each Local Preacher.

(6) Immediately after the March Local Preachers' Meeting, the Circuit Secretary shall forward, on prepared forms, to the Lay Secretary of the District Local Preachers' Committee, the various statistical facts relating to the Local Preachers in that Circuit. The required statistics shall be furnished by the Superintendent to the Circuit Secretary, and the schedule signed by both.

(7) The District Local Preachers' Committee shall prepare a Report based upon the statistics so furnished, and relating to the work of the year, to be presented to the May Synod.

(8) Immediately after the May Synod the Reports of the District Local Preachers' Committees shall be sent to the Lay Secretary of the Connexional Committee, which shall report thereon to the Conference.

(9) It shall be the duty of the District Local Preachers' Committee to inquire whether the directions of the Conference with regard to the mental and theological culture of Local Preachers have been observed in the various Circuits of the District, and to take necessary steps to assist in carrying out those directions.

(10) The District Local Preachers' Committee is empowered to establish and conduct Voluntary District Examinations of Local Preachers in Theology, Biblical Study, and Homiletics.

(11) Subject always to the laws and usages of Methodism, the District Local Preachers' Committee shall endeavour to promote the interest and efficiency of Local Preachers' Meetings in all practicable ways, by suggesting subjects for discussion, providing deputations to visit such Meetings, and otherwise.

(12) Subject to the laws and usages of Methodism, the District Local Preachers' Committee may initiate and promote arrangements providing for the ministrations of Local Preachers in Circuits other than their own, especially with a view to the advantage of the neediest and poorest Circuits; and may also undertake arrangements for Special Missions and Services where desired.

B. The Connexional Local Preachers' Committee.

(1) The Connexional Committee shall consider the Reports of the District Local Preachers' Committees received from the May Synods, and prepare thereon a Report for presentation to the Conference.

(2) The Committee shall also furnish a List of Books for guiding the Studies of Local Preachers, and prepare a scheme of Voluntary Examinations with the necessary Examination papers.

(3) The subject of the Theological Reading of Local Preachers shall also be dealt with by this Committee, together with the working out of the scheme of the Committee which reported to the Conference in 1894 on "A Course of Reading for Local Preachers" (Minutes, 1894, pp. 462–5).

(4) A Lay Treasurer, and a Ministerial and a Lay Secretary of the Connexional Committee, shall be annually appointed by the Conference.

(5) The following is the Committee:

ŒCUMENICAL CONFERENCE.

1. The Conference receives and adopts the Report of the Committee.

2. The Conference appoints the following as its representatives upon a Commission charged with concluding the necessary arrangements for a third Œcumenical Methodist Conference, to commence on Wednesday, September 4, 1901, and to be held in Wesley's Chapel, London:

The Rev. W. Theophilus Davison, M.A., D.D., President of the Conference; Thomas Allen, D.D., Ex-President; Marshall Hartley, Secretary; John Bond, Dr. Stephenson; Messrs. Percy W. Bunting, M.A., T. Morgan Harvey, Robert W. Perks, M.P., Sir Clarence Smith, His Hon. Judge Waddy, K.C.; and in case any of these should be unable to attend, the Rev. Charles H. Kelly and Mr. J. Bamford Slack, B.A., as substitutes. The Rev. Dr. Crawford Johnson and Mr. Robert W. Booth are the Irish Representatives.

CONCERTED ACTION.

1. The Conference receives and adopts the Report of the Committee.

2. The Conference resolves that a Tabular View of Methodist Statistics, similar to that found in the Methodist Kalendar, be included in the published Minutes of the Conference. (See Appendix XIX.)

3. In order to the further promotion of concerted action the Conference agrees:

That a United Committee be annually constituted by the appointment of Representatives by the several Conferences for the purpose of mutual defence, in the following proportions: viz. Wesleyan Methodists, 16; Primitive Methodists, 8; United Methodist Free Churches, 6; Methodist New Connexion, 4; Bible Christians, 4; Methodist Reform Union, 1; Independent Methodists, 1.

4. The members appointed by this Conference, as its proportion of the United Committee, are the following: The Rev. W. Pope, Dr. Rigg, Dr. Stephenson, Silvester Whitehead; and Messrs. Percy W. Bunting, M.A., John Cooper, S. Rathbone Edge, M.A., T. Morgan Harvey, William Hunt, Williamson Lamplough, Robert W. Perks, M.P., and H. Arthur Smith, M.A.

WESLEYAN METHODIST TWENTIETH CENTURY FUND.

1. The Conference receives and adopts the Report of the Executive Committee of the Twentieth Century Fund, and directs that it be printed in the Minutes. (See Appendix XIII.)

2. The Conference records its gratitude to the Head of the Church that, throughout the distractions and anxieties of an eventful year, manifold tokens of the divine blessing have attended the progress of the Fund. The Conference learns with satisfaction that contributions amounting to £653,000 have been received, and that additional promises have been recorded by many Circuits.

3. The Conference again acknowledges the services rendered by Ministers and Laymen, and especially by Officers and Members of District, Circuit, and Local Committees, and confidently relies upon their continued co-operation.

4. With a view to the completion of the Fund, the Conference directs :

(1) (i) That in every Circuit renewed efforts be made to secure the speedy payment of existing promises, and also to obtain additional promises.

(ii) That for this purpose carefully chosen deputations be appointed to wait upon friends and adherents who have not yet contributed.

(iii) That subscriptions to the Supplementary List be sought in the Circuits of Districts which have not recorded inclusive aims.

(iv) That the young people of our Congregations and Sunday Schools be urged to take part in the Shilling Subscription.

(v) That as far as possible precedence be given to the work of the Fund in all Circuit arrangements up to the close of the year.

(vi) That the co-operation of the September quarterly meetings in carrying out these directions be requested.

(2) The Conference directs the September Synods to consider, in the light of local conditions, what steps may be taken to complete the Fund. Chairmen of Districts are directed so to arrange the business of the Synods as to provide ample time for adequate consideration of the final appeal on behalf of the Fund.

5. The Conference directs :

(1) That appeals for subscriptions to the Fund terminate at the end of the year.

(2) That as soon as possible after December 31, Circuit Committees arrange for the signing and closing of the Circuit

Section of the Historic Roll, and the section be forwarded to the Central Office.

(3) That arrangements be made throughout the Connexion for united services for Thanksgiving and Prayer in the early part of January next.

(4) That public collections be made on the last Sunday in December, 1901, in all our Chapels and Schools. The proceeds of these collections shall not be appropriated to the fulfilment of Circuit and local promises, but shall be entirely devoted to the Connexional deficiency. The ladies of Methodism are invited to undertake the organisation of this collection in conjunction with the Circuit and Local Committees of the Fund.

6. The Trustees of the proposed Central Premises are authorised to acquire a site, which is to be settled upon a special Trust deed according to the direction of the Conference (Minutes, 1899, p. 523).

7. The Conference resolves that in addition to the power already given to deposit the moneys of the Fund with such Banks as it may determine, the Executive Committee be authorised to lend money to his Majesty's Government upon security of Treasury Bills.

8. The following are appointed the Executive Committee for the ensuing year: The Rev. W. Theophilus Davison, M.A., D.D., President of the Conference; Thomas Allen, D.D., Ex-President; Marshall Hartley, Secretary; Mr. Robert W. Perks, M.P., Acting Treasurer; the Rev. 7. The Rev. Walford Green is appointed to ascertain, and to receive and forward to the respective Treasurers, the payments to be made, in accordance with our Rules, to the various Connexional Funds in the case of married men who are received as Ministers, or of Ministers received from other Conferences or Churches. (See Minutes, 1889, pp. 413–415.)

The Officers of the Funds concerned in the Memorandum of Agreement are empowered to revise the financial conditions therein laid down.

8. The Rev. Ralph M. Spoor is directed to prepare the volume of Agenda for the Conference of 1902.

N.B.—The Conference directs that the Order of Conference Procedure and Rules of Debate be printed in the volume of Agenda for 1902.

A copy of the Agenda shall be sent to each member of the Legal Conference, resident in Great Britain, who is unable to attend the Conference.

9. Mr. William Middlebrook is appointed Convener of the Scrutineers of votes for the election of Lay Representatives by the Conference.

10. The Rev. George Denton is appointed Convener of Scrutineers of all votes, other than those for the election of Lay Representatives, in the Representative Session of the next Conference; and, as such, is an ex officio member of that Session.

Nomination Committee.—1. The Nomination Committee shall consist of (a) the sixteen Lay Representatives elected by the Conference who retire in 1904; viz. Messrs. Thomas H. Bainbridge, John Barnsley, Henry Holloway, Dr. Arthur Vinter, Sir George Hayter Chubb, Bart., James Vanner Early, Edward Sisterson, Alfred Jermyn, James J. Mack, Thomas H. Gray, J. Cory Monkhouse, William Raby, Thomas P. Wansbrough, Thomas Barclay, S. Meggitt Johnson, Edwin Cannington; (b) sixteen Ministers appointed by the Conference in its Pastoral Session; and (c) two Secretaries, one Minister and one Layman.

2. Mr. PETER F. WOOD is re-appointed Lay Secretary of the Nomination Committee, and is directed, in conjunction with the Rev. JAMES CHAPMAN, the Ministerial Secretary, to prepare lists of the persons recommended by the Committee for service on the several Connexional Committees.

3. It shall be the duty of the Secretaries: (a) to convene the Meeting of the Nomination Committee, and to summon to it persons entitled to attend its Meeting; (b) to receive from the Committee of each Connexional Department a list of persons, ex officio and otherwise, who are proposed for appointment upon it by the Conference; (c) to present the lists so received to the Nomination Committee; (d) to keep the record of the proceedings of the Committee; and (e) to report to the Conference on its behalf.

4. The Nomination Committee shall meet on the Monday previous to the Meeting of the Representative Session of the Conference. At that Meeting the President of the Conference shall preside, or in his absence some Ex-President or other Minister whom he shall depute; and the Secretary, or some other deputed Representative, of each Connexional Department shall attend to give such information as may be necessary.

5. The Nomination Committee shall consider the lists sent forward by the several Committees of Connexional Departments; it shall take care that the Constitution of each Committee nominated is in accordance with the regulations of the Conference; it shall have power to amend the lists sent forward, as it may deem desirable; but only in cases of necessity shall it make any change in reference to either the Ministerial or Lay nominees of a District Synod, and every change shall be reported to the Conference.

6. The Conference directs that all Lists of Committees which are to be considered by the Nomination Committee shall be printed in the Conference Agenda, as far as possible : the names of new members being printed in italics, and those of members nominated for re-appointment by a four-fifths majority distinguished by an asterisk ; care being taken to give the Christian name and postal address of each Layman.

N.B.—A complete List of the Lay Members of each Connexional Committee, with their postal addresses, shall be handed to the Secretary of the Conference for insertion in the Minutes.

7. Secretaries of Departments shall duly inform all new members, ministerial and lay, of their appointment upon Connexional Committees.

The Custody of Connexional Documents.—1. The Conference receives the Report of the Committee, and repeats the instructions contained in Standing Order No. 10.

2. The Committee shall consist of the Rev. W. THEOPHILUS DAVISON, M.A., D.D., President of the Conference; THOMAS ALLEN, D.D., Ex-President; MARSHALL HARTLEY, Secretary; and the

Rev. Joseph Bush,
„ Walford Green,
„ Charles H. Kelly,
„ William Perkins,
„ Dr. Henry J. Pope,
„ Dr. Rigg,
Rev. Ralph M. Spoor,
Mr. John Gibbs,
„ Isaac C. Griffith,
„ George W. Munt,
„ H. Arthur Smith, M.A.

3. The Rev. JOSEPH BUSH, WALFORD GREEN, and Dr. RIGG are appointed to examine the documents already lodged with the Custodian, and to define somewhat more clearly and fully what documents relating to the growth and history of our Church ought to be deposited with the Custodian of Connexional Documents.

4. The Rev. WALFORD GREEN is re-appointed Custodian and Registrar, and also Convener of the Committee.

Office of the Theological Institution, Children's, and Auxiliary Funds.—1. The Conference adopts the Report, and directs that it be printed in the Minutes. (See Appendix VIII.)

2. The cordial thanks of the Conference are presented to the Rev. Walford Green for his services as Secretary during the year, and he is re-appointed.

Common Cash.—1. The Conference adopts the Report, and directs that it be printed in the Minutes. (See Appendix IX.)

2. The Committee is re-appointed, and consists of the Officers of the various Connexional Funds included in the arrangement.

3. The hearty thanks of the Conference are presented to the Rev. Walford Green for his services as Secretary during the year, and he is re-appointed.

4. The Conference authorises the inclusion of the Seamen's Mission Account in the Common Cash Arrangement.

Admission to the Conference Chapel.—The following is the Committee for the ensuing year: The Rev. W. THEOPHILUS DAVISON, M.A., D.D., President of the Conference; MARSHALL HARTLEY, Secretary; Samuel F. Collier, James R. Imisson, Dr. Randles; Messrs. Alfred Brookes, John Broxap, John Cooper, John F. Haworth, William Raby.

The Rev. SAMUEL F. COLLIER is the Convener.

Financial Appeals by Strangers.—Considering the many abuses to which the Connexion is continually exposed by applications from unauthenticated strangers from abroad to use our Trust property for financial ends, the Conference appoints the following Committee to consider the credentials of all such; and to express an opinion as to the advisability or otherwise of allowing the use of our Trust property for the contemplated appeals: The PRESIDENT of the Conference; the EX-PRESIDENT; the SECRETARY; with

Rev. Josiah Banham,	Mr. J. Calvert Coates,
„ Albert Clayton,	„ Isaac C. Griffith,
„ Charles H. Kelly,	„ Henry Holloway,
„ Allen Rees,	„ George W. Munt,
„ Dr. Waller,	„ Ezra T. Wilks.

The Rev. ALLEN REES is the Convener.

Open-air Preaching.—1. The Conference receives the Report of the Committee.

2. The Conference is of opinion that it is desirable that arrangements for open-air preaching be made in every Circuit, and recommends that, wherever practicable, this be done.

The Theological Institution.—1. The Conference receives the Report of the Special Committee.

2. On account of the practical difficulties involved in the suggestions which have been before it, the Special Committee is not yet prepared to submit any scheme to the Conference.

3. The Conference remits the whole question to a small Committee, consisting of the Tutors of the four Theological Colleges, together with the Rev. William Bradfield, B.A., William H. Findlay, M.A., James Hope Moulton, M.A., Dr. Rigg, Peter Thompson, Herbert B. Workman, M.A., and Mr. Thomas G. Osborn, M.A., with the Rev. Dr. Moss, Convener; who shall report during the year to the Special Committee, which is re-appointed.

4. The following is the Special Committee: The members of the General Committee of the Theological Institution (see p. 60), together with

Rev. William Bradfield, B.A.,	Mr. John Barnsley,

The Rev. ALBERT CLAYTON is the Convener.

Compulsory Supernumeraryship.—1. The Conference receives the Report of the Committee.

2. The Conference re-appoints the Committee to negotiate with any Ministers whose cases may be referred to it by the Pastoral Session, with a view to their retirement from the Ministry.

3. The Committee is empowered to make financial arrangements to that end.

4. The following is the Committee:

Rev. Walford Green,
„ Dr. Henry J. Pope,
„ G. Stringer Rowe,
„ Peter Thompson,
Mr. John L. Barker,
„ Thomas Walker.

The Rev. PETER THOMPSON is the Convener.

Training and Equipment of Class-leaders, etc.—1. The Conference receives the Report of the Committee.

2. The Conference re-appoints the Committee to consider during the year the best means of providing for the training and equipment of our Class-leaders, and of obtaining a large increase of new Leaders, especially from the ranks of our young people.

3. The same Committee shall consider the advisability of constituting, in connexion with each Society, a representative Committee to deal with such questions as do not interfere with the functions of the Leaders' Meeting.

4. The following is the Committee: The Rev. W. THEOPHILUS DAVISON, M.A., D.D., President of the Conference; THOMAS ALLEN, D.D., Ex-President; MARSHALL HARTLEY, Secretary;

Rev. Josiah Banham,

The Rev. GEORGE DENTON is the Convener.

Conference Arrangements.—The Conference resolves :

1. That immediately after the constitution of the Legal Conference, and the election of President and Secretary, the President shall take the chair and deliver his address.

2. That the Sacrament of the Lord's Supper shall be administered at the opening of the second day's Session, and shall be followed by a conversation on the state of the work of God ; none but members of the Conference in its Representative and Pastoral Sessions being admitted until after the Sacramental Service.

3. That a Committee be appointed to consider during the year the arrangements for the reception of Representatives from other Conferences, and deputations from other Churches, and from Local Bodies ; this Committee to have power to act for next Conference, in conjunction with the Manchester Conference Arrangements Committee.

„ William Butterworth,
„ John Cooper,
„ William Middlebrook,
„ Thomas G. Osborn, M.A.,
„ William Raby.

The Secretary of the Conference is the Convener.

Methodism in Cambridge.—1. The Conference appoints a Special Committee to consider—

(1) How it is possible to obtain in Cambridge a Church Building worthy of Methodism and suitably near the Colleges; and

(2) How such ministerial oversight can be given to the growing numbers of Methodist undergraduates, that they may not only be retained or won as members of our Church, but also, when qualified, led to join the ranks of our ministry.

2. The following is the Committee: The Rev. W. THEOPHILUS DAVISON, M.A., D.D., President of the Conference; THOMAS ALLEN, D.D., Ex-President; MARSHALL HARTLEY, Secretary;

Rev. Josiah Banham,

„ William E. Walker

and the Ministers and Circuit Stewards of the Cambridge Circuit.

The Rev. JOHN GOULD is the Convener.

Kingswood School: the Question of Management.—The Conference appoints the following special Committee to consider during the year whether it be desirable that the School shall be placed under the control of one Head; and if so, how the practical difficulties in the way may be surmounted:

The Rev. W. THEOPHILUS DAVISON, M.A., D.D., President of the Conference; THOMAS ALLEN, D.D., Ex-President; MARSHALL HARTLEY, Secretary; the Officers of the Schools' Fund;

Rev. William T. A. Barber, M.A., B.D.,

„ William Middlebrook,
„ Thomas G. Osborn, M.A.,
„ Robert H. Posnett,
„ Thomas S. Simpson, M.A.,
„ J. Bamford Slack, B.A.,
„ Edward G. Wood.

The Rev. CHARLES E. WANSBROUGH is the Convener.

Church Officers and the Liquor Traffic.—The Conference reaffirms its resolutions of previous years, namely:

1. (1) The Conference was never more alive than at the present time to the dire results of the liquor traffic, and rejoices in the progress of Temperance sentiment and practice in the Wesleyan Methodist Church, but feels that to interfere with the constitutional method of appointing our Church officers is undesirable, in the interests of Temperance work itself, as well as on other grounds. (2) At the same time, the Conference recommends our people to keep themselves free from complicity with a traffic the results of which are so injurious to the interests of religion, morality, and social life.

2. The Conference, while deeply deploring the manifold evils—spiritual, moral, and physical—arising from the existing liquor traffic, confidently relies on the continued growth of moral conviction in the community, by the blessing of God, to remove the present national disgrace and danger. It once more earnestly exhorts our people to keep themselves free from complicity with the traffic, and to give their active support to all well considered efforts on behalf of Temperance reform.

3. The Conference cannot, however, impose disabilities upon those who sell drink which would not apply to those who buy and use it; neither is it prepared to interfere with the rights and responsibilities of Circuit authorities in the election of Church officers.

4. Furthermore, the Conference believes that the great ends of the Temperance movement can be secured without resort to methods of coercion which raise the gravest issues respecting the constitution of the Christian Church and the rights of the individual Christian conscience.

Laundries connected with Roman Catholic Nunneries.—In view of the decision of the Grand Committee of the House of Commons to exempt laundries connected with Roman Catholic Nunneries and religious houses from the operation of the Factory Bill, the Conference declares its strong conviction that no exemptions from sanitary or other inspection provided by law should be permitted on the ground that the industries affected are carried on by religious or philanthropic institutions.

Education Bill, 1901.—1. The Conference declares its strong disapproval of any policy which would tend to weaken the direct popular control of primary education or to imperil the work of the School Boards. The Conference deeply regrets that recent Governments have taken no steps to carry out "the primary object of Methodist policy in the matter of elementary education," namely, "the establishment of school boards everywhere, acting in districts of sufficient area," and urges that the avowed intention of placing elementary education under the control of such an authority as is suggested by the late Education Bill would render it impossible for this declared policy of the Wesleyan Methodist Church to be carried into effect.

2. The Conference again records its strong opinion that in cases where public educational authorities establish secondary schools no formularies distinctive of any particular denomination should be permitted to be taught therein, and no dogmatic or ecclesiastical tests should be introduced. Clause 5 of the late Bill provided a Conscience Clause, but only for day scholars. The Conference is of opinion that such a Conscience Clause should in an appropriate form include boarders, and should preclude the possibility of secondary schools being established or maintained by a local authority in which formularies distinctive of any particular denomination are allowed to be taught or ecclesiastical tests introduced.

3. Having regard to the following resolution of the Conference "that there should be no increased grant of public funds, whether from the local rates or the imperial taxes, to denominational schools, unless that increased grant is accompanied by adequate and representative public management," the Conference declares its opinion that this important principle should be extended to all secondary schools.

Representative Missionaries.—The eight Missionaries who are to be members of the Representative Session of the Conference shall be chosen, year by year, by the General Committee of the Missionary Society.

Q. XXVIII. What Ministers have died since the last Conference?

A. 1. In Great Britain, thirty-eight:

(1) WILLIAM HOTHERSALL: born March 18, 1851, in a village in Lancashire. At the age of twelve he was brought into association with Methodism, and converted to God when fifteen. He found in the Sunday school and in mission services congenial work until his entrance into the Ministry in 1877. He was a man of splendid physique, with a countenance full of sunshine and a heart full of love. His tender sympathy prompted him to much self-sacrificing work. He was the trusted friend of the members of his congregation and a "brother beloved" among his brethren. His ministry was efficient and successful. The force of much secret communion was felt in his public services. His sermons gave evidence of careful preparation and spiritual insight. Love for children was a conspicuous feature of his character. His Sunday-school motto was, "Every child converted to God before fourteen years of age." Courtesy and thoughtfulness for others seemed with him to be instinctive. In 1897 the strain of his labours in the Farnworth Circuit forced him to retire for eighteen months from active work. He came out of the furnace refined and chastened, and threw himself with joy into the work at Shoreham, in the Worthing Circuit, where he was beloved and useful. He was drowned while bathing in the sea on the morning of August 15, 1900, in the forty-ninth year of his age and the twenty-fourth of his ministry.

(2) Thomas Cannell: born at Ramsey, in the Isle of Man, on February 8, 1825. His parents were members of the Wesleyan Methodist Church—his father being a powerful and successful local preacher—and their influence on him for good was lifelong. His conversion took place in his seventeenth year, and immediately he began to work for Christ in the Sunday school, and afterwards as a local preacher. Whilst residing in Liverpool he was accepted for the Ministry, and early in 1851 was appointed to the Bahamas, where he spent seventeen happy and successful years. For family reasons he returned to England in 1867, and laboured in home Circuits for seventeen years, when enfeebled health necessitated his retirement from the full work. The last thirteen years of his life were spent at Clevedon; during six years he frequently preached, until an attack of paralysis disabled him. He was a courageous and strenuous man, with intense sympathy for the suffering and patience towards the erring. A diligent student, his thoughtful and clearly arranged sermons were delivered with a moral and spiritual force that led sinners to Christ and stimulated believers. In affliction his mental powers remained unimpaired, and his never-failing patience and cheerfulness were very marked. He delighted in the fellowship of his brethren. On Sunday, August 19, 1900, he peacefully passed to the heavenly rest in the seventy-sixth year of his age and the fiftieth of his ministry.

(3) Benjamin Gregory, D.D.: born at Stokesley, November 29, 1820. He was the son of the Rev. Benjamin Gregory, and grandson of the Rev. Edward Towler. Converted to God while still a schoolboy, he kept the faith till his course was finished. When fourteen years old he was appointed a master at the Grove, and held that position for six years, the last year of mastership (1840) being the first of his ministry. During his probation he continued his habits of enthusiastic and careful study, wide reading, and keen, minute observation.

Immediately after his ordination he was appointed to the Great Queen Street Circuit, where his preaching told from the first with powerful effect, from its rare combination of evangelical fervour with intellectual force and poetic fancy. The years till 1868 were spent in the ordinary work of the Ministry. During his three years at Oxford he won for Methodism attention and respect which it had never before gained from the University. A diligent pastor, ever eager to tell others what great things the Lord had done for him, he developed a remarkable power of personal influence. His sermons were prepared with the utmost pains, his whole strength being put into them. He was particularly happy in leading Society classes and in conducting Bible-classes.

In 1867 he was elected a member of the Legal Conference. At the Conference of 1868 he was appointed Connexional Editor, in which office he aimed at making the Wesleyan Methodist Magazine at once a denominational and a catholic organ, and secured as contributors leading men of all Churches. Several volumes issued from his pen, amongst which may be mentioned specially his Fernley Lecture on The Holy Catholic Church, The Communion of Saints, and his Handbook of Scriptural Church Principles and Wesleyan Methodist Polity and History, a work in which the general principles of ecclesiastical organisation and government and the peculiar institutions of Methodism are exhibited with accuracy and great ability. One of the dreams of his life was the preparation of a metrical version of the Psalter, of which specimens, evidencing no little poetic genius, were published in the Magazine, and in his volume The Sweet Singer of Israel.

He was elected President of the Conference in 1879; and the pastoral letters which he wrote in connexion with the Thanksgiving Fund were full of Methodist reminiscence and of gracious counsel from a true father in God. Reverence and love for the Scriptures, together with intense attachment to Methodism, dominated his entire life. He valued highly the form of sound words in which the doctrines of the Church of his birth were embodied, but he investigated for himself the chief critical questions concerning the Old and New Testaments. He took a leading part in the revision of the Liturgy and of the Book of Offices, and was an active member of the Commission on the Education of Ministers' Children.

His physical health was always feeble. Only zealous devotion to God and His Church enabled him to accomplish so much under such heavy disadvantages. He became a Supernumerary in 1893, but continued to busy himself with literature and theology, working steadily till within two days of his decease.

In private life he evinced a fine capacity for generous, genial friendship, possessing an inexhaustible store of anecdote, literary allusion, and ready wit. His love for our hymn-book was a passion. A few days before his death he repeated, with trembling voice and glistening eyes, several of the more intensely spiritual of our hymns, evidently as a testimony of his own belief and feelings. For some weeks before his death symptoms of gradual failure of physical strength were apparent, but no immediate danger was anticipated till less than forty-eight hours before the end. For most of the time he was unconscious, but he was able to express thankfulness for the many mercies, the peace and comfort of his life, and to ask that the prayer for the Church Militant—his evening prayer for several years—should be read with him. Having served his own generation, by the will of God he fell on sleep August 24, 1900, in the eightieth year of his age and the sixty-first of his ministry. In him Methodism lost an original thinker, a subtle and an apt expositor, a preacher of remarkable power, a writer of rare literary gifts, and a devout son.

(4) John Bond Charles: born in the city of Bristol, 1834, of Methodist parentage. His decision for Christ was largely the result of the influence of his saintly mother. In 1857

he entered the Ministry, South Petherton being his first Circuit, where he witnessed many conversions to God. His ministry, which extended over a period of forty-three years, proved a blessing to many. In some Circuits he was honoured of God by seeing very gracious revivals. Of studious habits, he took special pains in preparation for the pulpit. His sermons were able, terse, fresh, and soul-searching. His extensive reading gave him illustrations from all sources, which made his sermons interesting to the people. He was unceasing in his activities as a Superintendent, and a good pastor; and being of a kind, genial, bright disposition, his visits to the homes of the people were greatly prized. The later years of his life were clouded with broken health and the loss of mental vigour. After becoming a Supernumerary he resided in Newcastle-on-Tyne among his old friends, by whom he was much respected, and passed peacefully away on September 21, 1900.

(5) MATTHEW GALLIENNE: born in Guernsey, August 28, 1812. His father was a lawyer of good standing, a local preacher and class-leader in the English and French Circuits. He was soundly converted to God in his eighteenth year, and three years later began to preach. He spent twenty-four years in the South of France and Switzerland, giving full proof of his ministry, and showing himself an ardent evangelist and an organiser. In 1844 he founded the Ladies' School in Nimes, which still remains a most successful institution. He was mobbed in the village of Le Caylar, he came into frequent conflict with the police on the question of the freedom of religious worship, twice he was fined by the magistrates for holding unauthorised religious meetings. He had the honour of preaching in a Freemasons' Lodge in Bastia the first Protestant sermon in the island of Corsica. He left in all his Circuits, but especially in the Drôme and the Cevennes, souls brought to God by his vivid preaching and ardent exhortations. He took an active part in the organisation of the French Conference, over which he presided in 1858–9. The strain of work, however, told upon him, and he was obliged to return to his native land for comparative rest. For twelve years he was Chairman of the Channel Islands District. Seven years in England closed his active career; yet for three years more, as a Supernumerary, he took charge of our French work in Alderney. He retired to Guernsey in 1885, but continued to edit Le Magasin Méthodiste des Iles de la Manche, his work of love for thirty-seven years; he preached as often as occasion served, in both French and English; and also gave great attention to local affairs. He endeared himself to a large circle of friends. Though his mind remained bright to the end, his eyesight failed, and for nearly three years he was confined to his house, quietly waiting for his release, and trusting in the mercy of God through Christ. Lingering until October 1, 1900, he entered into rest in the eighty-ninth year of his age and the sixty-fifth of his ministry.

(6) John Stembridge: born in Leeds in the year 1832. His early life was spent amid the influences of a godly home. In youth he decided for Christ, and soon gave promise of usefulness. He had a remarkable gift in prayer, was a diligent reader, and an active worker in the Church. He was accepted by the Conference as a Candidate for our Ministry in 1861, and appointed to a Circuit. His sermons were rich in exposition, evangelical, and helpful to his hearers. His chief aim was to win souls for Jesus, and his ministry was fruitful in conversions. In the homes of our people he was ever welcome, and the sick and suffering found in him a tender, sympathising friend. As a Circuit Minister and Superintendent he was conscientious and faithful; and his genial and loving spirit greatly endeared him to his colleagues and the Church. At the Conference of 1900 he was appointed for a third year to the Buckingham and Brackley Circuit, but shortly after was prostrated by malignant internal disease. He was wonderfully supported, labouring on with heroic spirit while his sufferings were severe. As the end drew near his peace and joy abounded. On October 8, 1900, in his sleep, he passed to the land where there is no pain, leaving behind him the testimony of a noble life. He died in the sixty-eighth year of his age and the fortieth of his ministry.

(7) Edmund Potts: born at Leighton Buzzard on June 30, 1849. The child of godly parents, he was from his youth the subject of deep spiritual impressions, and in early life was led to full decision for Christ. His intelligence and thoughtful zeal marked him out for a career of useful service, and in 1871 he was accepted as a Candidate for the Ministry. In 1875 he received his first appointment. He held the position of District Missionary in three separate districts—Devonport, Bedford, and Portsmouth—in all of which his labours were eminently owned of God in the conversion of souls. As a Circuit Minister he left behind him in every place the sweet fragrance of a holy life. At the Conference of 1899 he was appointed to the Rotherham Circuit, where for thirteen months he laboured with much success, until, on October 11, 1900, the Master's summons came unexpectedly, and he entered into rest. During the preceding year, at Ledbury, he lost his wife, who had been an invaluable helper to him in that particular evangelistic work which was so dear to his heart. This new link with the unseen resulted in a yet stronger passion for service. His high sense of duty was deepened by his whole-hearted consecration to Christ. He was also a man of intense spiritual fervour and devotion, it being no uncommon thing for him to spend whole nights in prayer. For him the work of the Ministry was, in the highest sense, never done. He either worked or prayed; his meat was "to do the will of Him that sent him." As a preacher, his sermons were full of the great truths of God, quiet, thoughtful, convincing, original; while as a pastor he pre-eminently excelled, winning the hearts of young and old, and being made a great blessing to the sick and sorrowing. During his last illness he was mostly unconscious, and there is no dying testimony; but his whole character and career witnessed to his goodness and worth, and to the abounding grace of God.

(8) CHARLES GARRETT: born at Shaftesbury, Dorsetshire, November 30, 1823. He was trained as a child in the fear of the Lord. A pointed remark by a godly woman led him to definite decision for Christ. As a youth he was characterised by sprightly intelligence, and at a remarkably early age was appointed Sunday-school teacher. He took active interest in public questions, especially in the Temperance movement, then in its infancy. Removing to Hitchin, he became a local preacher, and in 1846 a Candidate for the Ministry. After the usual period at Richmond College he was appointed successively to rural Circuits in Norfolk, Lincolnshire, and Yorkshire; but it was not until he was stationed among the teeming populations of Lancashire and Hull that his distinctive qualities were fully revealed. At Preston his philanthropic spirit impelled him to most arduous efforts to relieve the distress arising from the memorable Cotton Famine.

During his six years' stay in Manchester he took a prominent part in the formation and management of the Manchester and Salford Lay Mission, which in after-years developed into the great enterprise whose headquarters are now the Central Hall. At the end of three years on the Cranmer Circuit, Liverpool, he was appointed to his first superintendency, viz. that of the Liverpool Mission, then to be created, and in that capacity he may be regarded as one of the pioneers of the home missionary enterprises of modern Methodism in large cities. Mission halls and old chapels in destitute localities were used as centres, in which humanitarian agencies were associated with directly spiritual work. Homes and refuges were established for the fallen and needy; but the soul-saving achievements of the Mission were its greatest glory. He became a power in the civic life of Liverpool. He waged war against insanitary areas, demoralising amusements, and especially the drink traffic, taking a leading part in the cocoa-house movement. He assisted in founding the Methodist Fire Insurance Company, the Methodist Recorder and Temperance Magazine, and he established the Homes of Rest for Ministers. For many years he was Chairman of the Liverpool District, and in 1882 was elected President of the Conference.

His character was singularly winsome. His disposition was generous, and his whole life a beautiful example of brotherly kindness and Christian geniality. The crowning quality of his nature was sympathy. He carried on his heart the burdens of the people, and few ministers have so fully deserved the title "Son of consolation." He had a large correspondence with people of all classes, to whom he acted as spiritual counsellor. But although the gentlest of men, his whole nature flamed forth against wilful wrongdoing; and he was at his best when all his energies were arrayed against the ills and wrongs of society. The ardour of his temperament was balanced by prudence and caution. As a preacher on special occasions his services were in great demand throughout the Connexion. All types of hearers were charmed and profited by his discourses. The matter was richly evangelical, well arranged, and enlivened by apt illustrations, his style simple and colloquial, his voice and manner tender and eloquent, and his spirit aglow with earnestness and suffused with sympathy. He was a man of great gifts, and remarkable for common sense and shrewdness, but the chief characteristic of his preaching was its power over the hearts of his hearers. Homes were brightened by his visits, and lifelong memories remain of his sunny presence. Multitudes all over the land were bound to him by cords of love. His name is inseparably identified with the Temperance movement. He was one of its earliest advocates, and before the end became one of its most revered and influential leaders. The success of Temperance work in our own Church has been largely due to his efforts, which were characterised as much by high Christian principle and wisdom as by energy and enthusiasm.

He retired from the full work of the Ministry at the last Conference, and two months later, on October 21, 1900, he fell asleep, in the seventy-seventh year of his age and the fifty-second of his ministry. The end was accelerated by the death of his noble wife, who was not only the sharer of his home life, but an active helper in his public work. The tidings of his death evoked an unparalleled manifestation of sorrow in Liverpool, and a vast multitude gathered around his grave. The name of Charles Garrett, as he was universally called, will live long as that of a man, a minister, and a philanthropist.

(9) THOMAS RASPASS: born at Broseley, near Madeley, September 8, 1830. His parents were devoted Methodists, and the Christian influences of his home resulted in his early conversion. He entered our Ministry in 1855, and in the same year was appointed to Jamaica. For twenty years he laboured there with great fidelity, winning the esteem and affection of his brethren. He then returned to England, and after fourteen years of devoted service in the home work yielded to the earnest request of the Missionary Committee to take charge of the Bahamas District. The hardships and anxieties of the work told upon his health, and in 1892 he returned to England permanently disabled. His years of feeble health and frequent suffering were borne with patience and courage, and with unfailing trust in the wisdom and goodness of God. On November 26, 1900, in the seventy-first year of his age and the forty-sixth of his ministry, he quietly entered into rest.

(10) Edward Milner: born in Birmingham in 1852. He was early left an orphan, and enjoyed few religious advantages; but by early rising and great diligence he prepared himself as a Candidate for the Ministry, and received his training at Headingley College. Throughout his career he fulfilled the duties of his sacred office with unremitting conscientiousness and zeal. Though not of robust physique, he was capable of prolonged toil, and never spared himself in the service of his people. In preaching and speaking he displayed great animation and mental alertness. He was widely read, deeply interested in the social problems of the time, and withal fervently evangelical, faithfully applying Christian truth to common life. He was eminently successful as a pastor. The charm of his personal character—his tender sympathy and care for the suffering and poor, his transparent unselfishness, unwearying patience, forbearance, and sunny cheerfulness—gained for him the affectionate regard of all who knew him. He evinced wide and catholic sympathies, but had a passionate loyalty for his own Church. At the Conference of 1900 he was appointed for the second time to the Chertsey and Walton-on-Thames Circuit. He renewed his ministry there amidst every sign of affection and esteem, but only four months of happy labour remained. The end came with startling suddenness. On Sunday morning, December 23, he was on his way to preach at Upper Halliford when he was seized with illness, and in a few minutes passed to his reward in the forty-ninth year of his age and the twenty-third of his ministry.

(11) Robert Simpson (B): born in Edinburgh, May 10, 1849. He was in early life a Presbyterian, and after apprenticeship in his native city, and a period of business engagement in London and in Windsor, where he joined the Wesleyan Methodist Church, he entered Richmond College. Fifteen months later, in 1876, he was sent to the Spanish work in Barcelona, then a solitary station. In those early days of his ministry he displayed great administrative ability, and laid the foundation of a work destined to produce abundant and lasting results. He laboured for nearly fourteen years, when his health gave way, and he was brought home apparently a dying man. Years of uncomplaining struggle against weakness and suffering followed—years spent in a ministry of sympathy and solace for other suffering and troubled ones. He was one of the most sociable of men, and his goodness was attractive. The radiant joy of his spirit added a peculiar charm to his ministry, while the manifest saintliness of his life compelled the profoundest respect. He had a wonderful love for children and young people, and they loved and reverenced him in return. He possessed rare gifts, which had been diligently cultivated; his study of God's word was constant and profound; and his preaching was marked by freshness, vivacity, and pointed appeal. To his great joy he was permitted to return to full work for three years, but at the Conference of 1899 he was again compelled to become a Supernumerary. In the midst of much feebleness he persisted for more than a year in the work of preaching, class-leading, and pastoral visitation. In the closing days of November, 1900, influenza seized him, and it soon became evident that the end was near. His last conscious moments were on Christmas Day, and on December 29 his pilgrimage ended, and he entered into the joy of his Lord.

(12) RICHARD ALLEN (B): born at Burnley, April 2, 1838. His parents were godly Methodists who dedicated their boy to the Lord from his birth, and sought with loving care to train him for future service. In childhood he yielded himself to God, and very early heard a call to the Ministry. After several years at Bury Grammar School and a short business career in Liverpool, he was accepted as a Candidate by the Conference of 1859, and sent to Didsbury, whence, after only a year of residence, he was appointed to Kilkhampton. He was a careful and thoughtful reader. Whilst an intense Methodist, he was a lover of all good men, making many friends in other communions. He was an ideal colleague, brotherly, sympathetic, generous, faithful, and true. Of sensitive and tender spirit, he yet faced difficult and distressing duties bravely, and bore his own burdens with good heart. A careful student of Methodist history and polity, he was a wise administrator, an able and painstaking Superintendent. His kindness to the poor, his sympathy with distress and sickness, his tenderness and grace in pastoral ministration, made him welcome in the homes of all classes. He was a Christian gentleman, courteous to all, dignified, and ruling wisely his own house. But his highest characteristic was his saintliness; he was a man of God, devoted, prayerful, and obedient. After thirty years of active work it pleased God to afflict him sorely. Every kind of public service became impossible. For more than eleven years he waited, in almost complete seclusion and in increasing infirmity, his Master's will. His mind was keen and alert to the last, and in perfect calmness he approached life's last mystery. For him death had no terror. It was simply "going home." On January 5, 1901—"in the faith and love of God," as he declared a few days previously—he passed, in the sixty-third year of his age and the forty-second of his ministry, to the everlasting rest.

(13) Wesley Brunyate: born at Haddelsey of a family of yeomen. He traced his earliest religious impressions to the influence of his home—his father being the first class-leader in the village—and the visits of the Methodist preachers. Whilst at school in Wakefield he was greatly moved by the ministry of the Rev. Charles Rawlings. A service conducted by Mr. John Foster, of Selby, led him into the peace of God. From the first his religious zeal so shone that there could be no mistake as to the manner of life in which he was called to glorify God. As a mere lad he preached with remarkable power in the villages. It was his joy to see much fruit and striking manifestations of the power of God. He became a Candidate for the Ministry in 1858, in the twenty-first year of his age, and was sent to Richmond; but after a few months he was called out as the first young minister to begin special work in the East End of London. Full of regrets that he had not enjoyed the full privileges of the Institution, he gave himself to hard reading, and all through his busy life the habit then formed was never broken. As the years passed his sound judgment and fearless strength became conspicuous. For two years he was Chairman of the Scotland District, and whilst there the Conference appointed him to the Governorship of Kingswood School. For eight years he sought how best he might glorify God in the many and varied responsibilities of that honourable office, and he did not seek in vain. What his brethren thought of the way he discharged the duties they laid upon him in regard to their own sons was seen when, at the Conference of 1894, he was, by nomination, made a member of the Legal Hundred. To the sorrow of many it became apparent that too early the natural man had begun to decay. After a series of illnesses the end came, in the sixty-third year of his age and the forty-third of his ministry, on January 7, 1901. At the close he had a great desire to depart, and a wistful, passionate longing to be with Christ.

(14) JOHN SCOLEY EDMAN: descended from an old Methodist family of the county of Lincoln, his great uncle having entered the Ministry in 1795. While a boy he became a disciple of Christ, and before he had attained his twenty-first year was accepted as a Candidate for the Ministry. After the usual period at Didsbury College he entered upon pastoral work, and for twenty years laboured in various circuits with much acceptance. He possessed more than ordinary ability. His individuality was marked, his style attractive, his use of the resources of literature felicitous, his aim thoroughly practical. He presented old truths in new lights, making wise use of the humour with which he was largely endowed. He was a loyal, brotherly colleague, a genial companion, and a steadfast friend. A shadow fell upon his later life; but those who knew him best believed that disease of the brain, which eventually proved fatal, had much to do with the incidents of this painful period. The closing months of his life were marked by a tranquillity which for a time had been lost; and he died in peace on January 13, 1901, in the forty-sixth year of his age and the twenty-fourth of his ministry.

(15) Thomas Ratcliffe: born at Southwell, Notts, January 20, 1830, and entered the Ministry in 1852; "fell on sleep" at Reading on January 14, 1901. After spending three years at Didsbury he was appointed to the Hinckley Circuit, where his intelligent evangelical preaching, devoted pastoral visitation, and the charm of his social intercourse made him many friends. In some of his subsequent Circuits he saw considerable success, and in all he was greatly esteemed and loved. His active ministry closed in 1891, when he settled at Reading. After his retirement from the full work, for several years he rendered useful and acceptable service in preaching and visiting, until prevented by declining health. His mental alertness and spiritual glow continued to the end of life, and his thoughtful courtesy was unfailing. He was a diligent student of Holy Scripture, and had an intelligent grasp of the doctrines and polity of his Church. He loved the public worship of God's house, his place never being empty when health permitted. He died somewhat suddenly, in the seventy-first year of his age and the forty-ninth of his ministry.

(16) Edwin J. Southall: born at Birmingham in 1853. A Methodist of the third generation, he gave himself to God in the Sunday school. The genuineness of his conversion was evidenced by his early consecration to the service of Christ, and he soon became a useful member of the historic Cherry Street Society. He entered the Ministry in 1878, and after three happy years at Richmond went as a Missionary to Jamaica. It was there that his chief work was accomplished. For about twelve years he laboured hard, never sparing himself or shirking any duty. His brother missionaries bear witness to his unselfishness, his conscientious discharge of duty, his unswerving fidelity, and his patient thoroughness in all that he did. At a comparatively early age he was appointed Chairman of the Morant Bay District. To this position of honour and responsibility he brought gifts of heart and mind which more than justified the choice. In difficult and delicate enterprises his advice was constantly and advantageously sought. He was intellectually alert, and kept himself well abreast of the times, ever evincing a keen interest in all questions affecting the moral and social well-being of his people. As an administrator he was wise and considerate, and was justly esteemed by all his brethren.

In 1893 he came to England, intending after a brief sojourn to return to Jamaica. It was a sore trial when he found that this could not be. To the last his heart was in the Mission Field. He was gentle but firm, willing to take any work, however lowly, for his Master. His sermons were the outcome of careful reading and patient thought. He was an efficient Superintendent, a kind and faithful pastor, an affectionate and loyal colleague. The impression he gave to all who were closely associated with him was that of a man of perfect sincerity and devotion. He entered into rest on January 17, 1901. Almost the last words he uttered were characteristic of his life, "Live for Jesus—nothing else matters."

(17) Joseph Lancaster Ball: born at Cheetham Hill, Manchester, on November 24, 1822, and named after his grand-uncle, the founder of the Lancastrian System of Education. He was the second son of the Rev. William Ball, who died in 1824 at the age of thirty-one. He received a good classical education at the Manchester Grammar School. On leaving school he entered a Bradford house of business. Whilst there the religious impressions received at Manchester under the ministry of the Rev. W. M. Bunting were deepened. He entered the Ministry in the year 1847. During thirty-one years he fulfilled his ministry with little interruption and with hardly any holiday. In the year 1878, however, whilst Superintendent of the Irwell Street Circuit, Manchester, sickness obliged him to become a Supernumerary. For thirteen years longer he frequently preached, and in other ways assisted in the work. Then deafness incapacitated him for service. He spent his last years at Blackheath and Dulwich, "thankful," to use his own words, "for a tranquil and happy evening of life." Of scholarly temperament, he loved to study the Scriptures in the original tongues. Almost to the last he was a diligent student, always adding to his unparaded stores of curious learning. His sermons, prepared with an almost fastidious choice of language, were rich in spiritual insight, evangelical in appeal, and peculiarly tender in consolation. The care of the Church pressed heavily upon him, and as a Superintendent he was often unduly weighed down by Circuit anxieties. With a more robust bodily frame and a less sensitive spirit, he might have rendered more important service to the Methodism which he entirely loved. Of this he was conscious. But notwithstanding his infirmities, his ministry was made a blessing to many souls; and he knew that his Master was One who "remembereth that we are dust." Not long before his death he told one of his children that he enjoyed "a deep sense of the mercy—the pardoning mercy of Christ." He died on January 18, 1901, in the seventy-ninth year of his age and the fifty-fourth of his ministry.

(18) Robert B. Nightingale, B.A.: born at Bakewell, July 13, 1844. When nineteen years of age he was converted to God, and in 1864 was accepted as a Candidate and sent to Didsbury College, where he laid the foundation of an intimate acquaintance with both Hebrew and Greek. In addition to the ordinary studies of the College he applied himself to special subjects with much success. He originally offered for service in the foreign field, but medical opinion interfering with this arrangement he entered the home work. During his ministry he won esteem and affection by his pastoral and pulpit labours. As a husband and father, and in all his intercourse with members of his congregations, he beautifully exemplified the grace of vital religion. His preaching was expository and practical; his diction chaste and not without gleams of poetic beauty. He ever stood before his people in the noble simplicity of a servant of Christ, intent, not on his own honour, but on their salvation. He suffered much from bodily infirmities, and at the beginning of this year was laid aside by what proved fatal affliction from the work he loved. To one who visited him the day before he died, he said, "What signifies long life? I am in the great Physician's hands." He entered into rest on January 19, 1901, in the fifty-seventh year of his age and the thirty-third of his ministry.

(19) Nicholas Boyns: born at Truthwall, St. Just, Cornwall, March 13, 1835. He was a Methodist of the third generation, both his grand-parents having been brought to God under the preaching of John Wesley. Soon after their conversion, when the great evangelist was holding an open-air service near Botallack House, they took their infant child —then only nine months old—to the service, at the close of which Wesley took the babe in his arms, and fervently prayed that the blessing of the Most High might rest upon him, and that he might become a true and faithful servant of Jesus Christ. The prayer was answered. Throughout a long and honoured life he was eminent for his exemplary piety and consecration. Nicholas Boyns, one of his four sons, when only nine years of age dedicated his life to God, and to the end held fast his integrity. He entered the Ministry in the year 1856, and continued to labour with singular fidelity and earnestness until 1895, when he was prostrated by a serious attack of paralysis. As a Circuit Minister, Steward of the Annuitant Society, and Chairman of District he won a good report. His pulpit ministrations were of a high order, clear, interesting, stimulating, and edifying. As a pastor he was unwearying, commanding not only the attention, but also the affection of the people. He abounded in sympathy with the sorrowing and the perplexed. To these gifts and endowments was added a gracious and winsome personality, a gentle and cheerful disposition, a modest and courteous dignity, and a piety true, tender, and beautiful. "He walked with God"—

> One of God's witnesses, the voices of His will.

He did his life-work well, and on Sunday morning, January 21, 1901, in the sixty-sixth year of his age and the forty-fifth of his ministry, was called to the Master's higher service.

(20) George Samuel Tyler: born at Chatham, August 3, 1837. When quite young he was left an orphan. In his youth he was troubled with sceptical difficulties; but in 1860, venturing into the Wesleyan Chapel at Gravesend, he was convinced and converted, and soon began to preach. In 1862 he was received as a Candidate for the Ministry, and appointed to a Circuit. Through life he was a student of general literature, yet all the time he gave the chief place in his meditations to the "mystery of godliness." His public ministry attained a high level; it was intellectual and intensely spiritual. To him the gospel was an inspired and effective philosophy, "the power of God and the wisdom of God" in perfect and inseparable combination. He preached to the judgment and to the conscience, giving broad and clear views of revealed truth. Whilst his sermons were singularly "profitable for instruction in righteousness," he was full of tender sympathy for such as were wrestling with doubt or overborne by adversity, and his message was helpful to the feeble and comforting to the troubled. His favourite subjects of discourse were those which touch the innermost springs of Christian life. By unremitting self-culture he attained to a style that was fresh and forceful. His ministry was specially useful in the sick-room, where his natural reserve vanished and his cultured spiritual insight found free exercise, and many a suffering disciple has been cheered and comforted as he talked at large on the deep things of God. In official meetings his courtesy, sound judgment, and policy of putting first things first won the respect and confidence of the lay brethren. At the last Conference he removed from Nottingham to Torquay. Toward the end of January it was found that he was suffering from cancer. After consulting a specialist, and as the only means by which life could be prolonged, he resolved to submit to an operation. For this purpose he repaired to Plymouth; and just before the ordeal, turning to his friends, he calmly said, "This is my attitude—resignation absolute."

After twenty-four hours of great suffering he entered into life eternal on February 1, 1901, in the sixty-fourth year of his age and the thirty-ninth of his ministry.

(21) JAMES SMITH: born in Birmingham, May 18, 1826. His parents belonged to the Church of England, and there he received his first spiritual nurture. Finding its teaching more congenial, he joined himself to our Church at Belmont Row, where he soon experienced the converting grace of God. When sixteen years of age he began to preach, and gradually his gifts and usefulness marked him out for the full work of the Ministry. After three years at Richmond he received his first appointment at the Conference of 1849. From that time to the end he was entirely devoted to the service of his Master. He loved the Methodist doctrine and discipline, and was one of the many who have quietly done a work fruitful in the best spiritual results. He was a man of saintly life. With a mind richly furnished by various reading, and with views definite and strong on all fundamental Christian truths, his one aim in preaching was the conversion of the unsaved and the building up of believers. His sermons, often delivered with deep feeling, were full of the spirit and language of Holy Scripture. His life gave power to his ministry. The simplicity and intensity of early zeal continued to the end. The sunset was calm and blessed. He passed away on February 6, 1901.

(22) GEORGE T. TAYLOR: son of the Rev. George Taylor, was born at Redruth in 1832, and converted in a revival at Old Kingswood School. He commenced his ministry in 1855, and, during its course of forty-five years, by his Christian courtesy and his faithful, loving, unstinted service, he lived in the affection of his people, and is gratefully remembered in all his Circuits. He took a deep interest in young men, and during his probation held at six o'clock in the morning, in the Castle Donnington Circuit, a class for Bible study, from which class four young men entered the Wesleyan Ministry. He was a devoted pastor, his sympathetic insight making his ministrations most welcome and helpful, especially among the sorrowful and suffering of every class, whilst he very tenderly cared for the poor. He was highly conscientious and transparently sincere; a true friend, a faithful and unselfish colleague, a loyal Methodist, and, above all, a man of God, full of faith and of the Holy Ghost. He was a diligent reader of the best literature, a careful biblical student, an acceptable platform speaker; but his best intellectual energies were reserved for the pulpit. As a preacher he was expository, evangelical, and experimental—an able minister of the New Testament. Excessive diffidence and self-repression prevented his taking that position in Methodism which he might legitimately have been expected to do. He became a Supernumerary in 1896, and for four and a half years rendered efficient and acceptable service in the Bristol (Bedminster) Circuit. His end came suddenly. He was struck down with paralysis, only lingering a few days after the attack; but while consciousness remained he was singularly peaceful, being ready and waiting for his Lord. He passed to the life everlasting on February 9, 1901, in the sixty-ninth year of his age and the forty-sixth of his ministry.

(23) Joseph Augustus Jones: born at Tregaron, Cardiganshire, October 6, 1823. He was converted to God in early life, and at once gave himself earnestly to Christian work. When seventeen years of age he began to preach, and in 1844 was accepted as a Candidate for the Ministry, and became a student at Didsbury College. Up to 1880 he laboured with acceptance and success in the full work, preaching chiefly in Welsh; and though he then became a Supernumerary, he long continued to render excellent service in many ways. His preaching was thoughtful, evangelical, and earnest, and many were led to God through his ministry. In his management of Circuit affairs he was diligent, judicious, and faithful in the maintenance of order and discipline. Though largely withdrawn during later years from the more public activities of the Church, he continued to take a lively and prayerful interest in all that pertained to the kingdom of God. His end was worthy of the faith that he held so firmly and taught so long. In perfect peace and triumph he passed into the city of God on February 21, 1901, in the seventy-eighth year of his age and the fifty-sixth of his ministry.

(24) William Fisher Clark: born at Rye, August 13, 1818, he received his early education at Lydd School and Rye Grammar School. Though brought up in the Anglican communion, he owed his deepest religious impressions to Methodist books and influences, and at length felt driven to throw in his lot with the Church whose "simple gospel ministry" had proved so spiritually helpful. After assisting his father in business for a few years, his mind turned strongly towards the Christian ministry, and he became a Candidate for the itinerant work. He was accepted, and received his first appointment to Barnstaple in 1845. For forty-two years he laboured faithfully, tenderly, and unsparingly in the care of souls in various parts of the country. His ministry throughout was characterised by fidelity, kindly humour, courtesy, and a disinterested generosity which endeared him to the poorer members of his many flocks. In 1887 failing health and the burden of years made it expedient for him to retire from active service, but he continued to preach when able, until on February 22, 1901, after a few hours' illness, he sank peacefully to rest. During the later years of his life he showed an ever-increasing sympathy with whatsoever things were good and true outside the circle of his own immediate interests. His heart grew warmer, tenderer, and larger as the years passed, until it was impossible to be long in his company without being moved into sympathy with his manifest gentleness and love. He desired earnestly the greater gifts, but for him love was always the greatest and the best—the true prize of life.

(25) William Arthur, M.A.: born February 3, 1819, at Glendun, near Cushendall, in the county of Antrim. His parents, who were members of the Established Church, removed to the far west of Ireland when he was twelve years old. Here the family came into touch with Wesleyan Methodism, and in connexion with a mission conducted by the Rev. John Holmes, then stationed at Castlebar, William Arthur gave his heart to God and joined the Methodists. He was well known whilst still a boy for his gifts as a speaker, and shortly after his conversion began to give addresses. Before long he was called upon to do the work of a local preacher, and his youthful appearance, his zeal, and his eloquence combined to give him a wonderful popularity throughout that part of Ireland. Many were awakened and converted under his preaching. At the Irish Conference of 1838 he was received as a Candidate, and sent to the new Theological Institution at Hoxton, the Conference consenting to his being allocated to missionary work in India. Having spent a year at Hoxton, Mr. Arthur was ordained in 1839, and sailed for the Mysore. He learnt to speak the Kanarese language in a wonderfully short period, and was very soon able to address the natives freely in their own tongue; but when this was accomplished his eyesight completely gave way. Nevertheless, he continued to study with his Brahman teacher, using the powers of his transcendent memory for his work. He left his station for the hills that he might recover health and vision, but all in vain, and in 1841 he returned home.

For many months after his return to England he was unable to use his eyes for study. After a short period of rest, however, he began to speak at missionary meetings, and in so doing developed extraordinary gifts of eloquence. His speeches were not less powerful in argument than passionate in appeal, and, taken as a whole, have never been surpassed in the history of our Church. As his strength began to return, he was sought in all directions as a speaker and far beyond the limits of his own Church. In 1848 his vocal powers gave way, and were never fully restored, though with occasional intervals of complete silence he did much public work for twenty years afterwards. For two years he was stationed in France, and while resident there became a great authority on all questions relating to the Protestant discussion. He rendered special service to his Church during the troubles of 1849 and the following years, and from that time his influence in its counsels was recognised as that of a leader of the first rank, in whom courage was remarkably combined with modesty, and who had mastered the leading details of every great department of Church life.

No one had more influence in the Conference; in early middle life he ranked with the fathers on the Conference platform. In 1851 Mr. Arthur was appointed Missionary Secretary, in 1856 he was elected a member of the Legal Conference, and in 1866 President of the Conference. The following year, in response to an urgent request from the Irish Conference, he was appointed President of the Belfast College, where he took up his residence in the year 1868, returning to England in 1871. This marks the close of his active official life, though he retained his position as Honorary Missionary Secretary till 1888. Mr. Arthur's statesmanship projected the movement which, under the name of the Metropolitan Chapel Building Fund, has given new life and marvellous extension to Methodism in London—a Fund which he aided at the outset with exemplary munificence.

His health from 1871 was too much impaired to admit of his serving his Church otherwise than by writing, by counsel, and by occasional addresses when his voice allowed him to speak in public. This was the more to be regretted because he was still comparatively a young man, and his reputation had been established throughout English-speaking lands, not only as a speaker of great intellectual power and eloquence, but as one whose refinement of taste and whose distinction of style, at once simple and luminous, gave to his addresses a literary quality not less remarkable than their force of appeal to the judgment and the conscience.

When his voice failed Mr. Arthur was naturally led to the larger use of his gifts as a writer. Among the many products of his pen, that religious classic, The Tongue of Fire, easily holds the first place in public esteem. His philosophical writings have done admirable service in defence of the Christian faith; while his great historical treatise on the history and claims of the Papacy, entitled The Pope, the Kings, and the People, crowned in his own view his life-work as a public writer.

The delicacy of Mr. Arthur's health not only obliged him to retire from active service in our Church, but frequently to seek shelter and recovery in southern health resorts during the last ten years of his life. Finally, for family reasons, as well as for his own health's sake, he became a resident at Cannes. There he was a power for good, and commanded the esteem of a wide circle of residents and visitors year after year. It was but seldom of late years that he was able to attend the Annual Conference of his Church; and when he did it was extremely rare for him to speak, because it was not possible to make himself heard. Occasionally, however, he was able to deliver a short address, and was always heard with deep feeling, and on some specially important occasions he wrote addresses which were read for him by others. After several months of illness, which towards the close became exceedingly trying and painful, he passed peacefully away on March 9, 1901. Throughout his illness his spiritual confidence was not only unshaken, but high and bright; and when disease interrupted or confused his consciousness, his broken expression indicated that his soul in its secret depths rested on a foundation of faith and joyful hope. For variety and excellence of intellectual gifts, it may be said without fear of contradiction that the modern history of Methodism has known no superior to William Arthur. It is not less true that his character for truth, purity, modesty, steadfastness of honour, and high principle, has shone before the eyes of his brethren and all who knew him with a peerless lustre. But his humility was not less noble than his other qualities, and he would have been the first to give all thanks and praise for whatever he had of goodness and of grace to the influence of the Spirit of God, to whom be all the glory.

(26) William Cullum: born at Richmond, Surrey, on January 20, 1839. In 1857, through the influence of the Rev. Mark Davenport, then a Richmond student, he was led to Christ. He afterwards removed to Manchester, and became a local preacher in connexion with the Gravel Lane Circuit. In 1862 he offered himself as a Candidate for the Ministry. He was accepted and sent at once into Circuit work. His Christian life and character, together with faithful service, secured for him esteem and affection in every Circuit in which he was stationed. Throughout his ministry his powerful preaching was blessed of God to the conversion of many souls and the edification of believers. He excelled as an expositor, and his pulpit and platform utterances were highly appreciated. As a pastor his cheering words, wise counsel, and warm-hearted sympathy ever made him welcome. As a colleague he was brotherly and considerate. As an administrator he showed himself a capable man of affairs. He gave careful attention to matters of finance, and strove to improve the condition of his Circuits. He was unswerving in his loyalty to our Church. After spending thirty-eight years in the full work he became a Supernumerary in 1900, but undertook a pastoral charge in the Tooting Circuit. He preached for the last time on Sunday, March 3, 1901. The next day bronchial pneumonia developed, and on March 10 he passed away. He was conscious almost to the last. As though in answer to a call from the spirit world, he said, "I am coming." The loss of Mrs. Cullum in the previous December was a great blow to him. In their death they were not long divided. He passed away at Wimbledon in the sixty-third year of his age and the thirty-ninth of his ministry.

(27) JAMES CRABTREE: born at Esholt, near Bradford, Yorks, November 25, 1842. He owed much to the nurture and influence of a Methodist home, and from early youth served the Lord. After spending some time in teaching he was accepted as a Candidate for the Ministry in 1864, and sent to Circuit work without any college course. For thirty-six years he fulfilled a ministry of exceptional strength, chiefly in large and important centres of population. He possessed great natural gifts, intellectual insight, clear discernment, independence, and intense sympathy with men. An accomplished theologian and a master of Christian ethics, he was ready to welcome new light, but loyal to the gospel of his Saviour. His own life was animated in every part by intense devotion to Jesus Christ. His reading was wide and discriminating, in both theological and general literature, and he kept himself familiar with the thoughts of the day. But more than this, he was a student of life and of human nature, and both understood and loved men. All these features showed themselves in his preaching. His sermons were carefully prepared. They were profound and yet simple, direct in style, and such as appealed most powerfully to educated and thoughtful minds. But they had in them such a wealth of love, and were delivered with such charm of voice and manner, that even those who were not able to follow the clear reasoning were blessed and helped. Very many testimonies are borne to his work amongst the sick and sad. He not only grieved with the sorrowful, but cheered them by his Christian hopefulness and faith. Pastoral service with him was no perfunctory duty, but cost him much. Some of his finest work was done in the class-meeting. Here his gifts of sympathy and tact, his practical wisdom, and his knowledge of human nature and divine truth found full scope. In his spirit were mingled broad charity, unfailing common sense, and manly self-control. In his administration of the affairs committed to him he was wise and kind, and a faithful Superintendent respected by his colleagues, beloved of his people. He had remarkable personal dignity and self-reverence. Genial and open-hearted to his intimate friends, he was naturally reserved amongst strangers; the better he was known, however, the more reason was found for glorifying God in him.

At the Conference of 1899 he was designated to the office of Tutor in Pastoral Theology and House Governor of Didsbury College. During the year which followed he made careful preparation for the work before him. He had high ideals, and he faced his new duties with purpose and with hope. But he was only permitted to engage in them for a few days before a fatal illness compelled him to lay them aside. During those few days, however, he secured the respect and attachment of all in the College. For more than six months he was confined to his room, gradually dying. The disappointment and weariness were borne with the dignity and patience that were characteristic of the man. In his last days of brightness and strength he was still bracing himself for service, willing to die, yet eager to bring forth more fruit amongst his students. He was summoned to higher service on March 14, 1901, in the fifty-ninth year of his age and the thirty-seventh of his ministry.

(28) Charles Henry Bishop: born in Guernsey, May 22, 1826. He was of Methodist parentage, and the godly influences of his home life resulted in early decision for God. He soon began to preach; and being clearly convinced of his call to the Christian ministry, became a Candidate in 1850, was accepted, and at once appointed to the island of Hayti. After fourteen years of faithful service he returned to the home work, to which he gave thirty-six years of unremitting labour, eight of which were devoted to the French work in the Channel Islands. In 1894 he was elected on the ground of seniority a member of the Legal Conference, a position he greatly valued. His preaching was evangelistic, earnest, and simple. Imbued with a keen sense of the importance of his message, he ever sought, by a faithful presentation of the truth, to win souls and strengthen the Church. His pastoral work was carried out diligently and persistently; he was greatly beloved by his people, and his visits were blessed to many. As a Superintendent his knowledge of, and thorough loyalty to, his Church made him a wise and careful administrator. Under severe and repeated trials he showed by a lofty faith and perfect acquiescence how fully he accepted the divine will, saying in his deepest grief, "It is all right." A passion for work made him desirous "to die in harness." Complete failure of health, however, compelled retirement at the last Conference, when he settled among his old friends in Lynn. He was a lover of peace, and the end was in harmony with the life he lived. On the evening of Good Friday, April 5, 1901, without seeing death, this devoted servant of God, in his sleep, entered peacefully the eternal rest in the seventy-fifth year of his age and the fifty-first of his ministry.

(29) JOHN MILUM: born April, 1848, at St. Mary Clist, near Exeter. Converted when twelve years old, he began at an early age to preach, serving, meanwhile, a long and busy apprenticeship, and attending science classes, which all stood him in good stead in after-years. While at Richmond College he offered himself for the Gold Coast, where it was his joy to participate in a remarkable spiritual movement among ministers, leaders, and people which drew multitudes of heathen into the Church, and brought many nominal Christians to full consecration. Lagos became his headquarters, where for ten years he laboured earnestly, enduring sore bereavements and much personal suffering. His work as Chairman of the District was characterised by foresight, method, judiciousness, patience, solidity, firm but conciliatory discipline, and Christian manliness. The General Missionary Committee showed their confidence in him as an organiser and administrator by entrusting him with special commissions of re-organisation at the Gambia in 1879, and on the Gold Coast in 1882 and in 1884–5 to adjust certain difficulties which had arisen at Lagos. His preaching was spiritual, thoughtful, and convincing, and indicative of a well furnished mind, thorough culture, wide observation, and conscientious and diligent preparation. In 1882 painful affliction induced by the climate compelled him reluctantly to leave his much-loved field of labour and enter the home work, in which for fourteen years he ably and faithfully "served his generation according to the will of God." In August, 1896, he was seized with sudden paralysis. He waited submissively for the coming of the Lord. On the morning of April 19, 1901, he had another stroke, and the following day he fell asleep, ten days after completing his fifty-third year. He was a good man, full of faith and of the Holy Ghost.

(30) CHARLES ROBERTS: born at Camden Town, January 30, 1836. His parents were members of the Established Church, and he was brought up in that communion. Through the influence of his employer he was induced to join a branch of the Y.M.C.A., where he was convinced of sin, and in one of its meetings he sought and found peace with God. He joined the Methodist Church, and in 1860 offered himself as a Candidate for our Ministry. He was accepted for immediate work, and sent to South Africa, where he continued to labour for a period of seventeen years. In 1877 he returned to England, and after two years of deputation work spent the remainder of his life in some of our most laborious Circuits. "He was a good man," somewhat reserved in manner, but of a kindly disposition. He was a hard worker, a devoted missionary, and a diligent student of God's word in the original languages. While in the mission work he composed a Zulu grammar and a dictionary which have been in great demand. He was a lover of Methodism, true to its doctrines, and a conscientious administrator of its discipline. He maintained an unblemished reputation and won the respect and confidence of the people. At the Conference of 1900 he became a Supernumerary and settled at South Shields, still hoping to do some work for the Master. About three months after his retirement, however, sickness came, which soon assumed a serious form. His sufferings were most acute. At the beginning of his illness his soul was in darkness, but the light came and he was at peace. One of his last utterances was :

> Rock of Ages, cleft for me,
> Let me hide myself in Thee.

He passed away early in the morning on April 24, 1901, in the sixty-fifth year of his age and the forty-first of his ministry.

(31) John Badcock James : born at Penzance on November 21, 1836. He was left an orphan at an early age, and was brought up at Newlyn by an uncle, whose godly example exerted a beneficial influence upon his future life. Early converted to God, he became a member of the Wesleyan Methodist Church, a useful Sunday-school teacher, and a successful local preacher. In 1863 he was accepted as a Candidate for the Ministry, and sent at once into Circuit work. He was unassuming, genial, and true-hearted. As a pastor he was loving and diligent. His preaching was evangelical and thoughtful, and he delighted in proclaiming the distinctive doctrines of Methodism in their fulness and power. As a Superintendent he was judicious and faithful, and was highly esteemed in all his Circuits. Having travelled thirty-seven years, at the last Conference he became a Supernumerary, and settled in Ryde, where, after much suffering, he fell on sleep April 27, 1901.

(32) John Richard Hargreaves : born in Dublin in the year 1838. Under the influence of Christian friends in that city he became truly converted to God. Having removed to Hull, he soon after began to preach. His superior gifts and usefulness gave indications of a call to the Christian ministry, and in the year 1860 he was accepted as a Candidate and designated for immediate work. By extensive and varied reading and diligent study, he commended himself as an intelligent, earnest, and practical preacher. Both in the pulpit and on the platform his incisive, vigorous, and often eloquent utterances deeply impressed his hearers. For some years he was Principal of our Theological Institution and High School, York Town, Jamaica. After his return to England he laboured in several Circuits, although in impaired health, which at times seriously affected his work. His last appointment was to Tredegar, where he succumbed to an attack of influenza, complicated with pneumonia. Before he died he told his sorrowing family, "I have fought a good fight—not always a good fight; but I have kept the faith." In great feebleness he sang the verse commencing "What are these arrayed in white?" and then passed peacefully away on May 3, 1901, in the sixty-third year of his age and the forty-first of his ministry.

(33) THOMAS THOMPSON: born in Weardale, and brought to a saving knowledge of the truth when about twenty years of age. After his conversion he began to work for his divine Master, and soon exhibited gifts which led to his recommendation as a Candidate for the Ministry at the Conference of 1856. He laboured in successive Circuits with great diligence and success. He was a man of discriminating judgment, of varied attainments, and intelligent piety. His reputation was spotless. A prayerful and thoughtful student of the word of God, he was widely read in the best writings of our English divines. His views of Christian doctrine and of Church polity were well-defined and scriptural. His preaching was evangelical, practical, and edifying. A loyal son of his Church, he was faithful in the discharge of his pastoral duties, and attentive in all his Circuits "to every point, great and small," in the Methodist discipline. He became a Supernumerary at the last Conference, and removed to the Kilburn and Hampstead Circuit. In conversation he frequently expressed a desire to "cease at once to work and live," and his desire was granted. On Sunday, May 5, while returning from an appointment, he suddenly passed away in the seventy-first year of his age and the forty-fifth of his ministry.

(34) JOHN MALVERN: born at Tewkesbury on October 12, 1818. Brought to Christ under the ministry of the late Rev. Alfred Barrett, he offered himself for the Wesleyan Ministry, and was sent as a Missionary to Fiji. Accompanied by his wife and child, he set sail from Southampton on November 21, 1846, on board the new mission brig John Wesley. For about thirteen years he laboured in those islands, sharing with John Hunt, Richard B. Lyth, James Calvert, John S. Fordham, and other pioneers of that remarkable Mission the dangers of travel, war, and cannibalism. He soon became a correct, fluent, and powerful speaker in the Fijian language. He had great aptitude for teaching the native children, and in this work was ably assisted by his wife. Perhaps his most fruitful work was in teaching and training native agents, many of whom were afterwards employed as catechists and assistant missionaries. As Chairman of the District he gained the confidence and love of his brethren by his prudent administration and fatherly interest in them and their families. He was a faithful Missionary, and left his mark for good in every Circuit in Fiji in which he laboured. In consequence of enfeebled health he returned to England in the year 1859, and was employed for the next two years by the Mission House in the work of translating. He then went into Circuit work for nine years; but his health finally breaking down, he became a Supernumerary. For many years he was unable to render any public service, but to the end he continued to take a deep interest in the progress of Christ's kingdom. Though somewhat nervous and retiring, in the discharge of his duty he was firm and courageous, fearing only his divine Master. He was a good man, a wise counsellor, a devout Christian, warmly attached to Methodism, and a faithful minister of Jesus Christ. A few days before he died he asked that the hymn, "Jesu, lover of my soul," should be sung to him. When the words "Safe into the haven guide" were reached, he said, "Amen, Amen." He died at Liverpool on May 6, 1901, in the eighty-third year of his age and the fifty-fifth of his ministry.

(35) William Millican: born at Garrigill, in the Alston Circuit. His father and mother were Wesleyan Methodists, whose godly influence led to his early conversion. He entered the teaching profession, and whilst a pupil teacher became a local preacher. He passed through our Westminster Training College; but was accepted as a Candidate for the Ministry in 1865, and sent into immediate work. His ministry was a fruitful one. As a preacher he was always expository, and his treatment of Old Testament incidents was very effective. His preaching was clear, forceful, practical, and his setting forth of the truth sparkled with beauty and touches of humour, attracting and riveting attention. Through all there shone the desire to lead others to larger views of life's duties, responsibilities, and privileges. His intense longing for visible results often led him to earnest heartsearching and prayer. As a pastor he was much beloved. His prayers in the homes of the afflicted were refreshing and comforting, and his counsels were tender and helpful. He proved himself an able administrator, wise, far-seeing, and faithful to our polity and principles. He never shrank from any task, however hard and painful. In difficult situations he was aided by his sense of humour, and not seldom opponents were turned into supporters and foes into friends. Strength was the prominent feature of his character; but it was blended with a beautiful modesty which led him to seek the retired rather than the prominent place, and with a broad sympathy and tenderness which made him the helper of the poor and needy. As a friend and colleague he shared the joys and sorrows of others. The services rendered, the sacrifices made, and the numberless quiet, brotherly acts done, will never be known till "that day." "Faithful to Him that appointed him," he served his generation by the will of God, and suddenly fell on sleep on June 18, 1901, in the sixty-second year of his age and the thirty-sixth of his ministry.

(36) JOSEPH BAILEY: born at Newchapel, near Tunstall, in 1834. When in the bright days of youth many voices were calling, he heard above all the rest the loving, persuasive, pleading voice of the Saviour, and that kindled in his heart a love that death itself could not quench. Thoughtfully, resolutely, and with a loyalty that grew stronger as the years rolled on, he devoted himself to Christ. Accepted as a Candidate for the Ministry, he entered Didsbury College in 1855, where he applied himself diligently to his studies, and secured the good opinion and respect of all. In his Circuit work he was earnest, attentive to duty, sympathetic with the suffering, watchful over the spiritual welfare of his congregations, and keenly anxious for the prosperity of the Church. His colleagues remember with gratitude his ripe judgment, unvarying kindness, and godly example. He was essentially a man of peace, willing at all times rather to suffer than to jeopardise the work of God by fighting for a doubtful point. Throughout his last Circuit his name will ever be fragrant. He was esteemed for his work's sake. The end of his long but happy toil came suddenly. He died at Brecon on Saturday, July 20, 1901, at the close of a busy week. He had arranged to visit the Conference at Newcastle-on-Tyne; before it met, however, he had passed from the toils of the Church on earth to the peace, rest, and reward of eternity.

(37) HENRY HASTLING: born at Doncaster, October 30, 1815. When he was about sixteen years of age a gracious revival of religion took place in the Wesleyan Methodist Chapel in his native town, during the course of which it pleased God to reveal His Son in him. He found the blessing of conscious salvation at a prayer-meeting, and, having root in himself, he endured to the end, and was saved. In 1838 he was received as a Candidate for the Wesleyan Methodist Ministry, and was sent to the Theological Institution at Hoxton. His first appointment was to the Glasgow Circuit, and it led to his spending eight years of his ministerial life in Scotland. His subsequent ministry was largely affected by this circumstance, for during that period he not only witnessed an outpouring of the Spirit of God, which increased his passion for the salvation of souls, but he also acquired a taste for the study of theology. From the beginning his preaching was not devoid of the element of fear. Knowing the terror of the Lord, he persuaded men, and was made manifest unto God and to the consciences of his hearers also. Still, the gentleness of God made his ministry as winsome as it was awakening. He laboured earnestly in many important Circuits, and served the Connexion also as Chairman of three Districts, proving himself in all things a faithful steward of the mysteries of God. Owing chiefly to failure of voice he retired from the active work in 1884, and settled at Doncaster, where for some years he continued to serve the Church. At length, however, old age and increasing feebleness incapacitated him entirely for all public duty. He was delivered from the fear of death, his faith in Christ continued as unshaken as the love of God, and sometimes he was permitted to enjoy, not only peace, but holy rapture. His last illness was very painful and prolonged. In seasons of occasional relief from his sufferings he was often apparently engaged in prayer or in what he regarded as intercourse with the sainted dead. His last intelligible words were, "Jesus is calling." He died in faith on July 22, 1901, in the eighty-sixth year of his age and the sixty-third of his ministry.

(38) Joseph Hirst: born July 7, 1822, and entered our Ministry 1846. He spent all his strength in doing the work to which he had been called, and adorned the gospel which he proclaimed. He was a diligent student, and a good pastor a hearty believer in our system of Christian fellowship, and a class-leader at the time of his death. His preaching was evangelical, spiritual, and practical. He was generous to the point of self-denial. He had a remarkable gift in prayer. For sixteen years he resided in Douglas as a Supernumerary, and held a high place in the esteem and love of our people. He preached to a large congregation at Rose Mount Church on Sunday, July 28, and died full of peace and hope on the following morning, in the eightieth year of his age and the fifty-fifth of his ministry.

2. In Ireland, five:

(1) JAMES GRIFFIN, D.D.: born in the city of Dublin on January 15, 1815, and finished his course in the same city on October 25, 1900. He was a member of a highly estimable family, and was favoured during his childhood and youth with good educational and religious advantages. At a very early age he was led by divine grace to lay hold of everlasting life, and at once sought to lead others to the Saviour. The Primitive Wesleyans discovered in the "boy preacher," as he was then called, those evidences of "grace, gifts, and fruit" which indicate a divine call to the Ministry. In 1837 he received his first appointment, to the Enniskillen Circuit. He was afterwards elected by the Primitive Wesleyan Conference to the important office of Travelling Secretary for the Home Missionary Society, and in this, and all his work, gave full proof of his ability and fidelity. He enjoyed the confidence and esteem of his brethren, who, after frequently calling him to the office of Chairman of the District, twice elected him President of the Conference. When increasing years and infirmities rendered retirement necessary, he still visited and preached as often as possible and manifested a deep interest in the welfare of our Church. He was almost the last of a select number of distinguished Primitive Wesleyan preachers, with whom he was associated during the early years of his ministry. He passed peacefully home in the eighty-sixth year of his age and the sixty-fourth of his ministry.

(2) John Donald, D.D.: born at Hillhall, near Lisburn, in the year 1814. His mother was the daughter of a leader in the Methodist Society, and his father and grandfather were also leaders. He was educated at an endowed school, and the study of the Greek Testament was one of his special delights in after-years. He was converted to God in early life. The reading of a book while waiting for a companion was the means of arousing his conscience, and soon after, under the gracious influence of a revival at Lambeg, he found peace in believing. In course of time he became a leader and local preacher. In 1838 he was appointed by the Conference to the Donegal Mission, and here, as in all his subsequent spheres of labour, he proved himself an able, faithful, and successful minister of the gospel. In addition to the ordinary routine of ministerial work, he filled the office of Chairman of a District, edited the Christian Advocate, took a deep interest in every Connexional movement, and for a period of thirty years discharged the duties of Secretary and Treasurer of the Methodist Preachers' Annuitant Society in Ireland. His fidelity to his Church was deep and intense. He gave no half-hearted adhesion to either its doctrines or its polity, and to his latest hour his interest in its welfare never failed. He was a man, moreover, of high principle, marked intellectual attainments, great fondness for reading, and thorough devotion to sound thinking. His love for and interest in children were obvious to all. He was a man of God, whose supreme purpose was to do the will of his Father in heaven. On the morning of January 2, 1901, he passed peacefully away, in the eighty-seventh year of his age and the sixty-third year of his ministry.

(3) James Black: born at Begney, near Dromara, co. Down, March 10, 1812. His parents, who were worthy members of the Presbyterian Church, opened their farm-house for Methodist services. Two of his brothers were ministers of the Presbyterian Church. Through the agency of the Methodist preachers, he was led in early manhood to realise his sinfulness, and after a season of deep conviction was enabled, at a love-feast in Lisburn, to trust in Jesus for present salvation. His conversion was very distinct, and in the fervour of his new life he began to call sinners to repentance, holding meetings for prayer and exhortation with blessed results. He was received as a probationer by the Conference of 1837, and for thirty-nine years he diligently fulfilled the duties of his Ministry with much acceptance in many of the most laborious Circuits. The widespread Calvinism and formalism led him to a vigorous maintenance of Christian doctrine, and especially of earnest evangelical Arminianism. In his retirement he retained a deep interest in the progress of the work of God. On March 10, 1901, on the eighty-ninth anniversary of his birth, he entered into rest.

(4) William Quaile: born near Drumshambo, co. Leitrim, in 1824. He enjoyed the advantages of a Christian home and served God from his youth. In 1850 he began his probation on what was then the Cavan Mission, and for forty years fulfilled the duties of the Ministry, enjoying the confidence and respect of his brethren and the gratitude and affection of the people amongst whom he laboured. He had good intellectual powers, which he improved by diligent study. He possessed a sensitive disposition, but was as careful to avoid doing a wrong to another as he was quick to feel a wrong done to himself. He spoke little of his own experience, except so far as it was necessary in exalting Christ as his Saviour and Lord. Severe family afflictions befell him, the sudden removal of his wife, and the loss of four of his five sons, some of them after long illnesses, having left memories that shadowed his life. As a steward of God he was "faithful in that which is least," as well as "faithful also in much." In braving the difficulties of distance and weather in travelling his Circuits, in laborious preparation for the pulpit, in punctuality in meeting his engagements, in affectionate attention to his people in their homes, especially in times of sorrow, and in diligence in the administration of the details of Circuit affairs, he lived as one who was "ever in his great Taskmaster's eye." As a Supernumerary he took charge of Tramore, co. Waterford, for a time; but about two years ago settled in Rathmines, Dublin. Here his health declined gradually, and without much suffering he reached the end of life's journey. Towards the close he spoke little except to show an affectionate interest in his family or to address the Lord in prayer. Surrounded by his surviving children, he fell asleep on April 22, 1901, in the seventy-seventh year of his age and the fifty-first of his ministry.

(5) THOMAS GREER: of Kinsale, born of godly parentage at Loughbrickland, co. Down, in the year 1836. His father was a member of the Presbyterian Church, and his mother a Methodist of much originality and force of character. When about fifteen years of age, chiefly through the divine blessing on the influence of his mother, he was led to religious decision and began to work for God. Having passed through the Dublin Hardwicke Street Training Institution and spent some years as a day-school teacher in the west of Ireland, he was received by the Conference as a preacher on trial in 1863. His ministry was characterised by more than average ability, much spiritual power, and considerable success. As a preacher, his style was expository, his sermons evidencing careful preparation and being marked by considerable force of illustration; while as a pastor he was faithful, kind, and sympathetic. Early in 1901 he met with a serious accident, which laid him aside from his work. His strength failed, and on June 24, in the sixty-sixth year of his age, and at the close of the thirty-eighth year of his ministry, he, without a struggle or sigh, gently fell asleep in Jesus.

3. In our Foreign Missions, six:

(1) Joseph S. Kelshall: born of Methodist parents in the island of Dominica in the year 1836. Early in life he was sent to Barbados, where he received a good education. He then returned to Dominica, and was employed in the Government service. Under the ministry of the word he was brought to accept Christ as his Saviour from sin, and henceforth enjoyed a clear consciousness of forgiveness and acceptance. He entered the Ministry in the year 1867, and laboured in Nevis, Tortola, St. Kitts, Dominica, Antigua, British Guiana, Tobago, Trinidad, and St. Barths. While in Trinidad his long-impaired health succumbed, and he was compelled to become a Supernumerary. All who knew him bear testimony to his deep and sincere piety and his strong Christian character. The congregations and members of the various Churches to whom he dispensed the word of life accepted him in very truth as their spiritual father and guide. He lived beneath the shadow of the Almighty. A preacher of the old Methodist style—evangelical, sincere, fervent, and fearless—his sermons were powerful and soul-stirring. He ever impressed upon his hearers the necessity of accepting Christ as a personal Saviour and of possessing experimental religion. He passed to his heavenly rest on April 24, 1900.

(2) Thomas Porter Russell: born at Ely, July 22, 1838; died at Hilton Hill, St. Ann, Jamaica, September 2, 1900. In early life he attended the services of the Established Church, but in his young manhood he came under the influence of Methodism, was convinced of sin, and, earnestly seeking the mercy of God, found it by faith in Christ. He threw his whole soul into Sunday-school teaching and evangelistic work, became a class-leader and local preacher, and in the year 1860 was accepted as a Candidate for the Ministry. Arriving in Jamaica in 1861, he entered heartily into the work, and continued to make full proof of his ministry for thirty-nine years. In his pulpit ministrations his chief aim was the saving of souls; and in response to his earnest appeals many were induced to yield themselves to God. It was his delight to set forth the higher privileges of the believer, and to urge their attainment. His prayers were remarkable for their fervour and power with God. As a Superintendent he was always faithful in the discharge of his duties, being anxious to maintain and extend the work of God. His character was pure and holy. In social life he always maintained the dignity of the minister, as well as the refinement and courtesy of the Christian gentleman. In the inner circle of friendship his affectionate and sympathetic bearing won for him the love and esteem of all who had the privilege of close intercourse with him. He was a true friend to the people of his charge, rejoicing with those who rejoiced, and entering fully into the griefs and troubles of those who were called to mourn. His cheering and comforting words are treasured by many who have had "waters of a full cup" wrung out to them. A serious breakdown in his health necessitated his seeking rest and change in his native land during the year 1898. On his return to Jamaica his health seemed to be thoroughly re-established, and he was appointed to the Watsonville Circuit. There a great family bereavement fell upon him. A mysterious Providence removed two of his sons within twenty-four hours of each other, and from this stroke he never rallied. His former ailments returned; and after much suffering, endured with resignation to the divine will, he peacefully passed into "the presence of the King."

(3) Giuseppe Musmeci: born in Catania, Sicily, in 1825. Early in life he assumed the monastic habit, and became a highly popular preacher. But when the gospel of Christ began to be proclaimed in Sicily, the superstitious beliefs of Musmeci's youth lost their hold on him, and at last he flung off his Carmelite's frock. It was at Messina that he first appeared as a soldier under Christ's banner; he met with terrible opposition, but overcame it, and won converts for the gospel. At Barcelona he had again to fight against odds, yet once more had the victory. In 1873 he was accepted as an assistant minister of our Church. He was full of zeal and of kindly affection; and his eloquence, simple, noble, fervid, shook to their very depths the most obdurate and superstitious souls, deeply impressed the multitude, and always reached the hearts of his hearers. His mission tours were marked by stirring scenes. He rejoiced in his work, and was undaunted by opposition. Many attacks of illness shook his strong constitution in later life, yet he still tried to toil on. At last his malady so gained on him that he was compelled to leave his post in Messina, and retire to his native Catania. Here, to the deep regret of his loving friends and brethren, he passed away on the night of September 18, 1900, resting on the almighty love of the Redeemer whom he had so long and so devotedly followed and served.

(4) Thomas Middleton Geddes: born at Ocho Rios, in the parish of St. Ann, Jamaica, in 1832. At an early age he gave himself unreservedly to God, and entered the Ministry in 1855. In his earlier years he experienced the hardships of pioneer work in the western parts of the island of Jamaica, where he laboured with much success. More than half his ministerial life was passed in Kingston. In addition to the responsibilities and cares of pastoral work he filled the office of Book Steward for many years, and took a deep interest in the development of the business. In later years, owing to his wide knowledge of Connexional affairs and his ready sympathy, he was frequently appealed to in times of difficulty, and Circuits were indebted to him for wise counsel and suggestions. As Chairman of the Kingston District, as Vice-President of the Western Annual Conference, and as President of the West Indian General Conference from 1896 to 1899, the "care of all the Churches" came upon him daily. He was intensely loyal to the Methodist Church, and thankfully acknowledged that under God the best impulses of his life had been derived from the early missionaries. His pulpit work was characterised by clear insight, mental force, and spiritual power, and was owned of God in the salvation of men and the upbuilding of the Church. An ardent lover of his country, he was actively associated during the last forty years of his life with nearly every public movement for the advancement of the people. He was specially interested in educational affairs, and his influence was widely felt, not only in the Elementary and High Schools of our own Church, but throughout the island, as a member of the public Board of Education, a Director of the Mico Training College, and in connexion with various other educational institutions. His personal character was a fine admixture of tenderness and strength; his sympathy found practical expression in self-forgetfulness in the service of others. In 1898, after forty-three years of arduous and faithful ministerial service, his iron constitution broke down under the strain of work. A year's furlough was granted, in the hope that health might be restored. This hope was not fulfilled, and he was compelled to retire from the ranks of the active Ministry at the Conference of 1900. After a prolonged illness, patiently borne, God gave him rest and peace on October 18, 1900.

Accepted as a Probationer in the year 1865, he commenced his ministry in his native town. His ministerial life was chiefly devoted to the Dutch-speaking coloured people of the Western Province of Cape Colony. He was greatly revered and beloved, not only by the people of his congregation, but by the English and Dutch residents of the localities in which he laboured. He possessed unique qualifications for the work to which he was called, and had a thorough knowledge of the language, character, and habits of the people. A man of sound judgment and deep piety, he adorned the doctrine of our Saviour by integrity of life and conduct; a great reader and a diligent student, especially of theology, he excelled in the exposition and application of the truth, and his word was often accompanied by the rich unction of the Spirit. As a pastor he was indefatigable and self-sacrificing, and as a social worker he earned the gratitude of the community for his unwearied efforts in the cause of temperance and purity. He took an active part in the proceedings of the Synod in the month of February, 1901, and returned to his home full of enthusiasm and hope. Soon afterwards he was laid aside by severe illness, and after eighteen days of acute suffering, borne with exemplary patience, he entered into rest in the room in which he was born, and finished his life and ministry on March 3, 1901.

(6) Edwin Brownscombe: born at Newport, Mon., August 22, 1874. He came of true Methodist stock, being in the fourth generation of a loyal line, which, since 1825, has rendered excellent service to our Church in North Devon. Soon after his school days he became one of a band of enthusiastic young men connected with the Commercial Road Church, Newport, and gave himself to Sunday-school and Band of Hope work. He, however, strongly felt God's call to preach the gospel in heathen lands, and Africa was specially laid upon his heart. Accepted for the Ministry in 1895, during two happy and profitable years at Richmond College many felt the spell of his unusually lovable character. In 1897 he gladly responded to an appeal for volunteers for West Africa, and in the autumn went out to take charge of the Abeokuta Circuit in the Lagos District. He speedily won a warm place in the hearts of the people, and under his sagacious and earnest guidance the Churches were strengthened and increased. His second term of service was begun in 1899 with much hopefulness, and marked throughout by blessed success. But as it neared its close his gracious and promising earthly career suddenly ended. On March 19, 1901, the eve of his departure on furlough, he succumbed to an attack of fever, in the twenty-seventh year of his age and the fourth of his ministry. The quiet simplicity and gentleness of his disposition endeared him to many; his untiring devotion and wise supervision have left their mark for good on God's work in benighted Africa.

Q. XXIX. Is there any objection to any of our Ministers or Preachers on Trial?

A. They were examined, one by one.

Q. XXX. Who have ceased to be recognised as Ministers amongst us?

A. 1. In Great Britain,

(1) J. Anthony Barnes, B.A., James A. D. J. Macdonald, and George W. Thompson, who have voluntarily retired from our work.

(2) W. Clement Kendall, J. Goodrich Oats, and John W. Rodgers, who have retired by arrangement.

(3) E. Clowes Chorley, who has also retired.

(4) William Dunstan.

2. In our Foreign Missions,

Ebenezer Nathaniel, Indian Minister, who has voluntarily retired.

3. In Ireland,

George Vance Crook, who has voluntarily retired.

Q. XXXI. How are our Ministers and Preachers on Trial stationed for the ensuing year?

A. As follows:

[N.B.—1. Each of the places mentioned in these Stations, and numbered consecutively from 1 to 923, is the head of the Circuit; and the Minister first named is the Superintendent. In the event of his death, resignation, or incapacity, the Minister next named, provided such Minister be in Full Connexion with the Conference, and in full work, is the Superintendent. In case there is no Minister in Full Connexion with the Conference, and in full work, appointed to or remaining in the Circuit, the Chairman of the District is the Superintendent.

2. The Superintendent and other Minister or Ministers who are or shall be stationed in or appointed to the several Circuits undermentioned is and are appointed by the Conference to preach and to perform all acts of religious worship and Methodist discipline in each and everyone of the Wesleyan Methodist chapels already erected, or to be erected, in each Circuit respectively, within the space of twelve calendar months, at such time or times, and in such manner, as to him or them shall seem proper; subject, nevertheless, to the Superintendent Minister.

3. The Minister appointed to any Station without a number is the Superintendent, and is therefore entitled to preside in the Quarterly Meeting and Trustees' Meetings; but he shall, as heretofore, act under the direction of the Chairman of the District, except when otherwise ordered by the Conference.]

OFFICIAL APPOINTMENTS.

Q. XXXIII. Whom do we appoint to be our Delegate in Ireland?

A. Our PRESIDENT, the Rev. W. THEOPHILUS DAVISON, M.A., D.D.; or, in his unavoidable absence, one of the following Ministers: the Rev. THOMAS ALLEN, D.D., Ex-President; the Rev. JOHN OLIVER PARK, B.A., nominated by the Irish Conference; the Rev. FREDERIC W. MACDONALD, or the Rev. HUGH PRICE HUGHES, M.A.

N.B.—1. The PRESIDENT, or other Minister acting as Delegate under the authority of the preceding appointment, who shall preside at the next Conference in Ireland, shall exercise the powers confided to him under and by virtue of the thirteenth clause of Mr. Wesley's Deed Poll, dated February 28, 1784.

2. The Ex-PRESIDENT, the Rev. THOMAS ALLEN, D.D., the Rev. JOHN S. BANKS, and the Rev. WILLIAM T. A. BARBER, M.A., B.D., are appointed to accompany the PRESIDENT to the Conference in Ireland, which will commence in Dublin on Tuesday, June 17, 1902.

Q. XXXIV. What other Official Appointments are made?

A. (A) 1. The Rev. MATTHIEU LELIÈVRE, D.D., is appointed the President of the next French Conference, to be held at LE VIGAN, in the month of June, 1902.

2. The Rev. ROBERT LAMPLOUGH is appointed the President of the next South African Conference, to be held at Kimberley, in the month of April, 1902.

3. The Rev. W. CLARKE MURRAY, D.D., is appointed the President of the next Western West Indian Conference, to be held at Kingston, Jamaica, in March, 1902.

4. The Rev. DAVID J. REYNOLDS is appointed the President of the next Eastern West Indian Conference, to be held in Georgetown, Demerara, in March, 1902.

(B) 1. The PRESIDENT of the Conference will preside at the Annual Meeting of the Welsh Wesleyan Methodist Assembly of Wales, to be held at Llangollen, in June, 1902. The Rev. Henry J. Pope, D.D., the Rev. Hugh Price Hughes, M.A., and the Rev. John Hornabrook are appointed to accompany the President. The Rev. John Hughes (c) is appointed President of the Assembly.

2. The Rev. T. Bowman Stephenson, D.D., LL.D., is appointed to attend the Annual Meeting of the Isle of Man Synod, to be held at Douglas in May, 1902.

EXAMINATIONS OF CANDIDATES FOR ORDINATION.

Q. XXXV. What are the Directions of the Conference respecting the Examinations of Candidates for Ordination?

In the Synod.

A. (a) 1. Before any Preacher, having travelled four years, is recommended by his District Synod for admission into Full Connexion, he shall undergo a careful oral examination, by the Chairman of that Synod, respecting his acquaintance with Wesley's Works in general, and especially with his Sermons and his Notes on the New Testament. This oral Examination may be omitted when the report on the Probationer's paper on Wesley's Works (see p. 323) is satisfactory.

2. Every such Preacher shall also be examined as to his knowledge of the Constitution of Methodism and the Administration of Circuits; and as to whether, after four years' experience of its working, he still approves of our Discipline.

In the Conference.

(b) 1. Arrangements shall be made for conducting the Examination, in the Conference, of Candidates for Ordination at a time when the President of the Conference can attend, and when a large proportion of the Conference, including its official members, may be expected to be present.

2. An explicit declaration of his belief in the Doctrines of Methodism shall be required of each Candidate.

EXAMINATION OF PREACHERS ON TRIAL.

Q. XXXVI. What is the Report upon the Examination of Preachers on Trial for the past year? And what are the directions of the Conference respecting the Examination of Preachers on Trial for the ensuing year?

A. 1. The following is a summary of the Report.

The Committee has to report with very great regret that the Senior Secretary, Dr. Findlay, finds it necessary, through pressure of work, to retire from the post he has held for the last three years. Succeeding as he did to the position so long held by Dr. Moulton, Dr. Findlay's help came at a time when it was peculiarly needed, and the Committee most reluctantly asks the Conference to accept his resignation.

According to the appointment of the Conference, the Examination was held on December 7, 1900, and March 29, 1901, one Fourth Year Paper coming as usual on the previous evening, March 28.

The Honours List contains the names of more than half the Probationers. A considerable majority have voluntarily taken their New Testament Book in Greek instead of English; and as many as thirteen, returned by their tutors as only equal to a lower paper, elected to take the higher, six taking the contrary course. Some of these efforts were unsuccessful, and have not been reported. Sixteen re-examinations (apart from those thus involved) have been held, as against eleven last year; three of the failures are still unredeemed, two of them to the account of the same man. The number of postponed papers is nineteen, against twenty-six in 1900; in almost all these cases ill-health was the cause, and a medical certificate was obtained. In three cases the full number of papers has not been taken, because of continued illness.

The results for the optional Greek Testament subject (iii. a) and the advanced Hebrew (iv. a) are necessarily given separately, since in estimating Honours or Failure the marks are reckoned as two grades above the figure at which they stand.

Honours Marks.

1* indicating Exceptional excellence.
1 „ Excellent.
2 „ Very good.
3 „ Good.

Pass Marks.

4 indicating Fair.
5 „ Moderate.

Failure Marks.

6 indicating Poor.
7 „ Very poor.

The mark 5 is now defined as implying a minimum of thirty per cent. of the full credit obtainable on a paper. In papers iii. a and iv. a, the mark 6, defined as twenty per cent. and over, is the lowest allowed to pass.

The general results of the examination are as follows :

First Year.—95 Probationers were examined, whose work is classified as follows :

In the subjects which for the purposes of the Honours List are reckoned as they stand, 162 papers were written, the valuation marks of which are as follows : i*, 4 ; i, 8 ; ii, 18 ; iii, 37 ; iv, 57 ; v, 37 ; Failure, 1.

In subjects iii. a and iv. a, 60 papers were written, the valuation marks of which were as follows : i*, 1 ; i, 2; ii, 7 ; iii, 29 ; iv, 12 ; v, 7 ; vi, 2 ; Failure, 0.

The Non-Collegiates wrote 105 papers in the following subjects : Findlay : Epistles of St. Paul ; St. Mark's Gospel, in English ; Psalms, Book I., in English ; and Davison : Praises of Israel. The valuation marks of these papers were as follows : i*, 6 ; i, 13 ; ii, 24 ; iii, 22 ; iv, 18 ; v, 22 ; Failure, 0. Eighteen Non-Collegiates took 57 ordinary First Year papers, for which they received special credit.

Second Year.—43 Probationers were examined, the results of whose work are classified as follows:

In the subjects which for the purposes of the Honours List are reckoned as they stand, 127 papers were written, the valuation marks of which are as follows: i*, 2; i, 9; ii, 29; iii, 35; iv, 37; v, 13; Failure, 2.

In subjects iii. a and iv. a, 41 papers were written, the valuation marks of which are as follows: i*, 1; i, 8; ii, 16; iii, 12; iv, 0; v, 3; vi, 1; Failure, 0.

Third Year.—35 Probationers were examined, the results of whose work are classified as follows:

In the subjects which for the purposes of the Honours List are reckoned as they stand, 100 papers were written, the valuation marks of which are as follows: i*, 1; i, 9; ii, 20; iii, 23; iv, 27; v, 20; Failure, 0.

In subjects iii. a and iv. a, 37 papers were written, the valuation marks of which are as follows: i*, 0; i, 9; ii, 6; iii, 10; iv, 5; v, 6; vi, 1; Failure, 0.

Fourth Year.—34 Probationers were examined, the results of whose work are classified as follows:

In the subjects which for the purposes of the Honours List are reckoned as they stand, 129 papers were written, the valuation marks of which are as follows: i*, 1; i, 14; ii, 23; iii, 36; iv, 36; v, 19; Failure, 0.

In subjects iii. a and iv. a, 41 papers were written, the valuation marks of which are as follows: i*, 1; i, 1; ii, 3; iii, 9; iv, 10; v, 7; vi, 10; Failure, 0.

The percentages compared with those of last year are as follows:

First Year.—In the subjects which are reckoned for the Honours List as they stand: 1900—Papers valued 4, 33%; above 4, 45%; below 4, 22%. 1901—Papers valued 4, 35%; above 4, 41%; below 4, 24%.

In subjects iii. a and iv. a: 1900—Papers valued 4, 29%; above 4, 63%; below 4, 8%. 1901—Papers valued 4, 20%; above 4, 65%; below 4, 15%.

Non-Collegiates: 1900—Papers valued 4, 30%; above 4, 35%; below 4, 35%. 1901—Papers valued 4, 17%; above 4, 62%; below 4, 21%.

Second Year.—In the subjects which are reckoned for the Honours List as they stand: 1900—Papers valued 4, 12%; above 4, 75%; below 4, 13%. 1901—Papers valued 4, 29%; above 4, 59%; below 4, 12%.

In subjects iii. a and iv. a: 1900—Papers valued 4, 20%; above 4, 52%; below 4, 28%. 1901—Papers valued 4, 0%; above 4, 90%; below 4, 10%.

Third Year.—In the subjects which are reckoned for the Honours List as they stand: 1900—Papers valued 4, 30%; above 4, 63%; below 4, 7%. 1901—Papers valued 4, 27%; above 4, 53%; below 4, 20%.

In subjects iii. a and iv. a: 1900—Papers valued 4, 48%; above 4, 40%; below 4, 12%. 1901—Papers valued 4, 13·5%; above 4, 67·5%; below 4, 19%.

Fourth Year.—In the subjects which are reckoned for the Honours List as they stand: 1900—Papers valued 4, 22%; above 4, 73%; below 4, 5%. 1901—Papers valued 4, 28%; above 4, 57%; below 4, 15%.

In subjects iii. a and iv. a: 1900—Papers valued 4, 33%; above 4, 33%; below 4, 33% (approximately). 1901—Papers valued 4, 24·4%; above 4, 34·1%; below 4, 41·5%.

Special examinations were arranged for T. Naylor, B.A., on 1 Corinthians (Greek), and G. F. S. Atkinson, B.A., on Acts i.–xv. (Greek). The marks were respectively 1 and 2.

N.B.—(1) A place in the Honours List is assigned to those who (i) take the full number of subjects required, and in other respects fulfil the conditions of the Examination as laid down in the Minutes of Conference, and (ii) obtain an average mark not exceeding 3 for the subjects taken.

(2) Those whose average mark does not exceed 1 are placed in the First Class of Honours. Those whose average mark is 2, or between 1 and 2, are placed in the Second Class. Those whose average mark is 3, or between 2 and 3, constitute the Third Class. In estimating the average mark, 1* and 2 will be taken as giving the same total as 1 and 1. Thus an examinee whose marks are 1*, 2, 1*, 2, 1, is placed in the First Class.

(3) The marks of those who take iii. a and iv. a are reckoned for the Honours List as two grades higher than corresponding marks in the English subject.

(4) The names in each year stand in order of merit; but, on account of the difference in subjects, no attempt is made to compare one year with another.

(5) In Greek and Hebrew there are two papers—an easier and a more difficult. It is plain that it would not be fair to classify those who took the easier and the harder papers together, without distinguishing them in some way. The Committee has consequently attached diacritic marks to the names in the Honours List as follows: (a) Higher Greek and Hebrew; (b) Greek and Hebrew—one Higher, one Lower; (c) Lower Greek and Hebrew; (d) Greek, but not Hebrew; (e) neither Greek nor Hebrew.

(6) It is of course obvious that failure in any subject altogether disqualifies for Honours.

(7) Those who are marked with a dagger (†) postponed the whole or part of their examination.

2. GENERAL REGULATIONS.—(1) The Examination of Preachers on Trial shall be conducted by a Connexional Board of Examiners, to consist of one Examiner in each subject contained in the course of reading prescribed for the four years of probation. In cases of doubt the Secretaries shall have power to appoint assessors.

(2) In addition to the Probationers' Examination Committee, three General Examination Secretaries shall be appointed.

(3) Arrangements shall be made at the September District Synod for the Examination of Preachers on Trial in the District. The places of Examination shall be chosen with a view to reducing as much as possible the travelling expenses involved. For this purpose it shall be allowed, where deemed advisable, that Probationers from different Districts may be examined in the same centre. Every Probationer may claim the third-class railway fare to and from the place of Examination. These expenses shall be defrayed, together with other expenses of the Examination, from the Connexional Fund and from the Theological Institution Fund, in such proportions as the Committees of those Funds may decide. The Conference recommends that examination centres be so arranged at the September District Synods (or, where necessary, by consultation between the General Secretaries and the District Examination Secretaries) that no Probationer shall have to travel more than thirty miles by rail to his examination.

(4) At the September District Synod a District Probationers' Examination Secretary shall be appointed, with Assistant Secretaries if necessary, so as to provide a Secretary to take charge of each Central Examination in the District; and each Secretary shall be held responsible for the efficient conduct of the Central Examination. Where the distances allow, at least two Probationers shall be examined at each centre. The Secretaries for adjoining Districts shall confer before the end of September, with a view to fixing suitable centres for the Examination of Probationers stationed near the borders of the Districts. Full and clear instructions as to the course to be pursued shall be forwarded to the Secretaries by the General Secretaries.

(5) The Examination shall be held in two parts, the first in the month preceding Christmas, the second in the spring; and it shall take place throughout the Connexion on the same days, which shall be fixed from year to year.

(6) The Examination Papers, prepared under the direction of the Committee, shall be sent by the General Secretaries to each District Examination Secretary, whose duty it shall be to distribute them at the Central Examination, and by the earliest post transmit to the General Secretaries the Papers written by the several Probationers at those Examinations.

(7) The Probationers' Papers shall be forwarded by the General Secretaries to the Examiners for valuation, and each Examiner shall send to them the results of his valuation of the Papers, shown by numbers, together with such remarks upon them as he may think desirable.

In the case of the North and South Wales Districts, such variations from the foregoing arrangements are permitted as the Examination Secretaries may find necessary.

(8) The General Secretaries shall compile from the returns of the Examiners a complete Report upon the examination of each Probationer, and forward it to the District Examination Secretary, to be presented by him to the May District Synod, together with such remarks on the Examination of the Preachers on Trial in the District as he may think desirable. The numbers obtained by each Preacher on Trial in the several subjects of Examination shall be entered on the Minutes of the District Synod. The Resolutions of the District Synods on the Examination of Preachers on Trial shall be forwarded to the General Secretaries by the District Examination Secretaries.

(9) The Conference directs the General Examination Secretaries to send, in May, to each District Synod having one or more Candidates for Ordination, a Report showing the result of the Examination of every such Candidate during each year of his probation.

(10) The General Secretaries shall prepare and present to the Conference a General Report upon the Examination of the Preachers on Trial.

3. The following Ministers are appointed the Probationers' Examination Committee for the ensuing year; viz. the PRESIDENT of the Conference, the EX-PRESIDENT, the SECRETARY; the Tutors of the four Branches of the Theological Institution; the General Examination Secretaries; the Rev. William Perkins, Dr. Rigg, and Dr. Stephenson.

The Rev. JAMES HOPE MOULTON, M.A., is re-appointed the Secretary of this Committee.

4. The Rev. DR. MOSS is appointed, and the Rev. G.

ARMSTRONG BENNETTS, B.A., and JAMES HOPE MOULTON, M.A., are re-appointed General Examination Secretaries.

7. The Conference requires every Probationer who is acquainted with Greek and Hebrew to take the Greek and Hebrew subjects which are specified in the list of subjects for his year. Every Probationer who has been a Student in the Theological Institution shall be examined in these Greek and Hebrew subjects, unless the Tutors under whom he studied, having taken into consideration his attainments on leaving the Institution, are of opinion that these examinations cannot reasonably be required in his case. In each year two Greek and two Hebrew papers shall be provided, of different degrees of difficulty; and, not later than October 1 in each year, the Committee shall decide, on the recommendation of the Tutors, what Probationers cannot reasonably be expected to take the more difficult papers. If other Probationers wish to take the easier paper in Greek or Hebrew, they shall be at liberty to do so, but will thereby become ineligible for Honours. In the case of Hebrew, the subject set for the easier paper shall be specially selected to suit the acquirements of elementary students. Those who take the advanced paper shall receive special recognition in the Report of the Examination.

8. The subject marked iii. in the list for each year may be taken either in Greek or in English by those Probationers who, in the portions of the Greek Testament prescribed for their respective years, take the advanced papers. All who take the subject in Greek shall receive special recognition in the Report of the Examination.

9. The Conference requires every Probationer of the First,

Second, and Third Years respectively to be examined in the four subjects set for his year. Probationers of the First Year who have yet to go to the Institution may take a light course of work specially provided for them, including one Old Testament and one New Testament subject, both in English, and one simple English work in Theology or Biblical History. Those who elect to take subjects from the ordinary list for the First Year shall receive special credit.

10. Probationers of the Fourth Year, and all Candidates for Ordination, shall take in March a paper on portions of Wesley's Works, to be chosen from year to year. Every Probationer of the Fourth Year shall be examined also in the subjects marked i., ii., iii., and iv., in the subjects for his year.

At the discretion of the General Secretaries, some relaxation of the rules in (9) and (10) shall be permitted in the case of candidates for Divinity examinations in the Universities of London and Wales.

11. Whenever a Probationer obtains a lower grade than 5 (see p. 314) for any paper, representing a minimum of thirty per cent. of the full credit obtainable, he shall be re-examined in the same subject, and the results of both Examinations shall be specially reported to the Conference. In the Examinations on the Hebrew Bible and Greek Testament, questions on points of grammar shall form an essential part of every paper set.

12. In the subjects marked iii. a and iv. a (which carry the special recognition referred to in (7) and (8) above), the allowance shall only be made in the case of those who attain the mark 6, which is defined as a minimum of twenty per cent. of the full credit obtainable on a paper. Those whose marks fall below this shall be reckoned as having failed. But when any Probationer fails in attempting a subject higher than that which he is required to take, he shall be re-examined in the lower subject, and his previous failure shall not be reported.

13. The second Examination referred to in the last two paragraphs shall take place before the end of April, in order that the District Synod may be made acquainted with the result.

14. In no case shall the Examination, in whole or in part, be postponed without the sanction of the General Examination Secretaries, the Chairman of the District, and the Superintendent of the Circuit. A special report of each postponement shall be presented to the May Synod.

15. Every Probationer shall, not later than September 21, 1901, inform the Rev. James Hope Moulton, M.A., 3, Queen Anne Terrace, Cambridge, what subjects he will present for Examination.

16. Every Probationer, whether appointed to a Circuit or on the List of Reserve, shall be examined in the subjects of his year.

17. If any Student be removed from the Theological Institution for Circuit work later than Christmas Day in any year, he shall not be expected to take the subjects prescribed for the examination of Probationers; but his examination shall be left in the hands of his College authorities, who shall examine him in subjects, generally four, to be chosen by the Tutors. The Examination of men on the President's List of Reserve who have not entered upon the four years of probation shall be arranged on a similar principle.

18. Probationers who leave College for Circuit work before Christmas Day in any year shall take the March Probationers' Examination of their year.

19. The days of Examination for the ensuing year shall be Friday, December 6, 1901, and Friday, March 28, 1902. For the Fourth Year there will also be a paper in the evening of Thursday, March 27. The Conference directs that these days be kept free from Circuit engagements for the Probationers.

20. Should any Probationer be prevented by illness, or otherwise, from attending the Annual Examination, the General Secretaries shall, in concert with the Chairman of the District in which he is stationed, make suitable provision for his Examination. In every case, notification should be sent to the Rev. James Hope Moulton, M.A., as early as possible. Permission for such postponement shall be given only on the ground of illness, or other serious emergency arising at the time of the Examination.

21. The Conference sees no sufficient reason for the exemption of those brethren who have formerly been Ministers in other Churches from the usual course of reading and examination prescribed by the Conference for Preachers on Trial, and directs that they be required to observe such regulations.

22. The Examination Committee is instructed to prepare and send to each Probationer, early in October, a list of books specially recommended for the reading of Preachers on Trial, some of which shall have particular reference to the scriptural doctrine of the Church. With this shall be sent a classified form on which the Probationer shall describe his reading, theological and general, for the year. This form is to be sent in to the Chairman of the District at least a week before the meeting of the May Synod. The Conference directs that when the Book Lists of Preachers on Trial are under consideration in the Synods, the Chairmen shall note how far their reading has been guided by the recommended list. The list for the year 1901–1902 is as follows:

SECTION I. THE DOCTRINE OF THE CHURCH.

and the General Examination Secretaries.

24. The special thanks of the Conference are presented to the Rev. Dr. Findlay on his retiring from the Secretaryship he has held for three years. The Board of Examiners are also thanked for their services during the past year, and the Rev. G. Armstrong Bennetts, B.A., and James Hope Moulton, M.A., for their services as General Examination Secretaries.

EXAMINATION OF CANDIDATES FOR THE MINISTRY.

Q. XXXVII. What are the directions of the Conference respecting the Examination of Candidates for the Ministry?

A. 1. (1) No Candidate for the Ministry shall be received who does not possess a fair acquaintance with English Grammar, Orthography, Arithmetic, Geography, and History.

(2) In any case in which a Candidate has not resided for two years continuously in the Circuit from which he is recommended, the Superintendent of that Circuit shall obtain a written report concerning him from his former Superintendent or Superintendents, so as to cover the previous two years, and present the same to the March Quarterly Meeting and to the District Synod.

Whenever a Superintendent recommends his son as a Candidate for the Ministry, the character of the Candidate shall be signed also by his Colleague or Colleagues. In cases in which the Superintendent is appointed to a solitary station, the character of the Candidate shall be countersigned by the Chairman of the District.

(3) A preliminary Examination by papers, which shall be prepared each year by the Tutors of the several Branches of the Theological Institution in turn, shall be conducted, before the session of the District Synod, by a Sub-Committee, who shall value the answers of the Candidates; the report of their valuation to be sent to the District Synod concerned. This Sub-Committee shall be appointed by the Conference. The answers shall be written in the presence of the Superintendents of the Circuits by which the Candidates are recommended, or of one or more other Ministers. This Examination shall be held on Thursday, April 17, 1902.

The Sub-Committee for this year shall consist of the Rev. G. Armstrong Bennetts, B.A., Edward Brentnall, M.A., Arthur W. Cooke, M.A., J. Henry Greeves.

(4) Candidates who have matriculated at the London

University, or have passed an equivalent entrance examination at any other University in the United Kingdom, or have passed the Oxford or Cambridge Senior Local Examination, or obtained a Queen's Scholarship as Candidates for Admission into a Training College, are exempt from the preliminary Examination.

(5) In order to secure, as far as practicable, uniformity of valuation, figures showing the number of marks obtainable by a complete answer shall be placed at the end of each question; and no Candidate shall be considered to have passed a satisfactory examination who does not gain one-fourth of the maximum number of marks allotted to the whole of the papers. No Candidate shall be excused from the preliminary Examination on the ground that he has passed it in a former year.

(6) No Candidate who has failed to obtain the minimum number of marks in the preliminary Examination shall undergo the usual Examination by the District Synod unless, in the judgment of the Synod, he possesses such special gifts as to justify an exceptional procedure.

2. (1) Every Preacher who is recommended for Admission on Trial shall, at or before the time of the May District Synod, preach in the presence of, at least, three of the Ministers of the Synod, to be selected by the Chairman, exclusive of the Superintendent by whom the Candidate is proposed; and a special report of the Sermon shall be made in the District Synod, and immediately forwarded, in writing, to the Secretaries of the Committee for the Examination of Candidates.

(2) Arrangements shall be made by the May District Synod for the hearing of each Candidate by two Ministers of the District, in addition to those who have heard him before his recommendation by the Synod; and such Ministers shall immediately forward their Report to the Rev. Peter Thompson, 583, Commercial Road East, London, E. They are requested not to fix marks of value.

(3) In the case of Candidates from the Zetland District, arrangements shall be made by the Secretaries of the Committee for the Examination of Candidates for the second trial sermon to be preached in England.

N.B.—Three different Trial Sermons are required from each Candidate; two preached, and one sent in manuscript.

(4) District Synods are empowered to examine by Special Committee those Candidates who, for exceptional reasons, are prevented from being present at the appointed time of Examination; every such case to be specially recorded in the Minutes of the Synod, and reported to the Conference.

3. The Special Examination of Candidates for the Ministry who have passed the District Synods shall be conducted by a Committee in two Sections, having charge of Examinations to be held simultaneously at Richmond and Didsbury, respectively. This Examination shall be held in the week following Sunday, July 13, 1902.

(1) The two Sections of this Committee shall be constituted as follows:

(i) The Southern Section, to meet at Richmond, shall consist of the President of the Conference; the Ex-Presidents living in the London and adjoining Districts; two of the Secretaries of the Missionary Society; the Tutors and Governors of the Richmond and Birmingham Branches; the Local Secretary of the Richmond Branch; the Secretary of the Home Mission Committee; one of the General Secretaries of the Examination Committee; the Rev. Robert Culley; together with twelve other Ministers of the three London Districts, four of whom shall be elected by the May Synod of each of the said Districts.

(ii) The Northern Section, to meet at Didsbury, shall consist of the Ex-Presidents living in the Manchester and adjoining Districts; two of the Secretaries of the Missionary Society; the Tutors and Governors of the Didsbury and Headingley Branches; the Local Secretary of the Didsbury Branch; one of the General Secretaries of the Examination Committee; the Rev. T. Galland Hartley; together with twenty-one Ministers of the Liverpool, Manchester, and Bolton Districts, seven of whom shall be elected by the May Synod of each of the said Districts.

N.B.—The Tutors of the Theological Institution shall conduct the Oral Examination of Candidates before the Committee.

(2) Two Sub-Committees, to read and report on the manuscript sermons of the Candidates, shall be annually appointed as follows: one for the Southern Section, consisting of nine Ministers, three of whom shall be chosen by the District Synod of each of the three London Districts from among the Ministers elected by it as members of the Examination Committee; and another for the Northern Section, consisting of nine Ministers, three of whom shall be chosen by the District Synods of the Liverpool, Manchester, and Bolton Districts respectively, from among the Ministers elected by them as members of the Examination Committee.

Each Manuscript Sermon shall be read by two of the Ministers so appointed, and a meeting of the Sub-Committee thereafter held, when the Reports of the readers shall be considered and the valuation fixed which shall be recommended to the Committee.

(3) The Literary Paper for the Examination shall be prepared, in succession, by the Tutors in Biblical Literature and in Classics of each of the four Branches of the Theological Institution; and the Theological Paper for the Examination shall be prepared, in succession, by the Theological Tutors of the said four Branches.

(4) The Tutors in Biblical Literature and in Classics of the Richmond and Birmingham Branches shall be the Literary Examiners for the Southern Section of the Committee; and the Tutors in Biblical Literature and in Classics of the Didsbury and Headingley Branches shall be the Literary Examiners for the Northern Section of the Committee.

(5) Candidates who are Graduates of any University in the United Kingdom shall not be required to take the Literary Paper.

(6) The Examiners of the Papers in Theology, written by the Candidates, shall be appointed as follows: the First and Second London, the Liverpool, and the Manchester District Synods shall each appoint one Examiner from among the Ministers elected by it as Members of the Examination Committee; thus providing two Examiners for each of the two Sections.

(7) In connexion with each Section of the Committee two Medical Examiners shall be employed, one of whom shall be a specialist on residence in a tropical climate.

(8) The Rev. ALBERT CLAYTON, General Secretary of the Theological Institution, and the Rev. PETER THOMPSON, are appointed General Secretaries of the Examination Committee.

(9) All communications relating to Candidates, and the Reports on their sermons heard after the District Synods, must be addressed to the Rev. Peter Thompson, 583, Commercial Road East, London, E.

(10) The Local Secretary of the Richmond Branch of the Theological Institution and the Rev. Robert Culley are appointed to act as Examination Secretaries for the Southern Section; and the Local Secretary for the Didsbury Branch and the Rev. T. Galland Hartley to act as Examination Secretaries for the Northern Section.

4. System of Marking in Examinations.—In valuing all Examinations and Trial Sermons, a system of marks by numbers from 1 to 7 shall be adopted: number 1 being the highest value, and 7 the lowest. The seven grades shall signify respectively, Excellent, Very good, Good, Fair, Moderate, Poor, Very poor. The marks 1, 2, 3, denote three grades of an Honours Division; and 4, 5, 6, 7, four grades in a Pass Division; "average" quality being indicated by the mark 4 (fair).

5. Candidates from the Three London Districts shall appear before the Northern Section of the July Examination Committee, and Candidates from the Liverpool, Manchester, and Bolton Districts before the Southern Section.

6. Candidates from the Welsh Districts.

(1) The Conference directs that Candidates from the North and South Wales Districts shall be examined alternately by the two Sections of the Examination Committee, and that a Minister be elected to be a Member of this Committee by the North or the South Wales District Synod, according as the Examination is held at Didsbury or Richmond.

(2) Candidates from the Welsh Districts are required, if able, to preach two sermons in connexion with the Annual District Synod, one in Welsh and one in English.

(3) Candidates for the Ministry from the Welsh Districts who are able to preach in English, and who pass their Examinations in English, shall be regarded as eligible for the general work.

7. Candidates from Ireland for Foreign Mission Work.—(See Minutes, 1886, pp. 203, 204.)

8. The names of the Candidates who come before the Candidates' Examination Committee shall be presented to the Conference in three sections: (1) those who are unanimously recommended; (2) those upon whom a divided vote was taken, with the result of the voting (in recording the voting, the number of neutrals shall be given); (3) those who are unanimously declined.

N.B.—When a Candidate has been recommended by a divided vote in the Examination Committee, he shall be only provisionally accepted until the entire list of Candidates has been considered, when the Conference shall finally decide his case.

9. Except when the Conference directs otherwise, accepted Candidates shall be sent forthwith to the Institution.

10. Training of Candidates for the Welsh Ministry.

(1) In cases in which Candidates for the Ministry recommended by the Welsh Synods possess exceptional qualifications, and in which the District Synod and the Examination Committee are of opinion that a course of training at a Welsh University College would be of special advantage to the Candidates and to our work in the Principality, such Candidates may be permitted to spend some time in connexion with a University College, without cost to any Connexional Fund, before they are formally recognised and accepted as Candidates for the Ministry by the Conference.

(2) While pursuing his studies at a University College, every such Candidate shall be placed under the special pastoral care of a Minister resident in the town in which the College is situated, who shall present a special report on his conduct and preaching work during the year to the District Synod and to the Welsh Assembly.

(3) At the close of his term of study at the University College, every such Candidate shall, on the recommendation of the District Synod, and provided the Conference be satisfied as to his continued fitness for our work, be fully accepted as a Candidate for the Ministry, and shall afterwards receive such training in our Institution as the Conference may direct.

(4) The Conference appoints Didsbury College as the place where Candidates who are members of the Welsh University may qualify for a degree in Theology.

DISCIPLINE COMMITTEES.

THEOLOGICAL INSTITUTION.

Q. XXXVIII. What are the Resolutions of the Conference with regard to the Discipline Committees for the Theological Institution?

A. 1. The General Discipline Committee shall consist of all the Members of the Local Discipline Committees who are also Members of the General Committee of the Theological Institution, and shall meet at the least twice a year; the first Meeting to be in anticipation of the second Quarterly Meeting of the General Committee of the Theological Institution, and the second to take place before the fourth Quarterly Meeting of the same General Committee.

2. Each Local Discipline Committee shall meet quarterly, and at every meeting inquiry shall be made whether there is any objection to each Student.

N.B.—This inquiry shall include all questions affecting his moral and religious character, observance of College rules, attention to studies, preaching ability, competency for our work, and health.

3. In any case of discipline, when the Local Discipline Committee shall so decide, a Meeting of the General Discipline Committee shall be called to consider the case; and on receiving notice thereof, the General Secretary shall, in consultation with the President of the Conference, arrange for such meeting. The place and time shall be fixed by the President.

4. Subject to the foregoing provision, the Local Discipline Committees shall retain the power of summary action in urgent cases, and in cases of idleness or incompetence.

5. The Local Discipline Committee, on dismissing a Student from College, shall have power to determine all points concerning his status, employment, and maintenance until the next meeting of the General Discipline Committee, whose decision shall take effect until Conference.

6. All cases of discipline during the year, at any Branch of the Institution, shall be reported to the General Discipline Committee at its meeting immediately before Conference.

7. The Governor of the Institution House shall answer for the Students to the Conference.

8. All questions affecting the moral conduct, theological soundness, and general behaviour of the Students shall, in accordance with the custom observed from the beginning of the Institution, be referred to the Discipline Committee of the Branch, and the Discipline Committee shall report to the Conference; but in cases where the action of the Discipline Committee affects the residence of a Student, the action so taken shall be final, but shall be reported to the Executive Committee.

9. The Conference shall appoint from year to year for each Branch of the Institution ten Ministers, who, in addition to the Tutors and Secretary of such Branch, shall constitute the Discipline Committee. The Secretaries of the Missionary Society shall be ex officio members of the Discipline Committee of the Richmond Branch.

The Rev. ALBERT CLAYTON is the Secretary of the General Discipline Committee.

10. The following are the members of the Local Discipline Committees:

Richmond Branch.—The Tutors and Local Secretary; the Secretaries of the Missionary Society; the Rev. James Chapman, Albert Clayton, Walford Green, Charles H. Kelly, Dr. Rigg, Richard Roberts, Peter Thompson, William J. Tweddle, Dr. Waller, and J. Cornelius Wright.

„ Dr. Stephenson,
„ Peter Thompson,
„ William D. Walters.

BOOK AFFAIRS.

Q. XLI. What are the Resolutions of the Conference on receiving the Report of the Committee on Book Affairs?

A. 1. The Conference adopts the Report of the Book Committee.

2. The Conference resolves:

(1) The Book Committee shall consist (a) of the following ex officio members: The PRESIDENT of the Conference; the SECRETARY of the Conference; the Ex-Presidents residing in the London and adjoining Districts; the Book Steward, the Connexional Editor, the Secretary of the Tract Committee, the Secretary of the Education Committee, the Secretary of the Connexional Sunday-school Union, the Secretaries of the Missionary Society, the Secretary and Assistant Secretary of the Home Mission Fund, the Tutors at the Richmond Branch of the Theological Institution, and the Honorary Librarian of the Allan Library; and (b) of twenty-five Ministers to be annually appointed by the Conference from those resident in the Metropolitan Postal and Police area.

(2) A Finance and Consultation Committee, consisting of fourteen Members, including the Officers of the Book-Room, shall be appointed by the Book Committee from its own Members at its first meeting after Conference.

(3) Readers shall be annually chosen by the Book Committee at its first meeting after Conference; and one or more of these shall be selected by the Book Steward to read any Manuscript offered for publication, who shall make confidential reports to the Book Steward and Editor.

The Book Steward shall report to the Committee, and the Committee shall have power to accept or reject Manuscripts.

(4) The Tract Committee shall consist of the Officers of the Book-Room and twelve other Ministers to be annually appointed by the Conference from those resident within the same area as the London Book Committee. The names of the Tract Committee shall be printed in the Minutes of Conference.

The Tract Committee shall report, through its Secretary, to the Book Committee.

3. The Book Committee for the ensuing year shall consist of the Rev. W. THEOPHILUS DAVISON, M.A., D.D., President of the Conference; MARSHALL HARTLEY, Secretary; Dr. Rigg, Dr. Jenkins, Richard Roberts, John Walton, M.A., Charles H. Kelly, Dr. Henry J. Pope, Walford Green, Dr. Waller, William L. Watkinson, Hugh Price Hughes, M.A., Frederic W. Macdonald, Ex-Presidents; Arthur Wood, B.A., Secretary of the Tract Committee; Robert Culley, Secretary of the Connexional Sunday-school Union; William Perkins, William H. Findlay, M.A., Secretaries of the Wesleyan Missionary Society; John Bell (B), Assistant Secretary of the Home Mission Fund; George Fletcher, Joseph Agar Beet, D.D., Alfred S. Geden, M.A., Tutors of the Richmond Branch of the Theological Institution; Nehemiah Curnock (B), Honorary Librarian of the Allan Library; and John Bond, William Burgess, James Chapman, George Charter, Albert Clayton, William H. Parkyn, James Pratt, Allen Rees, Alfred Sargent, Peter Thompson, William J. Tweddle, Alfred H. Vine, John E. Wakerley, William Wakinshaw, William D. Walters, Dr. Wenyon, and Thomas E. Westerdale.

4. The Methodist Tract Committee shall consist of the Book Steward, the Connexional Editor, the Secretary of the Book Committee, the Rev. Frederick J. Briggs, Frederick B. Cowl, Nehemiah Curnock (B), Henry Curnow, Josiah Flew, Frank Hall, J. Ash Parsons, Charles Lee-Dunham, R. Bevan Shepherd, M.A., John E. Wakerley, Thomas E. Westerdale, and Arthur Wood, B.A.

The Rev. ARTHUR WOOD, B.A., is re-appointed the Secretary of the Tract Committee. Communications should be addressed to him at 9, Highbury New Park, N.

5. The old rule as to payment of Ministers' Book Accounts shall be observed; viz. that remittances be made quarterly, and all balances paid at the Conference.

6. For the future the Grants to Connexional Funds shall be paid out of the profits actually made during the Connexional Year then ending, and not out of profits to be made, in part or wholly, during the year then ensuing.

Future Management of the Book-Room.

1. The Conference receives the Reports from the Synods.

2. In view of the importance of the proposals made (Minutes, 1900, pp. 219, 220), and the differing opinions expressed by the Synods thereon, the Conference refers the subject to the Book Committee for consideration and report.

Q. XLII. What Resolutions provisionally adopted by the last Conference in its Pastoral Session, and sent to the District Synods for consideration, are now confirmed?

A. None.

Q. XLIII. What Resolutions of the Conference are to be submitted to the Districts in Great Britain, at the May Synod, when Ministers only are present?

A. Baptized Children in relation to the Church (see pp. 348–350).

MISCELLANEOUS RESOLUTIONS.

1. The respectful thanks of the Conference are presented to its President, the Rev. W. Theophilus Davison, M.A., D.D., for his masterly, tender, and eminently spiritual sermon, preached in Brunswick Chapel, Newcastle-on-Tyne, on Sunday morning, July 28, 1901.

2. The respectful thanks of the Conference are presented to the Ex-President, the Rev. Thomas Allen, D.D., for his impressive and powerful sermon, preached in Brunswick Chapel, Newcastle-on-Tyne, on Sunday evening, July 28, 1901.

3. The cordial thanks of the Conference are due and are hereby presented to the Ex-President, the Rev. Thomas Allen, D.D., for his timely, thoughtful, and practical Charge delivered to the newly ordained Ministers in High West Street Chapel, Gateshead, on Monday, August 5, 1901.

Retirement of Senior Ministers.

The Rev. Richard Jenkin.—The Conference deeply regrets that, after an uninterrupted service of forty-three years, the Rev. Richard Jenkin, a member of the Legal Conference, is constrained to seek relief from the burdens inseparable from the full work of the ministry. His chaste, thoughtful, and sympathetic sermons, together with his fidelity as a pastor, have been blessed to multitudes. In the important offices of Superintendent of a Circuit and Chairman of a District he has enjoyed the confidence of his co-pastors and of the laity. Prudence and brotherliness have invariably characterised his administration. He is followed in his retirement by the goodwill of his brethren. The Conference trusts that Mr. Jenkin will be sustained through all his days by those precious truths it has been his life work and joy to preach to others.

The Rev. J. Cornelius Wright.—In granting the request of the Rev. J. Cornelius Wright to become a Supernumerary the Conference records its high appreciation of the services which he has rendered to the Church in the forty-one years of his ministry. An effective preacher, a faithful pastor, a welcome guest, a wise counsellor, manly in his bearing, genial in disposition, he has enjoyed the respect and affection of his brethren and of the members of the Churches which have been under his pastoral care. As Superintendent of Circuits and Chairman of Synod he has proved himself a capable administrator, and for several years he has taken a worthy part in the deliberations of important Connexional Committees. The Conference prays that in his retirement his ripe and manifold gifts may be long available for the furtherance of the kingdom of God.

Convener of Memorials Committee.—1. The Rev. Enoch Salt is thanked for his services, and is re-appointed Convener of the Committee on Memorials and Suggestions.

2. The Convener is instructed to divide the District Suggestions into two lists, according to their Subjects: (1) For the Representative Session, and (2) for the Pastoral Session, of the Conference; and to submit the lists to the President before they are entered in the Agenda.

3. The Secretary of the Conference shall furnish the Convener with a list of all matters referred for consideration to the several departmental Committees; and the Convener shall obtain the several decisions of the said Committees thereupon, and present them to the following Conference.

Convener of Scrutineers.—The Rev. George Denton is thanked for his services, and is re-appointed to take charge of the voting for the Legal Conference, and for all offices, at the Conference of 1902; and is an ex officio member of the Pastoral Session of that Conference.

Obituaries of Deceased Ministers.—1. The following are appointed the Committee for the ensuing year (see Standing Order, No. 28 (2)): The Rev. W. THEOPHILUS DAVISON, M.A., D.D., President of the Conference; THOMAS ALLEN, D.D., Ex-President; MARSHALL HARTLEY, Secretary; Charles H. Kelly, Book Steward; William L. Watkinson, Editor;

Rev. James Chapman,	Rev. Dr. Rigg,
„ George Fletcher,	„ Alfred Sargent,
„ Walford Green,	„ John Telford, B.A.,
„ Dr. Jenkins,	„ Alfred H. Vine,
„ Frederic W. Macdonald,	„ Dr. Waller.

The Rev. JOHN TELFORD, B.A., is the Convener.

2. Secretaries of District Synods are directed to forward obituaries of deceased Ministers to the Convener, immediately after the May Synod.

Transfers and Reports on Probationers, etc.—1. The Conference appoints a Committee, consisting of the PRESIDENT and SECRETARY of the Conference and fifteen other Ministers, five of whom shall be chosen by the Home Mission, the Foreign Missionary, and the Theological Institution Committees, respectively. The SECRETARY of the Conference is the Convener of the Committee.

2. This Committee shall sit prior to the Sessions of the Conference, to consider and report upon:

(1) All cases of proposed transfer between the Foreign and the Home Work.

(2) All cases in which the Conference has determined that special reports upon Probationers shall be presented to the ensuing Conference.

(3) The health and general fitness for our work of the men on the President's List of Reserve.

(4) The number of Candidates required for the Ministry.

3. The Committee is directed to consider whether any, and if any what, change is desirable in the method of determining the future sphere of service of accepted Candidates, and of providing for the needs of the Mission Field.

Ministers under Discipline, and other Cases.—1. The Conference receives the Report of the Committee.

2. In view of the great services rendered by this Fund in helping to secure the withdrawal of unsuitable men from our Ministry, the Conference commends the Fund to the support of all the Ministers.

3. The Conference re-appoints the Committee, to administer the Fund, and to deal with the cases as they arise. (See Minutes, 1893, p. 226.)

4. The following is the Committee: The Rev. W. THEOPHILUS DAVISON, M.A., D.D., President of the Conference; THOMAS ALLEN, D.D., Ex-President; MARSHALL HARTLEY, Secretary;

Rev. Walford Green,
„ Charles H. Kelly,
„ Frederic W. Macdonald,
„ Dr. Henry J. Pope,
„ Dr. Randles,
Rev. Dr. Rigg,
„ Peter Thompson,
„ Dr. Waller,
„ William L. Watkinson.

The Rev. PETER THOMPSON is the Convener.

The Law of Appeal, and Other Matters.—1. The Conference receives and adopts the Report of the Committee. (See Appendices xiv., xvi.)

2. The Conference re-appoints the Committee, with instructions to complete the "Directions to Class-leaders."

Rev. Dr. Bowden,
„ Joseph Bush,
„ Albert Clayton,
„ George Fletcher,
„ Richard Green,
„ Charles H. Kelly,
„ Dr. Henry J. Pope,
„ Dr. Randles,
Rev. Dr. Rigg,
„ G. Stringer Rowe,
„ John S. Simon,
„ Dr. Stephenson,
„ W. Henry Thompson,
„ Dr. Waller,
„ Charles E. Wansbrough, „ Owen Watkins.

The Rev. JOHN S. SIMON is the Convener.

Baptized Children in Relation to the Church.—1. The Conference receives the amended Report of the Committee, as follows:

(1) As all baptized children have been received into the Congregation of Christ's Flock to be trained in the doctrines, duties, and privileges of the Christian religion, it is incumbent on the Church, and especially on its Ministers, to extend to them the largest possible measure of pastoral care and systematic attention.

(2) Such special care and attention should be distinctly based upon the obligations which are recognised in their baptism, and should embrace full instruction in their duties and privileges as disciples of Christ. This effort should include any young people of our congregations who have not already been baptized, with a view to their Christian decision and admission into the membership of the Church.

(3) In order to facilitate such pastoral instruction and oversight—

(a) Ministerial Classes should be formed wherever possible for all the children of our families who have been baptized but have not yet made open profession of faith in Christ, and also for other children who may join the Classes, with a view to Christian decision and reception into the Church: these Pastoral Classes to meet for six or eight weeks annually, at a time to be locally arranged, but preferably, on account of our itinerancy, in the spring.

(b) The age at which young people should ordinarily be invited to these Classes should be about twelve.

(c) The objects of such Classes should be religious instruction, especially with a view to personal decision and an open confession of Christ, together with the public baptism of such as have not already been baptized.

(4) After such a course of preparation, all members of these Pastoral Classes whom the Minister may deem fit should be introduced into suitable Society Classes, publicly recognised as members of the Church, and admitted to the Sacrament of the Lord's Supper.

(5) Full advantage should be taken of the opportunity afforded by baptism to impress upon parents their supreme obligation to teach and bring up their children for Christ. In the case of every child presented for baptism a copy of the Brief Catechism, suitably inscribed, shall be given to the parents as a remembrancer, for the child in after-years.

(6) Wherever it is practically impossible to carry out all the details herein suggested, the Superintendent of the Circuit should make the best available arrangements to observe the spirit of these resolutions.

2. In view of the variety of opinion expressed in the Synods, the Conference resolves that the amended Report shall be again remitted for their consideration; that the Committee be enlarged and re-appointed, and that the suggestions of the Synods be considered by the Committee, which shall present a further Report to the Conference.

3. The Committee is instructed to consider fully the relation of this scheme to our Junior Society Classes.

4. The following is the Committee: The Rev. W. Theophilus Davison, M.A., D.D., President of the Conference; Thomas Allen, D.D., Ex-President; Marshall Hartley, Secretary;

Rev. Josiah Banham,
„ John S. Banks,

The Rev. ROBERT CULLEY is the Convener.

New Connexional Hymn-Book.—1. The Conference receives and adopts the Report of the Committee.

2. The Conference resolves:

(1) That a Committee be appointed to make a selection of Hymns for publication as a new Connexional Hymn-Book.

(2) That, provided mutually acceptable business arrangements can be made, the Methodist New Connexion Church be invited to nominate two members, and the Wesleyan Reform Union Church one, to serve on the Hymn-Book Selection Committee.

(3) That a sufficient number of laymen having special knowledge of Hymnology be appointed to act on the Committee.

(4) That two members be nominated by the Hymn-Book Committee of the Irish Conference.

(5) That correspondence be conducted with the authorities of the Australasian Conferences, and arrangements made, if possible, so that a Hymn-Book may be prepared which can be adopted in both this country and the Colonies.

(6) That the Book Steward be authorised to confer with the Representatives of the Methodist Episcopal Church with reference to the new Hymn-Book, so that, if practicable, mutual arrangements may be entered into with a view to publishing a book suitable to both this country and the United States of America.

Secretaries: Rev. NEHEMIAH CURNOCK (B), Dr. ARTHUR E. GREGORY, JOHN TELFORD, B.A.

Educational Efficiency of Candidates for the Ministry.—The Conference adopts the following resolutions:

1. Whilst recognising that only those who are called of God can rightly and truly fulfil the office of the Christian ministry, at the same time the Conference is convinced of the extreme importance of securing Candidates of higher educational fitness.

2. The Conference refers the whole question to a Special Committee to consider and report:

(1) As to what practical steps may be taken to secure Candidates for the Ministry of higher educational proficiency, and others of special promise.

(2) As to the desirability of raising the standard of the Preliminary and other Examinations of Candidates for the Ministry.

(3) As to giving to the accepted Candidates a more thorough training in the Theological Colleges, and a more complete equipment for the Ministry.

3. The following is the Committee: The Rev. W. Theophilus Davison, M.A., D.D., President of the Conference; Thomas Allen, D.D., Ex-President; Marshall Hartley, Secretary;

The Rev. Albert Clayton is the Convener.

Ossett and Horbury Circuit.—The Conference receives the Report and discharges the Commission, with thanks for its valuable services.

The Twentieth Century Fund.—The Conference, recognising with devout gratitude God's manifest blessing upon the Twentieth Century Fund enterprise, urges the members of our Church to unite in earnest prayer that He will so prosper the arrangements made, that the sum aimed at may be contributed before the end of the year.

The SECRETARY'S address is Beverley, 1, Nightingale Lane, Balham, London, S.W.

SECTION V.

STANDING ORDERS.

I. Supplies, List of Reserve, Students.

1. Supplies for Ministers.—(1) Any Minister needing a Supply is directed to communicate with the Chairman of the District before applying to the President; and the Chairman is also directed to satisfy himself, by personal inquiry, that an efficient local Supply cannot be obtained.

(2) Any Minister on whose behalf a Supply has been appointed shall retain the Supply for one month after he has given notice to the President that his services will no longer be required,—unless the President has employment for him sooner. And such Minister, when he gives notice to the President that, after a given date, the services of the Supply will be no longer required, shall, at the same time, notify the fact to the Chairman of the District.

(3) The Ex-President shall furnish to the Conference, at the commencement of the Pastoral Session, a list of all Ministers who have had Supplies during any part of the preceding year, with the dates in each case on which the Supply was sent and withdrawn. And on receiving this list, the Conference shall appoint a Committee to inquire whether these Ministers are physically competent to take Circuits.

2. Payment of Supplies.—(1) Every Probationer sent by the President as a Supply shall be paid at the rate of Thirty Guineas a year for the time he is in the Circuit; this allowance being in addition to Board and Lodging.

(2) In regard to Travelling Expenses, a Probationer sent to a Circuit as a Supply is dealt with on the same principle as one who is appointed by the Conference to his first Circuit. Once arrived in a Circuit as a Supply, he receives his travelling expenses from that Circuit to another when removed by the President during the year, or by the Conference at the end of the year.

(3) In respect of payment, the year of a trained man on the President's List of Reserve appointed in connexion with, or immediately after, the Conference, shall reckon from the first day of September to the last day of August.

3. List of Reserve.—(1) The retiring President shall furnish to the Committee on Transfers, etc., a Report as to the health and fitness for our work of those Probationers who have been, during the year, on the List of Reserve; the Committee to report to the Conference.

(2) All applications for the services of Probationers on the List of Reserve shall be forwarded to the President of the Conference not later than July 1 in each year; and a Committee to classify the cases shall meet, when necessary, during the Sessions of each Conference.

(3) Except in special cases, the President's List of Reserve shall consist of men who have been trained in the Theological Institution.

4. Students.—(1) Accepted Candidates shall be sent forthwith to the Institution, unless the Conference otherwise direct.

(2) The term of residence in the Institution shall be, except in special cases, three years.

(3) Every Student who has completed his term of three years in the Theological Institution, and is duly certified by the Local and General Discipline Committees, shall be regarded as commencing his probation at the Conference next ensuing.

If he receive an appointment at the Conference, or be sent by the President as a Supply before Christmas, the year shall count as the first of his probation, and he shall be entitled, after being received into Full Connexion, to the usual allowances of a Minister in Full Connexion.

But if he be not so appointed by the Conference, or sent out by the President as a Supply before Christmas, or if he shall be specially recommended to return to the Institution for a fourth year's course of study, he shall, in the year immediately after he has been received into Full Connexion, be entitled only to the allowances of an unmarried Minister. This Resolution does not carry any disability with regard to any other funds than the Home Mission Fund.

(4) In the case of Students who have not completed their term at the Institution (whether in their first, second, or third year of residence), but are called out by the President to supply before Christmas, the year shall, in accordance with our ancient usage, be reckoned as the first of their probation.

(5) Students who have not completed their term at the Institution, but are called out to meet special emergencies, shall, when their services are no longer required by the President, return to the Institution to complete their term.

(6) Candidates for the Ministry who have obtained a Degree in any University of the United Kingdom, or have passed any equivalent Examination—e.g. the Final Examination of the Incorporated Law Society, or of the Royal College of Surgeons —shall not of necessity spend the full term of three years in the Theological Institution; but, on the recommendation of their Tutors and Local and General Discipline Committees, the term of their residence may be shortened. And, in such cases, their probation shall commence at the Conference next ensuing, but subject to the Regulations in regard to the probation of Students who have completed their term of three years. (See above, Section 3.)

(7) When it is decided by the Local and General Discipline Committees that, on the ground of unsatisfactory progress, or for reasons of discipline, the full period of three years' training at the Institution should in the case of any Student be shortened, the ministerial probation of such Student shall not be reckoned as beginning until the Conference at which he would have completed his three years' training.

(8) Before calling out any Student to supply, the President shall consult with the Staff of the College in which the Student resides.

(9) The Representative of each Branch of the Institution to the Stationing Committee shall advise as to the appointment to Circuits of Students who have completed their term in the College he represents, and especially as to the appointment of any Student of the first or second year, should it be found necessary to make such an appointment.

(10) Students who have completed their term at the Institution, and were not called out during their third year by the President, and have not received appointments at the Conference, shall, if no other course be open to them, return to the Institution, and there await the call of the President.

(11) Students who have completed their term at the Institution, but were called out during the previous year by the President, yet have not received appointments at the Conference, are under the care and at the cost of the Home Mission Committee.

(12) Students who have completed their term at the Institution, and have been sent by the President as Supplies, shall, when their services are no longer required, be placed by the President under the direction of the Home Mission Committee, which shall be responsible for their maintenance; the Committee shall, however, be entitled to a week's notice from the President before such Student receives another appointment.

(13) The employment of Students as Supplies, otherwise than by the President, during their vacation, shall continue as heretofore to be matter of private arrangement, in regard to which neither the President nor the Home Mission Committee shall have responsibility; except in those special cases in which the Home Mission Committee may grant Supplies, for short periods, to Chairmen of Districts.

(14) A proportion of the Missionary Students shall be trained in the Home Branches of the Theological Institution, and the vacancies so created at Richmond shall be filled by Candidates for the Home Work.

(15) Not more than one-third, nor fewer than one-fourth, of the Candidates allocated in each year to the Richmond Branch shall be Candidates for the Home Work; and an equal number of Candidates for the Foreign Work shall be distributed among the Home Branches.

(16) All Students for the Foreign Work who, having completed their term, may be placed on the List of Reserve, shall be provided for at the Richmond Branch.

(Minutes, 1812, 1857, 1876, 1879, 1885, 1886, 1887, 1888, 1889, 1891, 1897.)

II. The Connexion.

5. Title of the Connexion.—Having regard to the terms used in our Trust Deeds and other Legal Documents, it is not possible for the Conference to alter the title of the Connexion as it appears on the front page of the Minutes of the Conference. The Conference declares, however, that the title hitherto used is not, and never has been, inconsistent with the assertion for "the People called Methodists" of a true and proper position as a Church, with all the authorities, privileges, and responsibilities belonging to the New Testament Church; and in this view of our principles and of the facts of the case, the Conference, so far from discouraging, distinctly approves of the general and popular use of the term, "The Wesleyan Methodist Church." (Minutes, 1891, p. 321.)

6. Ministerial Members of Connexional Committees. — No Minister, who is not an Officer of a Departmental Committee, shall remain upon that Committee as a Member more than six consecutive years, unless he shall have been nominated for a further appointment thereon by the vote of four-fifths of the Members of the Committee present. (Minutes, 1882, p. 383.)

7. Lay Members of Connexional Committees.—(1) A certain number of Lay Gentlemen, being at least one-sixth of the number of Lay Members of each Departmental Committee, shall annually retire from each Committee by rotation; the same persons being ineligible for immediate re-appointment, except in special cases, and after nomination for such re-appointment by the vote of four-fifths of the members of the Committee present. (Minutes, 1882, p. 383.)

(2) A complete list of the Lay Members of each Connexional Committee, with their postal addresses, shall be handed to the Secretary of the Conference for insertion in the Minutes. (Minutes, 1892, p. 319.)

8. Lists of Committees to Appear in the Conference Agenda.—All Lists of Committees which are to be considered by the Nomination Committee shall, as far as possible, be printed in the Agenda for the Conference; the names of new members being printed in italics, and those of members nominated for re-appointment by a four-fifths majority being distinguished by an asterisk; care being taken to give the Christian name and address of each Layman. (Minutes, 1890, p. 292.)

9. New Members of Connexional Committees.—The Secretaries of Departments shall inform all new Members, Laymen and Ministers, of their appointment upon Connexional Committees. (Minutes, 1890, p. 292.)

10. Custody of Connexional Documents.—In addition to the Journals and Daily Records of the Conference, the Reports of Committees meeting during the Conference, and the Minutes of the several District Synods, which are kept at the Conference Office, the following Documents shall also be preserved: The printed Agenda of the Conference; the Minutes of the Committee on Memorials and Suggestions from year to year, with the Documents laid before that Committee, and the Resolutions of the Conference thereon; the Reports of special Committees or Commissions appointed by the Conference; any legal opinion obtained from time to time by the direction of the Conference; and a Record of all Legacies and Funds left to the Connexion, of the place where the Trust Deeds are deposited, with the names of the Trustees, and the provisions (if any) for the renewal of the Trust; and when the Legacies have been finally disposed of, the Minute Books of the Trustees, showing the arrangements made; with other Documents the safe custody of which the Conference may hereafter direct. (Minutes, 1882, pp. 287, 288.)

III. The Conference.

11. Conference Towns.—Subject to local convenience, the rotation of Conferences shall be as follows: London, Burslem, Newcastle-on-Tyne, Manchester, Camborne, Sheffield, Bristol, Nottingham, London, Bradford, Cardiff, Liverpool, Plymouth, Leeds, Birmingham, Hull. (Minutes, 1898, p. 354.)

12. Two Sessions Daily.—With a view to the dispatch of business, there shall be two Sessions daily. (Minutes, 1886, p. 297.)

13. Conference Sacramental Service.—The Conference Sacramental Service shall be held on the second morning of the Representative Session, in lieu of the ordinary devotional exercises, and the Conference Arrangements Committee is instructed to make the necessary provision for the Service. (Minutes, 1898, p. 360; 1901, p. 110.)

14. Open Session.—An Open Session for the reception of Representatives from other Conferences shall be held on one evening of the Representative Session. (Minutes, 1890, p. 422.)

15. Scrutineers of Votes.—(1) At each Conference, in the Pastoral Session, a Convener of Scrutineers shall be appointed to take charge of the voting for the Legal Conference, and for the offices of President and Secretary, at the succeeding Conference; and such Convener shall be an ex officio member of the Pastoral Session of the Conference for which he is elected.

(2) The Committee of Scrutineers, annually appointed, shall consist of not less than twenty, and shall make all arrangements for the collecting and counting of votes. (Minutes, 1892, p. 217.)

16. Chairman of Memorials Committee.—The Ex-President, year by year, shall be, ex officio, the Chairman of the Committee on Memorials and Suggestions. (Minutes, 1895, p. 216.)

17. Character of Ministers and Preachers on Trial. — In response to the inquiry in the Conference, "Is there any objection to any of our Ministers or Preachers on Trial?" the names of the Districts only shall be called, the Chairman of each District then giving the required information. The right to challenge any name, or bring a charge against any Minister, shall not be affected by this Regulation. (Minutes, 1887, p. 289.)

18. Disciplinary Inquiries.—The Conference re-affirms its decision that subjects discussed in Conference in answer to the question, "Is there any objection to any of our Ministers or Preachers on Trial?" are to be regarded as strictly private and confidential. (Minutes, 1898, p. 253.)

19. Ministers who have ceased to be Recognised by the Conference.—No Preacher, excluded for immorality, or who resigns his connexion with the Conference while under charges which affect his moral character, shall at any subsequent period be allowed to be a Local Preacher, Class-leader, or even a private Member of Society, without the consent of the Conference, previously obtained. (Minutes, 1897, p. 243.)

20. Supernumeraries and District Synods.—Supernumerary Ministers, with the exception of those who have received permission to reside abroad, shall be considered to belong to the Districts in which their names appear in the Minutes of the Conference. They shall attend the annual Synods of their own Districts, unless they receive a dispensation allowing them to be absent. They shall be subject to their own Synods in all matters of discipline. In case of unavoidable absence from the annual Synod, they shall send to the Chairman, in due time, a statement concerning their continued belief in our doctrines. A Supernumerary who removes into another District after the publication of the Minutes of the Conference may, by arrangement with his own Chairman, attend the Synod of the District in which he resides. In that case he must give notice to the Chairman of the District in which he is resident of his intention to be present at the Synod. Such attendance, however, shall not, in any degree, remove him from the jurisdiction of his own Synod, to which he is responsible in all matters of doctrine and discipline. (Minutes, 1900, p. 230.)

21. Junior Ministers becoming Supernumeraries for One Year.—Ministers who have travelled not more than twenty-one years, and have lost their health, may be allowed to retire for one year. In addition to the Allowances payable from the Annuitant Society and the Connexional Funds, such Ministers may, if in necessitous circumstances, receive for that year a sum not exceeding £80; of which one-half shall be provided by the Connexional Fund, the other half being paid by the Auxiliary Fund. (Minutes, 1878, pp. 233, 234.)

When a Minister who becomes a Supernumerary for one year is not a member of the Annuitant Society, the extra Grant from the Auxiliary Fund shall be less by the amount which would have been due to him from the Annuitant Society. (Minutes, 1887, p. 261.)

Each case shall be examined by a Mixed Committee of seven Members, who shall be appointed by the Conference; namely, the Ex-President, three Ministers, and three Laymen.

Should the Conference deem it indispensable, the Grant may be allowed for a second year. (Minutes, 1878, p. 234.)

22. Temporary Supernumeraryship in Relation to the Legal Conference.—In the case of a member of the Legal Conference who has been permitted to retire for one or for two years, he shall not thereby cease to be a member of the Legal Conference provided he then (that is to say, at the end of the first or second year) returns to the full work; and he shall remain a member of the Legal Conference for two years after becoming a Supernumerary permanently. (Minutes, 1890, p. 212; revised, 1895.)

23. Compulsory Supernumeraryship: Financial Arrangements.—(1) When the Conference has decided that a Minister shall not be appointed to a Circuit for any other reason than physical incompetence, his case shall be considered by a Special Committee, to be appointed by the Conference in its Representative Session. This Committee shall determine whether any, and if any what, annual allowances shall be paid to him; or whether any, and if any what, sums shall be offered to him on condition of his retirement from the Ministry. The Committee shall further advise the Conference as to the sources whence such payments shall be made in each case.

(2) Representatives of the following Funds shall be among the persons appointed on the Committee: The Auxiliary Fund, Connexional Fund, and Children's Fund in both its branches.

(3) The Members of the Annuitant Society shall be asked to treat Ministers who may retire from the Ministry under these arrangements, in the matter of compensation, as though they had resigned. (Minutes, 1896, p. 321.)

24. Compulsory Supernumeraryship in Relation to the District Synod.—In the case of any Minister who has been made a Supernumerary on the ground of either (a) discipline or (b) difficulty in finding him a Circuit, no District Synod shall recommend his re-appointment unless some Circuit in that District is willing to receive him, or he shall have received an invitation to a Circuit in another District; and no such Minister shall be re-appointed to a Circuit unless recommended by the District Synod to which he belongs. (Minutes, 1892, p. 218; 1899, p. 246.)

25. Supernumeraries returning to the Full Work.—The Conference resolves that in all cases where it is recommended that Supernumerary Ministers shall return to the full work, inquiry and report shall be made by the Committee appointed at Conference to examine the cases of those Ministers who have had Supplies during the year. (Minutes, 1897, p. 244.) See Standing Order 1 (3).

26. Ministers without Pastoral Charge.—(1) Any Minister wishing to maintain his ministerial status whilst holding no definite appointment to a Circuit or a Department, and without becoming a Supernumerary, shall apply for permission through the District Synod to the Conference, which shall decide the case after a full examination by a Special Committee.

(2) Such Minister shall continue to be in every way subject to our discipline, including the usual inquiries as to character and doctrine.

(3) No such Minister shall receive any payment from the Auxiliary Fund during, or on account of, the years in which he shall occupy the position herein described; and he shall pay the yearly assessments to the Fund for the Maintenance and Education of Ministers' Children on the same scale as Ministers appointed to Departments; and he shall then continue to receive the benefit of those Funds in the ordinary course.

(4) The name of every such Minister shall stand upon the Minutes in connexion with some Circuit, and following his name shall be these words: "resides in this Circuit without Pastoral Charge." Nevertheless, he shall not, as a Minister, be a member of the Quarterly Meeting or of any Leaders' Meeting in the Circuit. (Minutes, 1888, p. 215.)

(5) In the case of a Member of the Legal Conference having been entered on the Minutes as without Pastoral Charge, in conformity with the Resolutions of the Conference of 1888, the Conference resolves that, at the expiration of four years from the commencement of such an arrangement, he shall cease to be a member of the Legal Conference.

The effect of this Resolution shall not be retrospective. (Minutes, 1890, p. 212.)

27. Supernumeraries or other Ministers Resident Abroad.—(1) No Minister is allowed to be absent from the country during a great part of the year without the consent of the Yearly Conference, or, in case of emergency, of the President, who shall report the case to the ensuing Conference.

(2) Any Minister having permission to reside abroad shall have such permission annually renewed.

(3) If any Minister remain abroad for more than one year, he shall be required either to make arrangements with the officers of our Connexional Funds, with a view to retiring from the English Work, or to furnish the Conference annually with a satisfactory Report from some other Methodist Conference in recognised relation with this Conference.

(4) If, during his residence abroad, any Minister shall enter into business, or shall accept office of emolument of any kind, he is required, without delay, to notify the fact to the Chairman of the District where his name appears on the Stations.

(5) In all such cases, the existing Rule which requires the presence of a Minister at the Annual District Synod shall be held to be binding, unless his absence has been expressly sanctioned in accordance with the foregoing Resolutions; and even in that case he is required to furnish a statement in due time containing an answer to the question in the Order and Form of Business in District Synods as to his continued belief of our doctrines.

(6) Any Minister having permission to reside abroad shall furnish a Report as to his ministerial conduct from the proper authority, as defined in the above, or in the letter from the President giving the required permission.

(7) A list of all such Ministers shall be annually printed in the Minutes of Conference at the end of the Stations. (Minutes, 1888, p. 215; 1893, p. 362.)

28. Obituaries of Deceased Ministers.—(1) Secretaries of District Synods are directed to forward copies of the Obituaries of Deceased Ministers to the Convener of the Committee on Obituaries, immediately after the Annual Meeting of the Synod. (Minutes, 1892, p. 217.)

(2) The Obituaries of deceased Ministers received by the District Synods shall be revised by a Special Committee, to be appointed at the preceding Conference.

(3) The Obituaries thus revised shall be printed for the use of the Conference, under the direction of the Special Committee.

(3) The Obituaries of Ministers who have died since the May District Synods shall be revised by the Special Committee; and, if possible, be printed and presented to the Conference at the same time as those which have been submitted to the District Synods. (Minutes, 1891, p. 230.)

29. Memorial Service for Deceased Ministers.—(1) The official reading of Obituaries in the Conference shall be discontinued; and the list of the names of deceased Ministers shall be read by the Secretary of the Conference. (Minutes, 1891, p. 230.)

(2) The consideration of Obituaries shall be regarded and observed as a strictly religious service; and, whilst this solemn business is being transacted, no Committees shall meet.

(3) The Conference shall, as a rule, hold the Memorial Service on the Tuesday morning of the third week of its Sessions.

30. Memorandum of Agreement between the Conference and Candidates from other Churches.—The Memorandum of Agreement between the Conference and Candidates from other Conferences and Churches shall apply in all particulars to married men who are accepted in the ordinary way as Candidates for the Ministry; and the payments required therein shall be made, and the privileges described therein shall begin to be enjoyed, in both cases, at the time of their admission into Full Connexion with the Conference. (Minutes, 1882, p. 289.)

31. Conference Plan.—The Superintendents of those Circuits in which the Conference may, from year to year, assemble, shall, with the previous approbation of the President, complete and print, not later than June 15 in each year, a Plan of the order of preaching in the principal chapels during the Sessions; and shall also, on or before the above date, send to every person whom they have appointed to preach in those chapels a copy of the Conference Plan.

Every Minister so appointed is responsible to the Conference for the fulfilment of his appointment. (Minutes, vol. vi. [1827], p. 291.)

32. Committee on Appeals and other Cases.—At the commencement of the Pastoral Session of each Conference a Committee of twenty-one members shall be appointed, to whom shall be referred, without discussion:

(1) All cases, needing further inquiry, touching the character of Ministers or Probationers, immediately after the reading of the Minutes of District Synods thereupon;

(2) Any Notice of Charge or Appeal relating thereto; or

(3) Any other matter which the Conference may so refer.

Any complainant or appellant, or any person under inquiry, may object to one in three of the members of the said Committee sitting on his case; and some other member of the Conference shall then be appointed to act instead of the member so objected to.

Special cases may, if the Conference so decide, be referred to the whole Committee; but it shall, for ordinary purposes, be divided into three sections, for each of which a Convener shall be appointed, who shall be responsible for preparing the business of the Committee. (Minutes, vol. xix. [1873], p. 202.)

33. Appeals in Cases of Discipline.—No Appeal shall be received after the completion of the year following the Conference immediately succeeding the act of discipline, except by special decision of the Conference. (Minutes, 1891, p. 229.)

34. Ministers under Affiliated Conferences.—(1) British Ministers who have elected to remain in Full Connexion with the Yearly Conference whilst employed under an Affiliated Conference must be held to be absolutely subject to the Affiliated Conference in all matters connected with the work and within the limits of that Conference; but the question of their continued connexion with the Yearly Conference can be determined only by the vote of the Yearly Conference.

(2) Any British Minister who has elected to enter into Full Connexion with an Affiliated Conference, or who may hereafter so enter, must be regarded as having thereby resigned his connexion with the Yearly Conference; and the fact of such resignation shall be entered on the Journal of the Yearly Conference.

(3) Ministers who were not sent out from England, but were taken into the Ministry in the countries now belonging to Affiliated Conferences, and also Native Ministers, are absolutely subject to their respective Affiliated Conferences. (Minutes, 1891, p. 231.)

35. Obituaries of Ministers of Affiliated Conferences.—On the death of any Minister of an Affiliated Conference who had a right of return to this country, an Obituary shall be inserted in the Minutes of the Yearly Conference. (Minutes, 1890, p. 211.)

36. Native Ministers and the Yearly Conference.—For the Resolutions of the Conference on this subject, see Minutes, 1895, pp. 217–220.

37. Vacancies among Lay Members of the Conference.—In the event of one or more of the Forty-eight Laymen elected by previous Conferences being unable to attend the Conference, he or they shall inform the President at least one week before the date fixed for the commencement of the Representative Session. The President shall furnish the information to the Secretaries of the Nomination Committee, and that Committtee shall nominate a person or persons to fill the vacancies thus created; such nominations being submitted to the Conference at the commencement of the Representative Session, which shall be requested to elect the person or persons so nominated.

In the event of a vacancy arising by appointment to a Connexional Treasurership, or by death, nominations shall be made in the same way; and the person elected shall, as regards retirement and re-election, be subject to the rules applying to the person whose place he takes. (Minutes, 1897, p. 340.)

IV. The Stationing Committee.

38. Election of Representative in District Synod. — The Minister who shall be the Representative of any District to the Stationing Committee shall be chosen by the united votes of the Ministers and Laymen who are members of the District Synod. (Minutes, vol. i. [1791], p. 256; vol. xviii. [1870], p. 154.)

39. Preparations for the Stationing Committee.—(1) As soon as possible after the Annual District Synod, each Representative shall be furnished by the Secretary of the Conference with a list of all Ministers for whom arrangements have not been made, and of all Circuits in like case; the information necessary to compile this list being sent by the Representatives to the Secretary of the Conference not later than June 1; such lists to contain complete information, and to be regarded as private and confidential. (Minutes, 1892, p. 218.)

(2) The Representative of each District shall send to the Secretary of the Conference, not later than June 25 in each year, upon a prepared Schedule, complete lists of—

(a) The invitations accepted by Ministers in his District;

(b) The arrangements provisionally made for the appointment of Ministers to Circuits in his District; and (c) All Ministers in his District for whom no arrangement has been made.

(3) A list of all Ministers to be transferred from the Foreign to the Home Stations shall, at the same time, be furnished by the Missionary Secretaries to the Secretary of the Conference.

(4) From these lists the Secretary of the Conference shall compile, and cause to be printed in a convenient form for use in the Stationing Committee, a Preliminary Draft of Stations embodying all arrangements thus provisionally made; and also a separate list of all Ministers for whom provisional arrangements have not been made; and a copy of these shall be furnished to each Member of the Stationing Committee, in London, on the Monday before the meeting of that Committee. (Minutes, vol. xix. [1875], p. 709.)

40. Regulations concerning the Stationing Committee.

(1) The Stationing Committee shall, from year to year, hold its first Session in London.

(2) The appointments made shall not be printed day by day.

(3) The Stations shall be printed in the Conference Town.

(4) The First Draft of Stations shall be an absolutely confidential document until the Representatives' Copies are ready for the post.

Should any Minister be officially reported as under discipline and suspended until the Conference, his name shall not appear on the First Draft of Stations.

(5) Probationers on the List of Reserve, and Students leaving the Institution, who are eligible for appointment, shall be entitled to a copy of the First and of the Final Draft of Stations.

(6) Each Representative shall send to the Secretary of the "Conference Arrangements Committee" two sets of Addressed Wrappers, for the First Draft and the Final Draft, respectively, for the Ministers and Circuit Stewards in his District, and for Six other Laymen—Members of the District Synod; the cost of which shall be refunded by the "Conference Arrangements Committee." (Minutes, 1888, p. 317.)

41. The Ex-President and the Stationing Committee.—The retiring President shall be, ex officio, a Member of the Stationing Committee during the sittings of Conference. (Minutes, 1888, p. 316.)

42. Stations in the Conference.—(1) The Stations shall be presented twice in the Conference, for a First and a Final Reading.

(2) In the First Reading of the Stations, the names of the Ministers shall not be read out one by one, but the Secretary shall call the names of the Circuits, and any member of the Conference shall be at liberty to question, or raise a discussion upon, any proposed appointment. In the Final Reading, the usage shall be observed of making changes only when all parties are agreed. (Minutes, 1892, p. 218.)

43. Extra Sitting of the Stationing Committee.—After the first reading of the Stations, the Committee may, when it is deemed expedient, retire for the further consideration of the Stations. (Minutes, 1888, p. 317.)

44. Re-appointment of Ministers to Circuits.—The term during which a Minister must be absent from a Circuit in England or Wales, before he can be re-appointed, shall be three years. (Minutes, 1889, p. 304.) He may then return, provided that the invitation of the Circuit Quarterly Meeting is substantially unanimous. (Minutes, 1890, p. 207.)

N.B.—In relation to Scotland, a similar resolution was adopted in 1866. (Minutes, vol. xvi. [1866], p. 589.)

45. A "Supply" in relation to a Third Year Appointment.—A Probationer sent by the President, before Christmas, as a Supply, is not thereby disqualified for appointment for a third year to the Circuit where he served as a Supply. (Minutes, 1887, pp. 193, 194.)

46. University Degrees.—(1) For the future, no Minister shall be entitled to have his Degree printed in the Minutes until the approval of the Probationers' Examination Committee has been obtained.

(2) In the case of every Degree printed in the Minutes, the source of the Degree shall be stated, except in the case of that of Doctor of Divinity received before the Conference of 1895.

(3) Degrees obtained from a Foreign University, by means of Examinations conducted in this country, shall not be printed in the Minutes. (Minutes, 1893, pp. 227, 228; 1895, p. 225.)

47. Numbering of Circuits and Stations.—(1) Except those in which no Minister's House is provided, all Stations appearing in the Minutes shall be numbered.

(2) The Minister appointed to any Station without a number is the Superintendent, and is therefore entitled to preside in the Quarterly Meetings and in the Trustees' Meetings; but he shall, as heretofore, act under the direction of the Chairman of the District, except when otherwise ordered by the Conference. (Minutes, 1886, p. 204; 1901, p. 171.)

V. Departments.

48. Designations and Nominations for Appointment to Departmental Offices.—Twelve months before the end of any term of Departmental Office, the Committee in charge of the Department shall submit to the Representative Session of the Conference the names of three Ministers in nomination for that office; of whom the Officer for the time being may, or may not, be one. The Pastoral Session of the Conference shall designate for appointment one of the three nominated by the Representative Session.

In any case of emergency which may arise during the Representative Session, involving immediate appointment, a similar course shall be taken.

In case of an emergency arising after the close of the Representative Session, the Pastoral Session shall have the right to appoint without a previous nomination. (Minutes, 1886, p. 204; 1890, p. 423.)

49. Method of Nominating Ministers for Designation or Appointment to Departmental Offices.—On the presentation of three names by the Committee of any Department, according to rule, for designation or appointment, the Conference, in its Representative Session, shall take at least one ballot; and then, if an absolute majority has been secured, and the Conference thinks fit, it may by open vote pass on the result of the first ballot to the Pastoral Session. (Minutes, 1892, p. 312.)

50. Elections to Departmental Offices.—In any new appointment to a Departmental Office, the Minister elected shall have a clear majority of the total number of votes cast; and when such majority is not obtained on the first ballot, a second ballot shall be taken on the first two—or, if necessary, the first three—names on the list which have the largest number of votes. (Minutes, 1883, p. 183.)

51. Vacancies among Lay Members of the Conference.—If any Treasurer of a Connexional Fund be unable to attend the Conference, the Committee of the Fund in question shall, at its last meeting previous to the Conference, elect one of its Lay members to represent the Fund at that Conference, in the place of the Treasurer. (Minutes, 1897, p. 340.)

52. Schedules from Departments.—As it is obviously desirable that the Committees appointed by the Conference to manage the several Departments of the business of the Connexion, in the intervals of its Session, be furnished with all necessary statistical information on the matters of business severally confided to their care, the Conference authorises them, through their appointed Officers, to send, when they deem it expedient, suitable Circulars and Schedules to the Superintendents, or to the Chairmen of Districts, as the case may require; and directs the Superintendents and Chairmen duly to return such Schedules properly filled up. (Minutes, vol. ix. [1840], p. 105.)

VI. Army and Navy Work.

53. Instructions to Chairmen and Superintendents in Foreign Districts.—The Chairmen and Superintendents of our Foreign Mission Districts and Stations where there are Garrison and Naval Ports are instructed to make such arrangements with the Naval and Military authorities as may be necessary for the benefit of Methodist Soldiers and Seamen, in concert with the Army and Navy Sub-Committee. (Minutes, 1889, p. 317.)

54. Reports and Returns to District Synods.—All Ministers working for the benefit of Soldiers and Sailors in Stations where Methodist Homes already exist, or shall be established, shall include in their quarterly Reports an account of the work done in the Homes; and at the May Synods the financial condition of such Homes shall be reported, as in the case of other Trust properties. (Minutes, 1887, p. 227.)

The following information shall be presented from each of our Military and Naval Stations to the May Synods; together with a Report of the work done for the benefit of our Soldiers and Sailors:

(1) The number of declared Methodists in the Army and Royal Navy, including the Coastguard, taken for December 31 of each year.

(2) The number of Members of Society in the Army and Royal Navy, including the wives and children of Soldiers and Seamen.

(3) The average attendance at divine service during the year.

(4) The amount of capitation and other official payments for the year.

In the case of Home Stations, these Reports and Returns shall be submitted to the District Home Mission and Chapel Committee, which shall present them, with needful remarks thereupon, to the Synod. (Minutes, 1888, p. 311.)

55. Soldiers' and Sailors' Homes.—In addition to the Connexional sanction already required by our Rules before any property can be acquired for Methodist purposes, Ministers or other persons connected with our Societies contemplating the erection or acquisition of a Soldiers' or Sailors' Home shall communicate with the Army and Navy Sub-Committee; and no binding arrangements shall be entered into until the written consent of the Home Mission Committee and of the Missionary Committee respectively shall have been received. (Minutes, 1887, p. 227.)

56. Army and Navy Ministers in relation to Circuit Work.—Ministers who are appointed to Army and Navy Work are not to be considered as Ministers of the Circuit in which they may be stationed, so as to be claimed for Circuit work, unless special arrangements be made with the Army and Navy Sub-Committee. After their proper work has been efficiently done, they may give such help to the Circuit as they can, but only by arrangement in writing between the Superintendent of the Circuit and the Army and Navy Sub-Committee. Their personal conduct is to be under the cognisance of the Superintendent of the Circuit and the District Synod, subject to the before-mentioned conditions. (Minutes, 1888, p. 311.)

57. Capitation Payments and Pastoral Duties. — Wherever capitation payments are received on behalf of our Methodist Soldiers and Seamen, the pastoral duties which are entailed thereby shall be strictly fulfilled, and every facility and encouragement given to the men, their wives, and families to become attached to the services of the chapels in which, by these payments, they are now seatholders. (Minutes, 1888, p. 311.)

VII. Synods.

58. District Synods, 1902.—The Annual Meetings of the several District Synods shall be held between May 11 and 18, with the exception of those of the North Wales, South Wales,

Lincoln, Hull, Isle of Man, and Scotland Districts. (Minutes, vol. viii. [1837], p. 224.)

59. Lord's Day Observance.—The Temperance Committee of each District shall take direct oversight of the Lord's Day Question. (Minutes, 1896, p. 331.)

60. Isle of Man District.—It shall be a part of the business of the September Synod of the Isle of Man District to call the attention of Superintendents, and other Ministers who may be responsible, to the Regulations concerning certain Quarterly Returns to the Registrar-General of the island, according to the provisions of the "Dissenters' Marriage Act Amendment Act, 1885," of the Isle of Man. (Minutes, 1885, p. 285.)

61. Election of Ministers to attend the Conference in its Representative Session.—(1) The election shall be by ballot, after nomination, from among the whole number of Ministers in any District who desire to attend the Conference.

(2) The Ministers so elected shall have permission to attend the Conference in its Pastoral Session.

(3) The Ministers necessary to complete the number permitted to attend the Conference in its Pastoral Session shall then be elected.

(4) In the event of any Minister elected to attend the Conference in its Representative Session offering to provide for himself, his election shall not thereby be rendered void. (Minutes, 1886, p. 199.)

62. Election of Lay Representatives to the Conference.—No Layman shall be eligible as a Representative, whether elected by the Conference, or by the May Synod, unless he be a Member of Society of five years' continuous standing, and, at the time of his election, a holder of office as a Trustee of Connexional Property, a Member of a Circuit Quarterly Meeting, or a Member of a Synod. Any Layman nominated in a Synod must be a Member of Society in some Circuit within that District. (Minutes, vol. xx. [1877], p. 420.)

The election of Lay Representatives to the Conference shall be by the separate vote of the Laymen, taken by ballot after nomination, in the May Synods; such nomination to be by the Lay Members only. (Minutes, vol. xx. [1877], p. 421.)

63. Substitutes for Representatives to Conference.—In the event of one or more of the Ministers or Laymen elected by the Synod to attend the Conference in its Representative Session being unable to fulfil their appointments, they shall inform the Chairman of the District before the beginning of the Representative Session, and their place or places shall then be taken by the person or persons who received the highest number of votes next to those elected. (Minutes, 1895, p. 325.)

VIII. Chairmen.

64. Election of Chairmen of Districts.—In the appointment of a Chairman of a District, the Minister elected shall have a clear majority of the total number of votes cast, and according to the Standing Order relating to Elections to Departmental Offices. See Standing Order, No. 50. (Minutes, 1886, p. 295.)

65. Resolutions on Pastoral Work and Probationers in their First Circuit.—A copy of the "Resolutions on Pastoral Work" shall be presented, under the direction of the Chairman of each District, to every Probationer on his first appointment to a Circuit. (Minutes, 1885, p. 183.)

66. Discipline of Methodism.—The Chairmen of Districts are enjoined to make particular inquiries at the May Synods in reference to the several points of discipline specified in the first Section of the Answer to Question XXVIII. in the Minutes of 1825. (Minutes, vol. vi. [1825], p. 65.)

67. Monthly Meetings of Ministers in Large Towns.—The Preachers of different Circuits, when resident in the same town, shall meet at least once in every month for mutual conference and prayer, to promote brotherly love, and to afford frequent and regular opportunities for friendly consultation on subjects of common concern in their respective Circuits. (Minutes, vol. vi. [1827], p. 281.)

68. Home Missionary Ministers.—A special inquiry shall be made at the May Synods whether the Regulations for the employment of Home Missionary Ministers, adopted by the Conference, have been faithfully observed in the Circuits to which Home Missionary Ministers are appointed; and a Report in each case shall be made to the Conference. (Minutes, vol. xv. [1862], p. 327.)

69. Additional or Fewer Ministers.—All applications for additional Ministers, or for the reduction of the number of Ministers in any Circuit, shall be considered by the District Home Mission and Chapel Committee, which shall report thereon to the May Synod. (Journal, 1894.)

70. Interchanges of Ministers.—The expense of interchanges appointed by the Conference between Ministers residing in various Circuits shall in no case fall upon the Ministers themselves, but shall be provided by the Circuits concerned, under the direction of the Synod. (Minutes, 1878, p. 252.)

71. Neutrals in Voting.—In all voting upon cases of discipline, or upon Candidates proposed for the Ministry, the number of neutrals shall be recorded. (Minutes, 1894, p. 226.)

72. Trial Sermons of Candidates for Ordination.—Candidates for Ordination shall, at or before the May Synod, preach in the presence of three Ministers of the District, who shall report, in writing, to the Synod. (Minutes, vol. xviii. [1871], p. 403.)

73. Examination of Candidates for Ordination.—(1) Before any Probationer, having travelled four years, is recommended by his Synod for admission into Full Connexion, he shall undergo a careful examination, by the Chairman of that Synod, respecting his acquaintance with Wesley's Works in general, and especially with his Sermons and his Notes on the New Testament. (Minutes, vol. iv. [1815], p. 122.)

This Oral Examination may be omitted if the report on the Probationer's paper on Wesley's Works is satisfactory. (Minutes, 1896, p. 197.)

(2) Every such Preacher shall also be examined as to his knowledge of the Constitution of Methodism and the Administration of Circuits; and as to whether, after four years' experience of its working, he still approves our discipline. (Minutes, 1897, p. 207.)

74. Probationers and Wesley's Works.—Those Probationers who do not already possess Wesley's Works are required to procure them during the period of their Probation, and shall be allowed to pay for them to our Book Steward by such instalments as may best suit their convenience. (Minutes, 1882, p. 224.)

75. Probationers' Reading.—The Examination Committee shall prepare and send to each Probationer, early in October, a list of books specially recommended for the reading of Preachers on Trial, some of which shall have particular reference to the Scriptural Doctrine of the Church. With this shall be sent a classified form on which the Probationer shall describe his reading, theological and general, for the year.

This form is to be sent in to the Chairman of the District at least a week before the meeting of the May Synod. When the Book Lists of Preachers on Trial are under consideration in the Synods, the Chairmen shall note how far their reading has been guided by the recommended list. (Minutes, 1897, p. 221.)

76. Probationers and the Synods.—Whenever practicable, Probationers shall preach during the Synods. (Minutes, vol. xviii. [1871], p. 403.)

77. Probationers returning from the Mission Field.—If a Probationer enter upon the Home Work after spending part of his probation on the Foreign Field, the Missionary Secretaries shall furnish the Chairman of the District to which he is appointed with a report upon each year of the Probation which has been spent abroad. This Report shall be laid by the Chairman before the May Synod. (Minutes, 1896, p. 229.)

78. Probation of University Graduates.—Candidates for the Ministry who have obtained a Degree in any University of the United Kingdom shall not, of necessity, spend the full term of three years in the Theological Institution, but, on the recommendation of their Tutors, the term of their residence may be shortened. And in such case, their Probation shall commence at the Conference next ensuing. (Minutes, 1886, p. 203; see also Minutes, 1895, p. 334, § 8.)

79. Administration of the Sacraments by Probationers.—Any application for a dispensation to a Probationer to administer the Sacraments shall be made to the President through the Chairman of the District. (Minutes, 1892, p. 219.)

80. Candidates for the Ministry.—(1) Whenever a Superintendent recommends his son as a Candidate for the Ministry, the character of the Candidate shall be signed also by his colleague or colleagues. In cases in which the Superintendent is appointed to a solitary Station, the character of the Candidate shall be countersigned by the Chairman of the District. (Minutes, 1898, p. 253.)

(2) Those Candidates for the Ministry who are recommended for Admission on Trial shall, at or before the time of the May Synod, preach in the presence of at least three of the Ministers of the Synod, to be selected by the Chairman, exclusive of the Superintendent by whom the Candidates respectively are proposed; and a special Report of the Sermons shall be made in the District Synod, and immediately forwarded, in writing, to the Secretaries of the Committee for the Examination of Candidates. (Minutes, vol. x. [1844], p. 91.)

(3) Arrangements shall be made by the May Synods for the hearing of each Candidate by two Ministers of the District, in addition to those who have heard him before his recommendation by the Synod; and such Ministers shall immediately forward their Report to the Rev. PETER THOMPSON, 583, Commercial Road East, London, E. (Minutes, 1889, p. 194.)

N.B.—Three different Trial Sermons are required from each Candidate; two preached, and one sent in manuscript. (Minutes, 1889, p. 193.)

(4) Except when the Conference directs otherwise, accepted Candidates shall be sent forthwith to the Institution. (Minutes, 1889, p. 317.)

81. System of Marking in Examinations.—(1) In valuing all Examinations and Trial Sermons, a system of marks by numbers from 1 to 7 shall be adopted; number 1 being the highest value, and 7 the lowest.

(2) The seven grades shall signify respectively, Excellent, Very Good, Good, Fair, Moderate, Poor, Very Poor. Also, that the marks 1, 2, 3, denote three grades of an Honours Division; and 4, 5, 6, 7, four grades in a Pass Division; "average" quality being indicated by the mark 4 (fair). (Minutes, 1888, p. 214.)

82. Candidates for the Ministry from the Welsh Districts.—Candidates for the Ministry from the Welsh Districts who are able to preach in English, and who pass their Examinations in English, shall be regarded as eligible for the general work. (Minutes, 1889, p. 317.)

83. Circulars to Members of the Synod.—The Chairman shall send a Circular to the Lay Members of his Synod requesting their attendance on the Wednesday, and, if necessary, on the Thursday, in the week of the May Synod; specifying the business that will be brought forward, and particularly mentioning any subject that may have been specially remitted by the Conference to the consideration of such Synod. (Minutes, vol. xviii. [1871], p. 402.)

A similar Circular shall be prepared and sent with reference to the September Synod.

All Ministers who are members of the Synod shall also be summoned thereto by circular. (Minutes, 1897, p. 243.)

84. Sanitary Condition of Ministers' Houses.—Circuit Stewards are recommended to have an inspection of every Minister's house by an independent sanitary expert, at every change of Minister, and to hand a certificate of the good sanitary condition of the house to the incoming Minister.

The Synods shall inquire, at their September meetings, whether this recommendation of the Conference has been carried out. (Minutes, 1893, p. 327; 1894, p. 323.)

85. Suggestions to Conference from the Synods.—A copy of any Suggestion from a Synod to the Conference relating to a Connexional Department shall be sent immediately after the Synod to the Secretary of the Department concerned. (Minutes, 1891, p. 323.)

86. Copies of District Minutes.—Chairmen of Districts are required to procure two complete copies of the Minutes of the several Annual and other Meetings of the Synods, transcribed according to the order of time in which such Synods shall have been held, and duly signed by the Chairman and Secretary.

One of these copies shall be inserted in the District Records; the other shall be sent to the Rev. Albert Clayton, 5, Jackson's Lane, Highgate, London, N., not later than June 14, and delivered by him to the President on the first day of the Conference, to be preserved under his direction, as a document appertaining to the Connexion.

The copies of the latter class shall be written on foolscap paper, that they may be annually bound together in one volume.

The District Secretary is required to furnish the Chairman with such extracts from the District Minutes as he will need at the Conference. (Minutes, vol. ii. [1799], p. 24; vol. vii. [1835], p. 554; vol. xx. [1877], p. 514; 1881, pp. 307, 308; 1890, p. 326.)

87. Minor Synod.—In all cases in which the holding of a Minor Synod is rendered necessary, except under the Regulation of 1840, such Synod shall be held in the District in which the accused party resides; the accused and the accuser selecting respectively two Ministers from the said District, and the Chairman of the District other two; the six thus chosen, together with the Chairman of the District, to constitute the Minor Synod.

Should either party refuse or decline to choose two Ministers to act as members of the meeting, the Chairman is empowered and directed to nominate them, so that the number required by rule may be made up. (Minutes, vol. ix. [1840], p. 94; vol. xviii. [1870], p. 154; 1894, p. 217.)

In the case of the trial of an Appeal against a sentence of expulsion pronounced by the Chairman of a District in the capacity of Superintendent of a Circuit, the two members of the Minor Synod added by the legislation of 1894 shall be nominated by the President of the Conference. (Minutes, 1897, p. 241.)

88. Substitute for the Chairman of a District.—When the Chairman of a District is unable to attend any meeting of his Synod, a Chairman for the occasion shall be elected by the Synod from among the Ministers then present. (Minutes, 1891, p. 230.)

89. Trial of the Chairman of a District.—In case of any complaint arising against the Chairman of a District, in reference to either his personal or his official conduct, the accuser, after duly apprising the Chairman of his intention, shall place his complaint in the hands of the President of the Conference for the time being, who shall have authority (if he deem such a course necessary or expedient) to summon a Meeting, consisting of the President of the Conference, the Secretary of the Conference (who shall act as Convener of the meeting), and twelve other Ministers who are in Full Connexion with the Conference, of whom six, wherever practicable, shall be chosen from among the Ministers of the District of which the accused is Chairman (each party having the right to challenge any or all of the persons first nominated by the President), and to place the Chairman on his trial before them.

If the guilt of the accused be proved, the Meeting shall have power to suspend him till the ensuing Conference, or to depose him from the chair; and in that case the members of the Synod concerned shall, as in the case of the death of a Chairman, elect another Chairman.

The above Resolution shall not apply to the legislation of 1835 (Minutes, vol. vii. [1835], p. 581) relative to the trial of an Appeal against a sentence of expulsion pronounced by the Chairman of a District in the capacity of Superintendent of a Circuit. (Minutes, 1894, p. 217.)

IX. Superintendents.

90. Weekly Meetings of Ministers.—Ministers appointed to the same Circuit shall meet together once a week, or as often as practicable, in order to converse freely respecting the affairs of their Circuit. (Minutes, vol. ii. [1806], p. 348.)

91. Reading of Resolutions on Pastoral Work.—These Resolutions, as far as the words "counted for a forest," shall be read at each May Synod, and at the Ministers' Meeting of each Circuit in September. Chairmen of Districts are directed to make inquiry at the May Synod concerning the due observance of this Regulation. (Minutes, 1885, pp. 356–366.)

92. Probationers and the Lord's Supper. — Superintendents are required to make the necessary arrangements, on their

Circuit Plans, for securing to their junior Colleagues proper facilities for partaking of this Holy Sacrament. (Minutes, vol. x. [1844], pp. 91, 92.)

93. Attendance of Ministers at Official Meetings.—All the Ministers and Probationers appointed to a Circuit have a constitutional right to take part as members in our Leaders' Meetings, and in all other official meetings of the Circuits to which they are appointed. (Minutes, vol. xii. [1852], p. 121.)

94. Reading of the Pastoral Address.—Superintendents are directed to appoint special Society Meetings, to be held at the principal chapels in their Circuits, for the purpose of having the Pastoral Address read, and made the subject of suitable remarks and exhortations. (Minutes, vol. viii. [1838], p. 360.)

95. The Covenant Service in Villages.—As many of the members of our Church in Village Societies cannot take part in the annual Covenant Service when held only in our principal chapels, the Conference directs Superintendents to arrange, when necessary, for additional Covenant Services for the smaller Societies, to be conducted by Ministers on the week-nights at the commencement of the new year; and that, in connexion with these Services, the Sacrament of the Lord's Supper be administered. (Minutes, 1893, p. 228.)

96. The Sacrament of the Lord's Supper.—The Conference is impressed with the advisability of arranging for the more frequent administration of the Sacrament of the Lord's Supper on week-days in those Places where it is difficult to arrange for its administration on Sundays. The Conference directs Superintendents of Circuits to pay special attention to this important matter. (Minutes, 1896, p. 230.)

97. Quarterly Fast-days.—The days upon which the Quarterly Fast, appointed by Rule, is to be observed throughout the Connexion, for the following year, are Fridays, October 4,

December 27, 1901; March 28 and June 27, 1902. (Minutes vol. i. [1767], p. 73; vol. v. [1821], p. 249.)

98. Admission of Members.—Rule of 1797. It is not intended that the names of all those who are on Trial should be laid before a Leaders' Meeting for distinct and formal discussion; but solely, that if there be, in the opinion of a Leader, any reasonable objection to the character and conduct of any person who is on Trial, such objection may be stated by him; and that, if the validity of the objection be established to the satisfaction of the Meeting, a Member's Ticket shall not be given to such person at the Quarterly Visitation. (Minutes, 1880, p. 265.)

99. Recognition of New Members.—The public and formal Recognition of New Members of Society is in accordance with early Methodist usage. A public welcome given by the Society tends to encourage the New Members, whilst the formal recognition will deepen their sense of responsibility.

Such recognition should be associated, wherever practicable, with the Public Service on the Lord's day, morning or evening, and be followed by the administration of the Lord's Supper. In some Places it might be found more expedient to recognise New Members at a Society Meeting after the Quarterly Visitation of the Classes; or, in villages, a Recognition Service might take the place of a week-evening service.

The Conference therefore directs that, at least two or three times a year, if practicable, meetings for the Recognition of New Members be held in every Circuit, the frequency and exact nature of such meetings being left to the discretion of the Superintendent. (See "Form of Service," Minutes, 1894, pp. 448–454.)

If, upon inquiry, it be found that any person, in other respects eligible for recognition, has not received Christian Baptism, that Sacrament shall be administered before the recognition of that person, and, if not otherwise, in connexion with the Recognition Service. (Minutes, 1878, p. 186 1885, p. 278.)

100. Quarterly Returns of Membership.—Where practicable, the numbers for each Society shall be read in the Leaders' Meeting immediately before each Quarter Day. (Minutes, 1893, p. 228.)

101. Annual Return of Members.—The number of Members in the Society, and of persons admitted on trial, as taken at the March Quarterly Visitation in each year, and reported at the Synods, shall be the number returned on the Minutes of the following Conference.

These Returns of Members in the Society are to be forwarded, immediately after the May Synods, to the Rev. Dr. HENRY J. POPE, 49, City Road, London, E.C.

102. Trial of Members.—When a charge is brought against any Member resident in a place where no Leaders' Meeting is statedly held, the case shall be referred for investigation to the Leaders' Meeting of the principal Society in the Circuit town. The Leader or Leaders, and the Society Stewards, of the Society of which the accused is a Member, shall be associated with the Leaders' Meeting for the purposes of the investigation. (Minutes, vol. xv. [1863], p. 541 ; vol. xviii. [1872], p. 656.)

103. Trial of Trustees.—If a charge is brought against a Trustee, then there shall be associated with the Leaders' Meeting before which the charge is investigated the Trustees of the chapel with which the Society of which he is a Member is connected ; or, if there is no such chapel, then the Trustees of the chapel in connexion with the principal Society in the Circuit town. But no Trustee shall, in either case, be so associated, unless he is himself a Member of Society in the same Circuit. (Minutes, vol. xviii. [1872], p. 656.)

104. Custody of Trust Deeds.—The Conference recommends that a Fire-proof Safe be provided in each Circuit, and that all Deeds relating to Trust Property be carefully preserved therein.

105. Register of Trust Deeds.—A Register of all Deeds and Documents relating to Trust Properties in the Circuit shall be preserved in a book; and the Deeds and Documents shall be compared with this Register annually by the Superintendent Minister and the Circuit Chapel Secretary, or by some other person to be appointed for the purpose by the Annual United Trustees' Meeting.

106. Names and Addresses of Trustees.—The Superintendent shall annually revise the Names, Addresses, and Occupations of the Trustees of all our Trust Properties, as entered in the Circuit Book. (Minutes, 1891, p. 259.)

107. Political Meetings in Wesleyan Methodist Trust Premises. —Having regard to the fact that in some Places a desire has been expressed to use our Trust Property for the purpose of Political Meetings, the Conference declares that such uses are not contemplated by the provisions of any of our Trust Deeds; and it reminds Superintendents and Trustees that our Trust Properties can only be lawfully used for the purposes provided for in the Trust Deeds.

The Conference expresses the conviction that any such use of the Premises as that suggested would be detrimental to the best interests of our Societies by endangering their peace and unity. (Minutes, vol. vii. [1834], p. 420; 1885, p. 185.)

In regard to allowing the use of Wesleyan Methodist Trust Property for meetings of Parish Councils, see Minutes, 1894, p. 323.

108. Expulsion of Members.—Inasmuch as a Superintendent is directed to bring before the weekly meeting of the Preachers of the Circuit every case of proposed expulsion of a Member, in order that he may have the advantage of hearing the opinions and advice of his colleagues and co-pastors, before he shall finally decide on the course he ought to adopt; the Conference directs that when the Superintendent has not a colleague, and cannot therefore consult a weekly meeting of the Preachers of the Circuit, he shall, in every case of the proposed expulsion of a Member of Society, take counsel with the Chairman of the District. (Minutes, 1898, p. 253.)

109. Orthodoxy of Office-bearers.—No person shall, on any account, be permitted to retain any official situation in our Societies who holds opinions contrary to the total depravity of human nature, the divinity and atonement of Christ, the influence and witness of the Holy Spirit, and Christian holiness, as believed by the Methodists. (Minutes, vol. ii. [1807], p. 405.)

110. Junior Society Classes.—In connexion with our Societies, Classes shall be generally established which shall directly provide for the religious instruction of young people. They shall have as their object the early conversion of children to God, their instruction and training in Christian doctrines and morality, and the development of Christian experience and character. For these purposes Holy Scripture shall be largely used. (Minutes, 1894, p. 218.)

111. Names and Addresses of Circuit Stewards.—The Superintendents of Circuits are required to furnish the Chairman of the District with the names and addresses of the Circuit Stewards immediately after the December Quarterly Meeting; and, immediately after the March Quarterly Meeting, with the name and address of any person elected to attend the May Synod in the place of any Circuit Steward declaring his inability to attend such Synod; and also with the names and addresses of those persons, in addition to the Circuit Stewards, who have been elected as Representatives to the Synod. (Minutes, vol. xviii. [1871], p. 402; 1885, p. 276; 1892, p. 311; 1893, p. 319.)

112. Lay Agents in Circuits.—(1) All Lay Agents employed in our Circuits shall be members of the Wesleyan Methodist Society, and shall be accredited as such by the Superintendents of the Circuits from which they come.

(2) A Lay Agent who is a fully accredited Local Preacher, having presented his Note of Removal and current Circuit Plan to the Superintendent of the Circuit in which he is to work as a Lay Agent, shall have his name placed at the foot of the list of Local Preachers on the Circuit Plan, unless the Local Preachers' Meeting, in exercise of the power given to it by the Conference (see Minutes, 1895, p. 436), shall decide to place his name in a higher position. The words "Hired Local Preacher," "Lay Agent," or otherwise, shall be added to his name on the plan; and while employed as a Lay Agent in the Circuit, he shall be subject to the jurisdiction of the Local Preachers' Meeting.

(3) Any Lay Agent desiring to offer himself as a Candidate for the Ministry must be proposed in and approved by the Quarterly Meeting of the Circuit of which he is a member, the directions concerning the residential qualification of Candidates for the Ministry being strictly observed.

(4) If a Lay Agent is not a Local Preacher, his name shall appear on the Circuit Plan, but not among the names of the Preachers. He shall be subject to the jurisdiction of the Local Preachers' Meeting in the same manner as Exhorters are subjected to that jurisdiction by the provisions of our Discipline. (Minutes, 1895, pp. 435, 438; 1898, p. 360.)

113. Circuit Missionary Accounts.—In no Circuit shall the Missionary Accounts for the year be closed until they have been passed by the Local or Circuit Missionary Committee, and duly signed by the Superintendent of the Circuit. (Minutes, 1898, p. 361.)

X. Circuit Quarterly Meeting.

114. The Ballot in Quarterly Meetings.—(1) At the elections in Quarterly Meetings of the Representatives to the District Synods the usage of open voting may be departed from, and the elections decided by ballot, after nomination by the Lay Members of the Meeting. (Minutes, 1893, p. 319.)

(2) In respect of all other elections made at Quarterly Meetings the Conference re-affirms its declaration of 1884, namely: "The practice of voting by ballot in the administration of Methodism in our Circuits is contrary to long-established usage, and its adoption would in various ways be injurious to the interests of our Societies." (Minutes, 1884, p. 191; 1893, p. 319.)

115. Election of Representatives to the Synods.—(1) In addition to the Circuit Stewards, who represent especially the financial interests of the Circuit, each Circuit shall, at the March Quarterly Meeting, elect as members of the Synod either one or two Laymen who are considered suitable on general grounds to take part in the counsels of the Synods in the May and September following.

(2) Circuits employing one or two Ministers shall elect one Representative to the Synod; Circuits with three or more Ministers shall elect two Representatives. (Minutes, 1892, p. 311.)

116. Church Membership and the Synods.—No one is eligible for a seat in a Synod, or upon any Committee thereof, who is not a Member of the Wesleyan Methodist Church. (Minutes, 1892, p. 309.)

117. Circuit Stewards and the Synods.—Circuit Stewards, who are otherwise members of the Synod, shall not be at liberty to decline to attend the Synod as Stewards, and then claim the right to sit and vote by virtue of any other office. (Minutes, 1892, p. 311.)

118. Substitutes for Lay Members of Synods.—The Circuit Quarterly Meeting in March is entitled to elect, provisionally, a substitute for each of the Circuit Stewards, whether he shall, or shall not, have declared his ability and willingness to attend the May Synod; also, a substitute for each of the Representatives, or for the Representative. Any Circuit

Steward or Representative who shall find himself unable to attend the Synod shall inform the Superintendent, who shall thereupon invite the substitute to be present. (Minutes, 1897, p. 340.)

119. Candidates for the Ministry.—In any case in which a Candidate has not resided for two years continuously in the Circuit from which he is recommended, the Superintendent of that Circuit shall obtain a written report concerning him from his former Superintendent or Superintendents, so as to cover the previous two years, and present the same to the March Quarterly Meeting and to the Synod. (Minutes, 1895, p. 204.)

120. Division of Circuits.—Before a Synod consents to the division of any Circuit, inquiry must be made whether due attention has been paid to satisfactory arrangements for the Trust Estates affected by the proposed division, especially in reference to debts existing thereon. (Minutes, vol. xviii. [1870], p. 154.)

For Regulations as to Division of Circuits, see Minutes, 1886, pp. 270–273.

121. Boundaries of Circuits.—Whereas difficulties have arisen from the want of accurate and recorded definitions of the boundaries of Circuits, the boundaries of Circuits which are divided shall in future be fully stated in the Minutes of the Synod to which they belong, and the Secretary of the Synod shall send a copy of the record to be inserted in the Minutes of the Quarterly Meetings of the Circuits concerned; and in such cases, copies of the Ordnance maps, or some other maps, of the localities concerned shall be coloured so as to show the boundaries, and deposited in the safes provided for the custody of the Trust Deeds of the Circuits.

These arrangements shall be made in all cases of alteration in the boundaries of existing Circuits. (Minutes, vol. xix. [1874], p. 454.)

122. Juvenile Home and Foreign Missionary Associations.—(1) In the case of Circuits which are not in a position to ask for the appointment of a Home Missionary Minister, and to give the pledge required, but which feel the necessity of adopting some plan of Home Missionary operations, the subjoined allocation is allowed: One-third of the sums received from Juvenile Associations to be paid to the Funds of the Missionary Society, it being expressly understood that in every case the contribution to the Foreign Missions shall be at least equal to what has been presented from Christmas Offerings, on the average of several preceding years; one-third to the Home Mission Fund; one-third to the Circuit, to be expended in support of local movements of a directly Home Missionary character, under the direction of the Superintendent and of a Committee to be appointed at the December Quarterly Meeting.

(2) A return of the gross amounts collected in the various Circuits by Juvenile Missionary Associations, with the proportions of such amount allocated to the various objects, shall be made yearly, at the May Synods. (Minutes, vol. xv. [1863], p. 528; and vol. xx. [1877], p. 398; also 1885, p. 195.)

123. The Weekly Offertory.—The Offertory System shall not be adopted in any chapel without the consent of the Circuit Quarterly Meeting. (Minutes, 1889, pp. 286, 287.)

124. Auxiliary Fund.—Whilst anxious to secure separate and accurate returns of the amounts raised in the Classes, the Conference urges upon the Circuits the necessity of the average of Sixpence per Member being made up in each Circuit; and sanctions this being done in such a way as may be approved in the respective Circuits—provided that the Public Collections, usually made in July, be separately returned. (Minutes, 1890, pp. 265, 266.)

125. Grants towards Removal Expenses.—If any Minister be appointed to a Circuit, after an invitation sent by that Circuit to the Minister, every expense incurred by his removal, beyond what the Circuit he is leaving may provide, shall be borne by his new Circuit. (Minutes, 1878, pp. 221, 222.)

126. Financial Statement at June Quarterly Meeting.—The Circuit Quarterly Meeting affords a most valuable opportunity for bringing the Connexional principle before the leading officials of our Circuit; and the Conference directs that at each June Quarterly Meeting this shall be done, and a report made of the Circuit contributions to each Connexional Fund during the year. (Minutes, 1889, p. 288.)

For list of Connexional Funds, see pp. 407–410.

127. Statistics of Day and Sunday Schools.—The statistics of the Day and Sunday Schools of each Circuit shall be read in the March Quarterly Meeting; but if sufficient time be not then available for the discussion of the statistics, and for inquiry into the state of the Schools, such discussion and inquiry shall take place in the June Quarterly Meeting.

128. Memorials to Conference.—(1) Should a majority of the June Quarterly Meeting, in any Circuit, be of opinion that it is desirable to address to the Conference a Memorial on any Connexional subject, and agree to do so, that Meeting itself, subject to the regulations which follow, shall have authority to adopt and transmit to the Conference such a Memorial. And at such Meeting any Member thereof may propose, for consideration, the propriety of addressing a Memorial to the Conference. (Minutes, vol. xii. [1852], p. 111.)

(2) Any Member of the Quarterly Meeting intending to propose a Resolution, and bring the same before the June Quarterly Meeting as the basis of a Memorial to the Conference, shall give notice, with a copy in writing, of the particular Motion or Resolution which he intends to propose either at the March Quarterly Meeting, or to the Superintendent Minister not less than seven days preceding the date of the June Quarterly Meeting; and no proposal of which such notice has not been given shall be brought forward that year. But should the Quarterly Meeting adopt the substance or principle of a Resolution so brought forward, it may amend, as well as simply adopt or reject it. (Minutes, vol. xii. [1852], p. 112; 1895, p. 367.)

(3) A Memorial, founded on such Motion or Resolution, if approved by a majority of the persons present, shall be signed by the Chairman of the Meeting; and he shall add a footnote, stating the number of persons present, and also the number voting for and against the Memorial. (Minutes, 1891, pp. 331, 362.)

(4) Memorials from Circuit Quarterly Meetings are to be forwarded by the Superintendents of Circuits to the Convener of the Committee on Memorials and Suggestions, the Rev. Enoch Salt, St. Elmo, Sandon Road, Edgbaston, Birmingham, not later than ten days before the opening of the Conference. (Minutes, 1889, p. 285.)

(5) All Memorials thus received by the Conference shall be referred to a Committee of its members, who shall carefully classify and consider the whole, and present their report thereon to the Conference. (Minutes, vol. xii. [1852], p. 112.)

(6) The Quarterly Meeting has complete freedom to memorialise the Conference. It is not competent for the Chairman of a June Quarterly Meeting to rule any Memorial out of order. The Conference reserves to itself alone the right to determine whether a Memorial contains a proposal of a revolutionary character, or subversive of the doctrine or discipline of Wesleyan Methodism. (Minutes, vol. xii. [1852], p. 112; 1895, p. 368.)

(7) The Conference cannot sanction such Memorials as involve a direct interference on the part of one Circuit with the local affairs or proceedings of any other Circuit. (Minutes, vol. xii. [1852], p. 112.)

(8) No Memorial can be received from the Quarterly Meeting of a Circuit except in manuscript. (Minutes, vol. xix. [1874], p. 454.)

(9) The consideration and determination of all questions raised by Memorials from Circuit Quarterly Meetings shall come within the province of the Conference when exclusively Ministerial, or when the Lay Representatives shall be present, according to the subject-matter thereof, respectively. In all cases in which there may be any doubt as to the province to which a matter belongs, the President shall decide. (Minutes, vol. xx. [1877], p. 424.)

XI. The Local Preachers' Meeting.

129. Before any Candidate comes upon the Plan on Trial, he shall be examined by the Superintendent, or under his direction, in the Summary of Christian Doctrine and Bible History; and, when necessary, in the elements of English Grammar. (Minutes, 1874, vol. xix., p. 455).

130. No Candidate shall be fully admitted as a Local Preacher until he has read the Fifty-three Standard Sermons of Mr. Wesley, and his Notes on the New Testament; and until he has passed a satisfactory examination in the definitions and Scripture proofs of the leading Doctrines of Christianity as there explained. (Minutes, 1876, vol. xx., p. 155).

131. All Local Preachers shall meet in class. (Minutes, 1869, vol. xvii., p. 624).

132. Wherever practicable, Local Preachers, after being received on Full Plan, shall be recognised at a Public Religious Service. (Minutes, 1895, p. 437).

133. A Local Preacher who shall be adjudged a bankrupt, or who shall make a composition with the general body of his creditors, shall thereby be suspended from his office as a Local Preacher until the Local Preachers' Meeting shall have decided whether the circumstances of the case are such as to justify his continuance on the Plan. (Minutes, 1895, p. 314).

134. Every duly accredited Local Preacher is entitled to be placed, without renewed trial or examination, upon the Plan of any Circuit to which he may remove; provided he present his Note of Removal and current Circuit Plan, and has become a member of Society in that Circuit.

(This, of course, does not apply to Local Preachers on trial.)

The position of a Local Preacher on the Plan of the Circuit to which he may remove shall be decided by the Local Preachers' Meeting concerned. (Minutes, 1895, p. 436).

135. Before a Local Preacher from another branch of the Methodist Church is put on the Circuit Plan he shall satisfy the Superintendent and the Local Preachers' Meeting that he holds our Doctrines, approves our Discipline, and has competent abilities for the work. (Minutes, 1898, p. 250).

136. The necessities of our work require that suitable persons should be employed in the capacity of Exhorters; such persons having the approbation of the Superintendent and the Local Preachers' Meeting. (Minutes, 1876, vol. xx., p. 155).

137. Before any place is taken off the Plan the sanction of the Circuit Quarterly Meeting shall be obtained. (Minutes, 1895, p. 439).

XII. Sunday and Day Schools.

138. Sunday-school Official Meetings.—The Superintendent Minister of the Circuit shall preside at the Annual Meeting of the Committee and Subscribers; and also at all meetings of the Committee, and at all meetings of the Teachers. If at anyone of the said meetings the Superintendent Minister be not present, one of the other Ministers of the Circuit shall preside. If no Minister is present, the meeting shall appoint one of the Officers of the institution to act as Chairman; except in the case of a Teachers' Meeting, when one of the Superintendents of the School shall preside. (Minutes, vol. xvii. [1868], p. 384.)

139. Representation of Sunday Schools in Circuit Quarterly Meetings.—(1) No one who is not a member of the Wesleyan

Methodist Church of at least three years' continuous standing shall be ex officio, or eligible to be elected as, a Representative from a Sunday School to the Circuit Quarterly Meeting. No person shall be deemed eligible to represent a Sunday School at the Quarterly Meeting of any Circuit in which he is not at the time a Member of the Wesleyan Methodist Church.

(2) The senior Superintendent of every Sunday School shall be a member, ex officio, of the Quarterly Meeting.

N.B.—Where there are more Superintendents than one, should any difficulty arise as to which Superintendent should be counted the senior, the point may be determined at the meeting when the election of Representatives takes place. The word "senior" is intended to refer to seniority as Superintendent of the School, not to seniority in age.

(3) In Schools with an average attendance of one hundred to three hundred scholars, in addition to the ex officio Representative, a special Representative shall be chosen from the teachers and officers of the school at the annual Teachers' Meeting.

(4) In Schools with an average attendance of three hundred scholars and upwards, a second special Representative shall be elected in like manner. The special Representative or Representatives shall be elected annually, the same persons being eligible for re-election. Only members of the Wesleyan Methodist Church shall vote for Representatives.

(5) Where there are two sessions, the average attendance shall be that for the larger session, as given in the official returns for the year preceding that in which the election is made.

(6) Should any School Superintendent not be a member of the Church, the teachers and officers of the school may, at the annual Teachers' Meeting, elect from among their own number as a Representative some other person who is duly qualified in respect of his membership.

(7) The time and place of the meeting when Representatives are elected shall be fixed in consultation with the Superintendent Minister, either he or one of his colleagues being in the chair; and in the event of a Circuit Minister not being present, the chairman shall be elected by the meeting, such chairman being a member of the Church. (Minutes, 1894, pp. 313, 314.)

140. Our Catechisms in our Sunday Schools.—The Conference attaches the utmost importance to doctrinal teaching in Sunday Schools by means of catechetical instruction, and directs that Ministers shall give special attention to this subject. Superintendents and Teachers are also urgently and affectionately recommended to do their utmost to promote the use of our Catechisms. (Minutes, vol. xix. [1873], p. 176; 1882, pp. 224, 225; 1890, p. 279; 1896, p. 230.)

141. Correct Returns from Sunday Schools.—With a view to securing more correct returns from Sunday Schools, it is an instruction to the Secretary or Secretaries of each School that, wherever practicable, the Schedule of Returns be submitted to the Local Committee before such Returns are presented to the Circuit Quarterly Meeting. (Minutes, 1885, p. 278.)

142. Examination of Pupil Teachers.—The Annual Examination of Pupil Teachers in Religious Knowledge shall be held on the last Saturday in October and on the first Saturday in March. The questions shall be prepared by the General Committee; the Examination held, either in the several Circuits by the Superintendent Ministers or their Colleagues, or at suitable places for Central District Examinations, as may be determined by the September Synods, and agreed to by the respective School Committees; and the written answers forwarded to the General Secretary, to be valued by a Central Board of Examiners elected by the General Committee. (Minutes, vol. xv. [1863], pp. 534, 535; vol. xx. [1877], p. 409.)

In connexion with Central Examinations, meetings of Teachers and Pupil Teachers shall be held, under the direction of the Chairman of the District and the District Education Secretary.

SECTION VI.

SPECIAL AND ANNUAL ADDRESSES.

ADDRESS TO HIS MAJESTY THE KING.

To the King's Most Excellent Majesty,

MAY IT PLEASE YOUR MAJESTY,—

We, your Majesty's dutiful and loyal subjects, the Representatives of the Wesleyan Methodist Church, assembled in our Annual Conference, humbly address your Majesty on behalf of ourselves and of the Church we represent. We have sorrowed deeply with your Majesty, your Royal House, and all the peoples of the Empire in the loss sustained by the death of our late beloved Sovereign, Queen Victoria, of ever blessed and glorious memory. We are persuaded that the influence of her late Majesty's rare and noble personality and wise rule will long survive in our national and imperial life.

We have joyfully hailed your Majesty's accession to the Crown, and we respectfully and gratefully recognise your Majesty's declared purpose to carry on the highest traditions of the throne, in a deep solicitude for the advancement of the true prosperity of the peoples of your Majesty's dominions.

We declare for the Church which we represent our devoted attachment to your Majesty's person and Government. We are confident that your Majesty will maintain the highest interests of the people by the guardianship of God's holy ordinances, by the defence of the Protestant Religion, by the protection of the rights of conscience, and by whatever else can promote the welfare of your Majesty's subjects.

We shall not cease to offer our fervent prayers to Almighty God for your Majesty's personal happiness and well-being, and for the peace, prosperity, and honour of your Majesty's reign.

Signed in the name and on behalf of the Conference,

W. T. DAVISON, President.
MARSHALL HARTLEY, Secretary.

TELEGRAM TO THE KING.

The Annual Conference of the Wesleyan Methodist Church has heard with sorrow of the death of the Empress Frederick of Germany, and respectfully assures your Majesty of its deep sympathy and unfailing loyalty to your Majesty's throne.

DAVISON, President.

OF

TO THE

METHODIST SOCIETIES.

Brethren Beloved in the Lord,—

"Grace to you and peace from God our Father and the Lord Jesus Christ." We give thanks to God for the fruit of the Spirit which still abounds among you. The seed of the word has again brought forth manifold; our hearers multiply, our organisations grow, the number of those who are obedient to the faith increases.

In common with other Free Churches of our land you have shared in the toil and participated in the blessing which accompanied the great Simultaneous Mission with which the present century opened. We rejoice in the signs of God's presence which that movement witnessed. The spirit of unity prevailed, the Churches were quickened, a multitude, especially of the young people of our families, "put on Christ," and many of the erring and lost were gathered into the fold.

The past year has also witnessed a gratifying growth of interest in Foreign Missions. The splendid heroism of our workers, and the courage and steadfastness of native Christians amid their great fight of afflictions, have provoked the wonder and awakened the sympathies of all the Churches; while the study of the principles upon which Foreign Missionary work ultimately rests, which recent events have inevitably called forth, has resulted in a deepened conviction of the paramount duty of the Christian Church to preach the gospel to every creature.

We are bound to give thanks also for the display of liberality and loyalty to our Church which the gathering of the Twentieth Century Fund has continued to evoke. While maintaining in their ordinary efficiency all existing Circuit and Connexional institutions, our people have promised to this special object the truly noble sum of £920,000. Such a result, so cheerfully and unostentatiously achieved, coupled with the resolute and widely expressed determination to bring the effort to a successful conclusion by the end of this year, fills us with joy; partly as it betokens that the spirit of noble and self-forgetful generosity still lives amongst us, but chiefly as it gives evidence of the general recognition of a divine call to our Church to prepare itself for arduous and devoted labours in the century now begun.

Brethren, our hearts overflow with thankfulness at this and other tokens that, despite the manifold seductions and distractions of modern life, our Church still lives so near the secret place of the Most High, that it can hear His voice saying, "Whom shall I send?" and, though alive to the continued discipline and sacrifice involved in the reply, is ready to answer, "Here am I, send me."

For, truly, an hour has struck that is fraught with fate for Britain and for the world. During the century just closed the city of our God has been the object of fierce, prolonged, and many-sided attack. Criticism, armed with wide and brilliant scholarship, has assailed its Scriptures, its doctrines, its sanctions of human conduct, its interpretation of the history of man and of the world. Notwithstanding an equally learned and vigorous defence, so determined was the assault that even stout hearts sometimes trembled for the safety of the Ark of God. But as the day of battle wore on, it became more and more clear that the "foundation of God standeth sure." While some "things that have been made" may have been removed, the conflict has demonstrated that the kingdom which we have received is a kingdom that cannot be shaken.

From the furnace of historical criticism into which it had been cast, our New Testament has been given back to us, loosed from the thongs of tradition in which it had been bound, and made ready for wider service and for more confident appeal by the witness of the fire to its proof.

Revived study concerning the Divinity of our Lord gives added force to the poet's dilemma:

> Call Christ, then, the illimitable God,
> Or lost.

The farther truth-loving science pushes its researches into the beginnings of the world's history, the longer it considers the real significance of its own discoveries, the less confident does it become that it can improve upon the authoritative statement which has been read in the Churches from of old, "In the beginning, GOD."

The failure of much-vaunted substitutes for the living Christ to produce earnest moral aspiration already fills even their advocates with apprehension. The recrudescence of Paganism in our time adds force to the opinion that the continued prevalence of high moral ideal and endeavour did not arise from a general recognition of the authority of those sanctions by which Christian doctrine had been supplanted, but was rather the unexhausted effect of the general moral impetus which the preaching of Christ itself awakened.

Slowly yet surely the harvest of materialism is ripening, and good men are filled with dismay at the prospect. With the obscuration of the heavenly vision, superstition takes the place of faith, priestcraft begins again to exercise its baneful influence, religion degenerates into ritual, and conscience is lulled to sleep.

Upon the people a strange ethical lethargy has fallen. Men hesitate to face vital moral issues, and fear to grapple with grave moral problems. The one pursuit that in the eyes of the men of this generation justifies the effort is the quest of riches. Material wealth is sought after by all classes with eager and venturesome haste. The means by which it is obtained are considered of but secondary importance. The things most highly esteemed are such as money can secure—abundance, ease, self-gratification, fame, display. The life of a nation is held by many to consist in the abundance of the things it possesseth. Even education itself is gauged by its ability to further commercial interests. Energy not absorbed in making money is largely expended in the pursuit of pleasure. Devotion to sport is so excessive as to call forth the solemn warning of authorities of our public schools. Among the working classes the thirst for amusements, doubtless rendered more acute by the excessive monotony of their daily toil, amounts almost to a craving; while ominous preference is shown for such "sports" as afford opportunity of indulging the appalling passion for gambling. The love of strong drink still sets at defiance all prudential motives and ties of affection, and brings thousands of its victims to despair and destruction. And, of most sinister significance of all, the hitherto inviolate sanctities of home life are threatened by an insidious but determined attempt to undermine the authority and charm of our choice domestic virtues.

It becomes clear that the evil of man's heart is not to be exorcised by maxims, however obvious and excellent they may be. Whether or not it know Jesus and recognise the Ambassador of the Cross, such authority it confessedly flouts. Meanwhile, the conviction deepens that the argument for Christianity is stronger than critics have assumed, and the efficacy of our faith greater than they were willing to admit. In view of the gigantic and accumulating evils of our time, there is a disposition, even in unfriendly quarters, to give Christianity a fair field. Men stand still to see the salvation of God.

Surely, then, the hour of the Son of man is come. The time is ripe for a general advance. To falter now would be both traitorous and suicidal.

To the Methodist Church the call is specially addressed. For we are set, brethren, not so much for the defence of the gospel as for its propagation. We acknowledge indeed, with much thankfulness, that our Church has never lacked competent and devoted scholars who by voice and pen have earnestly contended for the faith. Yet while we gladly take out part in manning the walls of the city of our God, we still recognise that the distinctive commission of Methodism is not to await attack, but to advance; not to concentrate, but to spread; to carry the battle to the gates of Hades, rather than to defend the palaces of Zion. Before our Church, then, lies an unprecedented opportunity, for which the whole of its providential history has prepared it. How great our shame if at such a crisis we are found wanting!

The doctrine pre-eminently adapted to the present generation is the gospel of experience, and this is emphatically the gospel we have received.

Our God is not a mere abstraction of thought, nor is He a being so remote that He cannot hear our cry, or so lost in His works that He cannot help. He is the God and Father of our Lord Jesus Christ. His arm is not shortened at all, neither is His ear heavy. He receives our prayer, forgives our sins, empowers us unto holiness, gives us the Spirit of adoption, and brings us into close, glad, constant fellowship with Himself.

With us Christian service is not the assumption of a care additional to all the other burdens of life, it is rather the joyous yielding up of the will to the sweet constraint of the Holy Spirit, in whose power and fellowship the heavy burdens of life are carried with composure, the impossible becomes compassable, and the soul is preserved without anxiety in the cheerfulness of perennial youth.

> Careful without care I am,
> Nor feel my happy toil,
> Kept in peace by Jesu's name,
> Supported by His smile;
> . . . . .
> Far above all earthly things,
> While yet my hands are here employed,
> Sees my soul the King of kings,
> And freely talks with God.

Brethren, we know Him whom we have believed. Our speech and our preaching is, "O let me commend my Saviour to you"; and to millions of our wearied and dispirited fellow-countrymen the testimony has already proved life from the dead.

The comprehensiveness of our Church, again, is such as to commend it to men of all ranks and of every habit of thought and life. The hall-mark of a Methodist is not to be found in any peculiar opinions, manner of worship, or distinctive customs, phrases, or garb. "Our religion," says John Wesley, "does not lie in doing what God hath not enjoined, or in abstaining from what He hath not forbidden."

Neither does Methodism consist in any disproportionate magnifying of any essential part of religion. Subscription to a creed has never been demanded as a condition of entrance into our Church. Not that we have any sympathy with a flaccid and formless theology, nor that any uncertain sound is given from our pulpits. In the interests of purity of doctrine, and of the efficient discharge of ministerial duties, your ministers submit themselves to frequent and searching examination, without parallel in any other Christian community. But while we teach sound doctrine, we do not make creed a condition precedent to membership amongst us.

Least of all are we committed to any special set of opinions on matters of scientific research, national policy, social reform, or ecclesiastical polity. "As to all opinions which do not strike at the root of Christianity, we think and let think."

The only and sufficient condition of membership amongst us is a desire to be saved from sin, which evinces itself in avoidance of evil, in doing good to the bodies and souls of all men, and in attendance on the ordinances of God. "A Methodist is one who has the love of God shed abroad in his heart by the Holy Ghost given unto him."

Our organisation, still preserving the main lines of adaptation to pioneer work on which it was laid down, is specially suited to general and continuous evangelistic endeavour. Our ministers are not primarily pastors of Churches, but preachers, heralds, ambassadors, whose business it is to proclaim throughout their circuits the glad tidings of great joy. Our places of worship are not so much objectives to be reached as bases of operations, where indeed spiritual stores are certainly to be obtained, but whence also bands of saints issue forth on the neighbourhood around for all their work of faith and labour of love. The basis of our Circuit finance is provision for the necessities of the minister as they arise, and the employment of growing funds, not in enriching the existing staff, but in calling out fresh labourers into the field.

Our Connexional organisation welds the whole Church into a real and visible unity, in which the humblest village Society feels itself an integral part of the whole body. By means of our Connexional funds, Departments, and Committees, we are able quickly to concentrate our efforts upon needy localities, and to direct enthusiasm and encourage enterprise wherever it is found.

Such special adaptation to the needs of the time and qualification for the duty demanded strengthen the obligation laid upon us to obey the Spirit's call for advance; and all the traditions of our Church emphasise and confirm it. Our Church's heroes are its early evangelists. The highest enthusiasm of old and young is kindled by the story of their travels and labours—how that in afflictions, in imprisonments, in necessities, in tumults, in labours, in watchings, in fastings, in pureness, in knowledge, in longsuffering, in the Holy Ghost, in love unfeigned, in the word of truth, in the power of God, they preached the word, and laid broad and deep the foundations of our Church. Many with pardonable pride trace their own descent from the grand old saints of former days, and lovingly relate how, through their prayer, or self-sacrificing labour, or hospitality, or wit, Methodism was established in their own neighbourhood. But

> They who on glorious ancestry enlarge
> Produce their debt instead of their discharge.

We confess that we are the sons of them who gave their substance and life that England might be saved; therefore let us also, seeing that we are compassed about with so great a cloud of witnesses, lay aside every weight.

Brethren, the fields are white unto plenteous harvest, but the labourers are few. "Pray ye therefore the Lord of the harvest, that He send forth labourers into His harvest."

The ranks of the ministry need a constant accession of Spirit-filled men to labour in the word and in teaching. The experience of our Church has abundantly confirmed the teaching of Scripture that the gifts and calling of God bear no necessary relation to early social or educational advantages. But in view of the growing need for a cultivated as well as a consecrated ministry, and in the interests of their own boldness at the appearing of Christ, we would affectionately invite young men of piety and culture amongst us, prayerfully to consider whether the call to the service of the Lord Christ which they have received might not include a call to the work of the ministry.

The exceptional opportunities for Christian service which our Church has from the first offered to women has in recent years been greatly extended by the founding of the Wesley Deaconess Institute, and of the various Mission sisterhoods at home and abroad. We are thankful for the devoted, effective, and varied service which the sisters are rendering. We earnestly hope that where refined and godly young women feel called to devote themselves to the exclusive service of the Church, their parents, so far from opposing such an honourable career, will consider they have therein received a distinguishing mark of God's favour.

But we trust that the multiplication of salaried positions will not in any degree lessen the number of voluntary helpers or discount the importance of their work. It is the duty and privilege of every member of the Christian Church to take his share in advancing its interests. The task before us is so vast that it cannot be accomplished without the hearty and active co-operation of all. There is no need to enumerate the various departments of Christian activity amongst us, now happily so numerous as to find congenial employment for every variety of talent. But to a few we would direct your earnest attention.

There is pressing need for devoted and capable class-leaders. No more honourable sphere of toil can be found; and if the responsibility seem great, let it be remembered that so also is the recompense of the reward. "Our sufficiency is of God, who also made us sufficient."

Upon Sunday-school Committees we would impress the great importance of the work of which they have the oversight, and would urge upon them, in union with the Teachers' meetings, to give all diligence to secure the highest efficiency of their schools in number, discipline, attractiveness, and especially in teaching and in soul-winning power.

Temperance work, again, should receive more systematic attention. With a strong conviction of the educational possibilities of our Bands of Hope, we deprecate the tendency to make the meetings mere occasions of amusement. By special resolution we have commended to your sympathy the Twentieth Century Pledge-signing Crusade, and invite all who desire to promote the sobriety of the nation to lend this movement their support.

But chiefly are we concerned that in all our Circuits distinct aggressive work should be undertaken. In our large towns the great mass of the population is still outside all the Churches. These must we seek in order to save. We rejoice in the success still attending open-air services. By careful selection of speakers and diligent attention to singing and other details, we are convinced that even greater results would follow. In many towns suitable spaces for large assemblies are rare. Experience shows, however, that people will gather even more readily in halls and other places not exclusively designed for religious purposes. To bring under the sound of the gospel a new congregation of many hundred persons is surely ample reward for the expense involved.

The Gospel Cars—recalling that old Methodist institution, the travelling preacher's saddle-bags—have proved most attractive, affording rare opportunity for the continuous preaching of the gospel in places remote from the Circuit towns, and at the same time proving a valuable and much-needed agency for the dissemination of wholesome Christian literature.

Let us, at any rate, put forth every effort to fill all our existing chapels. In some cases the practice of freeing all sittings at the evening service, coupled with systematic house-to-house visitation, has resulted in a large increase of the congregation. Manifestation of interest on the part of members of the Church in the life of the people of the neighbourhood always proves efficacious. But whatever the method adopted, let us by all means seek to dissipate the feeling of suspicion and estrangement which, more than hostility or even indifference, accounts for neglect of the house of God.

The Pentecostal endowment of power to give suitable personal witness to the living Christ is ever followed by large accessions to the Church. Let us prayerfully seek to revive this spirit of Christian testimony. There is too great reticence among us in declaring what God has done for our soul. We may be ready without being obtrusive. Let those that fear the Lord speak often one to another, not only for mutual edification, but also that utterance may be given them that they may speak as they ought to speak. A word in due season, how good it is! May the Lord bestow upon all the "tongue of them that are taught"!

In conclusion, brethren, we exhort you to maintain a true simplicity of manner and life. Otherwise the effectiveness of your witness will be imperilled, and the fidelity of your stewardship jeopardised. Beware, then, how you allow increasing income itself alone to justify enlarged expenditure. Guard against the tendency to transform luxuries into necessities. Take heed how you make your own the standard of living adopted by men who have not the fear of God before their eyes. The world ever applauds self-indulgence: the symbol of Christianity is the Cross. In early days the marks of the Lord Jesus were borne in the body; in these last days they are laid upon the substance. He who gave all for us claims all from us. And we give our tithe, not as a compounding with God for the undisturbed possession of the remainder, but as our acknowledgment of His right to the whole whensoever He may demand it. The great work before us can only be accomplished as we bring all the tithes into the storehouse. By the right use of such things as ye have, make yourselves "purses which wax not old, a treasure in the heavens which faileth not." "Ye know the grace of our Lord Jesus Christ, that, though He was rich, yet for your sakes He became poor."

Let us, then, all fulfil our part. The call is loud, the duty clear. The time is short. The Lord cometh. His reward is with Him. As we have opportunity let us do good. According as each hath received a gift let him minister it, as good stewards of the manifold grace of God. "Blessed is that servant whom his Lord when He cometh shall find so doing; of a truth He will set him over all that He hath."

THE ANNUAL ADDRESS

OF THE

IRISH CONFERENCE OF 1901

TO THE

BRITISH CONFERENCE OF 1901.

Honoured and beloved Fathers and Brethren,—

Heartily rejoicing as we do in the reality and closeness of the ties which bind us to you, we gladly avail ourselves of the opportunity again afforded of greeting you in the name of our common Lord. "Grace to you and peace from God our Father and the Lord Jesus Christ."

To the Rev. Thomas Allen, D.D., your President and ours, we have given a cordial welcome. Dr. Allen's urbanity, his dignity and courtesy in the chair of the Conference, his weighty, timely, and most effective public utterances, have commanded our admiration and won our affectionate regard.

The enforced absence of the Ex-President, the Rev. Frederic W. Macdonald, has been to us a cause of very deep regret.

The Rev. Enoch Salt, who visits us for the first time, and the Rev. William Burgess, a frequent and ever welcome visitor in the interest of Missions, have been heartily welcomed both for their own sake and yours, and have rendered us efficient and valuable service, their addresses adding greatly to the interests of our public meetings. Your Lay Representative, Mr. S. Rathbone Edge, M.A., has been known to us by name for many years, and the opportunity of making his personal acquaintance has been most welcome. Mr. Edge's geniality and deeply spiritual addresses have won for him a large measure of our esteem and affection.

We rejoice with you that, through the good hand of God upon you, you are able, at the close of another Connexional year, to joy "with the joy of harvest." An increase of almost 2,500 members, such as you report, in a year of exceptional national excitement and unrest, is surely evidence that the Lord has been working with you, "confirming the words by signs following."

We have been deeply interested from the beginning in your great City Missions, and are glad to note their growing strength and usefulness. Your more recent efforts to strengthen the Methodism of rural England by consolidating weak Circuits has had our interested attention; and we rejoice in the abundant justification of the policy which you have already received. If at times we have been tempted to covet your larger fields of opportunity, we have ever realised the difficulties you have to encounter—difficulties which, as the years pass, grow not less but greater. We are grateful to the great Giver of all good, that He is enabling you thus to adapt your agencies to the new conditions of our time, and we earnestly bespeak an interest in your prayers that similar grace and wisdom may be granted to us.

The marvellous success of your Twentieth Century Fund has sounded out through all the world. None have more heartily rejoiced in its success than your brethren of Irish Methodism. We are sure that the sanctified enthusiasm of your people will speedily complete the movement, and that before the first year of the new century closes British Methodism will have laid its token of love—one million guineas—at the feet of our glorified Saviour and Lord.

That the funds of your great Missionary Society—ours as well as yours—have not suffered during the time of special effort in connexion with the Twentieth Century Fund, but have actually considerably increased, is striking evidence of a real revival of missionary interest amongst your people. In this revived interest we rejoice all the more, because we believe it is fully shared by the members of our own Church.

We have mourned with you in the losses of the year. Ireland's gift of William Arthur to British Methodism goes far in itself to justify Wesley's historic statement, "Have patience with Ireland and she will repay you." To the end Mr. Arthur retained the deepest interest in the land of his birth and of his earliest triumphs for Christ. The service he rendered in connexion with our Belfast College, and in other ways, we can never forget. Charles Garrett's was a household name in Irish as in British Methodism. Meeting as we do in the southern capital of our land, we are reminded that at our last Cork Conference, held four years ago, Mr. Garrett was with us, showing but little abatement of natural force and none of spiritual power. The death of these and other honoured brethren will leave gaps in your ranks not easily filled. May some be "baptized for the dead"!

Nor can we forget that death has entered into our palaces during the year, and that after a glorious reign of nearly sixty-four years our late beloved Queen was called to her reward. We give thanks to God for all she was, and for all the blessings vouchsafed to the kingdom and empire through her reign.

Knowing as we do the place we hold in your affectionate regard and sympathy, we feel confident that you will rejoice with us in the continued success of our work in this country.

Once again we are able to report an increase in our membership. The number (179) must seem small to you; but in view of the fact that the tide of emigration still flows strongly westward, carrying with it to the great continent of America large numbers of the most promising of our young people, it speaks of much earnest, persistent, and not unblessed toil.

You will have learned by the recent census returns that as a Church we have increased over 10 per cent. in the last decade, this, too, in spite of the fact that all the larger Churches have decreased, and that there is a decrease of a quarter of a million in the population of the country. That, notwithstanding the continued drain of emigration, we thus, for the third decade in succession, report a considerable increase of both members and adherents, fills us with devout thankfulness to Almighty God, and inspires us with fresh courage and hope.

During the last year our work has been well maintained in all its departments. Our City Missions in Belfast, Dublin, and Londonderry report substantial progress. The Central Ireland Mission, established four years ago for the purpose of preaching the gospel in the fairs and markets of the south, midland, and west of our land, has so justified its existence that the Minister in charge is this year being released altogether from Circuit responsibility, and will be free with his band of Lay Evangelists to devote all his time and strength to this difficult and important work.

Our Colporteurs, as well by personal effort as by the sale of pure literature and copies of the word of God, continue to sow the good seed of the kingdom. In connexion with the Simultaneous Mission, with which the new century began, Missions were held by our Ministers and laymen in 218 centres, none of them being without fruit.

The winning of our young people for Christ is receiving our careful attention. Our Sunday School and Temperance Departments are being energetically worked by the responsible officers. Our Christian Endeavour Societies are doing not a little to bridge the gulf between the Sunday School and the Church. You will be gratified to learn that the young people of our Endeavour Societies have for three years borne the entire cost of a Medical Missionary in China.

Educational affairs still demand our most earnest thought. Our Colleges in Belfast and Dublin maintain the honourable position they have taken amongst the first Educational Institutions of our land. Our Primary Schools grow in efficiency yearly. We watch with the greatest concern the efforts that are being made to thoroughly denominationalise education, both primary and higher, in the country. We are one in our opposition to the State Endowment of any Sectarian University, and protest most strenuously against any attempt to rob the country of what is left of its national system of primary education.

The question of the better training of our Ministers has engaged our careful attention for some considerable time. The legacy of £9,000, left for this purpose by the late Sir William M'Arthur, to whom Irish Methodism owes so much, has now been paid by the Court of Chancery, and with its help our Theological Department will be equipped for its work as never before.

You will rejoice with us in the splendid success of our Twentieth Century Fund. We aimed at raising 52,000 guineas, a sum unparalleled in the history of Irish Methodism. We are within sight of our goal. More than 51,000 guineas have been already promised, and we are confident that the sanctified enthusiasm of our people will speedily complete this historic Ebenezer.

During the sittings of the Conference one of our brethren, who this year, owing to failing health, sought a supernumerary relationship, "fell on sleep." Four of our Supernumerary Ministers have entered into rest since last Conference.

We are thankful to God that He continues to "thrust out labourers into His vineyard." We have admitted into full connexion with the Conference eleven young men of great promise, one of whom is on the Mission Field; and have received ten candidates for the Ministry on probation.

Meeting as we do in our first Conference of the twentieth century, we feel afresh the need of the old power for the new age. The difficulties which await solution in this land, where political and religious questions are so strangely mixed, are neither few nor inconsiderable, but "our sufficiency is of God." "Brethren, pray for us," that the "word of God may run and be glorified," and that we may speedily realise the Brightest hope of our endeavour,

Ireland won for Christ!

We send as our Representatives to your Conference four honoured and beloved brethren—the Rev. John Oliver Park, B.A. (whom we nominate as the Irish member of the Delegation), the Rev. Charles Inwood, the Rev. James Stewart, and Mr. John H. Thompson. They will account it a privilege to meet you in your first Conference of the new century, and will more fully inform you of our affairs.

Once again, dear brethren, we commend you and your work to the unfailing blessing and constant care of Him who is Head over all things to His Church.

Signed on behalf and by order of the Conference,

CALEB SHERA LAIRD, Secretary.

CORK,

THE ANSWER

OF THE

BRITISH CONFERENCE OF 1901

TO THE

ADDRESS OF THE IRISH CONFERENCE OF 1901.

BELOVED AND HONOURED FATHERS AND BRETHREN,—

The assembling of our Annual Conference gives us the opportunity of again greeting you. Your letter has afforded us the greatest pleasure. It has delighted us to hear of the success which continues to follow your labours; and the note of enthusiasm with which you enter on the work of the new century is inspiriting.

When we last addressed you we noted with thankfulness the fact that death had only taken one from the ranks of the Legal Conference. How different the circumstances which confront us to-day! The losses to our Connexion by death this year have been very serious. Several of our prominent leaders have been taken from us, one of whom at least was closely connected with Ireland and Irish Methodism. William Arthur's sympathies were cosmopolitan, as indeed were his labours; but we cannot forget how intimately he was associated with you. While mourning the loss to our Church of so many eminent men, we recognise the new burdens and responsibilities which fall upon us who are left behind; and we desire to dedicate ourselves afresh to the Master's service, that by His grace we may be fitted to step into the gaps these removals have made.

We rejoice with you in the increase in your membership which you report. It is especially gratifying to learn that, despite the fact that the tide of emigration removes year by year so many from your shores, you not only hold your own, but continue to increase. "There is that scattereth and yet increaseth." This is true of you in a double sense. You are constantly enriching the religious life of America by the infusion of a strong and vigorous Methodist element of the Irish type. At the same time you continue to advance within the borders of Ireland itself. We regard it as a remarkable tribute to your persistent energy that, though the population of the country has steadily declined during the last decade, the Methodist phalanx shows no decrease. To have advanced 10 per cent., despite this fact, is cause for gratitude to the great Head of the Church, without whose blessing such a result could not have been recorded. Would that all Evangelical Churches could have reported a similar growth and a like steady advance!

You will be gratified to learn that it is our pleasure also to record an increase in our numbers. This increase is very evenly distributed over all our districts; and while many are gathered into our classes in connexion with our vigorous Rural and City Missions, it is most pleasing to note that ordinary Circuit toil continues to produce equally gratifying spiritual results. Our greatest accessions have, however, been on the foreign field, where the number of baptisms has been unprecedently large. The Simultaneous Mission held early in the year has been followed by many blessed results. Conversions have been numerous, and the ordinary Church members have received a spiritual impetus from which much good cannot but accrue. This, to us, is the most satisfactory result of the effort. It has indeed been gratifying to notice that the burning zeal and evangelistic fervour, once supposed to be the peculiar heritage of Methodism, strongly mark the majority of the Free Evangelical Churches of to-day. The Simultaneous Mission has revealed in many eminent brethren of different Churches evangelistic gifts of a very high order—a revelation as gratifying to us as it doubtless has been to the individuals concerned. It would be difficult to say who has been most blessed, missioner or people.

We congratulate you on the step you have taken in connexion with your Central Ireland Mission. The movement seems to us to be sound in principle. It certainly is in harmony with the genius of Methodism, and we have no doubt that the near future will abundantly justify this new departure.

We are glad to know that earnest thought is being directed to the young people of your congregations, and that you are making strenuous efforts to bring them into fellowship with the Church. The conversion of the children of our people will do more to strengthen our organisation than anything else. No more important work can occupy the attention of those who long for the coming of Christ's kingdom. The Wesley Guild movement has made rapid strides among ourselves, and is proving a most powerful auxiliary in the directly spiritual work of our Church. It is helping us to interest the young life of our congregations in the various aims of Methodism, and enabling us to conserve forces which were oftentimes lost in days gone by. We congratulate you on your success in this direction, believing, as we do, that no Church can ever be strong that does not lay itself out to capture the young.

We have many interests and difficulties in common with yourselves. The insidious attempts which are being made to change the educational policy of our country give us cause for much concern. We cannot but view with alarm the determined effort to interfere with the working of our School Boards, thus jeopardising the interests and freedom of elementary education. We shall be satisfied with no system of education which does not place the schools of our land beyond the possibility of High Church interference or Papal domination and control. You and we have to meet the same difficulties, to fight the same foes; and we sympathise deeply with you in the struggles you are making to prevent your national system of primary education falling into the hands of any particular Church.

We rejoice greatly in the magnificent success which has attended your Twentieth Century Fund. To have practically completed the enterprise on which you embarked must be gratifying indeed. Certainly it is a stimulus to us. Nine-tenths of the million we have set ourselves to raise have already been promised. The self-sacrificing gifts of the poor have won the admiration of all. It has been a matter of thankfulness that this unprecedented financial effort of our Church has proceeded so far without diminishing the ordinary funds of the Connexion. Rather, it would appear that these have been steadily maintained and in some instances actually increased. We have, however, decided that the effort shall close with the present year; and we look to the unfailing generosity of the members and adherents of our Church to complete the undertaking. Many enterprises of aggression in the different Circuits are only waiting the completion of this Connexional scheme, which finds no parallel in the history of any Church, to start into activity. We have, one and all, Ministers and laymen, decided to bend our energies to one supreme effort to bring on the top-stone with rejoicing; and we confidently expect to join you in the thanksgiving following triumphant success.

We have welcomed with much pleasure your Representatives the Rev. James Oliver Park, B.A., Charles Inwood, James Stewart, and Mr. John H. Thompson, who have well maintained the traditions of effective service associated with these visits.

We have appointed the Rev. Thomas Allen, D.D., Ex-President, John Shaw Banks, William T. A. Barber, M.A., B.D., and Mr. Henry Bisseker to accompany the President to your Conference in 1902, who will bring to you our cordial greetings and good wishes.

Your difficulties are many. Social and economic problems, oftentimes perplexing in the extreme, confront you. The foes surrounding you are legion. But your hearts are strong; and we commend you in confidence to the grace of Christ, which is your sufficiency and ours.

Signed on behalf and by order of the Conference,

MARSHALL HARTLEY, Secretary.

THE ADDRESS

OF THE

FRENCH CONFERENCE OF 1901

TO THE

BRITISH CONFERENCE OF 1901.

Honoured Fathers and Brethren,—

The Address which our Conference forwards to you from year to year is not, we can assure you, a mere formal document. We feel a pressing need of acquainting you with our sorrows, fears, and hopes, especially in the troubled and anxious times through which we are now passing, in order that you may sympathise with us. Happily we have long known the reality and depth of your affection for the work which God has confided to us.

We thank you for your kind appreciation of our last Address, and for the cordial reception given to our two delegates, the Rev. Jules Guiton and the Rev. George Whelpton, M.A.; and we are grateful to you for sending to our Conference the Rev. Frederic W. Macdonald, a friend to our nation and to our work. We note with pleasure your increasing desire to be fully acquainted with our special difficulties, and with the characteristic state of feeling of the people to whom we preach the gospel. The religious, philosophical, and political history of France show us that our country is the key of the position in the conflict between primitive and corrupted Christianity. To-day it is not Spain, Austria, or Italy which is the principal representative of Catholicism; it is France. On our soil this great controversy will be decided. The difficulties which we encounter are the measure of the honour which the Captain of the Lord's Host has conferred upon us in calling us to meet the battle "on the high places of the field." The confidence, respect, and esteem which you show towards us encourage us, and we ask of God to make us always more worthy of them. You know perfectly how to distinguish between those for whom patriotism consists in contempt and hatred for other nations, and such as ourselves. Be assured that such patriots do not represent the sentiments of this whole nation, and certainly not in any degree the feeling of our Churches, nor that of French Protestantism.

We earnestly desire a close alliance between France and England as a pledge and guarantee of peace among all nations. Weary of the heavy burdens occasioned by war, and sick of its horrors, we sigh for the coming of the day when the nations, more enlightened and more Christian in spirit, will no longer have recourse to their armies to settle the questions which divide them, but will appeal to the supreme Court of Arbitration. Then the stumbling-block of war will no longer obstruct the path of Him whom we all acclaim as the Prince of peace.

We have all sympathised largely with the sincere and touching grief of your whole nation on the occasion of the death of your beloved Queen. We mourned with you, and we implore the blessing of God upon her son, your new King, on whom rest such heavy responsibilities. We have also shared your grief in the loss of some of your most distinguished Ministers, such as Charles Garrett of Liverpool, and William Arthur of Cannes. The last was to us an old and faithful friend, one of those friends of olden times whose departure leaves a great void.

We are sure that you also have sympathised with us in the heavy loss which it has pleased God to permit to befall us in calling to Himself in a sudden and unexpected way M. Jean Claveau, a former Catholic priest, but converted to God, a man who was not unknown to you. It seemed to us that this brother was called to render great service in the evangelization of Roman Catholics. God judged otherwise. A severe accident affected his general health, and he was taken from us. But a heavier blow fell upon us in the almost sudden removal of our beloved brother, the Rev. Émile Bertrand. Many of us received the news of his death before knowing that he was ill. Although half a year has elapsed since his decease we can scarcely realise that he is gone. With one accord we should have pointed him out as being specially useful and almost indispensable. Secretary of the Conference, editor of our weekly paper L'Evangéliste, chaplain and governor of our Ladies' School, president of our Missionary Committee, a popular preacher and lecturer, and an amiable colleague, we feel his loss greatly. In the midst of his labours and in the flower of his age, on the threshold of this new century the Master called him. It is a solemn warning to us all, but especially to those of his brethren more advanced in age. But if God in His wisdom has taken from us these two valued men, He has given us two other colleagues, whom, in a particularly blessed service of ordination, we have set apart for the Ministry. One of these is a direct fruit of our work of evangelization.

You have no doubt followed with much interest the long and masterly discussion in our Parliament of the law regarding religious associations, and, like ourselves, you have asked what effect this law will have upon the position and work of our Church. Shall we be definitely and formally recognised by the law, or shall we be placed in the same category as various Orders and Societies of the Roman Catholic Church? Time will show. Meanwhile, we pray, labour, and hasten to gather our sheaves before the storm that we hear muttering in the distance. As you have reminded us, it is from the fact that our work is the work of God, that we must draw our inspiration and confidence. All our strength is in the "arm of the Lord."

We continue to sustain our Mission in Kabylia by our gifts and prayers. For our missionaries the year has been one of special difficulty. The systematic and unscrupulous opposition of our adversaries has not ceased. The campaign against Protestantism is fierce. Antisemitism has given birth to Antiprotestantism.

Notwithstanding the numerous prejudices excited against us, our hearts yearn for the good of our nation, on which we desire strongly to exercise our influence. We are oppressed by the thought that the portion of leaven which we have put into the meal has been so insufficient. But we cannot be reconciled to the idea of remaining estranged from the mass of the people, and, as it were, buried alive in our small places of worship. We must, at any cost, carry the gospel to our fellow-citizens; for us it is a vital question. The recent effort made at Harfleur among a population in which we did not know of even one Protestant, where, nevertheless, throughout the winter months we have had numerous congregations, proves that God blesses "our work of faith, our labour of love, and our patience of hope." Yet, notwithstanding our evangelistic efforts, we have been humbled and saddened by finding upon the year a decrease of twenty-five members.

But we do not yield to discouragement. It is ours to labour; from God the increase is to come. We cannot easily accept defeat. In dependence upon God and relying on the zeal of our brethren, we are planning our next campaign. We leave Paris with renewed strength to combat that great evil of modern times—a plague comparatively new in France —drunkenness. The majority of our Ministers and students are decided total abstainers; and wherever they can, they give public addresses on the subject.

Thanks to our Twentieth Century Fund, we are able this year to encourage, by small grants, those of our brethren who have commenced new evangelistic work. During the sessions of our Conference, as in your last Conference at Burslem, spontaneously, without any constraint except that exercised by the Holy Spirit, there has been a movement of liberality which has filled us with joy and hope.

We have, for the third time, chosen as President of our next Conference the Rev. Matthieu Lelièvre, D.D., as being peculiarly apt to direct and represent us in the difficult circumstances through which we are passing. We have requested the Rev. Matthieu Gallienne, B.A., who, after several years of successful labour in the Channel Islands returns to France, to represent us as our delegate to your Conference. At the request of the Rev. Onésime Prunier, B.A., B.D., we have nominated the Rev. Edouard Gallienne as our delegate to the Œcumenical Methodist Conference to be held in Wesley's Chapel, London.

United to you in the one faith, in community of labour, and in like fervent attachment to Methodism, we assure you once more, beloved and honoured fathers and brethren, of our great respect, high esteem, and lively gratitude.

Signed on behalf and by order of the Conference,

JULES GUITON, Secretary.

THE ANSWER

OF THE

BRITISH CONFERENCE OF 1901

TO THE

ADDRESS OF THE CONFERENCE OF THE METHODIST CHURCH IN FRANCE, 1901.

Dear and honoured Brethren,—

We have received with the greatest pleasure the Address which your Conference has sent to us, and have been delighted to welcome among us the Rev. Matthieu Gallienne as your Representative. We follow with the deepest sympathy the progress of your work, recognising its peculiar difficulties and discouragements. We pray that you may be sustained by the unfailing presence and support of the divine Head of the Church, who has chosen and sent you forth to be the witnesses of His kingdom.

We realise with you the far-reaching importance of the warfare on behalf of Evangelical Christianity which is now being carried on in France. We are impressed by the deeply religious spirit of the noblest sons of France. We admire the grace and brilliance of her genius, and are thankful for those gifts of enlightenment and civilisation with which she has enriched the world. We mourn the conflict between her Christianity and her culture, and the tokens that neither the one nor the other has been able to minister adequately to the moral vigour of the national life. We attribute these evils largely to the fact that the Roman Catholicism of France has to a great extent hidden the living Christ from her people; that the selfish domination of an ecclesiastical institution has caused men to turn away from those divine services of inspiration and strength, the conception of which sacerdotalism has materialised; and that a false asceticism has attempted to sever the supernatural from the natural, the divine from the human, instead of proclaiming the power of the Spirit of Christ to uplift and perfect human nature by sanctifying the whole.

Yet all these indications of spiritual need cause us the more to magnify the Mission entrusted to you, and to see in the faith which you profess and the experience you enjoy a sufficient remedy for the unbelief, the prejudice, and the antagonisms we deplore. To you it is given that to know and to set forth our Lord Jesus Christ, as the all-sufficient and ever-accessible Redeemer and Guide of sinful men, the generous Source and End of all the powers of human life, who "counts nothing human alien from Himself." It is by the setting forth in word and deed of such a Saviour and such a faith that France, by God's blessing, will be saved, her religion and her civilisation harmonized, her unrest quieted, and her moral force renewed.

We do not wonder that, amid many discouragements, you are constrained to cry "Who is sufficient for these things?" and to contrast the slenderness of your material resources with the vastness of your spiritual task. But we would remind you that in all this you are called to reproduce the experience of the early Church. It was by the splendid personal influence of the few, isolated among men and despised, but filled with the Spirit of Christ, that the triumphs of Christianity were won in the ancient world. And it can only be by the same means that your victory will be gained. "As poor, yet making many rich," will be the glorious paradox of your life, as of the apostle's, if his great secret be yours.

We rejoice, therefore, in the manifestations among you of the spirit which prevailed in the past. The success of your Twentieth Century Fund is a proof that the gift of self-sacrifice has been bestowed upon you, the condition and earnest of growing efficiency and success. Your Mission in Kabylia witnesses to that truly catholic and missionary temper, without which your national work in France cannot be fulfilled. And your crusade against intemperance is evidence of the moral and practical endeavours, which must always be the outcome of a genuine evangelical faith. We hail these blessings bestowed upon you as the marks of a divine life within you which will yet be given to you more abundantly.

We share with you the sense of the great importance of establishing and maintaining the best relations between France and Great Britain. We believe that the desire for such relations actuates not only the statesmen of both nations, but also the great mass of sober opinion in both countries, by which happily the policy of both nations will, in the last resort, be controlled. And we are glad to be able to count upon you as helping to set forth that mutual esteem and brotherliness, by which misconceptions may be removed and cordial co-operation in the interests of peace and progress may be secured. We cordially unite with you in the prayer and hope that through the common efforts of a united Christendom the horrors of war may, in a not remote future, be done away.

We thank you for your expressions of sorrow for the loss which the British Empire has sustained in the death of her Majesty Queen Victoria; the blameless purity of her life, the standard which she set of simple and unreserved devotion to public duty, and her unceasing efforts in behalf of peace have won for her the veneration of the whole world. It is our steadfast hope that under the new reign Great Britain may show that these signal virtues have become the permanent inheritence of our whole national life.

We join with you in mourning those devoted men who have been taken away from you and from us in the past year. In the case of William Arthur and Charles Garrett death was the peaceful end of an earthly life, lived to the full, and crowned by the gracious influence which old age exerts, when it is the completion of a consecrated career. But in the case of M. Jean Claveau, whose experience rendered him so singularly fitted to help your work, and in that of M. Émile Bertrand, whose great gifts and varied labours are as highly appreciated by us as by you, you have lost men who might have been expected to render you invaluable service for many years to come. We pray that God may raise up other faithful labourers to take the place of those who have thus early been called away.

We welcome your choice, for the third time, of the Rev. Matthieu Lelièvre, D.D., as your President, agreeing with you in your judgment as to his fitness to guide your Conference in the present conditions of your work.

And now, dear and honoured brethren, we commend you and your work to the keeping of God. We trust that you may be able to continue unhindered by any restrictions imposed upon you by the State, above all indued in growing measure with the power from on high.

Signed on behalf and by order of the Conference,

MARSHALL HARTLEY, Secretary.

OF THE

SOUTH AFRICAN CONFERENCE OF 1901

TO THE

YEARLY CONFERENCE OF 1901.

HONOURED AND DEAR FATHERS AND BRETHREN,—

Assembled in our nineteenth Conference, we send you affectionate greeting. We thank you very heartily for your reply to the Address of our Conference of 1900. We note with gratitude your expressions of sympathy and interest in us, and your prayers for us in the sorrows, losses, and bereavements that have befallen us during the protracted war. With you we pray that this strife and bloodshed may come to a speedy end, and that peace may be established in righteousness.

The death of our beloved Queen has cast a dark shadow over our land. Intense and affectionate loyalty to her throne and person has been one of the prominent characteristics of colonial life; and the universal feeling is that of children who have been bereaved. Never has sorrow been so deep, and the sense of loss so keen, as when the news of her death came to us. Our fervent prayer is that the gracious influence of her example in all its purity, righteousness, and goodness may abide with us for ever, safeguarding our empire, and inspiring us in our holiest service. We pray also that his Most Excellent Majesty King Edward VII. may long be spared to reign over us.

Many of our Circuits are still seriously affected by the war. The Orange River Colony is in a very disturbed condition, and also some of the northern districts of Cape Colony. Amid all our depressions, however, we rejoice and give thanks that the lovingkindness and tender mercies of our God abound towards us. Great is our cause of rejoicing when we remind ourselves and you that, in spite of all the tribulations of the past year, our increase in Church membership has been exceeded only once in our history, and our missionary contributions have never been so great. Since our first Conference—eighteen years ago—our numbers have risen from 30,000 to 107,323. There are 62,436 full members, 27,688 on trial, 17,199 in junior classes, there being an increase of 7,906 during the year. The missionary contributions amount to £7,278. In spite, however, of increased contributions the funds of our Missionary Society cause us grave anxiety. The demands of the ordinary development of our work have been so great that we carry forward a debit balance of £4,500; and reducing our estimates to the lowest possible dimensions, we have ruefully to add £1,100 to our debt of last year.

We mournfully record our losses by death during the year: William F. Edwards, who has rendered many years of faithful service in the Western Province, a man greatly beloved, known for his devotion and zeal; James Jackson West, cut down at the very beginning of a promising career; and James Fish, a man richly endowed with mental powers, of great attainments as a preacher, and of saintly character and disposition, his tragic end sadly closing a life which had a full share of sorrow, borne with fortitude and Christian patience. We treasure the memory of these brethren beloved, and rejoice in hope of the resurrection of the dead.

The Twentieth Century Fund is receiving our special attention this year. We have agreed to close the Fund on March 31, 1902. Thirty-eight thousand guineas have been promised. The meetings in some of the districts, and especially in the native territories, have been marked by great enthusiasm and self-denial, and have resulted in rich spiritual blessing.

The desire for higher education is very strong in the minds of our native peoples, and a scheme is being prepared by the Committee of the Twentieth Century Fund which will provide an open door to university honours for those who are able and willing to enter. The natives have given large contributions to the Fund with this object in view.

Our European High Schools have also been occupying our careful attention. A large and influential committee has been appoined to formulate an educational policy, and to consider any claims which our Church may have upon the Governments of the country.

We have ordained two English and four native probationers to the full work of the Ministry, each of whom gives promise of great usefulness. We have also accepted six English and thirteen native candidates for our Ministry. We regret that the exigences of the work are such that the training of several will have to be deferred until those who are now in training shall have finished their college course.

We thank you for the appointment of the Rev. Alfred T. Rhodes as our President. Mr. Rhodes has long endeared himself to us. His conspicuous abilities and vigorous personality have enabled him to perform the duties devolving upon him with the utmost satisfaction to all. We cordially nominate the Rev. Robert Lamplough to be our President for the year 1902, and respectfully request you to approve of our choice. His name is well known to you, and is one that is greatly loved throughout this country. His invaluable services to Methodism will make his reappointment very popular.

We watch with intense interest the great evangelistic movement in the Churches of the mother country, and the quickened spiritual life and zeal that have resulted. We are stimulated to greater enterprises by the example of your activities and successes.

Brethren, pray for us!

Signed on behalf and by order of the Conference,

E. NUTTALL, Secretary.

OF THE

YEARLY CONFERENCE OF 1901

TO THE

ADDRESS OF THE SOUTH AFRICAN CONFERENCE OF 1901.

REVEREND AND DEAR BRETHREN,—

We have received your Address and greetings this year with unusual interest, well knowing that the year has been one of extraordinary sorrow and anxiety. We have throughout the year been praying for you; and we are thankful that you have not only been sustained, but have been enabled in trying circumstances to pursue your work with vigour and ever-increasing success.

The great sorrow through which our empire has passed, occasioned by the death of our late beloved Monarch Queen Victoria, and also by the wearisome protraction of this bitter war, has resulted in a quickened sympathy among British subjects everywhere, but nowhere more than in our Methodist brotherhood. We are one with you in our prayers for his Most Excellent Majesty King Edward VII., in our loyalty to his throne and person, and in our intercession that his reign may be long, peaceful, and prosperous, especially in the spiritual and moral welfare of the empire.

We have mourned with you over the desolation caused by war; we have wept with you over the graves of your sons and ours, and also over the graves of our foes; and we still persevere in our prayers for the speedy termination of the war, and the establishment of a permanent and honourable peace. We have every confidence in you that you will do all in your power to remove that bitter racial feud which is so grievous to the heart of our divine Lord and so foreign to the teachings of our holy religion.

We realise with surprise, and certainly with fervent gratitude to the great Head of the Church, that in this year of perplexity and struggle you have so large an increase in your membership, and that in eighteen years your membership has been more than trebled. We congratulate you on these manifest seals of the divine approval. The gracious spiritual awakening which marked the beginning of the new century with us has also been vouchsafed to you; and we believe we are living in the dawn of a period of great religious progress.

We rejoice in the success achieved by your Twentieth Century Fund, and in the measure of enthusiasm and self-denial that has been evoked. Our own great effort is now nearing completion, and has already proved a great blessing to our Circuits, and is certain to be productive of untold good in the future.

We are glad to hear of the desire for higher education on the part of the native peoples, and of the general activity you are manifesting in this important matter of education. The problem is to us one of considerable difficulty and anxiety.

We are glad that you have not the dangers of sacerdotalism threatening your education as it does ours in England to-day.

We sorrow with you in the loss by death of the estimable and worthy brethren William F. Edwards, James Jackson West, and James Fish, and commend their mourning relatives to the never-failing comfort of our Lord and Saviour.

We are deeply interested in your candidates for the Ministry, both European and native, and regret that the exigences of the work compel you to defer the training of some of the men for the present.

Your Representatives, the Rev. Samuel B. Cawood, Richard Jenkin, and Mr. George Payne, have been cordially welcomed, and their Addresses to the Conference were much appreciated.

The Conference very heartily and unanimously approves of the nomination of the Rev. Robert Lamplough to be your President in 1902. His high character, his long, faithful, and efficient services, and his former successful occupancy of the Chair are well known to us. We congratulate him upon his election to this high position again, and earnestly pray that his year of office may be one of great and unparalleled blessing to all your Churches.

Our hearts are yours, brethren, and we pray that the peace of God may so abundantly rest upon you as to fill your hearts, your homes, your Churches, and your land.

Signed on behalf and by order of the Conference,

MARSHALL HARTLEY, Secretary.

OF THE

WEST INDIAN WESTERN CONFERENCE OF THE WESLEYAN METHODIST CHURCH

TO THE

YEARLY CONFERENCE OF 1901.

Rev. Fathers and Brethren,—

Sixteen years ago your Missions in the West Indies, which for nearly one hundred years had been under your direct and generous care, were constituted the West Indian Connexion. We met in our first General Conference in 1885, when it was our privilege, as "among the most pleasant of our duties, to send you our message of respectful and affectionate greeting, desiring for you grace, mercy, and peace from our Father, and the Lord Jesus Christ our common Saviour and Redeemer." We accepted our new yet not unexpected position with a profound sense of the responsibility involved, "but at the same time with the confidence begotten of faith in the Providence which has hitherto watched over and guided us, and the headship of the Church that has governed us, that with new duties will come new wisdom and power; with new necessities, 'new sources and new supplies.'"

On this occasion when, we inaugurate a vital change in the Constitution of 1884 under amendments introduced by our Conference of 1890 and accepted by you, abolishing the General Conference, and creating two Annual Conferences, each endowed with legislative and administrative powers, affiliated directly to your august and venerable Body, we respectfully submit to you our first Address, and cordially adopt and emphasise the greeting which sixteen years ago the General Conference of the Connexion then sent you. We affirm our profound sense of responsibility which the situation involves, and are resolved with unabated labour to maintain the stability and to continue the progressive work of this Conference.

We record with thankfulness your confirmation of the Rev. W. Clarke Murray, D.D., as our President. The ability of Dr. Murray and his service for forty-three years in the Church commend him as a "brother dearly beloved." We have pleasure in again nominating him as President for our next Conference.

The review of our work furnishes indubitable evidence that the guiding hand of God has directed our course. Hitherto hath the Lord helped us! With deepened trust we are bold to speak the gospel of God. Every detail of our Conference procedure has received our anxious attention and affectionate solicitude. We believe that the Spirit, whose office it is to guide us, as individuals, and also to give power for the corporate witness of the Church, and for its extension, has answered in us His gracious design. We are His witnesses.

We face our responsibilities at the opening of this twentieth century in the strength of God, and shall answer with our best powers to the demands made upon us.

Our confidence in the people of our country is unwavering. Education has wrought a great change in their social and economic life; it has also touched their spiritual life. The advantages secured to the country by the educational work of the Churches are manifest in every direction. In the ministry of the Church, in the legislative chamber, at the Bar, in the government and medical service, in elementary and higher education, the sons of the soil hold a well deserved place of honour, and serve their country in no mean way. Our condition as a people at the opening of the twentieth century, compared with the early years of the nineteenth, evokes grateful thanksgiving. What hath God wrought!

We would make loyal and dutiful mention of the glorious reign of the late Queen Victoria our Sovereign Lady under whom we have been godly and quietly governed for sixty-four years. The blessings of civil, political, and religious liberty which we enjoy, came to us under her benign and Christian reign and government. While we pay to her memory our loving tribute of respect and admiration, we loyally acknowledge as our Sovereign Lord his Majesty King Edward VII.

We regret having had to close our High Schools at York Castle and Barbican. This does not indicate a retrograde step, but is consequent upon the establishment of Government Secondary Schools, and the reorganisation of endowed schools which for years have been either inoperative or limited in their range of usefulness.

We have to chronicle continued depression in the trade of the country, affecting all classes and all interests, but especially our labourers and artisans. Our people are liberal in their support of the Church, yet it is no surprise to us that their offerings do not now reach the same level as under more propitious circumstances.

During last year two of our tried and devoted ministers, Thomas M. Geddes, Ex-President, who for forty-five years with unabated diligence and unwearied zeal served his Church and country, and Thomas P. Russell, who for forty years ministered with a devotion which never failed, have passed to their rest and reward. Their memory will be ever cherished, with gratitude to God for men of such sterling worth, indomitable courage, and boundless faith. We desire to be followers of them in devotion, loyalty, and fidelity to principle; and pray that God will raise up for us men of like spirit.

The subject of Missions has received our devout attention. On the Isthmus of Panama and in Colon, where in 1888 we returned 105 members, we now return 809, with 24 on trial, and 205 junior members, with 452 Sunday scholars. There are two missionaries on the ground with the care of 11 Churches. Hayti and Santo Domingo return 592 members in 1884. We reckon now 948 full members, with 64 on trial, 74 junior members, and 724 Sunday scholars.

We are anxious to push forward our operations, but our exchequer is unequal to the demands made upon it. Within our ability we have prosecuted the work with courage and in loyalty to God.

Our total membership is 21,585, with 2,175 on trial, and 6,460 junior members.

That upon you, reverend fathers and brethren, may rest richly the spirit of truth, unity, and concord, and every grace you need, is our sincere and dutiful prayer.

W. CLARKE MURRAY, President.

THE ANSWER

OF THE

BRITISH CONFERENCE OF 1901

TO THE

ADDRESS OF THE WESTERN WEST INDIAN CONFERENCE.

Honoured and beloved Brethren,—

We recognise with gratitude the tone of cheerful confidence which pervades your Address, and rejoice to believe that your loyalty to God and His Church is unabated. We feel assured that you will do all that you possibly can to meet the responsibilities of your position.

From all that we have heard in the past, we have every confidence in the liberality of your people, and regret that they are not now in a position to do all that it is in their heart to do. We venture to express the hope that ere long prosperity may return to your island, and that, with returning prosperity, your financial difficulties may disappear.

While far from losing sight of these difficulties, and, indeed, having them constantly under consideration, we have not judged it wise to make a public appeal on your behalf during the past year, there being no likelihood that such an appeal in existing circumstances would meet with any adequate response. We have, however, again referred this matter to the favourable consideration of our Missionary Committee, and have authorised them to make an appeal at such time and in such manner as may seem to them most desirable; and we trust that when the appeal is made, it will meet with a generous response.

We rejoice that your efforts to carry the gospel to regions as yet untouched by Methodist evangelism are being followed by such encouraging results. We trust that at no very distant date you may be enabled to enlarge the sphere of your missionary operations, and be gladdened by still greater success.

The death of the Rev. Thomas M. Geddes, one of yourselves, is a great loss to your Church. Recognising the desirability of a native Ministry, we pray the Head of the Church to raise up among you similar men, full of the Holy Ghost and of wisdom, who may not only gather into the Church those still out of the way, but also lead the Church itself to the enjoyment of richer experience and the manifestation of loftier Christian character.

We note with satisfaction the opportunities for secondary education which are being afforded by your Government. At the same time we cannot but regret that you have been compelled to close your own High Schools, which have been the means of stimulating educational effort in other quarters, as well as of rendering such splendid service to your Church.

We approve with pleasure your nomination of the Rev. W. Clarke Murray, D.D., to be your President in 1902, and we heartily wish him a blessed year of office.

We thank you for your expressions of goodwill towards ourselves, and we gratefully recognise the spirit of love and confidence which characterises them. The labours and anxieties of our own work are great; but they will be the more cheerfully borne and lightly felt, because of the assurance of the affection entertained for us by your people, and the prayers which are being offered by them on our behalf.

Signed on behalf and by order of the Conference,

MARSHALL HARTLEY, Secretary.

OF THE

EASTERN WEST INDIAN CONFERENCE OF 1901

TO THE

BRITISH CONFERENCE OF 1901.

Beloved and honoured Fathers and Brethren,—

We greet you in the name of the Lord, and offer you our best wishes as you assemble again in Conference. The eminent attainments of your President, the Rev. W. T. Davison, M.A., D.D., are an honour to Methodism in every part of the world, and we heartily congratulate you upon his election to the office of President.

We rejoice in the widespreading influence of Methodism, and offer our congratulations upon the great success which has attended your efforts in connexion with the Twentieth Century Fund. We join with you in the hope that the new century will witness an unprecedented consolidation of your work at home and a great strengthening of the influence of Methodism abroad.

This year we have met for the first time under the Revised Constitution which you have given us, and which brings us into direct affiliation to you.

We acknowledge with much gratitude the deepened interest in our affairs which the conversation in the last British Conference upon the West Indian Churches evinced; and our heartiest thanks are now presented to you for having authorised the Missionary Committee to make an appeal on our behalf.

You have our deepest sympathy in the great strain upon your resources occasioned by the sad war in South Africa, which has disorganised your Mission work in that field; by the lamentable occurrences of the past year in China and West Africa; and by the famine and plague in India. But we are sure that God, "who commandeth light to shine out of darkness," and who "causeth the wrath of man to praise Him," will overrule all these calamities for the establishment of the Redeemer's kingdom.

We have no wish to weary you with details of our present distress. West Indian trade continues to be a problem to our Governments. Scarcity of labour is compelling many of our people to emigrate. Wages are so miserably low that in most cases the offerings of our people mean that they give out of their penury. In some places prolonged distress is showing demoralising effects. It will, however, be a great joy to you to learn that, in the midst of the continued commercial depression and increasing poverty, we have not relinquished a single station, and this notwithstanding the fact that our ministerial staff has been greatly diminished. Our liabilities incurred during recent years in the maintenance of places of worship may seem to be large; but British Methodism may well rejoice with us that our people, in the hard struggle for life which has come upon them, have not been deprived of their Churches in which the word of divine comfort is ministered to them.

We have 20,766 Church members, with 1,410 on trial, and a junior membership of 3,669. In our Day Schools there are 349 teachers and 18,285 scholars; in our Sunday Schools there are 374 teachers and 14,650 scholars.

The Wesley Guild has been heartily received, and promises to supply a need in Churches.

We are glad to inform you that we have accepted two candidates for our Ministry from our own West Indian Churches; but we are sorely exercised in our minds as to ways and means for training them. This has been for a long time one of our greatest problems; and, in spite of much thoughtful consideration bestowed on it again this year, still remains unsolved.

Another matter that gives us great concern is that we are unable to attend to the spiritual needs of the large East Indian population in British Guiana, Trinidad, and St. Lucia. Were it possible to obtain properly qualified agents, we could accomplish a great work for good among the 200,000 immigrants who reside in these colonies.

We mourn the loss of our late President, the Rev. Thomas M. Geddes, a man of genuine piety, sterling character, and kindly heart. Death has also removed our devoted and beloved brother Kelshall, who for many years served our Churches with fidelity and success.

We have shared with you in the sorrow and bereavement which has befallen the empire through the death of our beloved Queen Victoria, under whose glorious reign the people of these islands have received privileges and liberties which create in them a sense of undying obligation. We pray that his Majesty King Edward may long live, and that his reign may be as distinguished for progress as was that of his illustrious mother.

We have received with cordiality the President of our Conference, the Rev. David J. Reynolds, elected by you at your last Conference, and have nominated him as our President for the next year, subject to any action which you may be pleased to take in accordance with that control of our affairs which we have surrendered to you and which you have regarded as necessary in granting financial assistance.

And now, honoured fathers and brethren, we crave your continued prayers and sympathy, and we pray that great grace may rest upon you all in your various assemblies and meetings of Conference.

Signed on behalf and by order of the Conference,

DAVID J. REYNOLDS, President,
J. R. F. TULL, Secretary.

THE ANSWER

OF THE

YEARLY CONFERENCE OF 1901

TO THE

ADDRESS OF THE EASTERN WEST INDIAN CONFERENCE OF 1901.

Dear and honoured Brethren,—

We have thankfully received the Address and greeting of your Annual Conference, and heartily reciprocate its kindly sentiments. We beg to assure you that we do not lose interest and sympathy in our West Indian work. We cherish with gratitude the memory of the men who in past years laboured in that field, and won such signal successes through the preaching of the word ; and remember in our prayers those who are still toiling for the evangelization of those islands.

We recognise the exceptional difficulties by which in recent years you have been beset. Our hearts have been deeply moved by the successive calamities which have overtaken you, and the manifold perplexities which have resulted from ruined properties and an impoverished exchequer. The strain on your patience and faith must still be great, as there is so little to indicate the removal of your difficulties and the dawning of a brighter day. But yours is the cause of God, and from the beginning His seal has been upon it, and we cannot doubt He will again show His servants His work and their children His glory.

We appreciate your own steadfast devotion to duty, and the unswerving loyalty of our people throughout these trying times. It is inevitable that the scarcity of labour, and the consequent emigration from many places, should have a disastrous effect upon our Societies; but we rejoice that, despite these disadvantages and a reduced ministerial staff, no station has been abandoned and no position surrendered ; so that the people still have the benefit of the Evangelical Ministry which has done so much for them in the past.

The anxieties occasioned by the exceptional circumstances which prevail in many parts of the foreign field have made it hitherto impracticable for the Missionary Committee to render you the help they have desired ; but watch is being kept for the advent of a favourable time to make a financial effort for your relief. When that time comes, and you are less hampered and harassed by financial burdens, you will be able, as you desire, to give more attention to your directly spiritual work. We are deeply convinced that the method of presenting the truth which is characteristic of Methodism will yet prove an important factor in the moral and social development of the West Indian people.

We are gratified, though not surprised, that you foster the missionary instincts of Methodism and long to impart some spiritual gift to the thousands of East Indian immigrants in your colonies ; and trust that in the near future means may be devised for a more adequate attempt to bring to these souls the common salvation.

We also notice with satisfaction that the Wesley Guild has found a congenial soil in West Indian Methodism, and feel sure that you are justified in the hope that such a movement will enrich the mind and elevate the moral tone of your young people. Too much attention cannot be given to them at this juncture in your history if the success of the future is to be ensured. Such an organised effort to lead young people to a personal experience of religion, an intelligent conception of our doctrines, and a devoted attachment to our Church, may, in the days to come, help to solve the difficult problem of your ministerial supply. We are encouraged in this expectation by the fact that you have this year accepted two candidates who are the sons of our West Indian Churches. May they prove in character and capacity such men as the peculiar circumstances of your work require!

We mourn with you over the loss, by death, of such honoured brethren as the Rev. Thomas M. Geddes and Joseph S. Kelshall—men who by their high character, ministerial ability, and fidelity endeared themselves to their people, and left their mark upon many lives that came within the sphere of their influence. Many, we know, will be their crown and rejoicing in the day of God.

The Conference has confirmed your nomination of the Rev. David J. Reynolds as your President for next year, and we sincerely trust that during his term of office there may be a turn in the tide of your affairs, and that with a revived hope and in renewed consecration you may address yourselves to the tasks that yet lie before you.

We commend you, dear brethren, to the grace and peace of the great Head of the Church, and pray that your history may illustrate the truth: "Weeping may endure for a night, but joy cometh in the morning."

Signed on behalf and by order of the Conference,

MARSHALL HARTLEY, Secretary.

OF THE

NINTH GENERAL CONFERENCE

OF THE

AUSTRALASIAN WESLEYAN METHODIST CHURCH

TO THE

BRITISH CONFERENCE.

Honoured Fathers and Brethren,—

"Grace be unto you, and peace, from God our Father and the Lord Jesus Christ." We have read your Address in reply to ours sent from the General Conference in Auckland, and are gratified and encouraged by the indications which it gives of your sympathetic interest in our work in these lands. We never forget that we are your sons in the gospel, and we value, perhaps more than you imagine, any proof that comes to us of your continued affection.

The past three years will be long remembered in the history both of Australia in general and of our Church. They have witnessed the realisation of Australian Federation and the foundation under royal auspices of the Australian Commonwealth; and we are thankful that the ceremonies of inauguration were sanctified by the word of God and prayer. They have also furnished us with an opportunity of proving our loyalty to the throne and empire by coming to the help of our mother country in her struggle for liberty and progress in South Africa; and many of our young Methodists have been amongst those who have jeopardised their lives unto the death in the high places of the field.

The visit of the Duke and Duchess of Cornwall and York has evoked a less heroic but no less genuine enthusiasm; and we, as a Church along with other sections of the community, have expressed to his Royal Highness our unshaken loyalty and devotion to the person and throne of his august father.

These three years have also brought about the accomplishment, in posse at least, of Methodist Union. This has already taken place in New Zealand, Queensland, and South and West Australia (save that in New Zealand the Primitive Methodists have so far declined to come in), and will be consummated in New South Wales and in Victoria and Tasmania in 1902. Our next General Conference will thus represent a United Methodist Church throughout the Commonwealth of Australia. Herein we greatly rejoice, and bless God that we have made one further step towards securing the great credential of our Saviour's mission—"that they may all be one." Whilst there is still need for some little mutual forbearance and patience, it has become clear that a very few years will find our arrangements working with smoothness and harmony.

Our statistics naturally show a large increase, owing to the inclusion, for the first time, of the younger Methodist Churches in the four Conferences in which Union has taken place; but we rejoice that apart from these additions there has been a satisfactory increase in the number both of Church members and of adherents throughout all our Conferences. We report 68,234 members and 429,059 attendants on public worship; and in our Missions 39,902 members and 129,278 adherents.

We have had to mourn the departure from us to their rest of some of our most honoured fathers and brethren; amongst whom have been the venerable Samuel Wilkinson, Joseph Oram, Edward Best, Robert Colquhoun Flockart, and James Swanton Waugh; the noble missionaries Arthur J. Webb and William Weir Lindsay; whilst James DeQuetteville Robin, the Secretary of our Victorian and Tasmanian Conference, was called unexpectedly home in the midst of his days. Our fathers John Watsford and William Abraham Quick are still happily spared to us. They have entered upon the sixtieth year of their Ministry and are still doing noble service for our Church.

Our Foreign Missions have occupied the greater part of our time and thought during the present Conference; and we have decided, on the motion of our heroic Secretary, George Brown, to enter at the earliest possible moment upon the evangelization of some of the Solomon Islands, hitherto untouched by missionary effort. We have also determined to make a resolute effort to cope with the Coolie population of Fiji, numbering 17,000 souls, which is a growing menace to our work in those islands. Methodist Union has brougth to us the responsibility of a Chinese Mission formerly conducted by the Bible Christian Church of South Australia; and whilst we recognise that the islands of the Pacific are our more peculiar sphere of operations, we have not dared to decline to enter this providential opening; and we believe that it will appeal to the sympathies of some who do not fully realise the importance and grandeur of our work in the islands. God has also been raising up in connexion with our University College a number of young medical men who have offered themselves for Mission work; and we have made arrangements for giving ministerial status and authority to those brethren and to others specially called and qualified for Mission work. We have also carefully considered and sanctioned a plan for conferring increased powers of local government and control upon our Fijian Church.

The training of our rising Ministry is also occupying our serious attention, and we are looking to you for guidance and example in this all-important matter. Our first requirements must and always will be personal consecration and the anointing of the Holy Ghost for the prophetic office; but we feel deeply that the men who occupy our pulpits must be at any rate abreast of our people in literary culture, and must be able to read the word of God in its original tongues and with a full knowledge of the best and latest information thereon.

We thank you for the generous welcome you have accorded to our Representatives in former years, and we commend to your love and courtesy our brethren the Rev. E. J. Watkin, D.D., and Joseph Berry, whom we have appointed to represent us at your next Annual Conference, as well as those of our brethren who will be present at the Œcumenical Conference in September.

We are looking forward with intense expectation and earnest prayer to the projected visit of the Rev. Hugh Price Hughes to our Churches. We believe that his coming will be an untold blessing to us all, and thank you warmly for acceding to our request for his appointment to this Mission.

We congratulate you on the inspiring success of your Century Fund, and are glad to report to you that, stimulated by your example, we have entered upon similar efforts in all the Conferences, and are likely to raise not less than £150,000, which will be mainly applied to the payment of Church debts, thus releasing our people's gifts for direct Evangelical and Missionary effort.

And now, fathers and brethren, we convey to you once more our love in the Spirit, and pray that you may be filled with all the fruits of righteousness which are through Jesus Christ unto the glory and praise of God.

Signed on behalf and by order of the Conference,

W. WILLIAMS, Secretary.

IV. CONNEXIONAL SUNDAY-SCHOOL UNION.

2 AND 3, LUDGATE CIRCUS BUILDINGS, LONDON, E.C.

THERE are certain features of the statistical report now presented which are in the highest degree cheering. There is an increase in at least three columns of the Schedule which are regarded as among the most important of all our returns, viz. those of Church Membership. Among our Scholars there are 1,625 more in full Church membership, 1,713 more on trial, 2,320 more in Junior Society Classes, than were reported a year ago, or a total increase in the three columns of 5,658 on the year. There is also an increase of scholars who are above 15 years of age of 1,805, bringing the total of senior scholars to 250,133.

The Committee regrets to report a small net decrease of 1,989 in the total number of Scholars, or two scholars decrease per 1,000. There is also a decrease of 7,117 scholars in the average attendance in the morning, and of 5,694 in the average afternoon attendance.

Eleven Districts report increases, viz. First London, Third London, East Anglia, North Wales, Birmingham and Shrewsbury, Macclesfield, Manchester, Sheffield, Whitby and Darlington, Scotland, and Zetland. The increases are 3,955.

Twenty-three Districts report decreases, viz. Second London, Bedford, Kent, Oxford, Portsmouth, Channel Islands, Devonport and Plymouth, Cornwall, Exeter, Bristol and Bath, Cardiff and Swansea, South Wales, Liverpool, Bolton, Halifax and Bradford, Leeds, Nottingham and Derby, Lincoln, Hull, York, Newcastle-on-Tyne, Carlisle, Isle of Man. The decreases are 5,944—showing a net decrease of 1,989.

No District gives any reason for its decrease, but the following suggestions were made by the Synods in May. Oxford asks the Quarterly Meetings to seriously consider the question, and directs the Education Sub-Committee of the District to inquire into the causes of decrease and to report to the next Synod. Portsmouth recommends the formation of Circuit Sunday-school Unions, and urges the Quarterly Meetings to deal more thoroughly with Sunday-school questions. Devonport suggests a canvass for new scholars. Bristol and Bath "recommends the Conference to direct the attention of the Sunday-school Union to the facts, and to request that a special report upon the question be prepared and presented to the Conference of 1902." Halifax and Bradford directs its District Sub-Committee to examine into the causes, and to report. Leeds asks the June Quarterly Meetings to give special attention to the matter.

The Committee regards the decrease, small as it is, as unsatisfactory, especially as it follows a decrease of last year; but the total decrease, taking the two years together, is under eight scholars per 1,000. The numbers, as now reported, show a Connexional increase upon the totals presented to the Conference of 1891—ten years ago—of 26,730.

The Committee regards the diminution in the average attendance as still more serious. With an increase in the population, as disclosed by the recent census, our Sunday Schools ought not to decline. The Committee is still of opinion that if we are to increase our numbers and keep up our averages we must (a) visit our irregular scholars;

(b) canvass for new scholars; (c) perfect our registration, and examine minutely and thoroughly our quarterly averages, and make efforts to stop the leakage in time.

The Committee, while clearly pointing out the facts and regarding them as serious, does not think there is any cause for alarm. The remedy is in our own hands. The children are ready to be gathered in in ever-increasing numbers, if only there are shepherds to seek them. The Committee cannot but feel that the Saturday Afternoon Sports, and Saturday Excursions, extending to very late hours, and the growing disregard of the claims of the Lord's Day on the part of so many parents of the scholars, account for the poor averages we have to report. The Committee is strongly of opinion that in all circuits reporting a decrease the June Quarterly Meeting should institute the most searching inquiry into the causes, and take immediate action to revive interest in the work, prevent further loss, and suggest methods for increasing our numbers.

Children's Sunday was impressively observed throughout our Church, and many young people were brought to Christ. The Committee earnestly commends to all our workers the devout and earnest use of the day appointed by the Conference for special prayer and effort, so that everything that love to Christ and our scholars can devise shall be done to bring about their immediate religious decision.

The Prize Essays evoked by the suggestion of the Bolton Synod to the Sunday-school Union on Sunday-school Reform have been published during the year. It is hoped that the suggestions offered in these papers will have a very stimulating effect upon our schools.

Conventions for deepening the spiritual life of our officers and teachers and improving our methods of work have been held in many important centres during the year. The three days' Convention at Manchester, held in October last, has had far-reaching and very blessed results.

The Trade Department on the whole has been encouraging. The Committee appeals to the friends of Sunday-school work throughout the Connexion to continue their sympathy, prayers, and financial support.

Pleasant Sunday Afternoons and Adult Bible-classes.

The returns, as now presented, were reported to the Quarterly Meetings in March, to the Synods in May, and each Schedule bears the signature of the Circuit Superintendent Minister.

The Committee of the Union has done everything within its power to secure accuracy, and thus to report to Conference the Adult Bible-classes and Pleasant Sunday Afternoons not connected with Sunday Schools.

APPENDIX IV.

ABSTRACT OF THE REPORT

OF THE

CHILDREN'S HOME AND ORPHANAGE.

The Children's Home has never been more severely tested than during the year which has just closed. The unexpected retirement of Dr. Stephenson from the work with which his name has been associated for more than thirty years could not but create a crisis which naturally caused the gravest anxiety to the friends of the Home.

It was right that those upon whom the chief responsibility devolved should ask—not without misgiving—how will the Home bear this sudden withdrawal of an influence so strong and far-reaching? It was hardly possible to hope that there would not be a period of hesitation, and in the most favourable circumstances some diminution of income. Such a period there undoubtedly was, and it was not until after Christmas that we began to feel assured that, at least so far as its finances were concerned, The Children's Home was in no peril. The Home is firmly rooted in the affection of God's people, and, we may reverently say, in the affection of God Himself.

The financial test is an obvious and important one. Judged by its income, The Children's Home is steadily growing in the confidence of its friends. Our voluntary income has this year reached its highest point, and amounts to £25,285, showing an increase on the proceding twelve months of £1,851 net. This is the more gratifying as it has been obtained in a period of peculiar pressure, and since it follows substantial increases in the two previous years. In three years the ordinary income of the Home has risen more than £5,500.

In every item there has been increase, but we are specially grateful for the large and steady advance in the amount received from collections—made chiefly on Christmas Day and at Watch-night Services—which is this year £500 more than it was last year. Sunday Schools also show a satisfactory increase, whilst the contributions from members of the Birthday Society—both at home and in the Colonial Branch—are largely in excess of last year; and our Christmas Dinner Table Boxes have produced more than ever. This increased income has been obtained at a lower cost; for whilst the receipts have risen, we have been able to make some important economies which have effected a saving on the whole sum spent to secure this return.

Most of all we rejoice in the formation of the Young Leaguers' Union, which has contributed nearly £700 to our funds in the first year of its life. It has a membership of 4,324, and 113 branches have been formed. From all places where the Y.L.U. has taken root we have most cheering reports as to its influence upon the young folk themselves and upon the Churches with which they are associated.

Another important financial question is the effort to remove our floating debt. At Christmas-time our overdraft at the bank (after deducting the amount expended on account of the Twentieth Century Fund grant) exceeded £20,000, our income compared unfavourably with that of the previous year, and there were more than eighty children waiting admission. About half the overdraft was to be fairly reckoned as representing the necessary borrowing of the summer-time. The balance it was most desirable to raise with as little delay as possible. We issued a brief statement giving particulars of most of the cases waiting to be received, and asked for prompt and generous help. We did more than this. We gathered together our officers, children, office staff, workpeople, and a few intimate friends, and suspended for one quiet hour the rush of work which always comes to us at Christmas-time. We made our requests known unto God, and the response was such as we may ever expect to earnest prayer. At the close of our financial year our overdraft (after deducting amount expended on account of the Twentieth Century Fund grant) was £228 11*s.* 5*d.*, and we had only twelve children waiting admission. This relief has been secured (1) by the special New Century Birthday Offering, which produced £2,484 0*s.* 10*d.* net; (2) by the surplus of income over expenditure which has been the result of the rise in our income; (3) by economies effected in certain departments; (4) by the application of legacies received this year—£3,859—to the reduction of debt; (5) by the sale for £600 of some cottage property which had been left to the Home, but was not suitable for our use.

It is, however, a small thing to speak of the money received. How has it been spent? On March 31, 1901, we had 1,189 children in our care. We have sent 38 boys to Canada; for 182 girls and boys positions have been found in this country; whilst two have entered the Father's house above.

Of the children recently admitted many have peculiar claims upon us, whilst everyone of them has its own story of sorrow, suffering, or sin.

As to the future. It is not unreasonable for us to conclude that the generous support given to the Home this year means that we are to go forward, that the friends of The Children's Home are prepared to trust the new management, and that they desire to make this institution more than ever an effective ministry to the children of sorrow.

We are preparing to support at least a hundred more children than we had twelve months ago. And in many ways our work needs to be extended and consolidated. The Committee will watch with the utmost care all mere management and incidental expenses, keeping to the lowest proper level all expenditure that does not directly benefit the children. On the other hand, we hope to do more than ever to secure for our children the training—physical, mental, religious—which shall best fit them to take a useful place in the world and in the Church of Christ.

APPENDIX V.

ABSTRACT OF THE REPORT OF THE TEMPERANCE COMMITTEE.

The Committee has recorded in its Minutes the following resolution concerning the Rev. Charles Garrett:

"The Committee places on record its profound sense of the irreparable loss which has been sustained, not only by Wesleyan Methodism, but by all the Churches of the English-speaking world, in the death of the Rev. Charles Garrett. As an evangelical preacher, presenting the truth with wonderful pathos, and in an extraordinarily tender and winning manner, he was the messenger of salvation and consolation to multitudes. In relation to the Temperance movement he held a unique position. Coming into it in its early period of opprobrium and struggle, to him belongs the honour of taking a first place amongst those noble men who by patience, tact, and eloquent advocacy have won for it its present prominent position of influence. He may probably be regarded as the leader amongst the small group of men to whom we owe the establishment of our Connexional Temperance organisation. His spirit of loving conciliation had much to do with securing for the movement the recognition of the Conference. He was one of the founders of the Methodist Temperance Magazine, and one of its first editors. The Committee feels as if bereaved of a father, and is unable to find words in which to express its sorrow. It earnestly prays that many others endued with the spirit of Charles Garrett may be raised up to continue the work. The Committee tenders to the bereaved family an expression of its prayerful and affectionate sympathy."

We report 4,804 Bands of Hope, with a membership of 427,168, and 1,765 Temperance Societies, with a membership of 99,406—an increase of 71 Bands and of 1,127 in their membership, and of 128 Temperance Societies and 4,753 in their membership. The Committee again calls attention to the large leakage, especially in the discontinuance of Bands of Hope and Temperance Societies—a leakage which might be greatly reduced by more vigilant oversight and by the establishment of Circuit Unions.

The Committee calls attention to the greatly improved series of the Temperance Magazine, and appeals to our people to assist in circulating this magazine and our Methodist Temperance literature.

The Temperance Crusade of the Free Churches is commended to the sympathy and active co-operation of our people.

The Report refers to the Children's Bill, to the efforts which the Committee has been making in support of legislation upon the general lines of the Minority Report of the Royal Commission, to the debates in Parliament upon Temperance legislation, and to the measures which have been introduced into the House of Lords dealing with the date of Licensing Sessions, with drunkenness as a ground of judicial separation between husband and wife, with the proposed black list of habitual drunkards, with drunkenness while in custody of a child, and with drunkenness in public places. The Committee expresses its satisfaction at all these attempts to diminish by legislative enactments the mischief wrought by the liquor traffic.

The Committee reports that the Colonial Secretary has sent a reply to the Memorial of the Conference of 1900 asking for the prohibition of the sale of intoxicating liquor to natives in the Transvaal and the Orange River Colonies, and that the purport of this reply was to the effect that this is a subject on which the Government and Lord Milner "are entirely in agreement with the memorialists."

The Committee rejoices that the London County Council has persisted in its determination to abandon licences falling into its hands in connexion with its improvement schemes. While this matter was under discussion, the Committee did its utmost to influence the Council in the direction of continuing this policy, and at the time of the London County Council Election used its influence in the constituencies to secure the return of candidates who were in favour of the continuance of the same.

The Committee regrets the postponement of Sunday Closing for Monmouthshire, and, indeed, for the whole country.

The observance of Temperance Sunday during the coming autumn will be of especial interest on account of the Crusade. It is earnestly urged that this day be everywhere observed with great care, and it is hoped that the day of Special Prayer for the Crusade—Monday, November 18—may in all our Churches be an occasion of large assemblies to plead with God for the success of the Crusade and for the awakening of the national conscience with regard to the unspeakable curse of drunkenness.

The Gross Profit on the year's working amounts to £841 3*s.* 2*d.*, which will be distributed by the Committee at its meeting in October.

The above Tables will show how great is the advantage of the Common Cash system to the Funds of Methodism. All Funds that have to borrow obtain their overdrafts on the lowest possible terms, viz. the actual Bank Rate of the day, and they borrow largely from each other rather than from the Bank. Funds having credit balances obtain Deposit rate of interest; in addition to which they receive, according to the credit balances they have kept, their full proportion of profits.

The concession in regard to the purchase of useful and helpful books is more and more appreciated by our Local Preachers. The gross value of the purchases for this year amounts to £877 10*s.* 0*d.* as against £476 11*s.* 6*d.* last year.

A new and enlarged book list has been issued by the Committee, containing books suitable for the reading and study of local preachers, and which can be had under the Committee's concession as to price.

Descriptive notes on the books in the list have been prepared with great care, and will be very serviceable in helping and guiding the brethren in their selection of books.

APPENDIX XII.

STATEMENT RESPECTING THE WESLEY DEACONESS INSTITUTE.

The Wesley Deaconess Institute was commenced in the year 1890, after consultation with a number of leading Ministers and laymen. Though established side by side with the Children's Home, it is in no sense a part of it. In finance and administration it has always been, and is, independent. Yet the Wesley Deaconess Order has felt strengthened by the fact that behind it in friendly support stood an organisation which has become so deeply rooted and so greatly loved as the Children's Home. On the other hand, the workers in the Home have received much spiritual impulse and encouragement from their connexion with this company of consecrated women. But the Institute makes, and must make, its own appeal for the sympathy and support of the Church.

The Wesley Deaconess Order commenced its work in July, 1890, with one Sister-in-Charge and four Probationers. There are now fifty-four fully accredited Deaconesses and thirteen Probationers—a total of sixty-seven. In the course of the eleven years two have died, six have married, several during their probation have proved unsatisfactory, and three have withdrawn to pursue other ways in life. The number (sixty-seven) is that of recognised Deaconesses and Probationers in the month of June, 1901.

The Wesley Deaconess Institute exists to supply to the Connexion at large women for women's work. Further, the Institute gives to the Circuits this additional advantage—that changes, when necessary, can be effected without needless friction, without embarrassment to the Circuit on the one hand or to the Deaconess on the other.

From the beginning the work has commended itself gradually yet steadily to the confidence of our Ministers and people. Some natural anxiety was felt at first as to whether the central administration would not interfere too much between the Deaconess and the authorities of the Circuit to which she was appointed. The principle was, however, from the beginning maintained that, so far as her work in the Circuit is concerned, the Deaconess is responsible only to the Superintendent Minister, or to such Committee or other persons as may represent him for this purpose. The Warden of the Institute must have such communications with the Deaconess and with the Superintendent Minister as will enable him to keep up a sufficient knowledge of the Deaconess' character and that of her work. Without this it would be impossible for the Officers of the Order to fulfil their duty as acting for the Church and for the several Circuits which employ Deaconesses. But the fear that there would be any collision between the Officers of the Order and the authorities of the Circuit has proved groundless. If the Circuit desires to terminate its engagement with the Order, it can give notice for the withdrawal of the agent; if the Officers of the Order judge it desirable that a Deaconess should leave a particular place, they can give notice for the withdrawal of the agent. But it has been found perfectly possible to carry on this large enterprise in the most friendly co-operation with Superintendents and other Circuit authorities.

In the year 1894 the Conference was requested to appoint a Committee to consider whether it should not give its formal sanction to this enterprise.

Upon receipt of the Report of this Committee the following resolution was adopted: "The Conference, learning that a responsible Council has been formed for the management of the Wesley Deaconess Institute, recommends the Institute to the confidence and sympathy of the Connexion" (Minutes, 1895, p. 323).

In accordance with this resolution the Council has been maintained and strengthened from year to year.

It is now believed that eleven years is a sufficient period for such an experiment as this, and that it may claim to be treated henceforth as a fully recognised arm of service belonging to the whole Church.

Further, its Connexional character needs to be made public, in order that Connexional confidence in the work may be secured.

Again, excellent as has been the average of candidates who have been accepted for this work, the best class of such workers would be secured in larger numbers if they were connecting themselves with a recognised branch of the Church's agencies. The necessary discipline and control would be also more easy and more effective.

Moreover, important developments of the work are needed, of which, only two need be mentioned now :

1. Godly women, who have received some training in medical nursing, and have also learned how to conduct class-meetings, meetings for men, for women, and for the youth of both sexes, and who could occasionally give an evangelistic address, are much needed in many villages, or groups of villages.

2. A body of skilled nurses, devoted, Methodist, Protestant, is greatly needed for service both amongst the rich and the poor. An agency of this kind is necessary to counteract the efforts of communities desiring to use their influence in favour of Romanism avowed or concealed. Such workers are also much needed abroad. Applications have recently been made for the services of Wesley Deaconess Nurses from several places in the Colonies. It is obvious that the interests of our Missions in those regions would be greatly enhanced by our being able to do such a work.

But indeed the fields of usefulness open to a corps of trained and responsible women workers are almost unbounded. It is therefore the more important that such workers should come under the direct discipline of the Church.

APPENDIX XIII.

WESLEYAN METHODIST TWENTIETH CENTURY FUND.

Report of the Executive Committee.

With devout thankfulness to the Head of the Church, the Executive Committee presents its Third Annual Report to the Conference.

Payments.

Throughout the year steady progress towards the completion of the Fund has been made. The stream of contributions has not ceased to flow even for a day.

There now stands to the credit of the Fund £646,107 8*s.* 8*d.*, an increase of £343,030 12*s.* 3*d.* on the receipts reported to the last Conference. Of this sum £630,199 4*s.* 3*d.* has been received as contributions, and £15,908 4*s.* 5*d.* as interest on deposits.

To appreciate the full significance of this large contribution it must be remembered that it has been made during two of the most eventful and anxious years in the recent history of the country, and that it is over and above the ordinary contributions of the Wesleyan Methodist Church for the maintenance of its manifold agencies at home and abroad. During the progress of the Fund, neither Circuit nor Connexional funds have suffered. On the contrary they have prospered. Such an evidence of loyalty and devotion is unparalleled.

Promises and Aims.

The total amount of the Circuit promises and District aims reported last year was 732,228 guineas; this year 884,168 guineas, an increase of 151,940 guineas. This amount includes the promises made at the last Conference, namely, 40,000 guineas (which, at the request of the donors, have been transferred to District and Circuit Lists); the amounts promised at the September Synod and Autumn Conventions, 85,236 guineas; the sum of 23,800 guineas promised towards the Supplementary List which was opened by the General Committee in December last; and also 3,000 guineas arising from the distribution of Medals and the Children's List.

Some Circuits have taken an inadequate view of their responsibilities to this Connexional enterprise. This is evident from the returns. It cannot be said that they take a corresponding view of their claims for assistance from the Fund.

Reliability of Promises and Aims.

In regard to the reliability of the promises and aims:

1. It will be observed that almost every Synod which has recorded an inclusive aim, has, at its recent meeting, renewed its pledge to use every endeavour to fulfil it.

2. The Circuit Promises have been presented repeatedly to Synods and Circuit Quarterly Meetings. They have also been published month by month in the Methodist newspapers. And notwithstanding changes in the Ministerial staff, with two or three exceptions no appeal for reduction has been made. In some Circuits the promised amount is low enough. In cases where large promises have been made there is no indication of failure. In others the amount of the promises has been increased during the year.

3. The Schedules show that in those Districts and Circuits where deficiencies might, with some reason, have been feared, the proportion of actual payments to the amounts promised is remarkably high. With regard to other Circuits and Districts, the Executive Committee cannot doubt their ability or their willingness to fulfil their aims.

The Supplementary List.

The proposal to raise 100,000 guineas by 1,000 contributions of 100 guineas each was adopted by the General Committee, which met in December. In response to the appeal, 23,800 guineas were almost immediately promised. Deferring to the wishes of Committees of Districts which have made inclusive promises, that they should have full command of the resources of their respective Districts until the Fund was nearer completion, subscriptions to this List have not been solicited in recent months. As the end of the year approaches, it is hoped that many contributors, including numerous Circuits which have practically completed their promises, will be added to the List.

In the List of Promises to the Supplementary Effort the names of Circuits, Sunday Schools, and in one case a Wesley Guild, as well as the names of individual donors, will be found.

Children's Shilling Subscription List.

One of the most gratifying features of the progress of the Fund is the generous support given by the young people of Methodism. Thousands of them have qualified for a place on the Historic Roll, and are entitled to the Commemorative Certificate, the value of which will increase with the growth of the century. There are, however, multitudes of children in our Churches and Schools unable to give or collect a guinea, who, in after-years, would regret that they had not been permitted to take a recognised part in this great enterprise.

In order to meet such cases the Executive Committee has instituted a Children's Shilling Subscription List, on which the names of all children who give or collect one shilling for the Fund during this year shall be enrolled. They are also entitled to a medal which has been designed as an official recognition of their contribution. The proceeds of this special subscription are assigned to the balance needed to complete the Fund. Eventually the amount of this and of all other special subscriptions will be placed to the credit of the Circuits from which they are sent. Already 800 Sunday Schools, several Day Schools, and the children of many Churches have joined in the movement. Applications for over 60,000 medals have been received.

The Fund—A Thankoffering.

The Executive Committee reminds the Conference and the Connexion at large that the Twentieth Century Fund is a Thankoffering. In all its arrangements the Executive Committee has kept this fact in mind. It has steadily refused all proposals which have looked in the direction of assessment. It has recognised that no scale of contribution, however carefully constructed, could be equitably applied to all parts of the Connexion. It has found that where according to such scales much might have been expected comparatively little has been promised, and where little might have been expected large contributions have been made. The glory of God in the extension of the evangelistic, educational, and philanthropic work of Methodism at home and abroad has been the dominating motive of every appeal.

The Balance.

Having carefully considered the present position and prospects of the Fund, the Executive Committee is of opinion that, after making adequate allowance for the non-fulfilment of promises and aims, an additional 100,000 guineas will carry the Fund to a triumphant issue, and enable the Committee to hand over to the various objects the sums allocated. To raise this amount the Executive Committee looks:

1. To the Circuits, especially to those which have fulfilled, or nearly fulfilled, their recorded promises;

2. To friends whom God has specially blessed with the stewardship of larger possessions than He has entrusted to many of their fellows. The interests of Methodism are dear to them. They are invited to follow the example of others who have already brought their tithes into God's storehouse, and are now rejoicing in His promised blessing;

3. To friends who are able to place their names on the Supplementary List;

4. To the Young People of Methodism connected with our Congregations and Sunday Schools; and, if necessary,

5. To the results of an organised Collection in all our Chapels and Schools.

The Committee takes this opportunity in its last Report prior to the close of the Fund once more to emphasise the importance of two cardinal principles and novel features of the Fund.

1. It would remind the Methodist people that the appeal is for one guinea from each person. The Committee estimates that of the 883,332 guineas promised, not less than 600,000 guineas represent donations of One Guinea from one person.

2. The Committee reminds Officers of the Fund of the great value of the Historic Roll and the Certificate, not simply as an incentive to friends to aid the Fund, but as a record of the members and adherents of our Church at the commencement of the Twentieth Century. Nearly half a million certificates have been issued.

That the resources of Methodism are equal to the completion of the Fund none can doubt. In the organisation of our Church the means of getting at these resources are at hand. But the organisation must be worked. It is not self-acting.

Considering the fact that there is so little time left before the appeal for contributions is brought to a close, and considering the manifold benefits which will accrue to the Connexion on its completion, the Executive Committee ventures to ask the Conference to direct that in all our Circuits precedence be given to the work of the Fund in all Circuit arrangements up to the close of the year; and that Ministers, District, Circuit, and Local Officers and Committees of the Fund, concentrate their energies on its completion.

APPENDIX XIV.

REVISED REGULATIONS IN REGARD TO THE CONSTITUTION, ETC., OF THE CONFERENCE, ADAPTED TO THE CHANGED ORDER OF CONFERENCE SESSIONS.

I. Relation of the Representative to the Pastoral Session of the Conference.

1. If any Resolutions shall be adopted by the Representative and Pastoral Sessions respectively, which, in the judgment of the President, are in conflict with each other, such Resolutions shall not be confirmed by the Legal Conference; but shall be reported accordingly to the respective Sessions of the next Conference (1889, p. 291).

2. The Conference in its Pastoral Session shall have power to consider and decide . . . all propositions for the calling out of additional Ministers which shall have received the sanction of the Conference in its Representative Session, so far as questions of finance are concerned.

3. The consideration and determination of all questions raised by any resolutions of District Synods, or by Memorials from Circuit Quarterly Meetings, or otherwise, shall come within the province of the Conference in its Pastoral or its Representative Session, according to the subject-matter thereof respectively.

4. In all cases in which there may be any doubt as to the Session of the Conference to which a matter belongs, the President shall decide.

II. The Representative Session of the Conference.

1. The Conference, when considering such matters as are hereinafter declared to be within the province of Ministers and Laymen, acting conjointly, shall consist of the President of the Conference and of 300 Ministers and 300 Laymen.

(1) The Ministerial members of the Conference, when the Lay Representatives are present, shall be, in addition to the President and all other members of the Legal Conference for the time being who shall have declared at the May Meeting of the District Synod their intention to attend the Conference;

(i.) Any Assistant Secretary of the Conference who is not a member of the Legal Conference.

(ii.) All Chairmen of Districts in Great Britain who are not members of the Legal Conference.

(iii.) Eight Ministers in Full Connexion, stationed in Foreign Districts, who may be in England at the time of the sitting of the Conference, to be chosen by the Missionary Committee.

(iv.) If in any year any Department would not, in the judgment of the Conference, be adequately represented by members of the Legal Conference, provision shall be made for the Ministerial Representation of such Department by the preceding Conference when consisting of Ministers only.

(v.) The remaining Ministerial Members of the Conference, when composed of Ministers and Laymen, shall be elected at the Annual Meetings in May of the District Synods in Great Britain, as follows:

The Ministerial Members of each District Synod shall elect by ballot, after nomination, from among the whole number of Ministers in any District who may express their desire to attend the Conference, so many Ministers as were allocated by the preceding Conference to represent the District in the Conference when composed of Ministers and Laymen (1886, p. 199; 1890, p. 324).

N.B.—The newly elected members of the Legal Conference in each year shall be members of the Conference when composed of Ministers and Laymen.

(2) No Layman shall be eligible as a Representative, whether elected annually by the Conference or by the May Meeting of the District Synod, unless he be a Member of Society of five years' continuous standing, and, at the time of his election by the Conference or nomination in the District Synod, a holder of office as a Trustee of Connexional Property, a member of a Circuit Quarterly Meeting, or a member of a District Synod. Any Layman nominated in a District Synod must be a Member of Society in some Circuit within that District.

(i.) One-fifth of the Lay Representatives shall be elected annually by the Conference when composed of Ministers and Laymen. This number shall in all cases include the Lay Treasurers for the time being of the following General Connexional Funds, namely, the Missionary Society, the General Chapel Fund, the Ministers' Children's Fund in both its sections, the Home Mission Fund, the Theological Institution Fund, the Education Fund, the Auxiliary Fund, the Metropolitan Chapel Building Fund, the Extension of Methodism Fund, together with a Lay Treasurer of each of the following Funds, the Children's Home, the London Mission, the Temperance Committee, and the Local Preachers' Committee.

N.B.—In future appointments not more than one Lay Treasurer of any Connexional Fund shall be an ex officio Member of the Representative Session of the Conference.

One-third of the remaining number elected by the Conference shall retire annually, and the Lay Representatives so retiring shall not be immediately eligible for re-election by the Conference (1880, pp. 334, 335).

(ii.) For the present, the election of the remaining Lay Representatives to the Conference shall be by the separate vote of the Laymen, taken by ballot after nomination, in the May Meetings of the District Synods; such nomination to be by the Lay Members only. The Circuit Stewards of each Circuit shall be called upon at the March Quarterly Meeting to declare their ability and willingness to attend the ensuing Annual Meeting of the District Synod in May, or the contrary. If they, or either of them, shall declare inability or unwillingness to attend the said District Synod, the Quarterly Meeting shall have the right of electing, by and from its own members by open vote or by ballot, after nomination by Lay Members of the Meeting, a Representative or Representatives, to supply the vacancy or vacancies so created (1893, p. 319).

(iii.) The number of Laymen to be elected in each District shall be determined by each preceding Conference when consisting of Ministers and Laymen.

2. For Order and Form of Business to be transacted by the Conference, see Appendix XV.

3. The deliberations of the Conference, when consisting of Ministers and Laymen, shall be confined to the duly appointed members of that Conference; but any Minister permitted by the District Synod to attend the Conference when composed of Ministers only, may be present during the Sessions of the Conference when composed of Ministers and Laymen; and the Lay Members of Connexional Committees may be present during the proceedings of the Conference when composed of Ministers and Laymen. Seats for the purpose shall be reserved for Ministers and Laymen. The admission of any other persons shall be determined and arranged according to circumstances at the discretion of the Conference.

III. Formal Constitution of the Conference.

The constitution of the Conference shall be the first business of the Conference. The retiring President shall occupy the chair until his successor is elected.

A. Elections to the Legal Conference.

1. All vacancies in the Legal Conference caused by death, or by absence for two consecutive years without a dispensation, shall be declared at the first meeting of the Conference in its Representative Session, and such vacancies shall be filled up by election by the Legal Conference on the ground of seniority (1899, p. 241).

N.B.—A list of Senior Ministers in Full Work shall be prepared at each Conference, and printed in the Agenda, and the vacancies in the Legal Conference shall be filled therefrom by ballot of the Hundred (Journal, 1814; 1899, p. 241).

2. The declaration of vacancies caused by Superannuation shall be deferred until the Meeting of the Conference in its Pastoral Session, and such vacancies shall then be filled up by election by the Legal Conference after nomination (1899, pp. 241, 242).

3. In regard to these vacancies the Legal Conference shall formally declare by separate vote that certain Ministers, having been Supernumeraries for two years, and not having been Presidents of the Conference, cease to be members of the Legal Hundred, and that their places have to be filled up (Journal, 1877).

N.B.—This provision for the retirement of Supernumeraries at the end of two years does not apply to Ministers elected to the Legal Conference earlier than 1877 (see Journal, 1877).

4. All ministers in Full Connexion permitted to attend the Conference, and being present in its Pastoral Session, shall have the right of nominating, by ballot, any Preacher for admission into the number of the Hundred, and the Hundred shall be requested in such cases to elect the person so nominated as a Member of the Legal Conference. No person shall be so elected who has not travelled at least fourteen years (Journal, 1814, 1815, 1869).

5. Should the Conference, during its sittings, expel any Member of the Legal Hundred, another Minister to supply his place shall be immediately elected, after nomination in the usual form.

B. Nomination and Election of the President and Secretary.

1. All Ministers in Full Connexion permitted to attend the Conference, and being present in its Pastoral Session, shall have the right to vote in the nomination of the President and Secretary of the ensuing Conference.

2. The nomination of the President and Secretary shall be made by ballot vote by the Pastoral Session of the preceding Conference.

3. The number of one hundred Members of the Legal Conference having been completed by the filling up of vacancies caused by death, or by absence for two successive years without dispensation, the Legal Conference shall proceed to choose its President and Secretary.

4. The Legal Conference shall be requested to elect the person nominated to the office of President and the person nominated to the office of Secretary by the Pastoral Session of the preceding Conference (1899, p. 242).

5. If the Legal Conference shall at any time negative either of the nominations of the preceding Conference, the Ministers who are Members of the Conference in its Representative Session, being present in the Conference, shall proceed by ballot vote to nominate another Minister for the office in question; and the result of that nomination shall be submitted to the decision of the Legal Conference.

6. Should the death or disqualification of the Minister nominated to the office of President be declared by the Legal Conference at its first meeting, the Ministers who are members of the Conference in its Representative Session, being present in the Conference, shall proceed by ballot vote to nominate another Minister to the office of President in the place of the Minister deceased or disqualified; and the Legal Conference shall be requested to elect the Minister so nominated.

7. Should the death or disqualification of the Minister nominated to the office of Secretary be declared by the Legal Conference at its first meeting, the Ministers who are Members of the Conference in its Representative Session, being present in the Conference, shall proceed by ballot vote to nominate another Minister to the office of Secretary in the place of the Minister deceased or disqualified; and the Legal Conference shall be requested to elect the Minister so nominated.

8. If, in the event of the death or disqualification of the Minister nominated to the office of the President, the Minister nominated by the Pastoral Session of the preceding Conference to the office of Secretary should be chosen to be President of the Conference, the Ministers who are Members of the Representative Session, being present in the Conference, shall nominate another Minister by ballot vote to the office of Secretary of the Conference, and the Legal Conference shall be requested to elect the Minister so nominated.

APPENDIX XV.

ORDER AND FORM OF THE BUSINESS OF THE CONFERENCE.

The Conference adopts the following Order and Form of Business, subject to such modifications as may hereafter be found necessary or convenient.

(a) Previously to each Conference, the Stationing Committee shall meet in London in connexion with the Annual Meeting of the Home Mission Committee, and shall prepare and issue the First Draft of the Stations of Ministers. READING AND CONFIRMATION OF THE CONFERENCE JOURNAL.

APPENDIX XVI.

COMPENDIUM OF LATER REGULATIONS RELATING TO ADMINISTRATION AND DISCIPLINE.

N.B.—The references throughout this Compendium are to the latest octavo edition of the Minutes of the Conference, the first volume of which was issued in 1862, and to the crown octavo volumes which have been issued annually since 1878.

Title of the Connexion.

HAVING regard to the terms used in our Trust Deeds and other legal documents, it is not possible for the Conference to alter the title of the Connexion as it appears on the front page of the Minutes of Conference. The Conference declares, however, that the title hitherto used is not, and never has been, inconsistent with the assertion for "the people called Methodists" of a true and proper position as a Church, with all the authorities, privileges, and responsibilities belonging to the New Testament Church; and in this view of our principles and of the facts of the case, the Conference, so far from discouraging, distinctly approves of the general and popular use of the term "The Wesleyan Methodist Church" (1891, p. 321).

New Rules.

1. It is determined that if, at any time, the Conference see it necessary to make any new Rule for the Societies at large, and such Rule should be objected to at the first Quarterly Meeting in any given Circuit, and if the major part of that Meeting be of opinion that the enforcing of such Rule in that Circuit will be injurious to the prosperity of that Circuit, it shall not be enforced in opposition to the judgment of such Quarterly Meeting before the second Conference. But if the Rule be confirmed by the second Conference, it shall be binding to the whole Connexion. Nevertheless, any Quarterly Meeting, which may reject a new Rule, shall not, by publications, public meetings, or otherwise, make that Rule a cause of contention, but shall strive by every means to preserve the peace of the Connexion (1797, vol. i., p. 393; 1852, vol. xii., p. 117).

2. The Superintendents are directed to read to the first Quarterly Meeting after each Conference any new Rule for the Societies at large (1852, vol. xii., p. 117).

I. Relating to Members of Society.

Admission into the Society.

1. The spiritual concerns shall be managed by the Preachers, who have ever appointed Leaders, chosen Stewards, and admitted Members into and expelled them from the Society, consulting their brethren, the Stewards and Leaders (1794, vol. i., 314).

2. No Leader has power to put any person either into or out of the Society (1787, vol. i., p. 194).

3. No Preacher shall give Notes (admitting persons on Trial) to any but those who are recommended by one he knows, or till they have met three or four times in Class. It is the Leader's duty to give them "the Rules of the Society" the first time they meet.

4. Neither the Superintendents, nor any other Preachers, shall give Tickets to any till they are recommended by a Leader with whom they have met, at least two months, on Trial.

5. The Leaders' Meeting has a right to declare any person on Trial improper to be received into the Society; and, after such declaration, the Superintendent shall not admit such person into the Society (1869, vol. xvii., p. 620).

This Rule is expounded by the Conference in the terms following:

> "That it never was intended that the names of all those who are on Trial should be laid before a Leaders' Meeting for distinct and formal discussion; but solely that if there be, in the opinion of a Leader, any reasonable objection to the character and conduct of any person who is on Trial, such objection may be stated by him; and that, if the validity of the objection be established to the satisfaction of the Meeting, a Member's Ticket shall not be given to the person so objected to at that Quarterly Visitation" (1842, vol. ix., p. 398; 1869, vol. xvii., pp. 620, 621).

6. Membership in Junior Society Classes shall be accepted instead of the ordinary probation in the Society Classes; but the term of such probationary membership shall be undefined, and be terminable at the discretion of a Minister of the Circuit. In no case, however, shall the probationary period be less than twelve months (1894, p. 218).

Recognition of New Members.

The public and formal recognition of New Members of Society is in accordance with early Methodist usage. A public welcome given by the Society tends to encourage the New Members, whilst the formal recognition will deepen their sense of responsibility.

Such recognition should be associated, wherever practicable, with the Public Service on the Lord's Day, morning or evening, and be followed by the administration of the Lord's Supper. In some places it might be found more expedient to recognise New Members at a Society Meeting after the Quarterly Visitation of the Classes; or, in villages, a Recognition Service might take the place of a week-evening service.

The Conference therefore directs that at least two or three times a year, if practicable, Meetings for the Recognition of New Members be held in every Circuit, the frequency and exact nature of such Meetings being left to the discretion of the Superintendent.

If upon inquiry it be found that any person, in other respects eligible for recognition, has not received Christian Baptism, that Sacrament shall be administered before the recognition of that person, and, if not otherwise, in connexion with the Recognition Service (1878, p. 186; 1885, p. 278; 1890, pp. 317, 318; 1892, p. 333).

Removal Notes.

Let no Member removing from one Circuit to another be received into Society without a Note of Removal, signed by one of the Ministers of the Circuit whence he has come (1869, vol. xvii., p. 621).

Exclusion of Members.

1. No Leader has power to put any person either into or out of the Society, or to remove any name from the Class-book (1787, vol. i., p. 194).

2. No Minister shall remove the name of any person from the Class-book who has not been carefully visited, patiently borne with, faithfully exhorted, earnestly entreated; or for any other than grave moral or spiritual reasons, or decided and persistent disaffection. And even in such cases every person so excluded from the fellowship of the Church must have the opportunity, if he claims it, of having his case judicially decided at a Leaders' Meeting, according to the provisions of our Discipline (1889, p. 409).

3. The far greater number of those that are separated from us exclude themselves by neglecting to meet in Class and to use the other means of grace, and so gradually forsake us. It must, however, be understood that there exists no Rule which requires a Minister to refuse a Ticket solely on the ground of irregular attendance at Class (1869, vol. xvii., p. 621; 1889, p. 409).

4. Any person who, instead of peaceably retiring from our Connexion if he decidedly disapprove of our system, of either doctrine or discipline, and cannot conscientiously even acquiesce in them, endeavours to retain and employ his position among us for the purposes of opposition and strife—or who continues, after due admonition, to be a member of any confederacy formed for the object of systematic agitation—is guilty of a flagrant transgression of that morality of the New Testament, the observance of which was a principal condition of his admission into our Society, and must be considered to have justly forfeited his claim to the privileges of our religious fellowship (1835, vol. vii., p. 585).

5. If any Local Officer or Member of our Society shall be found endeavouring to create or encourage dissension and strife in his own or in any other Circuit, or addicting himself to injurious railing against either the doctrine, or the discipline, or the Ministers of the Connexion, the person so offending shall be admonished by the Superintendent of the error of his ways; and if he still persist in his offence, shall, after trial in the usual form, if this be demanded, be put away from the Society (1852, vol. xii., p. 115).

Trial of Members.

1. The law of God contained in the Holy Scriptures furnishes, in the trial of Members, that primary standard of judgment by which the innocence or culpability of any particular facts adduced in evidence is ever to be determined. . . . Any conduct in a man professing godliness, which can be shown to be decidedly condemned by the precepts and principles of the New Testament, is sufficient to justify, if persisted in, the application of a suitable ecclesiastical censure, or other penalty, to such an individual; even though it may not have been previously found necessary to make a distinct and specific Rule of our own Society on that exact mode and form of delinquency (1835, vol. vii., p. 583).

2. No person shall be expelled from the Society till his offence has been proved to the satisfaction of a Leaders' Meeting, which Meeting is also entitled to declare, by its verdict, whether the facts alleged are or are not violations of the laws of God or our own Body. No sentence of expulsion shall be pronounced by the Superintendent till at least one week after the trial of a person accused. In the meanwhile the Superintendent shall seek the fullest information from individual Leaders and other judicious and experienced Members of Society, and shall also confer with his Colleagues at their Weekly Meeting.

When the Superintendent has not a Colleague, and cannot therefore consult a Weekly Meeting of the Preachers of the Circuit, he shall, in every case of the proposed expulsion of a Member of Society, take counsel with the Chairman of the District.

Every expelled Member has a right to appeal to a Minor District Synod, to the Annual District Synod, and to the Conference (1869, vol. xvii., p. 621; 1898, p. 253).

3. The first ground on which a trial before a Leaders' Meeting is to be conceded to an accused Member is, that the person complained against should deny the charge brought against him. But if the party charged refuses, in the presence of the Leaders' Meeting, either to admit or deny the charge preferred against him, it is hereby declared to be the judgment of the Conference that he is not entitled to demand the production of evidence, nor to claim that his trial should be proceeded with; but the authorities concerned may justly assume that the allegations cannot be denied with truth. Yet, in some cases, it may be competent to the party bringing the complaint to offer proof of the matters charged, if the Superintendent deem it most conducive to the ends of Christian discipline to adopt such a course (1850, vol. xi., p. 482).

4. When a charge is brought against any Member resident in a place where no Leaders' Meeting is statedly held, the case shall be referred for investigation to the Leaders' Meeting of the principal Society in the Circuit town. The Leader or Leaders, and the Society Stewards, of the Society of which the accused is a Member, shall be associated with the Leaders' Meeting for the purpose of the investigation (1872, vol. xviii., p. 656).

Trial of Members who are also Trustees.

1. No Trustee, however accused, or defective in conformity to the Rules of the Society, shall be removed from the Society, unless his crime or breach of Rule be proved in the presence of the Trustees and Leaders, namely, the Leaders' Meeting of the particular Society of which he is a Member, together with the Trustees of the Chapel with which that Society is connected, such Trustees being themselves Members of the Methodist Society (1869, vol. xvii., p. 625).

2. When a charge is brought against any Member resident in a place where no Leaders' Meeting is statedly held, the case shall be referred for investigation to the Leaders' Meeting of the principal Society in the Circuit town. The Leader or Leaders, and the Society Stewards of the Society of which the accused is a Member, shall be associated with the Leaders' Meeting for the purpose of the investigation. If the accused person is a Trustee, then there shall also be associated with the Leaders' Meeting as above constituted the Trustees of the Chapel with which the Society of which he is a Member is connected; or if there is no such Chapel, then the Trustees of the Chapel in connexion with the principal Society in the Circuit town. But no Trustee shall, in either case, be so associated, unless he is himself a Member of Society in the same Circuit (1872, vol. xviii., p. 656).

Commercial Failures.

1. Whenever any Member of Society becomes a bankrupt, or compounds with his creditors, the Superintendent and one of the Stewards shall talk with him at large. If a formal investigation be considered needful, a Committee shall be chosen by the Leaders' Meeting for that purpose on the nomination of the Superintendent, to consist of two or more competent persons, Members of Society, who may or may not be members of the Leaders' Meeting; the Superintendent to be the Chairman. If, on receiving their report, the Meeting shall conclude that fair accounts have not been kept, or that liabilities have been incurred without a reasonable probability of meeting them, the Superintendent shall proceed according to Rule.

2. On the appointment of such Committee in the case of any Leader, Local Preacher, or Steward, the exercise of his functions shall be discontinued until his case is decided (1869, vol. xvii., p. 623).

3. If any Member be found to have speculated in business beyond a reasonable probability of his being able to meet every lawful demand, he shall be suspended from the privileges of the Society for one year at least (1820, vol. v., p. 146).

4. If any of our Members, who have formerly failed in business, shall afterwards, by the blessing of God, have acquired property, it is their plain duty to pay their whole debt (1869, vol. xvii., p. 623).

Appeals in Cases of Discipline.

No appeal shall be received after the completion of the year following the Conference immediately succeeding the act of discipline, except by special decision of the Conference (1891, p. 229).

Society Meetings.

The Societies shall be frequently met, apart from the congregation at large, and suitably addressed on the various relative duties, on the due sanctification of the Lord's Day, and other appropriate topics (1825, vol. vi., p. 65).

Public Worship.

1. At Public Worship, on the morning of the Lord's Day, where an Order of Morning Service sanctioned by the Conference is not used, the Preacher shall read the Lessons appointed for the day. At every Public Religious Service, at least one chapter of the Holy Scriptures shall be read before the Sermon is preached; and the Conference again recommends the use of the Psalms in Public Worship.

2. We strongly recommend all our people to kneel at prayer; and we desire that all our pews may, as far as possible, be so formed as to admit of this in the easiest manner (1869, vol. xvii., p. 622).

The Sacraments.

The Lord's Supper shall be administered according to the form appointed by the Conference; but the person who administers shall have liberty to give out hymns, to use exhortation, and extemporary prayer. The Administration of Baptism and the Burial of the Dead shall be determined by the same regulations. At Baptism, both parents are expected to be present (1869, vol. xvii., p. 622).

Baptism.

Let the ordinance of Baptism, if possible, be always administered in the public congregation.

Let us administer it, in general, only to the children of our own Members and those of our regular hearers (1812, vol. iii., p. 292).

The Lord's Supper.

We earnestly beseech all the Members of our Societies conscientiously to attend this sacred ordinance of God our Saviour at every opportunity, and to make a point of staying till the whole service be concluded.

In the Visitation of the Classes, let every Preacher closely examine the Members on this head, and strongly enforce our Rules concerning it. And, in order to remove every excuse, let this blessed Sacrament be regularly and frequently administered (1806, vol. ii., pp. 348, 349).

Covenant Service.

1. The annual solemnity of Renewing the Covenant, as practised among us, may, if duly prepared for and improved, afford a means of great usefulness in quickening the zeal of our people, and in bringing many to decide for a religious life (1854, vol. xii., p. 474).

2. The Rule concerning showing Tickets should be strictly observed in reference to the Covenant Service (1889, p. 412).

Sundry Points of Discipline.

Observance of the Lord's Day.

All Members of the Society are required to observe the Lord's Day with religious care; in accordance with the oft-repeated advices and directions of the Conference, and, above all, with the abiding precepts of God's word (1869, vol. xvii., p. 623).

Marriage.

Some of our Members have married with ungodly persons. This has had fatal effects. They have either had a cross for life, or turned back to the world. To put a stop to this, every Preacher is enjoined to enforce frequently the apostle's caution, "Be ye not unequally yoked." Let all single persons be reminded of the injunction to marry "only in the Lord"; and exhorted to take no steps in so weighty a matter without taking counsel of their parents, and advising with the most serious of their Christian friends (1869, vol. xvii., p. 623).

Family Religion.

We again earnestly enforce upon all the people under our care a conscientious and uniform attention to this important subject, and solemnly exhort them to maintain the practice of daily prayer in their houses; to have stated times allotted for this purpose; to make the daily reading of the Holy Scripture a constant part of their domestic devotion; to require not only some but all the members of their respective families to be present at the time of family worship (1811, vol. iii., p. 221).

Of Conformity to the World.

The Rules of the Society forbid "diversions" which "cannot be used in the name of the Lord Jesus"; and the drinking of spirituous liquors, "unless in cases of extreme necessity." The obligation "to do all to the glory of God" implies an avoiding of all questionable recreations and indulgences; in particular, of such as lead into worldly company, or promote trifling, or indispose for the use of the word of God and prayer.

The repeated regulations of the Conference against dancing are clearly intended to condemn the practice, not only in schools and among pupils, but among Methodists at large. They fall within the scriptural requirements that Christians "abstain from all appearance of evil," and, instead of approaching as nearly as possible to the fashions and customs of the ungodly, "come out from among them, and be separate" (1869, vol. xvii., p. 622).

Days of Fasting.

A general Fast shall be held in all our Societies the first Friday after New Year's Day, after Lady Day, after Midsummer Day, and after Michaelmas Day (1869, vol. xvii., p. 624).

II. Relating to the Officers of the Societies.

Stewards.

1. No person shall be appointed a Society Steward, or Poor Steward, or be removed from his office, but in conjunction with a Leaders' Meeting; the nomination to be with the Superintendent, and the approval or disapproval with the Leaders' Meeting (1797, vol. i., p. 391; 1869, vol. xvii., p. 624).

2. Circuit Stewards are to be appointed at a Quarterly Meeting; the nomination being with the Superintendent, and the approval or disapproval with the Meeting.

3. The office of a Steward ceases at the end of the year; and no Steward shall remain in office above three years in succession, except in some extraordinary case (1869, vol. xvii., p. 624).

4. When a Steward has been removed from his office by disciplinary action, he has the right of appeal against the sentence to the District Synods and the Conference (1899, pp. 240, 505).

Class-leaders.

1. No person shall be appointed a Leader, or be removed from his office, but in conjunction with a Leaders' Meeting; the nomination to be with the Superintendent, and the approval or disapproval with the Leaders' Meeting (1797, vol. i., p. 391; 1869, vol. xvii., p. 624).

2. When a Leader has been removed from his office by disciplinary action, he has the right of appeal against the sentence to the District Synods and the Conference (1899, pp. 240, 505).

3. Let our Superintendents urge on the Leaders "the duty of collecting weekly in every Class the subscriptions of our Members for the support of the gospel" (1826, vol. vi., p. 168).

4. All our Leaders are required regularly to attend their respective Leaders' Meetings (1810, vol. iii., p. 156).

Leaders' Meetings.

1. A Leaders' Meeting consists of:

(1) The Ministers and Preachers on Trial who are appointed to the work of the Circuit (1852, vol. xii., p. 121).

(2) The Class-leaders, the Society Stewards, and Poor Stewards of that Society; together with any Circuit Steward or Stewards who may be Members of that Society.

(3) When a Secretary is appointed in any Leaders' Meeting, such Secretary must be chosen from among the members of that Meeting (1874, vol. xix., p. 454).

A Minister residing in a Circuit "without Pastoral Charge" shall not, as a Minister, be a member of any Leaders' Meeting in the Circuit (1888, p. 215).

N.B.—A Supernumerary is not, as a Minister, a member of a Leaders' Meeting.

2. From the beginning, Leaders' Meetings have been found essential to the pastoral care and spiritual prosperity of our Societies, and also to the orderly transaction of their financial concerns. Where Leaders' Meetings are frequently held, the work of the Leaders is done more perfectly. And by a minute examination of the Class-books, in the presence of the Leaders, we learn who are the sick, the careless, or the lukewarm; and then, in making pastoral visits, we are prepared to go, "not only to those who want us, but to those who want us most." Let us, therefore, see to it that Leaders' Meetings are held regularly, and as often as practicable, not only in the towns in which Ministers reside, but also in the principal country places (1885, p. 360).

3. Let a strict inquiry be made by the Superintendent Preacher in the Leaders' Meeting, at least twice in the year, into the moral character of all the Leaders, their punctuality in beginning and ending their Class-meetings in proper time, and everything that relates to their office (1811, vol. iii., p. 222).

Local Preachers.

1. The Superintendent shall regularly meet the Local Preachers once a quarter; and no person shall receive a Plan as a Local Preacher, or be suffered to preach among us as such, without the approval of that Meeting. Or, if in any Circuit a regular Local Preachers' Meeting cannot be held, they shall be proposed and approved at the Quarterly Meeting of the Circuit, subject to the Regulations which apply to Local Preachers' Meetings in such matters (1869, vol. xvii., p. 624; 1895, p. 434).

2. All Local Preachers shall meet in Class (1869, vol. xvii., p. 624; 1895, p. 436).

3. Local Preachers should consider themselves under special obligation regularly to partake of the Sacrament of the Lord's Supper (1895, p. 436).

4. Let no Local Preacher be permitted to preach in any other Circuit than his own without the consent of the Superintendent of that Circuit (1869, vol. xvii., p. 624).

Local Preachers' Meetings.

1. A Local Preachers' Meeting consists of:

(1) The Ministers and Preachers on Trial who are appointed to the work of the Circuit (1852, vol. xii., p. 121).

(2) Supernumerary Ministers have the right to attend and take part in the Local Preachers' Meetings in the Circuits in which they reside (1895, p. 435).

(3) The duly accredited Local Preachers who are Members of Society in that Circuit.

Local Preachers on Trial are expected to attend the Local Preachers' Meeting, but are not entitled to vote (1895, p. 435).

2. The Local Preachers' Meeting has authority to make the inquiry: "Is there any objection to any Local Preacher or Exhorter whose name is on the Circuit Plan, such as affects his standing on the Plan?" Should an objection be formally made against a Local Preacher such as affects his standing on the Plan, the Meeting may proceed to consider it, and if, in its judgment, the objection is sustained, the Superintendent shall determine and pronounce the sentence; subject, however, to the right of appeal against the sentence on the part either of the person accused, or of the Local Preachers' Meeting, to the District Synods and the Conference (1899, pp. 240, 508).

3. Any Local Preacher who has been aggrieved in any matter affecting his standing as a Local Preacher by a Superintendent acting in conjunction with an ordinary Local Preachers' Meeting, shall have a right of appeal to a Local Preachers' Meeting especially convened to reconsider the case; and the finding of that Meeting as to matters of fact shall be final. The right to determine the sentence in this, as in all other judicial cases of discipline, is within the exclusive province of the Superintendent, after consultation with his Colleagues; or, if he has no Colleague, after consultation with the Chairman of the District. And against this sentence all parties shall have a right of appeal to the District Synods and the Conference.

Any action, however, which may be taken by the Local Preachers' Meeting cannot interfere with the jurisdiction of the Leaders' Meeting, which is the Court charged with the consideration of questions which affect Church Membership (1898, p. 253; 1899, pp. 240, 511).

4. The Conference resolves that a Local Preacher who shall be adjudged a bankrupt, or who shall make a composition with the general body of his creditors, shall thereby be suspended from his office as a Local Preacher, until the Local Preachers' Meeting shall have decided whether the circumstances of the case are such as to justify his continuance on the Plan (1895, p. 314).

Trustees.

The Trustees, in conjunction with the Superintendent, shall choose their own Stewards. The Stewards shall keep proper accounts in books provided for that purpose, which books shall be open for the inspection of the Superintendent, and audited in his presence once every year, or oftener, if convenient (1869, vol. xvii., p. 625).

The Circuit Quarterly Meeting.

1. The Quarterly Meeting consists of:

(1) All the Ministers and Preachers on Trial in the Circuit; and Supernumeraries whose names appear in connexion with the Circuit in the printed Minutes of the Conference.

N.B.—A Minister residing in a Circuit "without Pastoral Charge" shall not, as a Minister, be a member of the Quarterly Meeting (1888, p. 215).

(2) The Circuit Stewards, all the Society Stewards, and the Poor Stewards in the Circuit.

(3) All the Class-leaders in the Circuit.

(4) All the fully accredited Local Preachers in the Circuit, they being Members of Society in the Circuit.

(5) All the Trustees of Chapels situate in places named on the Circuit Plan, such Trustees being Members of Society in the Circuit, whether residing in the Circuit or not.

(6) The Sunday-school Representatives, chosen according to the scheme approved by the Conference in 1894.

(1852, vol. xii., p. 111; 1869, vol. xvii., p. 625; 1872, vol. xviii., p. 652; 1894, pp. 313, 314; 1895, p. 315.)

(7) The Superintendent of the Circuit is, ex officio, the Chairman of the Circuit Quarterly Meeting, as of all other official Meetings of the Circuit. When the Superintendent, from any cause, is unable to attend the Circuit Quarterly Meeting, he shall depute one of his Colleagues to act in his place, or, if he has no Colleague in Full Connexion, the Chairman of the District shall preside (1886, p. 204).

(8) The Secretary of a Circuit Quarterly Meeting must be chosen from among the Members of that Meeting.

2. All those expenses for the support of the Ministry for which the Circuit cannot provide, and therefore needs assistance from the Connexional Fund, must be sanctioned by the Quarterly Meeting, before they can be brought to the District Synod (1869, vol. xvii., p. 625).

3. No Circuit shall be divided until such division has been approved by the Quarterly Meeting (1869, vol. xvii., p. 625).

4. No case of Chapel building, purchase, or enlargement shall be sanctioned by the Chapel Committee, unless it has received the approbation of the Quarterly Meeting (1869, vol. xvii., p. 626).

5. The nomination by the Superintendent of a Candidate for the Ministry must be "approved by the March Quarterly Meeting" (1869, vol. xvii., p. 625).

6. In every Circuit, at the September Quarterly Meeting, a Circuit Treasurer for the Worn Out Ministers' and Ministers' Widows' Fund shall be appointed (1869, vol. xvii., p. 626).

Memorials from Circuit Quarterly Meetings to Conference.

1. Should a majority of the June Quarterly Meeting, in any Circuit, be of opinion that it is desirable to address to the Conference a Memorial on any Connexional subject, and agree to do so, that Meeting itself, subject to the regulations which appear in the Standing Orders of the Conference, shall have authority to adopt and transmit to the Conference such a Memorial. And at such Meeting any Member thereof may propose, for consideration, the propriety of addressing a Memorial to the Conference (1852, vol. xii., p. 111).

2. Any Member of the Quarterly Meeting intending to propose a Resolution, and bring the same before the June Quarterly Meeting as the basis of a Memorial to the Conference, shall give notice, with a copy in writing, of the particular Motion or Resolution which he intends to propose, either at the March Quarterly Meeting, or to the Superintendent Minister not less than seven days preceding the date of the June Quarterly Meeting; and no proposal of which such notice has not been given shall be brought forward that year. But should the Quarterly Meeting adopt the substance or principle of a Resolution so brought forward, it may amend as well as simply adopt or reject it (1852, vol. xii., p. 112; 1895, p. 367).

3. A Memorial, founded on such Motion or Resolution, if approved by a majority of the persons present, shall be signed by the Chairman of the Meeting; and he shall add a footnote, stating the number of persons present, and also the number voting for and against the Memorial (1891, pp. 331, 362).

4. The Conference directs that Memorials from Circuit Quarterly Meetings be forwarded by the Superintendents of Circuits to the Convener of the Committee on Memorials and Suggestions not later than ten days before the opening of the Conference (1889, p. 285).

5. The Quarterly Meeting has complete freedom to memorialise Conference. It is not competent for the Chairman of a June Quarterly Meeting to rule any Memorial out of order. The Conference reserves to itself alone the right to determine whether a Memorial contains a proposal of a revolutionary character, or subversive of the Doctrine or Discipline of Wesleyan Methodism (1852, vol. xii., p. 112; 1895, p. 368).

6. The Conference cannot sanction such Memorials as involve a direct interference on the part of one Circuit with the local affairs or proceedings of any other Circuit (1852, vol. xii., p. 112).

7. No Memorial can be received from the Quarterly Meeting of a Circuit except in manuscript (1874, vol. xix., p. 454).

APPENDIX XVII.

THE WESLEYAN METHODIST TRUST ASSURANCE COMPANY, LIMITED.

The Company was established in 1872, with the sanction and commendation of the Conference, for the insurance of Connexional property against loss by fire. No other class of business is transacted. The Company already insures nearly nine-tenths of the entire trust property of the Connexion. The whole of the profits are held in trust for the benefit of the Connexion, and grants, amounting altogether to £15,000, have been made to the Worn Out Ministers' and Ministers' Widows' Fund. The Reserve Funds of the Company exceed £70,000, being about ten times the Annual Premium Income.

The Net Premium Income for the year ending July 15, 1901, has been £7,463 18*s.* 4*d.*, and the Revenue from Interest and Dividends £2,324 0*s.* 3*d.*; total, £9,787 18*s.* 7*d.* The total outlay for Losses, Expenses, etc., amounted to £4,962 11*s.* 4*d.*; and the Grant to the Worn Out Ministers' Fund, to £1,600.

N.B.—The Ministers in Departments, and those without Pastoral charge, are not included in the above Numbers and Assessments.

AN ALPHABETICAL LIST

OF THE

WESLEYAN METHODIST MINISTERS AND PROBATIONERS

IN GREAT BRITAIN AND IRELAND, AND ON THE COLONIAL AND FOREIGN STATIONS UNDER THE BRITISH CONFERENCE.

1. The figures in the first column mark the year in which each Minister entered on his work; those which immediately follow the name of the Circuit denote the number of the Circuit on the Stations, the Mission Stations being distinguished by a number in brackets; and the numbers which stand at the right of the third column denote the year of annual appointment.

2. This list has been compiled for the purpose of convenient reference; no pains have been spared to ensure accuracy, but it is not to be considered official.

PALESTINE IN GEOGRAPHY AND IN HISTORY.

By A. W. COOKE, M.A. With Topographical Index and Seven Maps. Two Vols. Small Crown 8vo, 2s. 6d. each.

"One of the best volumes of one of the best series of theological books in existence. The historical is the only fruitful method of teaching geography, and, in the case of Palestine, it is the only correct method. Mr. Cooke has not only chosen the right method, he has the right love of his work. This little work is as wholesome as it is pleasant."—Expository Times.

THE BRITISH AND FOREIGN BIBLE SOCIETY.

Bible House—146, Queen Victoria Street, London.
President—The Marquess of Northampton.
Secretaries—Rev. A. Taylor, M.A., and Rev. J. H. Ritson, M.A.

This Society has been the direct or indirect instrument of issuing the Scriptures in over 360 languages and dialects. Translations and revisions are now in progress under its auspices in over 100 languages and dialects. It constitutes the chief Arsenal from which every Foreign Mission draws weapons and supplies for the Holy War. The Wesleyan Missionary Societies of Great Britain and her Colonies draw on it for versions of Scripture for over 40 Languages. Its own 812 Colporteurs, employed in some 30 different foreign countries, sold over 1,650,000 copies of the Scriptures last year. Moreover, it maintained 616 Native Christian Bible-women in the East.

During the year 1900–1901 the Issues of the Society amounted to 845,597 Bibles, 1,308,176 Testaments, and 2,760,586 Portions or separate books of the Bible—a total of 4,914,000 copies. Thirty per cent. of the circulation was in English and Welsh. The Society spends £10,000 a year in grants of Scriptures to Religious and Philanthropic Agencies at home. The total Issues of the Society since its birth in 1804 have been nearly 170 million copies in 373 different languages.
